This year the Calendar Office has made the transition from a manual to a computer operation in which the contents of the Undergraduate Calendar are stored in a computer bank along with codes for typesetting. As a result, up-dating from year to year will be simplified, accuracy increased, and cost of typesetting substantially reduced.

We wish to thank Francisco Tomas (Faculty of Arts and Science) for his invaluable aid in helping us establish a computer programme suitable for calendar production.

Concordia

Concordia University is located in downtown and west-end Montreal. The name of the University reflects its place within the community; it is drawn from the motto of the City of Montreal, "Concordia Salus".

The University has strong traditions in part-time education, and many of its students work full-time during the day.

Founded in 1974 with the merger of Loyola College and Sir George Williams University, the University now offers undergraduate programmes in four Faculties: Arts and Science, Commerce and Administration, Engineering and Computer Science, and Fine Arts. At the bachelor's level, the University offers the degrees of Bachelor of Administration, Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Computer Science, Bachelor of Education, Bachelor of Engineering, Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Commerce and Bachelor of Science. Undergraduate level certificates are also awarded in a growing number of areas.

At the master's level, the University awards the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Computer Science, Master of Engineering, Master of Fine Arts, Master in the Teaching of Mathematics, and Master of Business Administration.

Programmes leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy are offered in Administration, Art Education, Chemistry, Economics, Engineering, History, Humanities, Physics, Psychology, and Religion.

The University also offers graduate diploma programmes in Accountancy, Advanced Music Performance Studies, Art Education, Art Therapy, Communication Studies, Community Politics and the Law, Early Childhood Education, English, History, Institutional Administration, Instructional Technology, Library Studies, Sports Administration, The Teaching of Mathematics, and Theological, Religious, and Ethical Studies.

Enrolment in the 1980-81 academic year was:

- Full-time undergraduate 9616
- Part-time undergraduate 10831
- Full-time graduate 1129
- Part-time graduate 1539
- Other (credit non-degree) 1879

In addition to the programmes described in this calendar and in the Graduate Studies Calendar, the University offers a wide range of summer courses and programmes on both campuses. A separate publication listing summer offerings is published annually.

Libraries

The Concordia Library System comprises four libraries, containing a collection of over one million items. The Science and Engineering Library on the Sir George Williams Campus, and the Drummond Science Library on the Loyola Campus, house the University's collection of materials on the sciences and technology. The remainder of the collection, including materials in the humanities, social sciences, fine arts, and commerce, is housed in Sir George Williams' Norris Library and Loyola's Vanier Library. All students may use facilities on either campus.

The Library collection, which is growing at an average rate of 65,000 items per year, includes books, periodicals, government publications, technical reports, microforms, non-print (audio-visual) material, and special collections. Materials which are not found at Concordia may be borrowed through the Interlibrary Loan system, or used in another library in Montreal (upon presentation of a letter from a Concordia librarian). Through Interlibrary Loans, Concordia students also have access to the multi-million volume collection in the Centre for Research Libraries. Upon request the Center will send materials from its collection to Concordia. Reference librarians will assist students in locating materials they need, whether that material is at Concordia or elsewhere.

Students wishing more complete information on their libraries, are invited to pick up a copy of the annual publication, The Library Owner's Manual, which is available free of charge in all libraries.

Laboratories and Computing Services

The University has 100 laboratories on both campuses with modern equipment for teaching and research in Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Engineering, Computer Science, Statistics, Psychology, Geography, Languages, and Communication Studies.

The Computer Centre provides computing services to the University community.

Students enrolled in any discipline are entitled to the use of the Centre's facilities, which include over 100 timesharing terminals. The Centre maintains an extensive software and application library and provides programming assistance and advice.

Art Collection and Galleries

The Concordia University collection of art is housed on both campuses. Portions of the collection are displayed in public areas of the Loyola Campus and in the galleries and display areas of the Sir George Williams Campus. The collection comprises an extensive survey of modern Canadian paintings, drawings, graphic art, sculpture and minor art.

There are three main art galleries: The Weissman Gallery, Gallery One and Gallery Two, located on the mezzanine floor of the Henry F. Hall Building. There are also open-display areas on the same floor. There is a continuous programme of outside exhibitions and shows by students and faculty throughout the academic year. On occasion the galleries are also used for concerts, guest lectures and other cultural events.

A fourth gallery displaying the work of Fine Arts students is now open at the Dorchester Blvd. entrance to the Visual Arts Building.

Theatre, Music and Arts Studios

The Faculty of Fine Arts operates the Douglass Burns Clarke Theatre located in the Hall Building. It is a modern facility seating 380 people, and is used primarily for dramatic productions and musical performances. The 650-seat F.C. Smith Auditorium, located on the Loyola Campus, is used for a wide variety of activities, including cinema, theatre, and music performances. On the same campus, the Chameleon Theatre, a flexible teaching facility, serves theatre students.

Most of the specialized studios and workshops for undergraduate and graduate students are located in the Visual Arts Building.

Music students use ensemble rooms in the Refectory Building on the Loyola Campus, where a number of practice studios of various sizes are maintained. Performances are held in the Chapel, in the large ensemble rooms and, occasionally, in the D.B. Clarke Theatre.

Audio-Visual Facilities

Facilities available through the Audio-Visual Department include television studios and editing suites, closed-circuit cable networks, sound stages, language and learning laboratories, cinemas, film libraries, self-teaching study centres, conference and public-address systems, and production facilities for materials in audio, videotape, film, photographic and graphic art formats.

Portable items of equipment may be borrowed from the Department's equipment depots.

The AVISTA centres on each campus offer training and production resources for faculty, students and staff in the operation of equipment and the preparation of softwares.

Film Presentations

The University shows films in cinema halls on both campuses. At Sir George Williams, the Conservatory of Cinematographic Art, established in 1968, houses an important collection of films of historical and cultural value. Each year, it organizes a series of film festivals, which often involve appearances by important figures from the film world.

Sports Facilities

The University offers extensive programmes for participation in intramural and intercollegiate sports. Facilities include several full-length playing fields and a fully-equipped physical education centre on the Loyola Campus. The centre contains a gymnasium and an ice arena, as well as training and rehabilitation areas, an activities room, a combatives room for individual contact sports, and a weight-training room.

13.1 Admission to Concordia University

The University maintains admissions offices on both of its campuses, and candidates should apply to the campus where they propose to study. The offices will provide application forms as well as information about required documentation, procedures, etc.

In a small number of programmes the places are limited. Qualified applicants not admitted to their preferred programme will be considered for their second choice. If this involves a change of Faculty or campus, they will be so informed immediately.

Applicants wishing to change Faculty or campus should call or write the admissions office where they filed their application; they are not required to complete a second form.

13.2 Definitions

1) The University year: The University year is made up of a Regular Session and a Summer Session. The Regular Session is made up of a Fall Term (September-December) and a Winter Term (January-April). The Summer Session is made up of a Ten-week term (May-July) and a Six-week term (July-mid-August).

2) Undergraduates: Students registered in a degree or certificate programme, whether on a full-time or part-time basis. Full-time students are registered for 24 credits or more in the Regular Session (or 12 credits or more in either of the Fall or Winter terms); part-time students are registered for fewer than 24 credits in the Regular Session (or fewer than 12 credits in either of the Fall or Winter terms).

3) Certificate students: Students registered in a certificate programme, whether on a full-time or part-time basis, which may provide undergraduate standing.

4) Mature students: Undergraduates who have not met the regular academic admission requirements, but have been admitted on the basis of age, experience and potential (see Section 14). Mature students may study on a full-time or part-time basis.

5) Special students: Students taking courses for a specific purpose other than that of obtaining a degree or certificate (see Section 13.9).

6) Independent students: Students not seeking a degree or certificate, but who have been admitted to individual courses (see Section 13.10).

7) Residence requirement: The minimum number of credits which must be taken at Concordia University to obtain a degree or certificate awarded by the University (see Section 16.1.5).

13.3 Faculties and Degrees

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCE - Section 31
Bachelor of Arts (B.A.)
Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.)
Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.)

FACULTY OF COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION - Section 61
Bachelor of Administration (B.Admin.)
Bachelor of Commerce (B.Comm.)

FACULTY OF ENGINEERING - Section 71
Bachelor of Computer Science (B.Comp.Sc.)
Bachelor of Engineering (B.Eng.)

FACULTY OF FINE ARTS - Section 81
Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.)

Bachelor's degrees, other than the Bachelor of Engineering, normally require successful completion of 90 credits, or 108 credits in the case of mature students (see Section 14), or 120 credits in the case of students admitted to the Extended Credit Programme (See appropriate Faculty Section). (See Section 16.1.2 for the definition of credit.) For students registered full-time, 30 credits constitute the normal workload in the Regular (Fall/Winter) Session. The degree of Bachelor of Engineering, however, requires from 105 to 130 credits of students having a Diploma of Collegial Studies (DEC) (or the equivalent), with the appropriate prerequisites ("profil"); the number of credits varies according to the option chosen and the previous preparation of the student.

13.4 Admission Requirements

13.4.1 APPLICANTS FROM QUEBEC INSTITUTIONS

Successful completion of a two-year preuniversity programme in a CEGEP, with the award of a Diploma of Collegial Studies (DEC) (or the equivalent,) including the specific courses required by the various programmes ("profil"). These "profils" are listed in the Department of Education booklet "Accueil 81 - Structures d'accueil aux études universitaires de premier cycle pour septembre 81." For the convenience of applicants, requirements are listed in the various Faculty sections of this calendar. Applicants who have completed a professional programme in a CEGEP are also admissible to the University.

Students admitted to a particular programme at the University and who subsequently wish to change to another programme may have to complete specific prerequisites in addition to their regular programme requirements.

13.4.2 APPLICANTS FROM OTHER CANADIAN PROVINCES

Ontario Grade 13 graduates with a minimum overall average of 65% in appropriate subjects may be admitted to a 90-credit programme, but applicants for admission to the Bachelor of Engineering degree, or the Bachelor of Computer Science degree (Digital Systems, General Science or Mathematics options) will in general require four years of full-time study to obtain their degree. Applicants from other Canadian provinces who have completed Grade 12 with an overall average of at least 65% in appropriate subjects, or the Junior Division at Memorial University, Newfoundland, will be considered for admission to an extended programme, normally requiring 30 additional credits.

Content of additional credits will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

While the University is flexible regarding entrance papers, and no set pattern of high school courses is required, the courses presented should be appropriate for the Faculty to which application has been made.

13.4.3 TRANSFERS FROM OTHER UNIVERSITIES

Applicants transferring from other accredited universities will be considered for an appropriate level of placement within the undergraduate programme at this University. For example, one year of undergraduate study following Grade 12 will normally qualify an applicant for entrance to the first year of a 90-credit degree programme. One year of study completed in an Ontario university following Grade 13 will, in general, qualify an applicant for admission to the second year of a 90-credit programme. (For Engineering see Section 13.3). There are some special conditions attached to the granting of transfer credits.

The number of credits awarded depends on the character, quality and quantity of the work completed. An applicant who has attended another university and wishes to transfer to an undergraduate programme at Concordia should understand the following conditions:

1) A student will not be given credit for courses taken in another university during the same academic term in which he has registered for courses at Concordia University, unless special permission has been obtained in advance from this University. The Admissions Office should be contacted for information on the correct procedure.

2) Any student currently registered at this University wishing to take a course at another university during a different academic term--for example, the Summer--must get prior approval. The Admissions Office should be contacted for information on the correct procedure.

3) A student may not apply transfer credits towards the residence requirements at the University unless special permission has been obtained from the appropriate Faculty Council.

4) Out of the total number of credits required for a bachelor's degree, a minimum of 45 credits must be taken at Concordia University for all bachelor's degrees except that of the Bachelor of Engineering, where the minimum is 60 credits. Unless otherwise authorized by the Faculty to which the student has been admitted, these will be the last 45 credits (or the last 60 in the case of the Bachelor of Engineering).

5) The proportion of degree credits which must be taken at Concordia University in honours, specializations, majors, minors or other elements of concentration will be determined by individual Faculties but should be not less than 50%.

6) The Admissions Offices, in consultation with the four Faculties, are responsible for the processing of pro-tanto credits.

13.4.4 TRANSFERS FROM OTHER POST-SECONDARY INSTITUTIONS

Credits obtained in junior colleges, community colleges, or Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology outside Quebec will, in general, be given the same recognition towards undergraduate programmes as they would receive in their respective province.

13.4.5 APPLICANTS FROM OUTSIDE CANADA

Applicants from institutions outside Canada are referred to Section 13.11.

13.5 Application For Admission

It is recommended that application for admission be made as early as possible on forms provided by the Admissions Office. Academic certificates and other supporting documents not available at the time of application must be submitted as soon as they become available. Applicants are advised to apply early in order to allow sufficient time for evaluation and review of their applications by the Admissions Office. Final dates for the receipt of applications may be obtained by contacting the Admissions Office.

13.5.1 APPLICATION FEE

There is an application fee of $15.00 (Canadian) for those who are not Canadian citizens or permanent residents (including landed immigrants). This fee will be applied towards the tuition fees upon registration.

13.5.2 ENTRY DATES

Full-time and part-time studies may be begun in September, January, or in the Summer Session. In some cases, entry in January may require the completion of courses in the subsequent Summer Session.

13.5.3 JANUARY ADMISSION

New students are admitted in January where places are available. Admission in January has been introduced primarily to accommodate December graduates of Quebec CEGEPs, but is not restricted to this group.

The normal course load in the Winter term (January to April) is 15 credits. Up to a maximum of 12 credits may be taken in the Summer Session. In some cases (e.g. Engineering), January entrants are required to take summer courses.

13.5.4 ADMISSION DEPOSIT

Applicants who have been granted admission to full-time studies are required to submit a cheque or money order for $25.00 (Canadian) to confirm their intention to enter the University. This admission deposit is non-refundable, but will be applied towards tuition fees at the University.

Applicants who receive an early conditional acceptance, but who are subsequently refused admission because they have not completed the minimum academic requirements for entrance, will have their admission deposit refunded.

13.6 Criteria for Admission

13.6.1 TRANSCRIPTS

Two official copies of each transcript, in English or in French, must be sent directly to the appropriate Admissions Office by the institution which the applicant previously attended or at which the applicant is currently registered. In the latter case, the results of previous terms or semesters, together with a list of the courses in which the applicant is currently registered, must be submitted immediately. An official transcript including the results of the final term or semester must be forwarded as soon as possible.

Although an applicant's records from several universities may be summarized on one transcript, an application will not be considered until two official transcripts from each institution attended have been received. These are required even though no credit may have been earned.

13.6.2 CEGEP TRANSCRIPTS

1) Applicants for Summer and Fall Terms

a) Mid-Year Transcripts

In the case of applicants currently enrolled in a CEGEP (Collège d'Enseignement Général et Professionnel) who are applying for the Summer or Fall Term, the University will obtain their most recent CEGEP record of study (the results of the previous terms or semesters, together with a list of courses being followed during the final term or semester) from the Computer Centre of the Ministry of Education. The CEGEP records will be acquired on one of several scheduled dates between mid-February and early April. Applicants should therefore complete the application forms as early as possible in order to avoid delay in the transfer of the CEGEP record. The "code permanent", which is the educational code number for Quebec students, must be correctly entered on the application form as this identification number is used to obtain the CEGEP transcript. A copy of the computerized CEGEP record will be issued by the University to the applicant for verification.

All applicants should submit, at the time of application, or as soon thereafter as possible, a student copy of their CEGEP transcript. This transcript should show their record to date, including grades for all courses followed during the Fall Term. In addition, there should be an accompanying list of 'in progress' courses. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that the student copy is both accurate and complete.

b) Final Transcripts

Final transcripts are required by the Admissions Office as soon as they become available.

Former CEGEP students who are not attending CEGEP because they have graduated, or have discontinued their CEGEP studies, must arrange for their former CEGEP to send the transcript of their grades directly to the University.

2) Applicants for the Winter Term (January Admission)

Applicants for the Winter Term (January Admission) must arrange for their CEGEP to send the transcript of their grades directly to the University. The applicant is personally responsible for ensuring that the transcript is requested from and submitted by the CEGEP.

13.6.3 ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

The language of instruction at Concordia University is English, although examinations and assignments may be written in French, the language of the majority in Quebec.

Applicants whose first language is neither English nor French must demonstrate their proficiency in English. Although the educational systems of many countries conduct their schooling mainly in English, the University reserves the right to require any applicant to demonstrate proficiency in the English language as a criterion for admission to the University.

For those applicants who are required to demonstrate their language proficiency, there are several methods of doing so:

1) Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

This test is administered at centres in most countries of the world. It is the responsibility of the applicant to write directly to the address listed below for the necessary application forms and information.

Test of English as a Foreign Language
Educational Testing Service
Box 899
Princeton, New Jersey 08540
U.S.A.

2) The University of Michigan English Language Test

This test is administered on an individual basis to applicants in most countries of the world. It is the responsibility of the applicant to write directly to the address listed below for necessary application forms and information.

English Language Institute
Testing and Certification
The University of Michigan
2011B North University Bldg.
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109
U.S.A.

Reporting of TOEFL and University of Michigan Test Results

a) The results must be reported directly to the Admissions Office by the TOEFL or University of Michigan Test Centre. Candidate copies of results or results that are more than two years old will not be accepted as proof of language proficiency.

b) To ensure that the TOEFL results are forwarded directly to the appropriate campus of Concordia University, the 'Institution Code' must be indicated at the time of writing the test: Loyola Campus - 0932; Sir George Williams Campus - 0956.

c) Inasmuch as an application will not be considered until the test results have been received, applicants should contact the TOEFL or University of Michigan Test Centres as soon as possible in order that the date of receipt of test results not delay or prevent consideration of their application.

The aforementioned tests are designed for applicants residing outside the Montreal area.

3) Concordia English Language Diagnostic Test

(available only to applicants applying from within the Montreal area)

a) Persons applying from within the Montreal area who are required to write an English language test will automatically be scheduled to sit for the Concordia English Language Diagnostic Test upon making application to the University.

b) An application will not be considered complete until these test results have been received.

c) Canadian applicants whose first language is French are not required to write this test, but may do so for placement.

d) There is a testing fee of $15.00 required of all who write the Concordia English Language Diagnostic Test. This testing fee is compulsory due to the high cost of administering an English language diagnostic test. Further information concerning the payment of this fee will be provided when applicants are scheduled to write the test.

4) General Certificate of Education

An Ordinary Level pass in English Language will satisfy language proficiency requirements.

5) Successful completion of one year of full-time study at a university or two years at a secondary or post-secondary institution where the instruction has been in English may satisfy language proficiency requirements. In the case of secondary institutions, these will normally be the last two years.

13.7 Selection Process and Notification

Admission to undergraduate studies is based on a careful review of all credentials presented on behalf of a candidate. An application for admission is not given final consideration until all the required items have been submitted. However, the University does have an early conditional admission plan (see below). The University reserves the right to refuse admission to or registration in a particular programme even when the stated requirements for entrance have been satisfied.

13.7.1 EARLY CONDITIONAL ADMISSION

Applicants seeking admission to undergraduate programmes may be granted conditional acceptance on the basis of former records of study. Such records should include mid-year results for the current year. Final admission is contingent upon successful completion of the final term or semester of study and satisfaction of the prescribed academic admission requirements. Candidates granted early conditional admission are in general notified before May 15.

13.7.2 LIMITED ENROLMENT

In some programmes the number of qualified applicants may exceed the number of places available. Possession of the stated requirements does not in itself guarantee admission to a particular programme.

13.8 Admission as a Mature Student

Information on the admission of Mature Students will be found in Section 14.

13.9 Registration as a Special Student

Persons in the categories listed below may become Special Students. As such, they are charged the same tuition fees as degree students and have the same priority at registration. Such persons should contact the Registrar's Services Department.

1) Students currently registered in certain certificate programmes sponsored by external associations and taking courses in the Faculty of Commerce and Administration. Documentation: proof of membership in the association.

2) Undergraduate students from other universities who have written approval from their home university to take courses at Concordia University. Documentation: a letter from the Registrar of the home university.

3) Students qualifying for entry to another institution (e.g. preparation for graduate studies at another university). Documentation: a letter from the Registrar of the institution, or a letter from the appropriate Admissions Office of Concordia University.

4) Students pursuing further studies who have completed at least a bachelor's degree, whether at Concordia University or at another institution. Documentation: a transcript of grades or a copy of the diploma. The transcript must be shown at registration as proof of completion of prerequisite courses.

5) Persons whose applications are at present with the Admissions Office and who have been advised to register temporarily as Special Students. Documentation: a letter from the appropriate Admissions Office.

13.10 Registration as an Independent Student

Persons wishing to take individual courses without committing themselves to a degree or certificate programme may register as Independent students. They should obtain an appointment card for registration from the Registrar's Services Department. They should bring with them proof of having met university entrance requirements. There are two categories of Independent students:

1) those who satisfy the university admission requirements regardless of their age.

2) those who do not meet the stated admission requirements but who have reached the age of 21 by August 1, December 1 or April 1 of a given year for entry to the University in September, January or May respectively of that year and who can satisfy the registering officer that they have, through other experiences, acquired the necessary background for the course(s) for which they wish to register.

Priority at registration is given to students registered in degree or certificate programmes.

Independent students wishing subsequently to enter a degree or certificate programme must apply to the Admissions Office. Credits acquired by Independent students may subsequently be applied towards a degree or certificate if appropriate. In the case of the Faculty of Arts and Science, an Independent student may apply a maximum of 30 credits towards a degree.

Independent students may not register on a full-time basis. Please refer to Section 16 for those regulations which apply to Independent students.

13.11 Information of Special Interest to International Students

13.11.1 APPLICATION FEE

International applicants must include a $15.00 (Canadian) application fee. This amount will be applied towards their tuition fees upon registration for courses at the University.

13.11.2 STUDENT AUTHORIZATION

The Canadian Immigration regulations require that an International Student obtain a student authorization (previously: student visa) before arriving at the Canadian port of entry. Such an authorization will not be issued at the port of entry or to foreign visitors who are already in the country. The authorization will be specific with regard to both institution and programme.

In addition, all students in possession of a letter of admission issued by any Quebec educational institution on or after June 5, 1978, are required to present to the Canadian Immigration an additional document issued by the Quebec Department of Immigration (MIQ) and entitled "Certificat d'acceptation". A Quebec-bound student will not be issued a Student Authorization unless he or she is in possession of the Certificate or other document indicating approval from the Quebec Department of Immigration. The student copy of the Certificate should be retained by the student.

Application forms and instructions for obtaining the "Certificat d'acceptation" are issued with the letter of admission.

13.11.3 UNITED KINGDOM AND COMMONWEALTH

In order to be considered for admission into a 90-credit undergraduate programme, applicants must present five General Certificate of Education papers including at least two at the Advanced Level. The following indicates by degree, which Advanced Level papers are required.

BAdmin, BComm, BEng, BSc
-- Mathematics and one other acceptable Advanced Level paper

BA, BEd, BFA
-- Any two acceptable Advanced Level papers

BCompSc
Digital Systems
-- Mathematics and Physics

General Business
-- Mathematics and any other acceptable Advanced Level paper

General Science
-- Mathematics and Physics

Mathematics
-- Mathematics and Physics

Ordinary and Higher National Certificates and Diplomas, with passes at an appropriate level, will be accepted in lieu of Advanced Level papers.

Applicants from Hong Kong who have received the Hong Kong Certificate of Education (English) with good grades in five subjects, and have completed one year of Form VI or hold the Hong Kong Certificate of Education (Chinese) with good grades in five subjects, and have passed the Chinese University of Hong Kong Matriculation Examination, may apply for admission to an extended undergraduate programme.

Content of additional credits will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

Applicants to an extended undergraduate programme in Engineering or Science are normally expected to have Mathematics and at least one Science subject; those applying to Commerce and Administration are advised to have Mathematics as part of their entrance qualifications.

Students with better than average results in five acceptable Ordinary Level papers (or the West African School Certificate, where applicable) plus one full year of formal schooling beyond Ordinary Level may be considered for admission to an extended undergraduate programme.

Content of additional credits will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

13.11.4 UNITED STATES

High School graduates with high standards from accredited schools who have followed an academic programme designed for university entrance may apply for admission to an extended undergraduate programme of approximately 120 credits. Content of additional credits will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

Applicants are required to have a better than average school record and a high ranking in their graduating class. While no set pattern of courses in high school is required, all applicants are expected to have taken four units of English. Those applying for admission to Science and Engineering must include three or four units in Mathematics and two in the Sciences. At least three units of Mathematics are recommended for admission to Commerce and Administration. The Admissions Office may approve slight deviations from the above pattern.

Students who have successfully passed Advanced Placement examinations in appropriate subjects with a grade of '3' or better may be granted some advanced standing.

13.11.5 TRANSFERS FROM POST-SECONDARY INSTITUTIONS

Transfers from post-secondary institutions are referred to Section 13.4.3.

13.11.6 OTHER COUNTRIES

The following national certificates are recognized as suitable qualifications for making application to the University provided that better than average grades have been attained. In most cases, a specific minimum overall standard on the certificate is required. More specific information with respect to admission requirements and placement levels may be obtained by writing to the Admissions Office.

Country	Certificate
Arab Republic of Egypt	General Secondary School Certificate
Argentina	Bachillerato Universitario
Australia	High School Certificate or University Matriculation Certification
Bahrain	Secondary School Certificate (Tawjihi)
Belgium	Certificat d'Humanités
Czechoslovakia	Vysvedceni o Maturitni Zkousce
France	Baccalauréat (2ième partie)
Germany	Zeugnis der Reife
Greece	Apolyterion
India	Intermediate Certificate or First Year of Three-year B.A., B.Sc., B.Com. (with Class I or Class II or First or Second Division standing)
Iran	Sixth Year Secondary Education Certificate
Israel	Matriculation Certificate
Italy	Diploma di Maturita Classica Diploma di Maturita Scientifica
Kuwait	Secondary School Certificate
Lebanon	Lebanese Baccalauréat (2ième partie)
The Netherlands	Getuigschrift (Gymnasium or Lyceum)
Norway	Examen Artium
Pakistan	Intermediate or Higher Secondary School Certificate (with First or Second Division standing)
Poland	Swiadlectwo Dojrzalosci
Qatar	General Secondary Education Certificate
Vietnam	Vietnamese Baccalauréat (2ième partie)
Yugoslavia	Chegoranctbo or Svedocanstvo

Students accepted in an extended undergraduate programme must normally complete an additional 30 credits.

Content of additional credits will be found in the appropriate Faculty section of this calendar.

13.11.7 ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

The language of instruction at Concordia University is English. For information regarding this requirement refer to Section 13.6.3.

13.11.8 TUITION FEES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International students registering at Concordia University for the first time in September 1978 or later will be required to pay $50.00 (Canadian) per credit. The fees payable to the University for the regular session of two terms running from September to April are approximately $1,900 for a full-time student. This amount includes the tuition fees for 30 credits, student service fees, health insurance, and student association fees. The total amount will vary up or down by an amount of about $53 per credit depending on the course load of the individual student. Further information regarding fees will be found in Section 15 of this calendar.

13.11.9 CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

Admission to Concordia University is selective and will be considered when all relevant academic certificates have been received, as well as the Summary of Educational Experience by Years form.

All certificates must show the actual grade obtained in each examination. Refer to Section 13.6 for further information.

13.11.10 REGISTRATION

Registration for the September and January terms normally takes place in late August and mid-December respectively. Late registration is permitted during the course-change period which normally is held during the first two weeks of classes. Students are encouraged, whenever possible, to enrol on the dates indicated in their letter of acceptance. Complete information is sent with the letter of acceptance.

13.11.11 STUDENT HEALTH AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE

International Students are not eligible to receive any medical benefits from the Quebec Medicare Programme. To offset possible medical expenditures, it is necessary to have some form of sickness and accident insurance, and for this reason, a compulsory plan for all entering out-of-country students has been adopted by the University.

13.11.12 FINANCES

Government financial assistance is not available to students attending college or university while on a student authorization (visa). Such students are not allowed to be employed on a full-time or part-time basis, and they must present evidence of sufficient funds for tuition and maintenance before being admitted into Canada. The university does not have funds to finance International Students.

13.12 Application Requirements

Candidates should apply for admission as early as possible, and make sure that supporting documents are sent in as soon as they are available. Arrangements should be made with the institution concerned to send directly any CEGEP or university transcripts. Where it is required, applicants will provide a copy of their High School Leaving Certificate with a certified list of the final marks in each subject. (A clear photocopy is acceptable). Applicants who submit a certificate in a language other than English or French should attach a notarized translation into either English or French. If the certificate does not detail the subjects taken and the grades achieved, a certified statement of these from an authorized official of the institution should also be appended.

- 14.4.2 Faculty of Commerce and Administration
- 14.4.3 Faculty of Engineering
- 14.4.4 Faculty of Fine Arts

14 Mature Entry

14.1 General Information

Concordia has for many years made it possible for men and women of 21 years of age or over, who have interrupted their studies, to undertake work towards university degrees and certificates, although they lack the normally required pre-university schooling.

Mature students are expected to demonstrate the potential to follow undergraduate courses, and are required to complete successfully a minimum of 18 additional credits over and above those required of students who enter with the regular qualifications. Mature students are, however, considered and treated in every way as undergraduates.

To advise and assist both prospective and enrolled students in dealing with academic requirements and other problems, the Faculty of Arts and Science maintains a Mature Student Centre with offices and facilities on both campuses (see Section 31.510). Other faculties have their own mechanisms for advising students.

14.2 Admission as a Mature Student

The admission of applicants for mature entry is subject to the following conditions:

1) The applicant must have reached the age of 21 by August 1, December 1 or April 1 of a given year, to enter the University in the following September, January or May respectively;

2) Although not meeting the normal academic requirements for admission (Diplôme d'études collégiales or the equivalent), the applicant must satisfy the University that he or she has the potential to undertake undergraduate courses;

3) The applicant must have been out of school - that is not engaged in full-time study - for at least 24 months since attaining the age of 18. Applicants who have been out of school for only 12 months are also admissible provided that they have no unfavourable academic record in the previous 24 months.

Applicants must submit a birth certificate or other acceptable proof of age, together with schooling records and any material which may indicate ability to pursue university studies. (Section 13.12 provides general information on how to apply for admission.)

14.3 Programme Requirements

Mature entrants must successfully complete at least 18 credits of additional work. In some cases these credits are made up of very specific courses - for example, basic courses in chemistry and physics for those contemplating studies in the pure and applied sciences or basic studio activities for those planning to take programmes in the Visual Arts; in others they are more general. These additional credits are designed with a view to making it possible for mature entrants to make the best use of the studies which they subsequently undertake.

The additional credits may not be counted towards the student's eventual programme of concentration (honours, major, etc.).

Requirements are set by each individual Faculty, in terms of the programme to be undertaken.

14.3.1 ARTS

For entry to degree and certificate programmes in Arts (including the General Certificate in Arts and Science):

6 credits in English (language or literature)
12 elective credits

Students must consult with the Director of the Centre for Mature Students before registering.

14.3.2 SCIENCE

For entry to degree programmes in Science:

Total B.Sc. credits to be 108 (i.e. 90 plus the additional 18 credits), these to include:

6 credits in Chemistry: C205[3], C206[3]
9 credits in Mathematics: C202[3], C203[3] and C205[3*]

8 credits in Physics: C204[3], C205[3], C224[1], and C225[1]
3-4 credits from: Physics C206[3] and C226[1]; or Biology C201[3]; or Geology C201[3] or C210[3]

* Students not having Math C201[3], or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.

 Students intending to enter programmes of concentration in the departments of Biology, Exercise Science or Psychology should take Biology C201[3].

Students must consult with the Director of the Centre for Mature Students before registering, particularly with regard to the sequencing of the 26 or 27 credits, and to the choice of the 18 additional credits required in the case of a certificate.

14.3.3 COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION

For entry to degree programmes in Commerce and Administration:

9 credits in Mathematics: C208[3], C209[3], C211[3]
6 credits in English: C211[6] or an appropriate alternative
3 elective credits

Requirements for certificate programmes are listed with the programme descriptions in the Faculty section of the Calendar (§61).

14.3.4 ENGINEERING

Mature entrants to the Bachelor of Engineering degree are required to complete a minimum of 138.5 to 144 credits, depending on the programme chosen, including:

Mathematics C202[3], C203[3], C204[3] and C205[3]

Requirements for mature entrants to the Certificate in Quality Control:

18 credits in Mathematics: C200[3], C201[3], C202[3], C203[3], C204[3] and C205[3]

14.3.5 COMPUTER SCIENCE

Mature entrants to the Bachelor of Computer Science must complete a minimum of 108 credits, including the following:

a) Digital Systems, General Science and Mathematics Options:

Chemistry C205[3]
Physics C204[3], C205[3], C224[1] and C225[1]
Mathematics C202[3], C203[3], C204[3], C205[3]
Computer Science C211[3]

b) General Business Option:

Mathematics C202[3], C203[3], C204[3], C205[3]
Computer Science C211[3]

In all options, some students may require one or more of Mathematics C200[3], C201[3] or English as a Second Language 100[6].

Depending on the Option chosen, up to 9 of the credits listed above may be applied towards the elective component of the degree programme.

14.3.6 FINE ARTS

For mature entry to degree and certificate programmes in Fine Arts:

6 credits in English or French
12 elective credits appropriate for entry into the student's ultimate area of concentration and chosen with the approval of the faculty adviser. Recommended courses are listed in Section 14.4.4.

14.4 Courses

The courses listed below are offered by the respective Faculties. Inclusion of a course in these lists does not guarantee that it will be given every year.

14.4.1 FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCE

All undergraduate courses to which admission is not governed by prerequisite requirements are open to Mature Entrants. Listed below, however, are courses either especially developed for such students or likely to prove of particular value to them. Mature students are therefore urged to give the courses in this list their most serious consideration. Full course descriptions will be found in the calendar sections indicated.

Humanities
HUMANITIES 110[6]
General Course in Humanities

It is the purpose of this course to enlarge and enrich the student's comprehension of his cultural heritage by the study of man as a unique creative being. The sources for this study of man are drawn primarily from the fields of history, philosophy, religion, literature and the arts with a view toward examining those experiences and ideas of enduring power which have shaped the nature of modern man from the age of Greece to the present century. (6 credits, which may not be applied to the degree programme of students admitted to the University on the basis of the D.E.C. or formal academic equivalent).

16 Academic Regulations

16.1 General Information

It is the responsibility of the student to know the academic regulations.

16.1.1 ACADEMIC YEAR

The Academic Year is defined as courses taken during the Summer Session and Regular Session.

Summer Session

The Summer Session consists of a ten-week session operated in the evening and a six-week session operated in the day. The Summer Session is part of the following Regular Session for record purposes.

Regular Session

The day and evening Regular Session of the University is divided into Fall and Winter Terms of fifteen weeks each, including an examination period. Dates marking the opening and closing of these terms are to be found in the Academic Calendar Section 11.

16.1.2 DEFINITION OF CREDIT

In accordance with the recommendations of the Quebec Council of Universities, effective 1974-75, the credit base takes into account the total activity of the student, in terms of lectures, conferences, laboratories, studio or practice periods, examinations, and personal work. One credit represents, for the average student, a minimum of 45 hours spread across the various activities listed above.

16.1.3 STATUS

Full-time students are those registered for 24 credits or more in the Regular Session, or 12 credits or more in either the Fall Term or the Winter Term.

Part-time students are those registered for fewer than 24 credits in the Regular Session, or fewer than 12 credits in either the Fall Term or the Winter Term.

Special students - please see §13.9.

An Independent student is one not proceeding to a degree, diploma or certificate. Independent students may not register for more than 18 credits in the Regular Session.

16.1.4 COURSE LOAD

Regular Session--Full-Time Status

The course load varies according to the faculty in which the student is enrolled.

1. FACULTY OF FINE ARTS: The normal course load for the Faculty is 30 credits. To carry additional credits, the student must submit his/her request to the Student Request Committee of the Faculty.

2. FACULTY OF ARTS AND SCIENCE: Students in the Faculty of Arts and Science may register for a maximum of 30 credits in any Regular Session.

3. DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE: Students enrolled in the Bachelor of Computer Science will normally register for a maximum of 30 credits in any Regular Session.

4. FACULTY OF COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION: A student may register for a maximum of 30 credits in any Regular Session.

5. FACULTY OF ENGINEERING: See under Engineering Faculty §71.

Regular Session Part-Time Students

Students may register for a maximum of three 6-credit courses, or the equivalent, equally divided between the Fall and Winter Terms.

Summer Session

Students may not take more than a total of 12 credits of work during the Summer Session. The Summer Session includes all courses scheduled from the month of May to the month of August inclusive.

16.1.5 RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

1. Out of the total number of credits required for a bachelor's degree, a minimum of 45 credits must be taken at Concordia University for all bachelor's degrees except that of the Bachelor of Engineering, where the minimum is 60 credits. Unless otherwise authorized by the Faculty to which the student has been admitted, these will be the last 45 credits (or the last 60 in the case of the Bachelor of Engineering).

The proportion of degree credits which must be taken at Concordia University in honours, specializations, majors, minors or other elements of concentration will be determined by individual Faculties but should be not less than 50%.

2. Any student who already possesses one degree must satisfy the following regulations in order to earn a second degree at the Bachelor's level at Concordia University:

a) Register in an established programme with a higher degree of concentration than a Minor.

b) Complete sixty credits in courses other than those credited towards the first degree, at least thirty-six of which must be taken in the new field of specialization.

3. Any student seeking to transfer to Concordia University after having failed at another university, or after having compiled an unsatisfactory record at another university, must fulfill the residence requirements stipulated for him upon admission. In general, a minimum of sixty credits will be required for any degree.

16.1.6 REGISTRATION FOR COURSES

A central computerized registration is held in August for both the Fall and Winter terms, and in May for all summer terms. At that time, students select their courses for the upcoming session, receive a contract and course cards, make tuition payment, and receive an I.D: card.

All information necessary for registration will be found in the applicable class schedule.

A preregistration system is also available to full-time students for the Regular Session.

Refer to §13.1 regarding eligibility.

For further information, please contact the Registrar's Services Department on either campus.

16.1.7 CROSS-REGISTRATION

Concordia University, McGill University, Université de Montréal and Université du Québec à Montréal have agreed to permit transfer of academic credit and course fees between Montreal universities up to a maximum of 6 credits in any one year. (Similar arrangements may be made with other Quebec universities.) In exceptional cases, a student may be authorized to take up to 12 credits at another university. Part-time students may be authorized to register for credits on the condition that the number of credits for which they register does not exceed 30% of the number of credits taken at the home university in any academic year. The agreement is intended to include only those courses not given at the home university which fit a student's programme requirements. Authorization for an undergraduate student to cross-register must be given by the student's academic adviser, the Assistant Dean for Student Affairs, and the Registrar. The arrangement allows for payment to be made by Concordia to the "host" university if the student has paid tuition fees in full to Concordia University.

This agreement in no way interferes with the host university's right to accept or refuse, as it sees fit, registration of a student from another university in any of the courses or programmes that it offers. Further, when attending the host university, the student is subject to its regulations.

Credits earned within this policy are counted towards the University residence requirements.

16.1.8 GRADUATION

Degree candidates who expect to complete the requirements for a degree in a particular year must contact the Registrar's Office to make application for that degree. Forms provided by the Registrar's Information Office must be submitted before January 15, 1981, for Spring convocation and July 15, 1981, for Fall convocation.

16.1.9 HIGH ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT

Distinction: A degree With Distinction or With Great Distinction may be achieved by obtaining the following levels:

With Distinction 'A-' or 'A' or 80-90%
With Great Distinction 'A+' or 90-100%

The average for students in the Faculty of Arts & Science, the Faculty of Commerce & Administration, and the Faculty of Fine Arts will be calculated over the last ninety credits. Students in the Faculty of Engineering (including Computer Science) will be calculated over the entire programme. Additional credits in extended programmes are not included in any calculation. In the case of transfer students, all courses taken at Concordia will be included. However, a transfer student must have taken a minimum of sixty credits at Concordia in order to be eligible for distinguished mention.

16.1.10 TRANSCRIPTS

A student may obtain an unofficial copy of his record from the Registrar's Services Department during normal operating hours. Official Transcripts, however, are not issued to students but are sent directly to another institution or potential employer at the student's written request, provided there is no outstanding account owing to the University.

16.1.11 STUDENT REQUEST COMMITTEE OF FACULTY COUNCILS

Each of the Faculties has a Student Request Committee which is authorized to consider applications from students on matters relating to academic regulations.

Any student, full-time or part-time (except independent students) seeking adjustment of an academic regulation should apply on the appropriate form available at the following Faculty offices:

Arts & Science
Asst. Dean of Arts & Science

Fine Arts
Asst. Dean of Fine Arts

Commerce & Administration
Asst. Dean of Commerce

Engineering & Computer Science
Asst. Dean of Engineering

Independent students must submit all requests relating to University regulations to the Registrar and not to a dean or faculty council.

16.2 Programmes and Regulations

16.2.1 CURRICULUM OBLIGATIONS

Where a student acquires credit toward a degree, diploma or certificate in a discontinuous manner and over a protracted period of time subsequent to his admission, the University reserves the right, at any time, to require such a student to take further credits in order to obtain that degree, diploma or certificate.

16.2.2 CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

The regulations relating to the degree requirements are located in the Faculty sections:

Faculty of Arts and Science: §31
Faculty of Commerce and Administration: §61
Faculty of Engineering: §71

16.2.3 CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENT

Since the CEGEP programme is designed to give all students the opportunity to explore different fields and thus acquire a broad general basis for future study, the undergraduate programme requires some degree of concentration, according to the interests and capability of the student. There are several forms of concentration, ranging through Honours, which require success in a programme of high concentration accompanied by a prescribed level of performance; the Specialization and the Major requiring varying degrees of concentration without a prescribed performance requirement; and the Double Minor, involving a lesser degree of concentration in two disciplines or fields, and without a prescribed performance requirement.

In order to graduate a student must have completed one of the following types of programme concentrations: Honours, Specialization, or Major. Any one of these may be combined with a Minor. In the Faculty of Fine Arts the degree of BFA may be awarded for a Double Minor.

Prior to registration, students will be required to select one of the types of programme of concentration outlined above. In the case of Honours, students will register upon entry in an Honours programme , but their acceptance as Honours students will depend on their performance during their first year. Students failing to meet requirements for Honours standing will proceed in either a Specialization or a Major programme.

16.2.4 HONOURS PROGRAMMES (NEW CONCORDIA REGULATIONS)

These regulations represent a minimum academic standard for Honours programmes. All programmes and additional Faculty regulations, including those with higher standards, are listed in the Faculty sections under "Honours Programmes".

The University has approved programmes leading to an Honours degree in certain selected fields. The Honours programme consists of 60 or more credits in a discipline or field, with superior performance being required to enter and remain in the programme. In order to qualify for an Honours degree a student must comply with the regulations set forth below:

1. An Honours student must meet the general degree requirements as well as the specific requirements for an Honours degree.

2. An Honours student must maintain an average of 'B', or 75%, in all Honours courses; the minimum acceptable grade in any single Honours course is 'C', or 65%.

3. An Honours student must have a minimum average of 'B-', or 71%, over Honours courses taken in each academic year. For part-time students this will be calculated in eighteen-credit blocks.

4. In the non-Honours courses of the degree programme, an Honours student must have an average of no less than 'C', or 65%.

5. Students who are required to withdraw from the Honours programme will proceed in the Major or Specialization programme. Reinstatement in the Honours programme is possible only by appeal to The Faculty Honours Committee.

These new regulations apply to those students entering Honours Programmes on or after June 1, 1977. Students who started in an Honours programme prior to that date may continue under the old regulations published in the 1978/79 Undergraduate Calendar.

16.2.5 SPECIALIZATION PROGRAMMES

The Specialization, in keeping with the structures recommended by the Quebec Council of Universities, is an approved sequence of courses including 60 or more credits without a prescribed performance requirement.

16.2.6 MAJOR PROGRAMMES

The Major, again in keeping with the structures recommended by the Quebec Council of Universities, is an approved sequence of courses including 36 or more credits. As in the case of the Specialization, the Major may include certain approved courses in other closely related fields.

16.2.7 MINOR PROGRAMMES

A programme, again in keeping with the structures recommended by the Quebec Council of Universities, is an approved sequence of 24 or more credits.

16.2.8 DOUBLE MINOR PROGRAMMES

In the Faculty of Fine Arts Double Minor programmes are made up of two approved sequences of 24 or more credits in two specific disciplines or fields.

16.2.9 COMBINATIONS

An Honours, Specialization, or a Major programme may be combined with a Minor programme.

16.2.10 CERTIFICATE PROGRAMMES

An Undergraduate Certificate programme is a coherent programme of 30 credits made up of regular undergraduate courses that are, in turn, normally applicable to the appropriate bachelor's degree.

16.3 Evaluation, Grading, Examinations and Advancement

16.3.1 EVALUATION

A university degree certifies that its holder has attained a measurable level of achievement, as established by a recognized system of evaluation. It is consequently required that the performance of each student in each course be evaluated by the instructor (or instructors) responsible for the course.

The final grade that assesses the performance of each student in each course will take into account the total measurable performance of the student in that course. Specifically, the grade will be given on the basis of one or more of the following:

i) Assigned work, term papers, projects, etc.

ii) Class participation which, in the case of certain disciplines, may justify an attendance requirement.

iii) Progress tests.

iv) Laboratory tests and/or laboratory work.

v) Mid-term and/or final examinations.

vi) A level of written expression may be given consideration in determining the final grade.

The weighting of the various evaluative elements is the responsibility of the instructor. At the beginning of the course the instructor will inform the class of the evaluation scheme to be used.

While the language of instruction in Concordia University is normally English, students have the right to write their assignments and examinations in French. It must be understood, however, that in a case where the instructor cannot read French, the assignments or examinations will have to be read by another person, with possible resulting disadvantages and delays for the student. Students are advised to enquire of the instructor at the beginning of their course whether he or she will personally read assignments and/or examinations written in French. Notwithstanding the above, language and literature departments may require assignments and examinations to be written in the language being studied.

Grades are submitted in the letter grade form and are converted to a numerical mark shown in the table below. Both grades will appear on record and transcript.

The numerical grade will be used for evaluation of academic achievement levels and prizes.

16.3.2 GRADING SYSTEM

Grade Submitted	Range	Converted To
A+	90-100	95
A	85-89	87
A-	80-84	82
B+	77-79	78
B	73-76	75
B-	70-72	71
C+	67-69	68
C	63-66	65
C-	60-62	61
D+	57-59	58
D	53-56	55
D-	50-52	51
F	40	40
R	20	20

F--Failing Grade

The grade submitted will be 'F'.

For courses in which supplemental examinations are not precluded, a student to whom an 'F' grade has been assigned and who is in good academic standing, may, subject to the regulations of the Faculty, write a supplemental examination.

For courses in which supplemental examinations are precluded, this grade will be recorded as FNS to draw attention to the absence of supplemental privilege for the course in question.

R--Repeat Failing Grade

The grade submitted will be 'R'.

Students graded 'R' in a course may not write supplemental examinations, and must repeat the course to receive credit, providing such repetitions are permitted within the failure regulations and/or the regulations concerning the repetition of courses.

16.3.3 GRADING--PROCEDURES AND SPECIAL CASES

In each course, the instructor is expected to make an evaluation and submit a grade for every student registered.

If the student has not completed all necessary work, or has not written the required examinations, the instructor will submit a grade based on the weighted sum of grades on completed work, and zero for incompleted work. (See examples i, ii and iii below). It should be noted that an instructor may stipulate that, in order to achieve a passing grade in a course, a student must have demonstrated a specified level of competence in particular components required for evaluation in that course. (See examples iv. a, b, and c below).

In the event that a student appears to have withdrawn, unofficially, from a course, and no material is available for evaluation, the instructor will clearly not be able to submit a grade. The Registrar will indicate this situation with the notation NR (Not Reported). This notation carries no numerical weighting, but denotes a failure for purposes of counting the number of failed courses in assessing academic standing.

Examples

The following examples demonstrate application of the system. They are all based on the assumption that the final mark is composed of 20% assignments; 40% term paper; 40% examination, for illustrative purposes only.

		Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
(i)	Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
	Percentage of weighting	90%	not written	80%	--
	Percentage of final grade	18%	--	32%	50%

The final grade is 'D-', and INC is noted if the instructor is prepared to accept a late term-paper.

		Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
(ii)	Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
	Percentage of weighting	85%	85%	not written	--
	Percentage of final grade	17%	34%	--	51%

The final grade is 'D-', and DNW is noted.

		Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
(iii)	Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
	Percentage of weighting	90%	not written	not written	--
	Percentage of final grade	18%	--	--	18%

The final grade is 'R' and DNW and INC are noted. The course must be repeated for credit.

(iv) a) The instructor has stipulated that at least 45% be achieved on the final examination in order that a passing grade be obtained in the course:

	Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
Percentage of weighting	90%	70%	35%	--
Percentage of final grade	18%	28%	14%	60%

While the weighted total is 60%, the stipulated 40% was not achieved on the final examination, and so the final grade is submitted as 'F'.

b) The instructor has stipulated that at least 45% be achieved on the final examination in order that a passing grade be obtained in the course:

	Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
Percentage of weighting	90%	85%	not written	--
Percentage of final grade	18%	34%	--	52%

While the weighted total is 52%, the final examination was not written, and hence the stipulated 45% was not achieved, and so the final grade is submitted as 'F', with the notation DNW added.

c) The instructor has stipulated that at least 45% be achieved on the term paper in order that a passing grade be obtained in the course:

	Assignments	Term Paper	Examinations	Total
Weighting	20%	40%	40%	100%
Percentage of weighting	90%	not written	85%	--
Percentage of final grade	18%	--	34%	52%

While the weighted total is 52%, the term paper stipulation has not been met, and so the final grade is submitted as 'F' with the notation INC added.

INC, DNW, and MED

If the work for a course has not been completed, the following notations will be made after the grade given for that course:

INC (Incomplete) denotes that, though the final examination, if any, was written, work essential for evaluation of a student's performance, such as a term paper or a laboratory, was not completed.

DNW (Did Not Write) denotes that, though the instructor marked the term work, the final examination was not written.

In some circumstances, both INC and DNW may be used simultaneously.

MED (Medical) denotes that an examination or assignment was missed for medical reasons. This notation is entered on the record by the Examinations Office . An acceptable medical certificate (certified by a physician on his letterhead) must be submitted within ten days of the missed examination to this office.

Replacement of 'F', DNW, INC and MED Entries

The method of recording changes from 'F', DNW, INC and MED entries will be as follows:

a) In cases where a supplemental examination or a late completion has been allowed on medical or compassionate grounds, the new grade will replace the original entry.

b) In all other instances, the original entry will be retained on the transcript. A second entry of the course code will be made along with the final grade. An (X) beside this final grade will indicate late completion or supplemental. (X) will be explained at the foot of the transcript.

c) Students failing a supplemental examination will receive the grade 'R'.

d) Students eligible to write a supplemental examination on medical grounds, but who do not wish to avail themselves of this right, will have their records altered by the Registrar's Office from the original entry of 'F-DNW' or 'F-INC' submitted by the instructor to 'MED-DNW' or 'MED-INC'.

16.3.4 ACADEMIC RE-EVALUATION

I. General

1. All students have the right to apply for the re-evaluation of any grade they receive. Such an application may be based on dissatisfaction with either the grade received or the method of grading. Grades may be lowered, maintained or raised as a result of the re-evaluation.

2. Students have the right to see their examination papers and any marked material that has contributed to the grading of a course. Students are responsible for the preservation and production in the case of a re-evaluation of any marked material that has been returned to them by an instructor. Departments (Divisions in Fine Arts) are responsible for the preservation and production of written materials in their possession for a period of six months following the official release of grades.

II. Normal Procedure

1. Students who seek re-evaluation of their work will, in the first instance, endeavour to meet with the instructor and explain their position to him. If they remain dissatisfied, or are unable to meet with the instructor, they may, on receipt of the final grade for the course, apply formally for re-evaluation.

2. A formal application for re-evaluation will be made to the Registrar. Each application must be on the appropriate form, and be in writing and signed. It must set out the reasons for the dissatisfaction, and also contain a statement that the student has met with the instructor, or has tried to meet with the instructor and failed.

3. An application must be submitted by:

Fall-term courses: Feb. 1
Winter-term courses: June 15
Summer-Session courses: Oct. 1

The registrar may extend these deadlines in particular cases, but only if the person applying for re-evaluation could not reasonably have done so within the above deadlines.

4. The Registrar will forward the application immediately to the chairman of the appropriate department, with a copy to the instructor and the Dean.

5. According to the nature of the application, the department chairman will appoint a person or a committee to carry out a re-evaluation or investigation, and will so inform the student, the instructor, the appropriate Dean and the Registrar, naming the person or persons appointed. A member of the Faculty in whose course the student is currently enrolled is not normally eligible for appointment to carry out a re-evaluation or investigation.

6. The re-evaluation or investigation will normally be completed within 21 days of the receipt of the application by the chairman.

. 7. The chairman will inform the student, the instructor, the Dean and the Registrar of the decision of the person or committee charged with the re-evaluation or investigation.

III. Priority Procedure

1. The priority appeal procedure is provided to accelerate the process for specific courses designated by the Faculties. A list of these courses is posted in the Registrar's Service Department prior to the beginning of the course-change period each term.

2. Students registered in courses that have been designated by the faculties may file a priority appeal with the Registrar as soon as the grade is known, but in no case later than 3 days before the end of the course-change period for the next term.

3. Students who opt for this priority procedure will still, in the first instance, endeavour to meet with the instructor. If the issue is resolved between the student and the instructor after an appeal is launched, the appeal must be cancelled by the student. If the appeal is not cancelled a fee of $10 will be charged to the student's account.

4. The Dean will appoint a person who, in collaboration with the Registrar, will ensure accelerated processing of priority appeals in so far as possible, in accordance with the procedures set out in II, 5.

5. The re-evaluation or investigation of priority applications must be completed prior to the last day of the course-change period for the next term.

6. The Dean's appointee will inform the student, the instructor, the Dean and the Registrar of the decision of the person or committee charged with the re-evaluation or investigation.

IV. Appeals

1. Both the student and the instructor have a right of appeal against the decision.

2. An appeal will be made to the Dean and will normally be lodged within 14 days of the announcement of the decision by the chairman. Each appeal must be on the appropriate form, and be in writing and signed. It must set out the reasons for the appeal.

3. It is the responsibility of the Dean to inform the student or the instructor, as may be required, the chairman and the Registrar that an appeal has been received.

4. The Dean will refer the appeal to the Faculty Appeal Committee, a standing committee of Faculty Council.

5. Faculty Appeal Committee procedures will be determined by the appropriate Faculty Council.

6. The Faculty Appeal Committee will be composed of an equal number of faculty and students, who will choose a chairman from outside their initial membership.

7. The Faculty Appeal Committee will deal with the appeal as it sees fit.

8. A decision will normally be rendered within 21 days of the lodging of an appeal.

9. There is no further appeal once the Faculty Appeal Committee has rendered its decision.

10. It is the responsibility of the Committee to inform the student, the instructor, the chairman, the Dean, and the Registrar of the decision.

16.3.5 FAILURE REGULATIONS*

These failure regulations are to be considered as defining the minimum standard acceptable to the University. Subject to the approval of Senate, higher standards may be established by any Faculty. For purposes of these regulations, "failure" includes the grades F, FNS, R, and NR.

1. 90 Credit Programme

a. Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than twelve credits before obtaining thirty credits on record, or who fails courses equivalent to more than twenty-four credits before obtaining sixty credits on record is a failed student.

Such a student will have entered on record: "Failed. Must obtain permission to re-register from the Faculty Dean."

b. Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than thirty credits is a failed student. Such a failed student may not apply for readmission.

Such a student will have entered on record: "Failed. May not re-register."

2. Mature Entry and Extended Credit Programme

a. Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than twelve credits before obtaining thirty credits on record, or who fails courses equivalent to more than twenty-four credits before obtaining sixty credits on record, or who fails courses equivalent to more than thirty-six credits before obtaining ninety credits on record is a failed student.

Such a student will have entered on record: "Failed. Must obtain permission to re-register from the Faculty Dean."

b. Any student who fails courses equivalent to more than forty-two credits is a failed student. Such a failed student may not apply for re-admission.

Such a student will have entered on record: "Failed. May not re-register."

3. Regulations for Failed Students

a. Failed students are neither eligible to write supplemental examinations nor entitled to late completion of courses.

b. Failed students who are given permission to re-register are placed on Academic Probation.

c. Students placed on Academic Probation must pass the next thirty credits on the first attempt and satisfy any other conditions specified for their re-admission. Students failing to meet these requirements may not apply for re-admission.

These Failure Regulations are liable to modification in the case of students transferring either between faculties or from another university.

 Students in the Faculty of Engineering will be subject to the failure regulation published in Section 71.1.3 of the Faculty of Engineering Regulations.*

16.3.6 SUPPLEMENTAL EXAMINATIONS --REGULATIONS

University Regulations

1. Each Faculty determines the availability of supplemental examinations for the courses offered by that Faculty. Such availability is governed by the rules of the Faculty in which the course is offered, not those of the Faculty in which a student is registered.

2. A student is not permitted to write two supplemental examinations for the same course, whether or not the course is being repeated. However, a supplemental may be written for a course being repeated if the student has not written one previously for that course.

3. A failed student, or a student on academic probation, or a student with conditional standing (Faculty of Engineering), is not permitted to write supplemental examinations.

4. Should a student fail a course for which there is no supplemental examination, the absence of a supplemental examination will be recorded together with the failing grade. (Section 16.3.2).

5. Supplemental examinations for courses taken in the regular session will be written in the following July. Supplemental examinations for courses taken in the summer session will be written in the following October.

6. Medical reasons (certified by a physician on his letterhead) can constitute a valid excuse for exemption from most of the regulations governing supplemental examinations. Such medical reasons must be submitted to the Examinations Office within ten days of a missed examination. The entry on the record for the original examination in such cases is MED/DNW.

7.(a) A student who has missed a regular examination for medical reasons may write the supplemental examination as a final examination. A student who passes will receive a normal grade. A student who fails may apply to the Examinations Office to write a second supplemental examination.

b) A student who has missed a supplemental examination for medical reasons is graded MED/DNW., and may apply to the Examinations Office to write another supplemental on another date.

8. A student who is taken ill during an examination and so is unable to finish it should obtain a written statement to this effect from the nurse on duty at the Health Centre, and deliver that statement within ten days to the Examinations Office.

9. Applications to write a supplemental examination for a course in the Summer session must be submitted by October 1, and for a course in the regular session by June 15. Graduating students have until February 1 to submit an application to write a supplemental examination for a course in the Fall term. The appropriate fee must accompany all applications.

10. Students who wish to write a supplemental examination at an external centre will first discuss their situation with the Director of Examinations. The external application form must be completed as well as the regular application form.

16.3.7 REGULATIONS CONCERNING COURSES NOTATED AS INCOMPLETE

1. A failed student is ineligible to complete a course with an incomplete notation.

2. A student is ineligible to complete a course with an incomplete notation in a course graded 'R'.

3. An application for an incomplete must be submitted by:

Fall term courses: February 1
Winter term courses: June 15
Summer Session courses: October 1

4. The limiting dates for the submission of late work are:

a) For Fall term courses not later than April 1.

b) For all other courses in the Regular Session not later than August 1.

c) For all courses in the Summer Session not later than November 1.

5. For 6-credit courses taken during the Regular Session or 3-credit courses taken during the Winter term, students are advised that work completed for courses with an incomplete notation and reported to the Registrar's Office before the submission of the list of failed students to the Deans will not count as a failure when assessing academic standing. The date for the receipt of these grade changes by the Registrar's Office is May 19, 1982.

NOTE: The University is not responsible for providing facilities to enable students to clear courses with an incomplete notation by this date.

16.3.8 REPETITION OF COURSES

1. In general a student may repeat a failed course only once. However, should a course required for a programme be failed a second time, a student must appeal to the appropriate student request committee for permission to take the course a third time, or for permission to replace the required course with another.

2. A student who has received credits for a completed course may not write the supplemental examination.

3. A student who has received credit for a completed course may repeat a course for personal reasons, for instance, an external requirement. The student's record will reflect the new grade, however, there will be no credit value associated with the grade. The original entry will be used for averaging purposes, except as provided by the special regulations for the Faculty of Engineering.

4. A student who fails a course that is specifically required for a degree must take the course during the session for which he next registers. If a required course is taken for the first time during the Summer Session and is failed, a student may postpone his registration for repetition of the course until the session following the regular schedule supplementary examination period for Summer Session courses.

16.3.9 REGULATIONS REGARDING CHEATING (UNDERGRADUATE)

I. General

1. Where the word 'examination' is used it shall be taken to cover any examination, test or similar evaluative exercise carried out under invigilation. The invigilator may be the course instructor or another person.

2. Every examination paper shall expressly list the materials that a student is permitted to have and use during the examination, such as text-books with notations, textbooks without notations, calculators, etc.

3. Every examination paper shall expressly indicate any special conditions relating to the examination, such as permission for students to work together.

4. A student in the examination area will not speak to or otherwise communicate with another person other than an invigilator unless such communication has been expressly authorized by those conducting the examination.

5. It is the duty of an invigilator to report to the Registrar in writing any apparent instance of cheating as defined in Section II, 1 below.

6. Wherever there is doubt or ambiguity regarding any provision in these regulations, or the procedure to be followed, that interpretation or procedure shall be adopted which appears most equitable, consistent with the general purposes and philosophy of these regulations.

7. Wherever reference is made in these regulations to an official of the University and that official is unable to exercise his or her functions, the person replacing the official shall carry out those functions.

II. Procedures

1. Cheating means any dishonest or deceptive practice relating to an examination, and more particularly, but not restrictively, includes the following:

a) making use of any book, paper, script, writing, drawing or other material not expressly authorized by those conducting the examination;

b) communicating during an examination with any person other than those invigilating the examination;

c) attempting to do any of the above. A person in possession of any book, paper, script, writing, drawing, or other material not expressly authorized by those conducting the examination shall be presumed to be attempting to cheat.

2. A student who is suspected of cheating during an examination shall be so informed by the invigilator and be required to leave the examination area immediately. The invigilator shall take charge of the student's examination book as well as of any other evidence relating to the suspected cheating.

3. The invigilator shall then offer the student the option of:

a) withdrawing from the examination, with the understanding that, if a charge of cheating is not laid or upheld, the student will be enabled to take another examination for the same course; or

b) continuing the examination under controlled conditions in another location. The student shall be required to write out and sign a statement of the option taken. If the student chooses to continue the examination, the invigilator will provide a fresh examination book for the purpose and will allow additional time for the examination to compensate for any time lost during this process.

4. Any evidence shall be delivered to the Registrar as soon as reasonably possible.

5. If, after the completion of an examination, a person grading that examination finds grounds to suspect a student of having cheated, that person shall deliver to the Registrar a written statement setting out the grounds for the suspicion, together with the student's examination book and any other relevant material.

6. If the Registrar deems it appropriate to lay a charge of cheating, the Registrar shall prepare a precise, written charge, dated and signed, and send it within seven days to the Dean of the Faculty or Division for the programme in which the student is registered, as well as to the instructor of the particular course. If the student is not registered in a programme, the charge shall be sent to the Dean of the Faculty or Division providing the course.

7. There will be established in each Faculty or Division a panel from which will be drawn the committee that will hear any charge of cheating which is denied by the student charged. This panel will consist of six members of the full-time faculty named by the Faculty Council, and six undergraduate students registered in the Faculty named by the appropriate student association or associations.

8. On receipt of a charge from the Registrar, the Dean of the Faculty or Division shall immediately send a copy of the charge to the student and inquire in writing whether the student admits or denies the charge. The letter from the Dean shall be sent to the student by registered mail at the last address given to the University.

9. The student shall admit or deny the charge in writing within twenty-one days of the mailing of the Dean's letter. The Dean may extend this delay only if the student could not reasonably have acted within the twenty-one days.

10. When the student admits the charge, the Dean shall apply one of the sanctions set out in Section III below.

11. When the student does not admit or does not respond to the charge, the Dean shall arrange for a hearing committee.

12. The hearing committee shall consist of two faculty members and two students named by the Dean from the panel established under II, 7 above, and in addition a fifth member, named by the Dean, who shall serve as chairman.

13. The student and the Registrar, or a delegate of the Registrar, have the right to be present at the hearing of the charge, and to address the committee, but they shall not be present at the deliberations of the committee.

14. The committee shall decide whether or not the student acted as charged, and shall make any comment about the nature or circumstances of the offence that it deems appropriate. Its report shall be in writing and reasoned, and shall be delivered to the Dean.

15. If the committee does not uphold the charge, the Dean shall so inform the student, the Registrar and the instructor of the course.

16. If the committee upholds the charge, the Dean shall apply one of the sanctions set out in Section III below. The dean shall send a statement of his or her decision together with a copy of the report of the committee to the student, the Registrar and the instructor of the course.

17. The student and the Registrar shall have a right of appeal to Senate against either the decision or the sanction. Notice of such appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary of Senate; in the case of the student within twenty-one days of the decision, and in the case of the Registrar within seven days of the decision. These delays may be extended in exceptional circumstances by Senate.

18. The appeal shall be heard and decided in the manner deemed most appropriate by Senate.

19. In the event that a charge against a student is not laid or is not upheld, and the student has either not continued with the examination or wishes to take a second examination, the Dean and the Registrar shall arrange for such an examination.

III. Sanctions

1. Where a student admits or is found to have cheated, the sanction shall be one of the following:

a) the imposition of a failing grade for the course related to the examination in which the cheating occurred; ineligibility to write a supplemental examination for the course; and the obligation to take and pass the equivalent of one six-credit course (i.e. one full-course or two half courses) in addition to the total number of credits required for the programme. The course to be taken may be specified;

b) the sanction as provided in sub-section (a) above, and with the obligation to take and pass the equivalent of a further one, two or three six-credit courses in addition to the total number of credits required for the programme. The courses to be taken may be specified;

c) the sanction provided in sub-section (a) or (b) and suspension from the University for the remainder of the year;

d) the sanction provided in sub-section (c) and suspension for an additional period of not more than one year;

e) the imposition of a failing grade for the course related to the examination in which the cheating occurred and expulsion from the University.

A year shall begin on September 1 and end on August 31 if the charge relates to an act occurring in the regular session, and from May 1 to April 31 if the charge relates to an act occurring in the summer session.

2. Should the student not be registered in a programme, the sanction shall be either the relevant part of (a) or that provided in (c), (d) or (e).

3. If a suspended student fails the year in which he or she was suspended and wishes to be readmitted, that student must apply for readmission.

4. Should a student either admit or be found to have cheated for the second time the student shall be expelled from the University.

5. A sanction of suspension or expulsion is subject to confirmation by the Rector.

16.3.10 REGULATIONS REGARDING PLAGIARISM (UNDERGRADUATE)

I. General

1. Plagiarism, for the purposes of these regulations, means the presentation by a student of the work of another person as his or her own. It includes copying, translating and paraphrasing without acknowledgement of the source.

2. Wherever there is doubt or ambiguity regarding any provision in these regulations, or the procedure to be followed, that interpretation or procedure shall be adopted which appears most equitable, consistent with the general purposes and philosophy of these regulations.

3. Wherever reference is made in these regulations to an official of the University and that official is unable to exercise his or her functions, the person replacing the official shall carry out those functions.

II. Procedures

1. If an instructor has reason to believe that a student has committed plagiarism, the instructor shall immediately inform the student and discuss the circumstances.

2. After such discussion, the instructor shall:

a) decide that no further action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be resubmitted with appropriate changes; or

c) give the student a failing grade in the work submitted; or

d) give the student a failing grade in the course for which the work was done; or

e) refer the matter to the chairman of the department.

3. If the instructor's decision is that set out in 2(a) or (b), the matter shall be considered closed. If the decision is that set out in 2(c) or (d), the student may appeal it to the chairman of the department.

4. Should a student appeal a decision as set out in 2(c) or (d), the chairman of the department shall:

a) uphold the award of a failing grade; or

b) cancel the failing grade and require that the work be graded as originally submitted.

c) cancel the failing grade, and require that the work be resubmitted to the instructor with appropriate changes.

The chairman's decision shall be final.

5. If the matter is referred to the chairman of the department, as set out in 2(e), and an appropriate departmental committee exists or the departmental practice is to set up an ad hoc committee, the chairman shall be referred to that committee.

6. If an appropriate committee exists, the committee shall review all the circumstances with the instructor and the student, and shall:

a) decide that no action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be resubmitted with appropriate changes; or

c) decide that a formal charge shall be made against the student.

If the committee's decision is that set out in 6(a) or (b), the matter shall be considered closed.

7. If the matter is referred to the chairman of the department as set out in 2(e) and no appropriate departmental committee exists, the chairman shall review all the circumstances with the instructor and the student, and shall:

a) decide that no action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be resubmitted with appropriate changes; or

c) decide that a formal charge shall be made against the student.

If the chairman's decision is that set out in 7(a) or (b), the matter shall be considered closed.

8. In the event that the instructor is the chairman of the department, the Dean shall appoint another member of the department to act in his or her stead.

9. If either the appropriate committee or the chairman of the department decides that a formal charge shall be made against the student, the chairman shall send that charge to the Dean of the Faculty or Division for the programme in which the student is registered. If the student is not registered in a programme the charge shall be sent to the Dean of the Faculty or Division providing the course.

10. The formal charge to the Dean shall be made in writing, and be dated and signed by the chairman of the department.

11. The Dean shall send immediately a copy of the charge to the student, inform the student of the procedures and sanctions relating to a formal charge, and inquire in writing whether he or she admits the charge. The letter from the Dean shall be sent to the student by registered mail at the last address given to the university.

12. The student shall admit or deny the charge in writing within twenty-one days of the mailing of the Dean's letter. The Dean may extend this delay only if the student could not reasonably have acted within the twenty-one days.

13. When the student admits the charge, the Dean shall apply one of the sanctions set out in Section III below.

14. There will be established in each Faculty or Division a panel from which will be drawn the committee which will hear any formal charge of plagiarism. This panel shall consist of six members of the full-time faculty named by the Faculty Council, and six undergraduate students registered in the Faculty named by the appropriate student association or associations.

15. When the student does not admit the charge, the Dean shall arrange for a hearing committee.

16. The hearing committee shall consist of two faculty members and two students named by the Dean from the panel established under II, 14 above, and in addition a fifth member, named by the Dean, who shall serve as chairman.

17. The student and the instructor have the right to be present at the hearing of the charge, and to address the committee, but they shall not be present at the deliberations of the committee.

18. The committee shall decide whether or not the student committed plagiarism, and shall make any comment about the nature or circumstances of the offence that it deems appropriate. Its report shall be in writing and reasoned, and shall be delivered to the Dean.

19. If the committee does not uphold the charge, the Dean shall so inform the student, the chairman of the department and the instructor of the course.

20. If the committee upholds the charge, the Dean shall apply one of the sanctions set out in Section III below. The Dean shall send a statement of his or her decision together with a copy of the report of the committee to the student, the instructor of the course, the chairman of the department, and the Registrar.

21. The student and the instructor shall have a right to appeal to Senate against either the decision or the sanction. Notice of such appeal must be made in writing to the Secretary of Senate within twenty-one days of the decision. This delay may be extended in exceptional circumstances by Senate.

22. The appeal shall be heard and decided in the manner deemed most appropriate by Senate.

III. Sanctions Relating to a Formal Charge

1. Where a hearing committee established under II, 16 above finds a student has committed plagiarism, the Dean shall impose one of the following sanctions:

a) the imposition of a failing grade for the course in which the plagiarism occurred; ineligibility to write a supplemental examination for the course; and the obligation to take and pass the equivalent of one six-credit course (i.e. one full-course or two half courses) in addition to the total number of credits required for the programme. The course to be taken may be specified;

b) the sanction as provided in subsection (a) above, with the obligation to take and pass the equivalent of a further one, two or three six-credit courses in addition to the total number of credits required for the programme. The courses to be taken may be specified;

c) the sanction provided in subsection (a) or (b) and suspension from the university for the remainder of the year;

d) the sanction provided in subsection (c) and suspension for an additional period of not more than one year;

e) the imposition of a failing grade for the course in which the plagiarism occurred and expulsion from the University.

A year shall begin on September 1 and end on August 31 if the charge relates to an act occurring in the regular session, and from May 1 to April 31 if the charge relates to an act occurring in the summer session.

2. Should the student not be registered in a programme, the sanction shall either be the relevant part of (a) or that provided in (c), (d) or (e).

3. If a suspended student fails the year in which he or she was suspended and wishes to be readmitted, that student must apply for readmission.

4. Should a student either admit or be found to have committed plagiarism for the second time in accordance with II, 2(c); II, 2(d); II, 13 or II, 20, and subject to the results of any appeal as provided for in these regulations, the student shall be expelled from the University.

5. A sanction of suspension or expulsion is subject to confirmation by the Rector.

16.3.11 REGULATIONS REGARDING MULTIPLE SUBMISSION OF PROJECTS (UNDERGRADUATE)

I. General

1. It is the normal expectation that a project or term paper or analogous student submission for purposes of evaluation in a course shall not be submitted for evaluation in a second course. Thus, multiple submission is considered deceit unless, and only unless, the student has received prior written permission from the instructor in each of the courses in question.

2. Multiple submission, for the purposes of these regulations, means the submision by a student of the same project without significant change more than once without securing the permission of the professor(s) prior to submission of the project. Projects may include term papers, essays, reports and class assignments. Multiple submission includes submission more than once in the same and different sessions, to the same or different professors and in the same or different courses. A student intending to make changes in a previously submitted project is advised to consult with the professor concerned prior to submission. No student may submit a similar project to one previously submitted for credit in two different courses without prior written permission from instructors in each course.

3. Wherever there is doubt or ambiguity regarding any provision in these regulations, or the procedure to be followed, that interpretation or procedure shall be adopted which appears most equitable, consistent with the general purposes and philosophy of these regulations.

4. Wherever reference is made in these regulations to an official of the University and that official is unable to exercise his or her functions, the person replacing the official shall carry out those functions.

II. Procedures and Sanctions

1. If an instructor has reason to believe that a student has submitted, without permission, a similar project to one previously submitted in a course for which a grade had been received, the instructor shall inform the student and discuss the circumstances.

2. After such discussion, the instructor shall:

a) decide that no further action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be submitted with appropriate changes; or

c) give the student a failing grade in the project or course; or

d) refer the matter to the chairman of the department.

3. If the instructor's decision is that set out in 2(a) or (b), the matter shall be considered closed. If the decision is that set out in 2(c), the student may appeal to the chairman of the department.

4. Should a student appeal a decision as set out in 2(c), the chairman of the department after consultation with the instructor and the student, shall:

a) uphold the award of a failing grade; or

b) cancel the failing grade and require that the work be graded as originally submitted; or

c) cancel the failing grade and require that the work be re-submitted to the instructor with appropriate changes.

5. If the matter is referred to the chairman as set out in 2(d), the chairman of the department, after discussion with the instructor and the student, shall:

a) decide that no further action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be submitted with appropriate changes; or

c) give the student a failing grade in the project or course.

6. If instructors have reason to believe that a student has submitted, without permission, the same project without significant change to two courses conducted simultaneously, the instructors shall inform the chairman or chairmen of the department(s) concerned.

7. The chairman(men) of the department(s), after discussion with the student and the instructors, shall:

a) decide that no further action is necessary; or

b) require that the work for one course be submitted with appropriate changes; or

c) give the student a failing grade in the project submitted to one course or a failing grade in one course.

8. Should a student appeal a decision as set out in 5(c) or 7(c) the chairman of the department shall refer the matter to an appropriate faculty committee which after consultation with the student, instructor and the chairman, shall:

a) uphold the awarding of a failing grade; or

b) cancel the failing grade and require that the work be graded as originally submitted; or

c) cancel the failing grade and require that the work be re-submitted to the instructor with appropriate changes.

The committee's decision shall be final.

9. Should a professor appeal a decision as set out in 4, 5, or 7 the chairman of the department shall refer the matter to an appropriate faculty committee which shall:

a) decide that no further action is necessary; or

b) require that the work be re-submitted with appropriate changes; or

c) give the student a failing grade in the project or course.

10. The composition of an appeal committee as described in 8 and 9 shall be two faculty members and two students named by the Dean and, in addition, a fifth member named by the Dean who shall serve as chairman.

11. Should a student be found to have committed multiple submission without permission a second time in accordance with 2(c) or 5(c), and subject to the results of any appeal as provided for in these regulations, the student shall be suspended or expelled from the University.

12. A sanction of suspension or expulsion is subject to confirmation by the Rector.

The Department of Physical Education and Athletics offers a complete and diversified programme to meet the varied interests of today's students. The aim is to provide an opportunity for all students to participate and not just those who play varsity sports.

A comprehensive intramural programme operates on both campuses. It provides an extensive selection of fitness, team and sport activities for men and women under the supervision of professionally trained instructors.

The Intercollegiate Varsity programme is primarily for male and female students with playing experience. Graduate-level, as well as undergraduate, students pursuing studies on a full-time basis and meeting the requirements of the Quebec University Athletic Association and of the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union are eligible to participate.

The south campus is the focal point of all Physical Education and Sports on the Loyola Campus. This area includes full-length playing fields and a modern physical education centre complete with an ice arena, gymnasium, weight training and exercise rooms. The Sir George Intramural programme is centered in Birks Hall and Victoria School, and in the Downtown YMCA on Drummond St.

Detailed information on physical education and athletic activities is included in the Department's annual Sports Review which is available at the Physical Education Centre and on the Sir George Williams Campus Athletics office located at 1822 de Maisonneuve W. For further information, telephone 482-0320, ext. 730, Loyola Campus, or 879-5840, Sir George Williams Campus.

Concordia Guidance Services provides the following: (1) individual and group counselling, (2) an information service, with special emphasis upon graduate and career planning, (3) reading-skills development and study-skills programmes, (4) Canada Employment Centre.

18.2.1 COUNSELLING

Counselling is offered in the following areas:

Academic Counselling: includes course planning, planning a major or honours programme, university familiarization and decisions pertaining to postgraduate training.

Vocational Counselling: the individual is helped to make a realistic career choice based on his interests, abilities and other needs, reconciled with the available opportunities.

Personal Counselling: many students have problems which are not directly related to the university environment, but nevertheless affect their sense of well-being, e.g. family problems, social problems, depression, feelings of isolation. Discussion with a counsellor is usually helpful in clarifying the issues and finding a way of coping with these problems.

18.2.2 GUIDANCE INFORMATION CENTRE

The Guidance Information Centre makes available to students and staff of the University information on educational and career planning. The major areas of the collection are devoted to directories of education programmes, university calendars, and books on career choice, job hunting and résumé-writing.

18.2.3 READING TRAINING CENTRE

The Reading Training Centre offers several courses a year during the day and evening. These programmes are planned to help the student develop the skills necessary for the maintenance of acceptable academic standards.

The main focus is on the techniques of efficient reading and study skills. Some direction is given, however, in the associated learning skills of listening, note-taking and using the library.

18.2.4 CANADA EMPLOYMENT CENTRE

This service, staffed and operated in cooperation with the Canada Employment Centre, functions to assist students in exploring opportunities for part-time, summer and full-time employment. Notices from employers are posted, and students are invited to discuss these with a Placement Officer who will assist in arranging interviews with employers' representatives, as appropriate.

Information on financial aid and scholarships is available on both campuses of Concordia University.

The Financial Aid Officers will help students find sources of financial aid available to them; explain the current regulations and norms of eligibility; and assist students in solving individual budgetary problems.

18.3.1 CONCORDIA WIDE SCHOLARSHIPS

A scholarship is awarded in recognition of outstanding academic achievement.

If a student holding a scholarship decides to change faculty, he will retain the scholarship only on condition that he receive the approval of the Scholarship Committee.

No student may hold more than one scholarship from the University at any one time.

Concordia University Entrance Scholarships

A number of tuition scholarships are available to students entering University 1. They are awarded by the Scholarship Committee on the basis of academic achievement during the first three semesters of CEGEP. Applications are available from the Financial Aid offices and must be returned prior to March 1. These scholarships have a value of $1,000, and are renewable as long as the same high level of achievement is maintained.

January Entrance Scholarships

A number of scholarships are available to students entering in the Winter term (January-April). Value is $500. Renewal will be valued at $1000 per year. Deadline for applying is November 15.

Senior Scholarships (60 years of age and over)

A number of scholarships are awarded to students who are 60 years of age or over and who are enrolled in a 90-credit undergraduate degree programme or a graduate programme. Value is $500 each. Awards are for one year and are renewable for a maximum of four years.

Awards to Concordia Students in Course

The Arthur Andersen & Company Scholarship

Awarded to a student entering the final year in the Bachelor of Commerce programme and major in Accountancy. To be awarded on academic merit and demonstrated leadership qualities in the classroom and in student activities. Value: full-tuition.

The Stacie-Lee Bessner Memorial Scholarship

One award to a student entering second or third year in the Faculty of Commerce.

Institute of Internal Auditors, Montreal Chapter Scholarship

Awarded to a student majoring in Accountancy for outstanding performance in their auditing courses.

The BP Canada Scholarships

Financial Aid

Government Loan Plans

In all the Canadian provinces, a basic qualification for financial aid is that the applicant be a Canadian citizen, or a landed immigrant, with one year's residence and domicile in the province to which he or she is applying. This would be the province where his or her parents make their home.

The Province of Quebec

The Province of Quebec has an extensive programme of student loans and bursaries available to students. For applications, contact the Director, Financial Aid.

Physically Handicapped

Students in any Faculty, who are Canadian citizens and have been resident and domiciled in Quebec for two years, may apply for an outright grant if they have suffered from poliomyelitis, tuberculosis, certain forms of cardiac trouble, or some other physical disability. Apply to the Director, Financial Aid.

Ontario

Apply to the Director, Financial Aid.

New Brunswick

Apply to the Department of Youth and Welfare, Fredericton, New Brunswick.

For the provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, and Saskatchewan write to the Provincial Department of Education.

Children of War Dead (Education Assistance) Act

Under this Act fees up to $800 and monthly allowances are provided for children of Canadian war veterans whose death was attributed to military service in World War I, World War II, or the Korean War. Apply to the Superintendent of Welfare Services at the nearest DVA District Office.

United States Students

Students coming to a university outside the United States may apply for a Higher Education Loan Plan loan through their home town bank. These forms must be sent to Concordia University to be filled in. They should be sent to the campus where the student will register.

Maine and Oregon

Apply through the United Student Aid Fund, form 1070, available at one's bank.

Students from other States

Apply to the Higher Education Assistance Corporation. Applications are available at one's bank.

Because of the tight money situation, it is essential that one apply as early as possible to the bank where one's parents have an account.

NOTE: APPLICATIONS FOR GOVERNMENT AID SHOULD BE MADE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. DO NOT WAIT FOR REGISTRATION.)

Bursaries

Because of the greatly increased demand for financial aid, all students must apply first to their own province or state and accept maximum loan and bursary aid from these sources. Thus, Concordia University funds cannot normally be used to compensate for a student's failure to apply for and accept the maximum government assistance available. If a student needs more than the maximum government assistance, a bursary may be granted.

The basic principle in awarding financial aid is that the primary obligation to pay for an education rests with the students and their parents. This means that a student is expected to have savings from his or her summer employment, and that parents must contribute according to their ability.

The Financial Aid Offices exist solely to assist students and to help them find financial aid should they need it.

The C.J. Hewitt Bursaries

From the estate of the late C.J. Hewitt a number of bursaries are available to Concordia students. Preference will be given to members of the families of Employees of Hewitt Equipment Ltd., Montreal.

The awards are made during September and January by the Scholarship Committee on the recommendation of Hewitt Equipment Limited as to relative need for each member of their employees families.

IBM Canada Bursary Programme

IBM Canada Ltd. makes an annual grant for bursaries to students registered in a full-time course at the University, have satisfactory standing, and demonstrate financial need. Application may be made through the Awards Office.

Birks Family Foundation

The Birks Family Foundation has established a plan of annual contributions to the Student Aid Fund of recognized Canadian universities for the creation of the Birks Family Foundation Bursaries. The bursaries are awarded by the Foundation on the recommendation of the University Scholarship Committee and are not restricted to faculty or year and may be renewed. The number and amount of such awards may vary annually, depending upon the funds available for the purpose from the Foundation.

B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation

A limited number of bursaries are available. Amount of each bursary granted from this fund may vary according to the need of the deserving student in any year or any faculty. Apply to Hillel House.

Canadian Italian Business & Professional Men's Association

Bursaries are awarded by the Association to students of Italian origin or descent. Apply to the President, Trust Fund Committee. Application forms may be obtained from the Association at 892 Cremazie Blvd. W., Montreal, Quebec, H3N 1A4.

National Council of Jewish Women of Canada, Montreal Section, Bursaries

A limited number of bursaries are awarded by the Council upon the recommendation of the Financial Aid Director. Academic standing and financial need are considered in making the award. Although there is no legal obligation, the Council hopes that the holder will, if possible, return the money at some future time so that other students may be helped.

Financial Aid for Overseas Students

The scholarships, bursaries and loans offered by companies, associations, societies, foundations, departments of education and other government agencies are generally not available to students from overseas. Therefore, students on a student visa requiring financial aid should contact their own department of education.

The Canadian International Development Agency offers training assistance to most developing countries with which Canada has a cooperation agreement; however, the student must be nominated by his/her own government.

Students should make sure of adequate finances before coming to Canada.

A minimum of $6,000 Canadian would be required for one academic year. If a student does not plan to return home during the summer, four months of living expenses, as well as summer tuition, should also be provided for.

Concordia University Graduate Fellowships

Graduate fellowships are awarded on the basis of academic excellence to students enrolled full-time in a programme leading to a master's or doctoral degree at the University. No services are expected from the student in return.

Renewable Fellowships

Renewable fellowships for full-time studies in the amount of $6,000 per year plus tuition fees, are open to students enrolling in doctoral programmes or master's programmes of more than one-year's duration. Continuation of the award beyond the first year is subject to satisfactory academic performance. Fellowships may be held for a maximum of three years.

One-Year Fellowships

These are normally tenable only by full-time students enrolling in master's programmes of one-year's duration. They are of two kinds:

(a) David J. Azrieli Fellowships in the amount of $6,000 plus tuition fees, financed by a donation from Dr. David J. Azrieli;

(b) University Fellowships in the amount of $5,000, the regular tuition fees to be paid by the student.

Province of Quebec Graduate Fellowships

The Minister of Education of the Province of Quebec has a generous programme of Graduate Fellowships available to students currently residing in Quebec. It is important to stress that these Fellowships are based primarily on high academic standing. Candidates requiring financial assistance and not having a high academic record should apply to the Province of Quebec, Regular Loans and Bursary Department. Forms are available from the Financial Aid Office on each campus.

Guidance Information Centre

The Centre collects information and application forms, if available, on loans, bursaries, scholarships, fellowships, grants-in-aid, etc. This includes aid offered by private foundations, associations and companies, from both Canadian and foreign sources.

Liaison Office

Opportunities exist for some students to assist the Liaison Office in visiting CEGEPs and high schools. Other help is required by the office from time to time during the year for mailing, packaging and typing. Payment varies according to project. For more information, contact the Liaison Office, Room N211 (Norris Building) 879-4233, or 2496 West Broadway 482-0320, Ext. 245, 264, 572.

18.4.1 STUDENT LIFE AND STUDENT SERVICES

Many para-academic and out-of-class programmes are organized on each campus under the auspices of the Dean of Students. These programmes are designed to enrich students' cultural and social life and broaden their university experience.

Also available are special services such as legal aid, health centres, and housing bureaus.

The Concordia Council on Student Life, a body responsible for student service policies and budgets, studies the range of student life on both campuses. It is composed of 8 students, 2 faculty members, 6 members of the student services staff. The Vice-Rector, Academic and Student Services chairs the Council. Its meetings are open to all members of the University community.

18.4.2 PROGRAMME DEVELOPMENT

Programme Development explores the area of education and the process of learning outside the classroom. A number of on-campus workshops and sessions are sponsored each year.

The Lacolle Centre for Educational Innovation is an off-campus facility located 40 miles from Montreal, near Lacolle, Quebec. It provides an environment in which students, faculty and staff may explore new areas of learning outside the confines of the classroom.

Montreal Lacolle Centre
2492 West Broadway
Telephone 482-0320, ext. 344/494.

18.4.3 SOCIAL AND CULTURAL ACTIVITIES

Orientation

Orientation is designed to familiarize new students with the various services and facilities available to them, and to help new students resolve any problems that may be encountered during their introduction to university life.

Social and Cultural Activities

Among other social and cultural activities available are Lunchtime Listening, a Light Entertainment Series, and a Workshop that offers instruction in photography and silk-screen printing.

There is a students' cafeteria and pub on each campus. The Loyola Campus Centre also provides lounge facilities and a games room.

18.4.4 HEALTH SERVICES

The Health Centre is staffed by registered nurses and doctors and is run on a clinic programme. It is open Monday through Friday, with a varying schedule of doctor coverage. Multiple, paramedical, and referral agencies in the immediate downtown area are utilized, as well as the general hospitals.

To be seen other than in an emergency situation or for an acute problem, please telephone for an appointment. (Generally, there is only one day's wait.)

Services of the Health Centre are available to all staff, students and faculty members, full or part-time.

18.4.6 INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International Students' Health and Accident Insurance

Students on student visas are not eligible for the provincial medical programme. The high cost of hospital care in Quebec has prompted Concordia to arrange for an insurance policy which covers hospital expenses incurred as the result of accidental injury or an illness. The premium for this policy is approximately $150. This policy is compulsory for all international students attending Concordia as full-time students. The plan provides either single or married coverage. For details about the coverage, contact the Dean of Students Office.

International Students' Finances

PLEASE NOTE THAT ACADEMIC EXPENSES, INCLUDING TUITION AND OTHER COMPULSORY FEES FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS, ARE APPROXIMATELY $875 PER SESSION, OR $1750 FOR THE REGULAR SESSION (SEPTEMBER TO MAY). IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS NORMALLY DO NOT PERMIT STUDENT-VISA HOLDERS TO ACCEPT ANY FORM OF EMPLOYMENT EITHER FULL- OR PART-TIME DURING THEIR STUDIES IN CANADA. The minimum expenses a student may expect are the following:

Books and Supplies	$ 300
Lodging	$1200
Food	$1450
Insurance	$ 150
Clothing	$ 500
Miscellaneous	$ 700
Plus tuition fees	$1750
Cost for one academic year (8 months) approximately	$6050

These costs have been calculated on the value of Canadian currency and cover only the eight-month Regular Session.

International Students are required to present evidence to immigration authorities that they have adequate funds for their studies in Canada.

NEITHER CONCORDIA NOR THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT PROVIDES FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS.

A STUDENT MUST BE A CANADIAN CITIZEN OR A LANDED IMMIGRANT, OR HOLD A VALID WORK PERMIT IN ORDER TO WORK IN CANADA.

18.4.7 RESIDENCE AND HOUSING

RESIDENCE--Loyola Campus

On-campus accommodation is available for 240 students. The versatile facilities can house students in a traditional dormitory-style or apartment-suite style room; there are both co-ed and single-sex floors.

While every effort is made to meet students' requests for single rooms, or for particular rooms or halls, assignments can be made only as space allows. Since the number of rooms on campus is very limited, acceptance to the University does not guarantee admission to residence. A separate application for on-campus housing must be sent to Mr. David Chanter, Director of Housing, 156 Hingston Hall, Loyola Campus, Concordia University, 7141 Sherbrooke Street W., H4B 1R6.

Residence Fees

General: Rates for rooms are the same at both Hingston Hall and Langley Hall. These rates do not include meals. Meals may be contracted for separately.

RESIDENCE	SINGLE	DOUBLE
Room*	$1045	$935
Activity Fee*	25	25
Development Fee*	15	15
Damage Deposit (refundable)	10	10
TOTAL	$1095	$985

Payable at registration and subject to change.*

A room deposit of $50 must accompany each application and will be deducted from the payment due on entrance. This does NOT guarantee a room. DO NOT ASSUME THAT YOU ARE ACCEPTED INTO RESIDENCE UNTIL YOU HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE FROM THE RESIDENCE OFFICE.

The money will be refunded if the student is not accepted or cancels the room reservation by August 15. Students cancelling after the August 15 deadline will forfeit the $50 deposit.

The room contract covers the rental of linen, blankets and pillows.

Residence fees may be paid in two installments. The first installment covering the first term, including compulsory fees, must be paid at registration. The second must be paid before January 10.

No student will be allowed into residence until his or her account has been settled, and a receipt covering at least the first term must be shown to the Director of Housing.

Fees do not cover the Christmas holidays. Students who intend to remain in residence over the holidays are required to apply to the Director of Housing by December 1. There is an extra charge for remaining in residence in this period.

Cheques should be made payable to Concordia University. In cases where cheques are returned to the University marked "Non Sufficient Funds", there will be a $5 charge. A $15 surcharge will be added to all fees unpaid on January 15. Post-dated cheques will not be accepted.

The University reserves the right to make changes without notice in the published scale of fees.

To ensure favourable consideration applications should reach the Director of Housing before June 1.

OFF-CAMPUS HOUSING

Students who wish to live off-campus may consult the off-campus housing service, which provides a listing of available rooms and apartments.

CHILD CARE

Child Care Services are offered for children of students, faculty and staff. Parents may enroll children 2 1/2 to 5 years of age in the Child Care Centre located at 2305 St. Marc St. Application forms and details may be obtained at the information desk in the Hall Building or at the Centre. Telephone 879-4577.

18.4.8 CAMPUS MINISTRY

A major concern of the campus ministry is to deepen personal awareness and awaken a sense of social responsibility both within the University community and outside.

During the academic year chaplains representing different religious heritages organize various programmes of interest to the University community and are also available for personal religious guidance and counselling.

18.5 Rights and Responsibilities--Ombudsmen's Office

CODE OF CONDUCT (NON-ACADEMIC) --CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

PART I

General

1. The Concordia University Code sets out regulations and procedures for handling formal complaints made by one member of the University against another member either personally or on behalf of the University. The ombuds operation is part of the code, and the whole is subject to a supervisory board.

2. The code applies to all the premises of the University, whether owned or rented, and also to activities conducted elsewhere by the University or by a body responsible to the University.

3. The code applies to all students, faculty and staff of the University, whether full-time or part-time. Both independent and Continuing Education students are included. However, persons working on University premises under contractual agreement between the University and their direct employer, such as the employees of catering and maintenance services, do not come within the code.

4. The code does not supersede the terms of tenure and associated regulations, the University grievance procedure, or any collective agreement signed by the University. The code does not replace or supersede any of the academic regulations or procedures of the University or of the University library. However, the mandate of the ombuds office includes the right of inquiry into the application of any of the regulations or procedures apart from those covered by a collective agreement with a certified bargaining unit.

5. Disciplinary authority in the University is vested in the Board of Governors. It remains the duty, as well as the right, of faculty members and administrators to exercise such authority in areas or matters within their own jurisdiction. Faculty members are expected to take whatever immediate action is needed to ensure the continuing order of their courses and administrators to take whatever immediate action is needed to ensure the proper functioning of the services or areas for which they are responsible.

6. The Rector, as chief administrative officer of the University, and only the Rector or his duly appointed delegate, has the right to suspend temporarily a student or member of the faculty or staff consequent upon action taken in line with paragraph 5. In the event of such a temporary suspension, appropriate procedures for final disposition of the situation will be set in motion as soon as possible.

7. Although faculty members or administrators may take immediate action of the kind referred to in paragraph 5 above, a person against whom such action is directed and who believes the action unjustified may have recourse to the complaint procedures.

8. All those who study, teach or work at the University are subject to the laws of the land, and have recourse to those laws. The same holds true for the University as a corporate entity. Should an act appear to infringe an individual's legal rights, that individual can decide whether to take legal action irrespective of whether recourse has been had to the provisions of this code. Similarly, the University, acting through its authorized representatives, has the right at any time to take whatever legal action is deemed appropriate.

9. Should there arise doubt or ambiguity regarding any provision in these regulations, or the procedure to be followed, that interpretation or procedure shall be adopted that appears most equitable, consistent with the philosophy and general purposes of the code.

Governing Principles

10. The University is an institution of higher education dedicated to the pursuit of truth and to the advancement and dissemination of knowledge. All those who study, teach or work at the University must be concerned with maintaining the freedoms essential for those purposes, notably the freedoms to teach; to engage in research and to create; to learn; to study; to speak freely; to associate and to assemble; to write and to publish. The rights deriving from these freedoms cannot be maintained unless related responsibilities are accepted.

11. The University has the rights of a duly incorporated institution of higher education, and it has responsibilities to those who are part of it, as well as to the community at large. Each member also has rights and responsibilities--in relation to other persons, the institution and the community. Mutual consideration is vital if the freedoms are to be preserved.

12. Members of the University shall have regard in particular for the rights of other members to: freedom from discrimination on such grounds as sex, creed or racial or ethnic origin; freedom from violence and intimidation; access to University premises; respect for property, whether personal or owned by the University for the benefit of the community; confidentiality of personal information.

Administration of the Code

13. Any person who wishes to make a formal complaint must deliver the signed complaint in writing to the code administrator.

14. The individual complained against must be named, and the cause of the complaint must be stated with precision, detailing date, time and place.

15. The complaint must be delivered within a reasonable time of the alleged act, incident or other cause, and in no case more than two months after it. However, when the complaint involves an allegation of deception or dishonesty, this delay will begin to run from the date of discovery of the alleged deception or dishonesty.

16. On each campus there will be a code administrator, appointed by the Rector acting on the recommendation of an advisory committee composed equally of students, faculty and staff. The same person may fill the position on both campuses. The appointment will be for two years, and be renewable.

17. The code administrator will ensure that all complaint procedures are properly carried out.

18. The code administrator will issue yearly a public report indicating the nature and extent of the complaints received and handled, while protecting the anonymity and confidence of any individuals.

19. The code administrator will direct complaints against a member of the faculty or the staff to the appropriate authority under the General Complaint Procedures. (Part III.)

20. Complaints against a student will normally be handled under the Hearing Board System (Part II). However, the code administrator has the authority to decide that the nature of a complaint against a student is grave enough to warrant directing it to the appropriate authority under the General Complaint Procedures (Part III).

21. The code administrator also has the authority to investigate a complaint against a student and to attempt to settle that complaint before referring it to the Hearing Board System. In performing this function, the code administrator has the authority to impose a sanction within the range and regulations set for the Hearing Board System. (See Part II, paragraph 29 below).

22. The code administrator will inform both parties in writing of the findings of any investigation conducted under paragraph 21 above, including any sanction that is imposed.

23. If either party then refuses to accept either the findings or the sanction, the code administrator will forward the complaint to the Hearing Board System.

PART II

Hearing Board System

24. The two-stage system on each campus consists of campus boards and appeal boards.

25. Members of the boards will be drawn from a pool of 30 students--15 from each campus. Members may sit on either campus, but the majority on any board will be drawn from the campus concerned.

26. The pool will be named annually, after due public call for candidates, by a nominating committee composed of four representatives of the Concordia University Students Association and one representative of the Graduate Students Association. The Code Administrator will act as non-voting chairman.

27. A campus board, composed of three members, will hear any complaint forwarded to it by the code administrator, and find either for or against the student complained against. A campus board has the authority to impose sanctions as set out in paragraph 29 below. An appeal may be taken against the decision of a campus board, whether on the finding or the sanction.

28. An appeal board, composed of five other members, will hear any appeal against the decision of a campus board. It will either confirm, reverse or modify the finding of the campus board, and confirm, reverse or modify the sanction. It has the authority to require a re-hearing by another campus board. There is no further appeal from a decision of the appeal board.

29. Hearing boards may impose sanctions within the following limits: a fine not exceeding $100; a deposit, returnable at a specified date, not exceeding $200; payment of compensation for physical damage or loss not exceeding $500; exclusion from an area or function of the University for a stated period of time. If this exceeds twelve months, the sanction will be reviewed by a campus board at the end of each twelve-month period. (This sanction does not encompass the authority to suspend from any academic activity.)

30. The code administrator is responsible for the operation of the hearing boards, including convening each board as it is required and arranging for the appropriate recording of procedures, and ensuring that all complaints, notices, decisions and appeals are properly processed.

31. Each hearing board will sit as soon as possible, and generally, within fourteen days of the referral of a complaint or appeal to it by the administrator. The parties will receive at least seven days notice in writing of the sitting and copies of the complaint or appeal.

32. Each hearing board will deliver its decision in writing to both parties as soon as possible and, generally, within seven days of the conclusion of a hearing.

33. An appeal against a decision of a campus board must be lodged in writing, setting forth the grounds for the appeal, with the code administrator within fourteen days. The delay may be extended in exceptional circumstances by the code administrator.

34. The decision of a hearing board, if it is not unanimous, will be by majority vote.

35. Hearings will be closed and confidential unless a board, with the written consent of both parties, decides to admit members of the University community.

36. At a hearing by a campus board or an appeal board both parties have the right to be accompanied by an adviser, who may speak on their behalf.

37. At a hearing by a campus board both parties have the right to present witnesses.

38. In all other matters the hearing boards will determine their own procedures.

PART III

General Complaint Procedures

39. Where a complaint is to be handled under the General Complaint Procedures, the code administrator will forward it to the appropriate authority. Once a complaint has been so forwarded, the code administrator will not participate either in the enquiry into the complaint or in the imposition of sanctions.

40. A complaint against a member of faculty or a person employed in a Faculty will be forwarded to the appropriate Faculty Dean or Divisional Dean.

41. A complaint against a student will be forwarded to the appropriate Faculty Dean or Divisional Dean.

42. A complaint against the Rector will be forwarded to the Chairman of the Board of Governors.

43. In the event of a complaint against any other employee of the University, the appropriate authority is the senior administrator in the following list to whom the person complained against reports most directly:

a) Rector
b) Vice-Rector, Academic (Commerce and Administration, Engineering, Fine Arts)
c) Vice-Rector, Academic (Arts and Science)
d) Vice-Rector, Administration and Finance
e) Assistant Vice-Rector and Treasurer
f) Assistant Vice-Rector, Physical Resources
g) Assistant Vice-Rector, Relations and Audit
h) Assistant Vice-Rector and Director of Libraries
i) Assistant Vice-Rector and University Registrar
j) Assistant Vice-Rector, Admissions and Liaison
k) Director of Guidance
l) Director of Athletics
m) Dean of Students, Sir George Williams Campus
n) Dean of Students, Loyola Campus

44. Where a complaint against a student is dealt with under these general complaint procedures, the code administrator will inform the appropriate Dean of Students. If the complaint is against a graduate student, the code administrator will also inform the Dean of Graduate Studies.

45. If one of the persons named as an appropriate authority has lodged a complaint against a person within his or her sphere of authority, that complaint will be forwarded to the complainant's own superior.

46. The appropriate authority will acknowledge receipt of the complaint as expeditiously as possible and send copies of such acknowledgement to the person complained against and the code administrator, as well as to the Dean of Students and to the Dean of Graduate Studies when applicable.

47. The complaint shall be inquired into in whatever manner the appropriate authority considers suitable. The appropriate authority may conduct the inquiry personally or may assign it to another individual or to a committee. If the appropriate authority or the individual or the committee decides that the allegations are founded in whole or in part, the appropriate authority shall take whatever action is deemed suitable in so far as he or she is empowered to do so, or recommend such action to those who have the power to implement it. If the inquiry has been assigned to an individual or to a committee, the appropriate authority may also assign to that individual or committee the function of taking or recommending appropriate action. Since a student can be suspended or expelled from the University only by action of the Rector, any such recommendation must be forwarded to the Rector. (Should it be recommended that a faculty member be dismissed, the dismissal provisions of the Regulations relating to Termination of Employment and Suspension of Faculty Members and not the provisions of paragraphs 50 to 55 below shall apply.)

48. Both the complainant and the person complained against must be given the opportunity to make any relevant representation, in person or in writing as they see fit.

49. The decisions referred to in paragraph 47 must be written, signed and dated, and must be reasoned. The appropriate authority shall deliver such decisions to the complainant, the person complained against, the administrator to whom the appropriate authority reports and the code administrator as well as to the Dean of Students and the Dean of Graduate Studies when applicable. The Chairman of the Board of Governors shall deliver any decisions to the Board as a whole.

50. Both the complainant and the person complained against have a right of appeal to the Board of Governors. A written and signed notice of appeal must be delivered to the Secretary of the Board of Governors within fourteen days of the rendering of the decision appealed against. This delay may be extended in exceptional cases by the Board upon an application in writing, but it shall not be extended unless the appellant could not reasonably have acted within the fourteen days. The appeal may be taken against either the decision on the merit or against the action taken or recommended, or against both. The notice must state in clear and precise terms the ground on which the appeal is based.

51. The Secretary of the Board of Governors shall send without delay copies of the notice of appeal to the appropriate authority responsible for the decision which is being appealed, to the opposite party and the code administrator as well as to the Dean of Students and the Dean of Graduate Studies when applicable. The appeal shall be placed on the agenda of the next meeting of the Board.

52. Should the appeal be lodged by the complainant, or should it be lodged by the person complained against in a case where action other than a sanction of suspension, expulsion or dismissal has been imposed or recommended, the Board of Governors shall decide whether to deal with it directly or to set up a review board, composed of persons from either within or without the University or from both, as the Board of Governors judges fit. The decision of the Board of Governors in the former case or of the review board in the latter case shall be final.

53. Should the person complained against wish to lodge an appeal in a case where a sanction of suspension, expulsion or dismissal has been imposed or recommended, he or she may elect that the appeal be dealt with according to the procedure set out in the above paragraph or may require the Board of Governors to appoint a committee of three persons from outside the University, one of whom must be a lawyer not otherwise in the employ of the University, to hear the appeal. The decision shall be final.

54. Where the choice referred to in paragraph 53 is not made, the Board of Governors shall decide whether to deal with the appeal according to the procedure set out in paragraph 52 or that set out in paragraph 53.

55. The Secretary of the Board of Governors shall communicate the decision in writing to the persons referred to in paragraph 49.

56. Wherever an official of the University is unable to exercise his or her functions, they will be carried out by that official's replacement.

57. Apart from the requirements to inform set out above, any proceedings or decisions shall be treated as confidential unless all the parties involved expressly agree that they be made public.

PART IV

Ombudsmen

58. The ombuds office will consist of one full-time and two part-time ombudsmen. The office will operate on both campuses. The ombudsmen will be appointed by the Rector, acting on the recommendation of an advisory committee composed equally of students, faculty and staff. Appointment will be for two years, renewable on the recommendation of the advisory committee.

59. The part-time ombudsmen must be persons already in the employ of the University, and one of them must be a tenured member of faculty. Part-time ombudsmen will be partially released from their other duties, or be appropriately compensated.

60. The ombudsmen are free to inquire into any matter brought to their attention, and to make whatever recommendations they judge appropriate, and to whomever within the University they feel should receive them. If all the ombudsmen agree, they are also free to inquire into a matter that has not been the subject of a specific application. The ombudsmen should pay particular attention to the definition of their functions set out in Part I (General), paragraph 4.

61. On the conclusion of an inquiry, the ombuds office will on request provide an individual who applied for its services with a written report on its disposition of the matter.

62. The ombudsmen have the right to refuse to take up any case where they judge their intervention would be inappropriate, or to withdraw from a case if their continued intervention appears inappropriate, as when there has been recourse to legal proceedings. They will provide the applicant with a written statement of the reasons.

63. Recommendations of the ombudsmen may bear either on the actions or decisions of an individual or group or on the policies and practices which gave rise to such actions or decisions.

64. Any application to an ombuds office and any consequent inquiries or recommendations shall be treated as confidential unless all the parties involved expressly agree that the information be made public. Notwithstanding the above, the ombudsmen are entitled after an enquiry to publicize their recommendations if they all agree that the response to these was unsatisfactory.

65. The ombudsmen shall have immediate access to all University records, reports or other documents other than those which cannot be released for reasons of confidentiality. An ombudsman can appeal the decision of an officer of the University with regard to confidentiality to the Board of Governors. The ombudsmen will maintain the confidentiality of any confidential materials to which they have access.

66. The ombudsmen will issue yearly a public report indicating the nature and extent of their operations, while protecting the anonymity and confidence of any individuals.

PART V

Supervisory Board

67. The supervisory board will be concerned with all aspects of the University Code.

68. There will be seven members appointed by the Board of Governors; two representatives each of the students, faculty, and staff, with the Executive Assistant to the Rector serving as chairman. The student members will be nominated jointly by the student associations, and the faculty members by CUFA. The staff members will be nominated by the Rector's Cabinet on the basis of proposals received from the staff after due public notice.

69. Appointments will be for one year, and will be renewable.

70. The board will review the reports of both the code administrator and the ombudsmen, and make any recommendations it judges appropriate to the Rector, including recommendations for amendment to the code.

71. The supervisory board will be especially concerned with the equity of the sanctions applied to different individuals or categories of individuals.

72. A member of the University community may apply to the board to review the operation of any aspect of the code. In such instances, the function of the board will be to ensure that the procedures have been properly followed, including the way in which paragraph 20 of the section on Administration of the Code has been applied by the code administrator.

73. Three members of the board may require at any time that the board meet to review any aspect of the implementation of the code.

19 Student Associations

19.1 UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Concordia University Students Association

The Concordia University Students Association (CUSA) represents the undergraduate students, both full-time and part-time. Besides itself organizing a considerable number of events and activities, CUSA ensures student representation on the University decision-making bodies, both those that legislate on academic matters and those concerned with the cultural and social life of the community. There are student members of the Board of Governors, Senate and the various Faculty Councils, and of course of the Concordia Council on Student Life, which is directly concerned with the provision of student services.

Powers and responsibilities are divided between three bodies: the Executive, the Legislative Council, and the Judicial Board. The Executive is headed by two elected co-Presidents. The Legislative Council consists of the elected representatives of the four Faculties. The Judicial Board is an appointed body charged with assuring the constitutionality of any new legislation.

There are over 75 member clubs and associations. They may be associated with a department or discipline like the Psychology Students Association or pursue a special interest like the Debating Society. Each has its own programme of activities, which receives funding from CUSA. In addition there is a number of clubs and associations for students of particular ethnic backgrounds.

Other activities that come under the CUSA umbrella are the student paper, The Link, the television station and two radio stations, and the Concordia Winter Carnival.

There is a CUSA office on each campus.

19.2 GRADUATE STUDENTS

Graduate students become members of the Graduate Students Association (GSA). It is concerned with graduate student representation on the decision-making bodies and initiates a wide range of activities for graduate students and the University community as a whole, including social occasions, lectures and concerts. The association publishes a regular newsletter. Its offices are at 2160 Bishop Street.

19.3 ALUMNI

There are two alumni associations. On graduation, students are asked which association they want to join - the Sir George Williams Association of Alumni or the Loyola of Montreal Alumni Association, in order to continue their affiliation with the University.

Each association sponsors and organizes a variety of activities for its members. All graduates regularly receive Concordia University Magazine, which is published five times a year by the University Public Relations Office for alumni and friends of the University.

19.3.1 Sir George Williams Association of Alumni

The Association was begun informally by the "Guinea Pig Class" of 1937, the first to receive degrees from what was first a College and then a University.

The Association was officially incorporated as a non-profit organization on September 21, 1957.

The aims and objectives contained in the charter are: to preserve the fellowship of graduates of Sir George Williams; to preserve, extend and promote the interests of the University; and to assist in the furthering of student welfare.

The Association is guided by a 30-member Board of Directors elected from graduates of the University.

There is a special classification called "Active Members" consisting of alumni who make a financial contribution in the current year. Their support entitles them to free library privileges, special social activities such as invitations to the annual Rector's Reception, invitations to concerts, art exhibitions, etc.

The Association's office is located at 2150 Bishop Street. (879-5898).

19.3.2 Loyola of Montreal Alumni Association

The Association, dedicated to promoting the welfare of its members, provides a vehicle through which former students of the Loyola Campus of the University may maintain interest in and express support for their alma mater. It seeks to foster continuing contacts among former students and to conduct projects, organize events, and do other things necessary and useful for the University.

Each year, the Association sponsors a golf tournament, an oyster party, the Sports Hall of Fame, and other social, cultural and sports activities. The Association honours its past presidents every year with a gala dinner. It arranges for an exchange programme between students and alumni in business and the professions. The Association also sponsors the selection and presentation of the Loyola Medal to outstanding Canadians.

The Association's office is located in the Loyola Administration Building, 7141 Sherbrooke Street West. (482-0320).

As part of its commitment to the life-long pursuit of education, Concordia University, through its Centre for Continuing Education, sets out to meet the learning needs and interests of the vast number of adult learners who seek educational activities outside the regular degree programmes of the University. Courses offered by the Centre are designated as "non-credit", but only in the sense that they may not be counted towards any of the degree or certificate programmes offered by the Faculties of the University.

Designed specifically for a different clientèle, most of the Centre's courses are part of coherent programmes leading to certificates of achievement awarded by the Centre to those who successfully complete the required work. A wide variety of such programmes and courses is offered, and these are reviewed and supplemented on a regular basis to ensure that they satisfy the changing needs of the community.

20.1 CERTIFICATE PROGRAMMES IN BUSINESS AND ADMINISTRATION

Hospitality Management Programme

This practical programme is available to individuals who wish to receive training in the special skills required to manage hotels, restaurants, and institutional and commissary food-service establishments. Each course is made up of 13 two-hour-weekly classroom sessions given in the evenings. Ten courses must be successfully completed to obtain the Certificate of Hospitality Management.

Management Practices Programme

This series of courses in management and administrative subjects is offered to individuals in the business community who wish to investigate or update their skills in selected fields. Each course is made up of 8 two-hour-weekly classroom sessions which are given in the evenings. Six of the courses must be successfully completed to obtain the Certificate in Management Practices.

Tourism Programme

These courses are designed to train students for responsible jobs in tourism. They are intended either for those already employed in the industry or for those considering it as a career. Both courses in the programme must be successfully completed to obtain the Certificate.

Security Administration Programme

This programme is open to individuals who wish to receive training for responsible positions in security operations at industrial sites, financial institutions, retail shopping and recreational complexes, hotels, educational and other public institutions. Courses may be offered in French or in English in the evenings. Four courses make up the programme. Each course is made up of 13 two-hour-weekly classroom sessions.

Journalism, Advertising and Public Relations Programme

This special programme in mass communication techniques is designed for individuals interested in developing skills in the fields of journalism, advertising, or public relations.

All courses are taught by practitioners who are active in the media or related fields. Each course is made up of 12 weekly two-hour sessions. Eleven courses are available. Five of the courses must be successfully completed to obtain the Certificate.

Portfolio, Investment, and Tax Planning Management

This practical programme offers individuals the opportunity to learn about investments and taxes, particularly the analytical and strategic skills necessary for the profitable management of the personal or corporate portfolio.

The programme is based on a flexible module system. Twenty-one self-contained modules of 4 classroom hours each make up the total programme.

A participant may register for all modules, or for one or more modules. Upon the successful completion of ten modules in the core section, the participant will be eligible for the Certificate in Portfolio and Investment Management.

20.2 CONTINUING EDUCATION LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

The Continuing Education Language Institute is a division of the Centre for Continuing Education established to meet the need for year-round intensive language programmes in English and French. The courses are designed to meet the needs of adult students seeking language training for professional, social and academic purposes. Day and evening courses are offered during both the academic year and the summer.

Students may choose one of several programmes ranging in intensity from six to twenty-four hours a week. Class size is limited to ensure maximum student/instructor contact.

Members of the staff of the Institute have specialist training and experience in second language teaching.

The English Language Programme

There are three distinct English language programmes offered on a regular year-round-basis--the intensive, the morning, and the evening programmes. Each programme has six levels from elementary to advanced.

The French Language Programme

Courses at all levels are directed towards the needs of adult students. They are designed around adult life situations and use a vocabulary for this purpose.

When the students have acquired a minimum vocabulary and knowledge of structures, conversation is encouraged on general and specific subjects and written skills are included according to the students' requirements.

20.3 APPLIED ARTS

Fashion Designing and Pattern Making

This programme is offered to train students in a professional manner for the garment industry. A certificate will be granted upon successful completion of six courses.

Each course is made up of 12 three-hour classroom sessions given once a week in the evening.

Apparel Management

This programme is offered to prepare students for production management in the apparel industry. A certificate in Apparel Management will be granted upon the successful completion of eight courses.

Each course is made up of 13 two-hour classroom sessions given once a week in the evening.

Textile Design

The textile design courses are offered to enable students to create patterns of designs that are applied to the surfaces of fabrics and other materials. These courses should enable students to acquire the knowledge necessary for career advancement and continuing study.

Each course is made up of 13 three-hour classroom sessions given once a week in the evening.

Television Production (Introduction and Intermediate)

The introductory course is for the beginner who would like to learn the basics of production: the use of portapaks and one-camera mobiles; scripting and story-boarding; directing and performing for T.V.

The intermediate course is a follow-up to the above course with an emphasis on the quality of the finished tape and the development of critical viewing faculties. Students will work on projects which will have been pre-arranged with the instructor.

Each course is made up of 12 three-hour classroom sessions given once a week in the evening.

Practical Photography

This programme is designed to give beginners the basics of camera operation and darkroom procedures. It also offers those with some experience a chance to refine their techniques at various levels.

Courses are 6 or 12 weeks; one three-hour classroom session per week. They combine lectures with hands-on participation.

Holography I and II

Holography I is a basic course which deals with the properties of coherent laser light in producing three dimensional images. Students will learn how to set up an inexpensive holographic table and gain an understanding of coherent light inference.

Holography II deals with the production of single and multi beam transmission holograms of large formats. Students will learn how multiplex rainbow holograms and 120 degree and 360 degree moving holograms are produced. Each course is made up of 12 two and a half hour classroom sessions given twice weekly in the evening.

Visual Arts

The Visual Arts Programme offers interested students the opportunity to work with a professional artist of the Montreal community in drawing and in painting.

Music is offered in private or shared instruction, non-credit, on all instruments and voice.

Interest courses are also available.

20.4 EDUCATIONAL TRAVEL PROGRAMME

The Centre for Continuing Education in cooperation with the academic departments of the University organizes a number of travel programmes. Some of the courses, which are generally scheduled between April and August, are regular Concordia offerings under the academic direction of a faculty member, and carry academic credit. The physical and personnel resources of academic, business and social institutions in other countries enhance the academic and cultural components of the courses.

20.5 SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

A number of seminars and workshops are scheduled by the Centre for Continuing Education. These seminars and workshops are sponsored with the cooperation of an academic department or faculty and are aimed at meeting the needs of the community in topics that are not normally a part of regular degree programmes.

20.6 CONCORDIA CENTRE FOR MANAGEMENT STUDIES

The Centre for Continuing Education works with the Centre for Management Studies of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration to provide consultative services for the training needs of business and industry. The Centre is equipped to provide needs assessments, the development of special learning materials to meet these needs, and courses conducted inside or outside the work setting.

20.7 INDUSTRIAL TRAINING WORKSHOPS

The Industrial Training Workshops aim at people whose experience within the work setting requires them to teach others. Both knowledge and the techniques of curriculum development and course delivery are essential to effective teaching. Quite often, however, industrial trainers have not had the opportunity to develop teaching skills. These workshops are intended to help such people.

21.1 Off-Campus Credit Courses

21.1.1 INTRODUCTION

Concordia University offers credit courses off-campus during the Regular (Fall/Winter) and Summer sessions. The courses are designed to be of interest to persons who find it inconvenient, for whatever reason, to attend classes on either campus. The University is prepared to offer courses wherever there is a sufficient demand, provided that qualified instructors are available. Off-campus courses have the same credit value as on-campus courses.

Last year, courses were given in Pointe Claire, Laval, Cowansville, St. Hubert, and at various cultural centres (e.g. Saidye Bronfman Centre) throughout the Island of Montreal. Courses were offered from the Faculties of Arts and Science, Commerce and Administration and Fine Arts. In addition to courses applicable to degree programmes, courses were offered leading to the following undergraduate-level certificates:

Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary Level)
Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level)
Certificate in Creative Drama and Theatre Arts (Elementary and Secondary) Certificate in Judaic Studies
Certificate in Library Studies
General Certificate in Arts and Science
Certificate in Family Life Education

Persons interested in obtaining further information about programmes, or in having courses offered at a particular location, should contact the office of the:

Director
Off-Campus Education
7141 Sherbrooke St. W., AD-228
Montreal, Quebec
H4B 1R6

21.1.2 REGISTRATION FOR OFF-CAMPUS CREDIT COURSES

It should be noted that registration in a course does not constitute admission to the University. While registration as an Independent student is possible, those registering for courses are encouraged to apply for admission to the University. To obtain information about registration for off-campus courses, call 482-4212.

21.1.3 ADMISSION TO CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

Admission requirements for off-campus credit courses are the same as for courses given on campus. Further information about admission to the University may be obtained by contacting one of the Admissions offices, at 482-0320, local 409 (Loyola Campus) or 879-4280 (Sir George Williams Campus).

21.2 Programmes of Interest to Teachers

Included in this section is a list of programmes which may be of particular interest to teachers. Concordia does not have a Faculty of Education. Courses and programmes for teachers are offered in various Faculties. Potential students are advised to consult the relevant departments of the University.

21.2.1 CERTIFICATE PROGRAMMES

1. Certificate in Art Education for Teachers (elementary school level) (30 credits). See §81.6

2. Certificate in Creative Drama and Theatre Arts, Elementary Option, Secondary Option (30 credits). See §81.11

3. Certificate in Education (for practising teachers) (30 credits). See §31.090

4. Certificat d'enseignement de l'anglais, langue seconde (30 credits). See §31.320

5. Certificate in Family Life Education (30 credits). See §31.010

6. Certificate in Judaic Studies (30 credits). See §31.270

7. Certificate in Library Studies (60 credits). See §31.190

8. Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary option or Junior Secondary option) (30 credits). See §31.290

9. Certificate in the Teaching of English as a Second Language, Elementary Option, Secondary Option (30 credits). See §31.320

10. Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level) (30 credits). See §31.290

Notes:

1. Certificate programmes are made up of undergraduate courses.

2. Most certificate programmes have very specific admission requirements. Students who wish to obtain a certificate are advised not to take the courses as Independent students unless they are sure that they are admissible to the programme.

21.2.2 BACHELOR'S DEGREE PROGRAMMES

1. Bachelor of Arts (Specialization in Early Childhood Education) (90 credits). See §31.090

2. Bachelor of Education (Teaching of English as a Second Language) (90 credits). See §31.320

3. Bachelor of Fine Arts (Specialization in Art Education) (90 credits). See §81.6

21.2.3 DIPLOMA PROGRAMMES (SEE GRADUATE CALENDAR)

1. Diploma in Art Education (36 credits).

2. Diploma in Communication Studies (42 credits).

3. Diploma in Early Childhood Education (minimum 33 credits).

4. Diploma in English (32 credits).

5. Diploma in Institutional Administration (33 credits).

6. Diploma in Instructional Technology (33 credits).

7. Diploma in Library Studies (36 credits).

8. Diploma in Sports Administration (33 credits).

9. Diploma in the Teaching of Mathematics (32 credits).

10. Diploma in Theological, Religious and Ethical Studies (33 credits).

21.2.4 MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMMES (SEE GRADUATE CALENDAR)

1. Master of Arts in Applied Linguistics (45 credits).

2. Master of Arts in Art Education (45 credits).

3. Master of Science in Biology (Teaching Option) (45 credits).

4. Master of Science in Chemistry (Teaching Option) (45 credits).

5. Master of Arts in Educational Studies (45 credits).

6. Master of Arts in Educational Technology (90 credits).

7. Master of Arts in English (45 credits).

8. Master of Fine Arts (90 credits).

9. Master of Fine Arts, Art History (60 credits).

10. Master of Science in Physics (Option B) (45 credits).

11. Master in the Teaching of Mathematics (M.T.M.) (45 credits).

21.2.5 DOCTORAL PROGRAMME

Doctor of Philosophy, Art Education (90 credits).

The Faculty of Arts and Science, comprised of the former Loyola Faculty of Arts and Science, the former Sir George Williams Faculty of Arts and the former Sir George Williams Faculty of Science, was brought into being on 1 July 1977.

For administrative purposes the Faculty is structured in four divisions comprising departments, programmes, and centres, colleges, institutes and schools. Three of the Divisions are each headed by a Dean, while a fourth (Division IV) is headed by a Provost.

The Departments and other units of which the Faculty is made up are placed within the Divisions as follows:

Division I: Classics Communication Studies English
French History Journalism
Library Studies
Modern Languages and Linguistics
Philosophy
Teaching of English as a Second Language
Theological Studies

Division II:
Applied Social Science Economics Education
Geography
Political Science Psychology Religion
Sociology and Anthropology

Division III:
Biology Chemistry
Exercise Science Geology
Health Education
Mathematics
Physics
Recreation and Leisure Studies

Division IV:
Colleges
Centre for Mature Students
Institute for Cooperative Education
Liberal Arts College
Lonergan University College
School of Community and Public Affairs
Science College
Simone de Beauvoir Institute

Programmes
Asian and Third World Studies
Canadian Studies
Interdisciplinary Studies
Russian Studies
Science and Human Affairs
Urban Studies
Women's Studies

31.002 Programmes and Admission Requirements

General admission requirements are listed in §13.

(1) Specific requirements for admission to the various programmes leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Education, and Bachelor of Science, and to certificates, are set out in the first column of the following listings. They refer to the table of CEGEP pre-Arts and pre-Science profiles defined below. Students lacking one or more of these prerequisites may be admitted, but must include the designated prerequisites among the courses followed prior to entry into the second year of their undergraduate programme. In certain cases, the prerequisites must be taken in addition to the undergraduate programme.

Profile	Requirements
0.00	Diploma of Collegial Studies
.34	To be a Registered Nurse, with authorization to practise and at least one year's experience
.72	DEC or equivalent and appropriate teaching licence.
1.4	Mathematics 103, 203 Physics 101, 201, 301; or 102, 202, 302 Chemistry 101, 201 Biology 301 or 921
10.1	Mathematics 337; or 103, 307 Biology 301, 401; or 921 Psychology 102
10.2	Mathematics 103, 307
10.3	Mathematics 337
10.4	Mathematics 101-77, 103, 105, 203.
10.5	To have reached in the language that will be studied a level equivalent to that of 2 CEGEP courses. If these courses have not been available in the CEGEP attended, the University may make up for them.
10.9	Mathematics 103, 203 Physics 101, 201, 301-78 Chemistry 101, 201 Biology 301
10.10	Mathematics 103, 203, 105 Physics 101, 201, 301-78 Chemistry 101, 201 Biology 301
A:	Interview
C:	Knowledge of English
D:	Knowledge of French
K:	Submission of a portfolio of representative work
N:	Placement test
X:	No specific requirements, but students should be prepared for entry into the disciplines of main interest. (This code does not appear in 'Accueil '82' and is one invented by the University.)

Programme titles refer to honours, specializations, majors, and minor components where these exist. Full information about the programmes offered under each title (including combinations with programmes in other disciplines) is to be found in the section of the calendar specified in the third column below. Certificate programmes, indexed in the same way, are listed in the last section, after those devoted to the programmes that lead to degrees in Arts, Education, and Science.

NOTE: The Calendar Sections listed in the third column contain details, where applicable, of professional qualifications required for admission.

(2) Students admitted to B.A. and B.Ed. Extended Credit Programmes are required to complete 120 credits for the degree (i.e., 30 additional credits) and must include the following 30 credits in the 120:

6 credits in English (language or Literature)

24 elective credits, of which a maximum of 12 may be outside the Faculty of Arts and Science. Certain Departments in the Faculty have specific requirements. Students intending to follow programmes of concentration within these Departments must include the specified components as part of their programme.

BA Geography (Physical): 6 credits in Mathematics

BA Mathematics: 9 credits in Mathematics - C203[3], C204[3], C205[3]*

 Students not having MATH C202[3], or the equivalent must take it in place of one of their elective courses.*

BA Psychology: 6 credits in Mathematics
3 credits in Biology
6 credits in Psychology

Students admitted to B.Sc. Extended Credit Programmes are required to complete 120 credits for the B.Sc. degree (i.e., 30 additional credits) and must include the following 30 credits in the 120:

6 credits in Chemistry C205[3], C206[3]
6 credits in Mathematics C203[3], C205[3]*
12 credits in Physics C204[3], C205[3], C206[3], C224[1], C225[1], C226[1]
3 credits in Biology C201[3]
3 credits in Mathematics C204[3] for students intending to enter programmes of concentration in Mathematics or Physics; or electives for all other students

 Students not having MATH C201[3], or the equivalent, must take it in place of one of their elective courses.*

31.003 Degree Requirements (Interim)

The Council of the Faculty of Arts and Science has not yet fully determined the degree requirements for the new Faculty. The following shall serve as the degree requirements for students admitted to a Faculty programme for the Summer Session 1981, or the Fall-Winter Session 1981-82.

Up to and including the academic year 1973-74, degree programmes were expressed in terms of courses, with one credit being applied to a "full course" (normally, one extending over two terms) and one half-credit being applied to a "half-course" (which was normally completed in one term).

In 1974-75, in accordance with the recommendations of the Council of Universities of Quebec, the credit base was modified to take into account the total activity of the student. A student preparing for the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Education, or Bachelor of Science takes a minimum of 90 credits. Each credit represents, for the average student, a minimum of 45 hours spread across lectures, conferences, tutorials, laboratories, studio or practice periods, tests, examinations, and personal work.

Since the CEGEP programmes are designed to give all students the opportunity to explore different fields and thus acquire a broad general basis for further study, the undergraduate programmes in the Faculty of Arts and Science require of students some degree of concentration in specific areas. Detailed statements about these programmes are made under the appropriate disciplinary headings in the sections of the calendar that follow this general account of degree requirements. They represent four main forms of concentration: the Minor , the Major , the Specialization , and Honours; and a fifth form, the Certificate. The University's formal definitions of these kinds of programmes are set out in section 16.2; for the convenience of students in Arts and Science, those definitions as they are construed in the Faculty are briefly repeated below.

The Minor is a programme consisting of a minimum of 24 credits in a single discipline and professing to give a basic introduction to the methodology and key concepts of that discipline. A minor cannot in and by itself provide the concentration required of a candidate for a degree and is therefore always taken in combination with another programme.

The Major consists of a minimum of 36 credits taken in an approved sequence of courses, usually in a single discipline or field. In some cases, the sequence may include certain approved courses in other, closely related fields. The major provides a solid grounding in the academic knowledge comprehended within the field of specialization.

A Specialization consists of a minimum of 60 credits taken in an approved sequence of courses in a single discipline or field. Like an honours programme, it provides a comprehensive education in that field, but to enter and remain in it, a student does not have to meet a special performance requirement (see, however, programmes in Early Childhood Education § 31.090, Interdisciplinary Studies: Self-Elected Specialization § 31.170, and Library Studies § 31.190). Students interested in subsequent "classification" by the Provincial government may be advised to follow a Specialization or an Honours programme.

An Honours programme consists of a minimum of 60 credits taken in an approved sequence of courses in one of certain selected disciplines or fields, with superior performance required for admission to and continuation in the programme, the precise level of such performance being determined by Senate. See § 16.2.4 and Faculty Honours Regulations set out below for matters governing Honours programmes at Concordia. An Honours degree, because it testifies to a student's comprehensive education in a particular field, intellectual commitment to that field, and achievement of a high level of academic performance, has traditionally been required of entrants to postgraduate programmes.

Besides these four basic forms of concentration there are in several disciplines and fields Certificate Programmes. These consist of a minimum of 30 credits, may be used as components of Major, Specialization and Honours programmes, and in some cases are identical with Minors.

Graduation requires

1. Successful completion of a programme of concentration in the form of an Honours, Specialization, or Major programme.

2. (a) In order to qualify for a Bachelor of Science degree, a student must obtain a minimum of 48 Science credits out of the 90 required for the degree, not counting the additional credits required in extended credit programmes.

(b) In order to qualify for a Bachelor of Arts degree, a student must obtain a minimum of 48 Arts credits out of the 90 required for the degree, not counting the additional credits required in extended credit programmes.

(c) In order to qualify for a Bachelor of Education degree, a student must comply with the degree requirements as set out in § 31.320.

Classification of Credits

i) Science Credits. Unless otherwise indicated, courses offered by the the departments of Biology, Chemistry, Exercise Science (with certain exceptions), Geology, Mathematics and Physics are counted as Science credits. For those courses offered in Computer Science and by the Departments of Geography and Psychology that may be counted as Science credits, see Sections 31.400, 31.130 and 31.250.

ii) Arts Credits. Unless otherwise indicated, courses offered by Applied Social Science, Asian and Third World Studies, Canadian Studies, Classics, Communication Studies, Economics, Education, English, French, Health Education, History, Interdisciplinary Studies, Journalism, Library Studies, Mathematics, Modern Languages and Linguistics, Philosophy, Political Science, Recreation and Leisure Studies (with certain exceptions), Religion, Russian Studies, Science and Human Affairs, Sociology and Anthropology, Teaching English as a Second Language, Urban Studies and Women's Studies are counted as Arts credits.

3. In general, the credits obtained for any course may not be used to satisfy the requirements of more than one programme. Students first registered in certain Certificate programmes may however apply credits obtained toward the Certificate to a degree programme.

4. Those students entering the University after September 1, 1978 as Independent Students will be permitted to apply no more than 30 credits obtained as an Independent Student towards any Arts and Science Faculty degree programme.

Supplemental Examinations
(Arts and Science)

Supplemental examinations shall be offered only where, as a condition for passing the course, it is required that a student pass the final examination regardless of its weighting; or where the final examination contributes 50% or more of the final grade.

A student failing a course which comprises entirely, or in part, a laboratory or similar practicum, may not be eligible to write a supplemental examination.

All courses which a student fails and for which there is no supplemental examination shall be graded FNS; 40% NS, or 20% R.

A failed student (see Section 16.3.5) may not write supplemental examinations.

Honours Programmes

The Faculty of Arts and Science has programmes leading to an Honours degree in certain selected fields. To enter an Honours programme, students apply to the Departmental Honours Committee(Adviser). The Departmental Honours Committee(Adviser) will accept students into Honours, subject to review by the Faculty Honours Committee. The Departmental Honours Committee (Adviser) will not normally accept students until they have obtained 30 credits at this University; students requiring fewer than 30 credits to graduate will not normally be accepted. The Department will notify the Faculty Honours Committee of the acceptance. The Faculty Honours Committee will review the departmental acceptance and notify the Department, the student, and the Records Office of the acceptance. In those cases where the Faculty Committee reverses a Department's acceptance of a student into Honours, the Department may appeal the Faculty Committee's ruling to the Arts and Science Faculty Council.

Honours Regulations (Faculty Regulations) See also Section 16.2.4

In order to qualify for an Honours degree, a student must comply with the regulations set forth below.

1. An Honours student must meet the general degree requirements, as well as the specific requirements for an Honours degree. A student must complete a minimum of 30 credits in the courses from the Honours component of the programme at this University to receive a degree with Honours. In certain cases, these 30 credits may include some specific courses for which pro-tanto credit may not be awarded.

2. An Honours student must maintain an average of 'B', or 75% in all courses in the Honours component of the programme; the minimum acceptable grade in any one of these courses is 'C', or 65%.

3. An Honours student must have a minimum average of 'B-', or 71%, over courses in the Honours component of the programme taken in each academic year. For part-time students, this will be calculated in eighteen-credit blocks.

4. In the courses outside the Honours component of the degree programme, an Honours student must have an average of no less than 'C', or 65%; the minimum acceptable grade in these courses is 'D', or 55%.

5. Students who are required to withdraw from the Honours programme may proceed in the corresponding Specialization or Major programme. Reinstatement in the Honours programme is possible only by appeal to the Faculty Honours Committee.

6. A student is allowed to qualify for only one Honours degree in either a single or combined Honours programme. A student may qualify for a Minor or Major programme in addition to an Honours programme. In general, the credits obtained for a particular course may be used to satisfy the requirements of only one programme.

Students may appeal their Department's determination of their status or interpretation of requirements in the Honours programme. Such appeals should be addressed to the Chairman of the Faculty Honours Committee.

The Faculty Honours Committee receives and reviews departmental recommendations for acceptance into Honours programmes and graduation with Honours, and adjudicates disputes between students and departments concerning Honours programmes. Since the Faculty Honours Committee cannot hear appeals contesting its own judgements, students and departments who wish to appeal a decision of the Faculty Honours Committee should address this appeal to the Chairman of the Arts and Science Faculty Council.

These new regulations will apply to those students entering Honours programmes as of June 1, 1979. Students already in an Honours programme may continue under the old regulations established prior to June 1, 1979.

General Certificate in Arts and Science

The General Certificate in Arts and Science is intended primarily for part-time students who qualify for admission to first-cycle programmes, but who, at the time of registration, have not yet determined which programme would best serve their interests. In particular, it is designed to meet the needs of mature students who are unwilling or unable to make the long-term commitment involved in a regular or extended degree programme.

The Certificate requires successful completion of 30 credits. At least 24 of these credits must be chosen from courses offered by not more than three departments in the Faculty of Arts and Science.

Credits earned in the Certificate may not be counted towards the additional credits required in extended programmes.

Former Independent students may transfer to the Certificate Programme in Arts and Science up to twelve credits already earned, provided they are students in good standing.

The General Certificate Programme in Arts and Science was first offered in the session commencing September 1978.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C212
Introduction to Applied Social Science

This course is an orientation to the field of applied social science with a specific focus on relating to and working with other people. It includes a consideration of personal identity, interpersonal relations, and concepts of helping relationship. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C321
Introduction to Social Gerontology

The course will deal with the problem of growing old in contemporary society, and with the biological, psychological, and sociological dimensions of the human aging processes. The course is also designed to identify the needs of the elderly in our community and to examine approaches to dealing with these needs. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C351
Understanding Group Behaviour

This is a laboratory course which includes participating in a group and analyzing such common group dynamics as leadership, communication, decision-making, member roles, and sensitivity to others. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C400
Introduction to Social Intervention

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Introduction to the principles and practice of social intervention. Approaches to social problem indentification and analysis. The role of the social change agent. Elements of working with individuals, groups, and communities. Laboratory periods will permit the application of course content to practice. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

Adolescent Behaviour in Urban Areas

Prerequisite: APSS C212. A survey of adolescent values, family and group relations, social mobility, friendship patterns, educational and vocational adjustment with a focus on understanding social behaviour in urban communities. Attention will also be given to programmes attempting to enhance adolescent development and reduce social problems. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C421
Leadership and Decision Making in Community Serving Organizations

Prerequisite: Second- or third-year standing and permission of the Department. This course focuses on the leader who solves problems and makes decisions in conjunction with other people in community serving organizations. The basic objective of this course is to increase knowledge and understanding of human behaviour in the not-for-profit organizations. The course will focus on: i) theory and research, ii) understanding of the processes of leadership and decision making, iii) behavioural skills in working with people, iv) understanding of oneself in relation to administrative responsibility. This course will rely heavily on active participation of class members. (3 credits) NOTE: See §200.1

Group Development and Supervision

Prerequisite: APSS C212. Orientation to systematic group development in community-serving organizations. Development of understanding and skill in using group procedures to facilitate communication and decision-making in small groups, classes, and committees. Focus on helping others improve their functioning with groups through supervision and training. Each student will study the development of an agency group throughout the year. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C441
Community Development

Prerequisite: APSS C212 or enrolment in a concentration in a social science. Orientation to systematic community problem solving dealing with communications, assessment of needs, decision-making, and intergroup relations, drawing on the contribution of the social sciences. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C442
Advanced Integrative Seminar in Community Organization and Animation

Prerequisite: This course is for Certificate students only. The purpose of this course is to coordinate the other courses required by the programme and to integrate the theory derived from the contributing disciplines within an applied social science perspective. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C451
Principles and Practices of Guidance

Prerequisite: APSS C212. Principles and methods of counselling and guidance with particular reference to their application in the setting of the community-serving organizations. Organization and administration of a guidance service including measurement and appraisal, techniques of counselling, occupational and educational information, and referral, will be considered. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C452
Introduction to Counselling

Prerequisites: APSS C212, C451. A survey of typical problems, information, techniques, principles, policies, and points of view useful to professional staff in community serving organizations; focus on educational, vocational, and relationship problems, and the use of counselling techniques in staff relations and supervision. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C453
Sexuality and Human Relations

Prerequisite: Third-year standing and permission of the Department. Using a variety of small group processes, the seminar will explore physical and psychosocial factors in the emergence of the sexual self. Objectives of the seminar include helping students to increase awareness of sexual values and attitudes. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C454
Special Seminar in Family Communication

Prerequisite: This course is for Certificate students only. A course in marriage and family living, including decision-making, interpersonal relationships, communication, male-female lifestyle and problem-solving within a family. Handling of crisis, loneliness, death, and dying will also be considered. The course studies marriage and family relationships in a way that can pertain directly to the student's own living experiences. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C455
Advanced Integrative Seminar in Family Life Education

Prerequisite: This course is for Certificate students only. The purpose of this course is to coordinate the other courses required by the programme and to integrate the theory derived from the contributing disciplines within an applied social science perspective. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C461
Social Welfare and the Social Welfare Services

Prerequisite: Second-year standing or permission of the Department. A general course concerned with social welfare problems in modern society: some analysis of these problems in relation to economic and cultural patterns. A description of the functional settings in which social welfare services are pratised. A consideration of the methods used in social welfare, and some consideration of the connective links between social welfare services and religion, law, medicine, nursing, teaching, and other professions. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C471
Special Projects Seminar

Prerequisites: Second-year standing in Specialization or Major in Applied Social Science and permission of the Department. A seminar course for field projects, surveys, and research studies undertaken by each student. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C472
Special Projects Seminar

Prerequisite: Second-year Major in Applied Social Science and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for APSS C471 may register for APSS C472 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C481
Special Seminar in Applied Social Science

Prerequisites: Psychology C200, Sociology C200, and permission of the Department. The subject for the seminar will vary from year to year, reflecting recent developments in social change, new approaches in the behavioural sciences, or the special interests of the instructor. (6 credits) NOTE C/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C482
Special Seminar in Applied Social Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for APSS C481 may register for APSS C482 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C485
Special Seminar in Applied Social Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The subject for the seminar will vary from year to year reflecting recent developments in social change, new approaches in the behavioural sciences, or the special interests of students or the instructor. (3 credits) NOTE C/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C486
Special Seminar in Applied Social Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for APSS C485 may register for APSS C486 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

APPLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE C487
Independent Study in Applied Social Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is intended for students who wish to continue a project initiated in another course in the Department. The instructor of that course must agree to supervise this independent study.(3 credits)

Coordinator
T. GRAY, Assistant Provost

ASIAN STUDIES

As Canada strengthens her relationships with the nations of Asia, she will need young men and women who have been trained in Asian Studies to provide leadership in such fields as education, foreign service, banking, international law, overseas industry, and business. The Asian Studies Programme seeks to meet this need by offering an interdisciplinary course of study involving the departments of Economics, History, Political Science, Religion and Sociology-Anthropology and the Faculty of Fine Arts.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the Programme Coordinator prior to registering for Asian and Third World Studies courses.

48 BA Major in Asian Studies

6 ATWS C410[6]
6 HIST C261[3], C262[3]
6 POLI C236[6]
6 Chosen from RELI C311[6], C312[6] or C313[6]
6 Chosen from ANTH C364[3], C365[3], C367[3]
18 Chosen from courses with Asian content

30 Minor in East Asian Studies

12 Chosen from HIST C261[3], C262[3], ATWS C410[6] or any other Asian Studies courses approved by the Programme Coordinator.
18 Chosen from HIST C362[6], C363[6], C461[6], RELI C312[6], WMUS C310[6], POLI C236[6], ANTH C365[3], C367[3]

NOTE: Students may take no more than 12 of these credits in a single department.

30 Minor in South Asian Studies

12 Chosen from HIST C261[6], ATWS C410[6] or any other Asian Studies course approved by the Coordinator.
18 Chosen from HIST C361[6], C461[6], RELI C311[6], C313[6], WMUS C310[6], POLI C236[6], ANTH C364[3], C367[3]

NOTE: Students may take no more than 12 of these credits in a single department.

THIRD WORLD STUDIES

The Third World Studies programme aims at encouraging and integrating interest in Asia, Africa and Latin America from an historical-developmental point of view. Courses relating to these areas are offered in the departments of History, Political Science, Sociology, Geography, Economics and the Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies.

Requirements:

Students enrolled in the programme will be required to take an introductory course ATWS C270[6], together with 18 credits selected from at least two of the aforementioned departmental offerings. This selection must be done in consultation with the Coordinator.

PROGRAMME

24 Minor in Third World Studies

6 ATWS C270[6]
18 Chosen from no more than two departments: History, Political Science, Sociology, Geography, Economics or Asian and Third World Studies
The selection must be in consultation with the Coordinator.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C210
Tutorial in an Asian Language

Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Asian Studies Major or Minor programmes or permission of the Coordinator of Asian Studies. Tutorial course in an approved Asian language with a qualified instructor approved by the Coordinator and the Department of Modern Languages. Students should understand that fees will vary with individual instructors. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C210 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C211
Tutorial in an Asian Language

Students who have received credit for ATWS C210 may register for ATWS C211 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C211 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C270
An Introduction to the Third World

While this course is designed to provide an interdisciplinary background to students enrolled in the Third World Studies Programme, it is open to all students, irrespective of faculty. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C270 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C370
Selected Topics in Third World Studies

This course focuses attention on some aspects of development and tradition in the Third World. The theme and methodology chosen will depend upon the background and interests of the instructor. Students are advised to consult the Programme Coordinator before registering in order to be sure of the content of the course in any one session. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C370 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C371
Selected Topics in Third World Studies

Students who have received credit for ATWS C370 may register for ATWS C371 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C371 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C410
Advanced Tutorial in Asian Studies I

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. A tutorial course designed for Majors and Minors in Asian Studies. The topic and tutor are decided in consultation with the Coordinator. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C410 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C411
Advanced Tutorial in Asian Studies II

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Students who have received credit for ATWS C410 may register for ATWS C411 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C411 may not take this course for credits.

ASIAN AND THIRD WORLD STUDIES C470
Third World Studies Seminar

Prerequisite: Second-year, third-year or graduate-student standing, with permission of the Coordinator. This seminar will deal with one or other special aspect of the Third World on a comparative basis. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C470 may not take this course for credits.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Courses offered by the Biology Department are classified as follows:

A. ZOOLOGY COURSES
BIOL C230, C232, C233, C234, C235, C237, C330, C331, C332, C333, C335, C336, C337, C338, C339, C431, C432, C433, C434, C438, C439.

B. BOTANY COURSES
BIOL C240, C242, C246, C341, C342, C343, C345, C347, C348, C441, C442, C448, C449.

C. ECOLOGY COURSES
BIOL C250, C351, C352, C353, C355, C356, C450, C454, C458, C459.

D. CELL AND MOLECULAR BIOLOGY COURSES
BIOL C220, C260, C270, C360, C361, C362, C363, C364, C365, C370, C460, C461, C462, C463, C464, C465, C467, C468, C469, C470.

E. BIOLOGY ELECTIVE COURSES
BIOL C222, C223, C320, C321, C328, C329, C380, C420, C421, C490, and any of the Zoology, Botany, Ecology, or Cell and Molecular Biology courses. Approved courses outside the Department may be taken for Biology elective credits.

For those wishing to concentrate in a particular area, recommended sequences of courses are described in course guides available in the Biology Department.

72 BSc Honours in Biology

An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes an Honours in Biology. Students must consult with the Departmental Honours Adviser before registering for the Honours programme.

24 CHEM C221^{3*} and C222^{3*}, C371^{6}, BIOL C222^{3}, C260^{3}, C490^{6}
6 BIOL C333^{6} or C348^{6} or C364^{3} and C464^{3}
36 Selected from A. Zoology courses , B. Botany courses , C. Ecology courses and D. Cell and Molecular Biology courses.
6 BIOL electives

NOTE: A minimum of 3 credits must be completed from each of the four subject areas within the first 60 credits.

A minimum of 12 credits in 400-level Biology courses must be completed, excluding C490.

60 BSc Specialization in Biology

An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes a Specialization in Biology.

18 CHEM C221^{3*} and C222^{3*}, C371^{6} (or BIOL C361^{3} and C362^{3}), BIOL C222^{3}, C260^{3}
6 BIOL C333^{6} or C348^{6} or C364^{3} and C464^{3}
30 Selected from A. Zoology courses , B. Botany courses , C. Ecology courses , D. Cell and Molecular Biology courses.
6 BIOL electives

NOTE: A minimum of 3 credits must be completed from each of the four subject areas within the first 60 credits.

A minimum of 9 credits in 400-level Biology courses must be completed, excluding C490.

36 BSc Major in Biology

An approved sequence of courses from the following selection constitutes a Major in Biology.

9 CHEM C221[3]* and C222[3]*, BIOL C260[3]

6 Selected from CHEM C371[6], BIOL C222[3], C333[6], C348[6], C361[3], C362[3], C364[3] and C464[3]

15 Selected from A. Zoology courses , B. Botany courses , C. Ecology courses , D. Cell and Molecular Biology courses.

6 BIOL electives

NOTE: A minimum of 3 credits must be completed from each of the four subject areas within the first 60 credits.

A minimum of 6 credits in 300- or 400-level Biology courses must be completed.

24 Minor in Biology

12 BIOL electives.

NOTE: Minor is open to non-Science students.

Because of the extensive renumbering of Biology Department courses, students are urged to consult with the Department in order to avoid registering for courses which may not be taken in combination or sequence. For a list of equivalent courses, please see Section 200.

BIOLOGY C200
Fundamentals of Human Biology

A series of lectures, demonstrations, and seminars to provide non-biologists with a general survey of the fundamental principles of life, with special emphasis on the structures and functions of human beings. Lectures only. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C201
Introductory Biology

A survey of basic principles of Organismal Biology: chemical basis of life, cell organization and control; elements of anatomy, taxonomy, physiology, morphogenesis, heredity, and evolution. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students with CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent may not take this course for credits. Students entering Biology programmes without CEGEP Biology 301 may not take this course for Biology elective credits.

BIOLOGY C203
Fundamental Nutrition

This course deals with food composition (carbohydrates, lipids, proteins, vitamins, and minerals), its absorption and utilization, energy balance, special diets, and food technology. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C205
Genetics and Human Welfare

A course on the principles of heredity as understood by modern biology. It deals also with the application of genetic principles to organisms, including humans. The biological basis of social problems is dealt with at some length. Organic evolution and its implications for human life and welfare are considered. Lectures only. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits; may not be taken for credit with BIOL C206.

BIOLOGY C206
Elementary Genetics

A survey of classical and contemporary developments in the study of heredity, with particular attention to human examples. This course is open to the general student body. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits; may not be taken for credit with BIOL C205.

BIOLOGY C207
Micro-Organisms and Man

A course designed for non-Science students. It will consider the role of microorganisms in plant and animal diseases, food spoilage, cellulose degradation, and water pollution, as well as their ecological, industrial, and pharmacological importance. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C208
Environmental Biology

This course examines the principles and concepts of ecosystems, the interaction of organisms and their environment. Energy flow and nutrient cycling in ecosystems, population dynamics, and community organization. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C209
Environmental Biology II

Prerequisite: BIOL C208. The course considers both natural and man-made ecological problems, including various aspects of pollution, resource and waste control vital for human survival. Lectures, seminars, and tutorials. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in a Biology or Biochemistry programme may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C220
Introductory Cell Biology

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Cell biology, elementary biochemistry, developmental biology, physiology, and genetics. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C222
Biostatistics I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Application of statistical methods to biological data; descriptive statistics, binomial, Poisson, and normal distributions; confidence limits; tests of significance, introduction to analysis of variance, correlation, and regression; analysis of frequencies. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7

BIOLOGY C223
Biostatistics II

Prerequisites: BIOL C222 or MATH C241. Sampling methods; analysis of variance and experimental design; regression and correlation techniques; bioassay; nonparametric statistics; analytical methods in field biology, genetics, and microbiology. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7

BIOLOGY C230
Animal Biology

Prerequisites: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. A survey of the major animal phyla, with emphasis on evolutionary trends, structure and function, behaviour and integration of organ systems. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C238.

BIOLOGY C232
Entomology I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. This course introduces the student to the variety and complexity of insect life. Basic classification is followed by a more detailed study of morphology and anatomy, together with some physiological considerations, including growth and metamorphosis. Other topics such as adaptations for aquatic life, social behaviour, etc., will be discussed. Laboratories will begin with a field trip, the object of which will be to observe and collect various insect species. The rest of the laboratory sessions will complement the lectures. Students are advised to begin an insect collection during the summer months preceding the course. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C233
Entomology II

Prerequisite: BIOL C232. To the initiated student, this course will present an in-depth study of insect behaviour. Topics will include sensory physiology, insects and plants, light and sound production, population dynamics and insect ecology. An attempt will be made throughout the course to establish a web of interrelationships between the structures and functions of various insect parts. Laboratories will involve the use of live animals, and the students may be required to spend additional time for certain experiments. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C234
Invertebrate Zoology I

Prerequisite: BIOL C201. The Protozoa, Acoelomate and Pseudocoelomate Invertebrates: A detailed survey of non-coelomate invertebrates which will deal in depth with the Protozoa, Ciliata, Porifera, Cnidaria, Platyhelminthes, Nematoda, Acanthocephala and Rotifera. Emphasis in lectures will be placed on phylogeny, physiology, functional morphology, adaptations to specific environments and reproduction. Close attention will be paid to evolutionary trends within and between phylogenetic groups. Both origin of the metazoa from single-celled ancestors and the role of the lower metazoa in the evolution of higher animals will be examined. Laboratory work stresses morphology of both preserved and living material and where possible, live specimens are used to demonstrate behaviour. Lectures and laboratories. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C338.

BIOLOGY C235
Invertebrate Zoology II

Prerequisite: BIOL C234. The Coelomate Invertebrates: A detailed examination of the major coelomate invertebrate phyla including the Anneldids, Molluscs, Arthropods (excluding Insects). Echinoderms and, if time permits, the minor coelomate phyla. Close attention will be paid to the origin of the coelom and its possible derivation from an evolutionary standpoint. Lectures will stress functional morphology, physiology and reproduction. Emphasis in the laboratory will be on dissection of selected representatives of each group and a detailed examination of the external characteristics of a range of representatives of each group. Where possible living specimens will be used to demonstrate behaviour. Lectures and laboratories. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C338.

BIOLOGY C237
Vertebrate Embryology

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. The fundamental processes of growth and development in the vertebrates. A comparative study is made of selected vertebrate species with emphasis on the experimental aspects. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students may not receive credit for this course if taken with BIOL C337.

BIOLOGY C240
Plant Biology

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. A survey of the major plant phyla, with emphasis on evolutionary trends, distribution, life cycles, morphology, development, physiology, economy and ecology. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C242
Economic Botany
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Origin, development, and use of selected economic plants, including microorganisms. Their historical impact, prospects for future use, and importance to the Canadian economy are stressed, as well as world-wide problems of food and alimentation. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C246
Biology of Fresh Water and Marine Algae
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Taxonomy, physiology, and ecology of algae, with special consideration of their involvement in water pollution, sewage treatment, primary production, and their utilization in industry. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C250
Fundamentals of Ecology
Prerequisite: Biology 301 or equivalent. An introduction to the basic principles of ecology dealing with the most important components of ecosystems. The course illustrates how environmental factors determine the distribution and abundance of plants and animals in various aquatic and terrestrial biomes of the world. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C260
Genetics
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent; CEGEP Biology 401 or equivalent recommended. A course to illustrate the fundamental principles of inheritance in plants, animals, and microorganisms. Mendelian genetics, gene linkage, and mutation will be covered. The role of DNA as the hereditary material and the genetic code will be studied in detail, as will the mechanisms of DNA, RNA, and protein synthesis. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credits with BIOL C360.

BIOLOGY C270
Introductory Microbiology
Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 301 or equivalent. Structure and function, growth and genetics of microorganisms, with particular emphasis on bacteria and viruses as related to industry, health, agriculture, and ecology. Laboratory exercises will illustrate lecture material and introduce methods of handling microorganisms. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C320
History of Biology
Prerequisite: 12 credits from the Department of Biology. The lecture material is oriented toward the beginnings of formal biology in relation to the state of knowledge at the time, and the development of these ideas up to the beginning of the present century. Emphasis is on broad principles rather than on encyclopedic or biographical notes. Much illustrative or detailed information is provided by the class, since each student must present a seminar on a topic chosen from the men, ideas, or technology of biology. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C321
Evolution
Prerequisite: Any 12 credits from the Department of Biology. A course to examine the concepts leading from Darwin's theory to a modern synthesis of evolution. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C323
Biology of Aging
Prerequisite: BIOL C230 and C260. Aging as a biological process will be examined at physiological, evolutionary, genetic, cellular, and molecular levels. Current theories of aging will be examined: these include the rate of living theory, the error catastrophe theory, the autoimmune theory, the cross-linkage theory, and the somatic mutation theory. Studies on aging in protozoans, plants, animals, and cells in culture will be evaluated in relation to these theories. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C328
Special Topics in Biology
Prerequisite: Second year standing in Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Selected topics will be presented according to the interests of the instructor. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C329
Special Topics in Biology
Prerequisite: Second year standing in Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for BIOL C328 may register for BIOL C329 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C330
Chordate Anatomy
Prerequisite: BIOL C230. A study of the anatomy and evolutionary development of the major organ systems of the chordates. In the laboratory, the lamprey, the mudpuppy, the turtle, and the cat will be dissected. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C331.

BIOLOGY C331
Comparative Vertebrate Anatomy
Prerequisite: BIOL C230, C235 or C237. A comprehensive study of the development and structure of the systems of a representative series of vertebrates from a comparative and evolutionary point of view, with some emphasis on the mammals. In the laboratory, representatives of the principal classes of vertebrates will be dissected. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with C330.

BIOLOGY C332
Parasitology
Prerequisite: BIOL C230 or C234 previously or concurrently. A survey of the parasitic groups of invertebrates, with special reference to the parasites of man. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C339.

BIOLOGY C333
Animal Physiology
Prerequisite: BIOL C230, C235, or C237; CHEM C221 and C222. An integrated study of basic physiological phenomena of vertebrates. Topics discussed include muscle function, nervous system, circulation, respiration, temperature regulation, digestion, metabolism, excretion, and endocrinology. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

BIOLOGY C335
Histology I
Prerequisite: BIOL C230, C237, or C238; C330 or C331 recommended. A comparative study of the microscopic characteristics of cells, tissues, and organs of vertebrates. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C336
Histology II
Prerequisite: BIOL C335. An advanced comparative study of the vertebrate organ systems at the ultrastructural and histological level. Those registered will be expected to participate in a seminar. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C337
Comparative Vertebrate Embryology
Prerequisite: BIOL C230 or C235. A detailed study, from the comparative point of view, of the developmental processes and organogenesis in representative vertebrate embryos, leading to an understanding of the structure and function of the human systems. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C237.

BIOLOGY C338
Invertebrate Zoology
Prerequisite: BIOL C230. This course covers selected topics illustrating physiological phenomena occurring among several invertebrate phyla. Special emphasis is placed on endocrine control of growth, reproduction, and development. The role of environmental factors on these physiological processes is also stressed. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credits for BIOL C234 or C235 may not take this course for credits.

BIOLOGY C339
General Parasitology
Prerequisite: BIOL C230 and C234. A study of the protozoan, helminth, and arthropod parasites of man, domestic animals, and wildlife. Special emphasis will be placed on the transmission of parasites with reference to the behaviour and ecology of both the host and the parasite. Additional topics will include the evolution of the parasitic way of life, subsequent adaptations, and various aspects of the host-parasite relationship. Laboratory: techniques for parasite recovery, basic staining and histological techniques, fecal analysis, identification of parasitic worms, infection of experimental animals. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C332.

BIOLOGY C341
Biology of the Fungi
Prerequisite: BIOL C270. A study of the morphology, taxonomy, phylogeny, and ecology of the fungi; their importance in agriculture, industry, medicine, and research will be emphasized. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C342
Eastern North American Flora
Prerequisite: BIOL C240, previously or concurrently. A study of higher plant life occurring in Eastern North America, including recognition, collection, identification, classification, and distribution. Field work for practical experience with the regional flora in various habitats. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C343
Biology of Non-Vascular Plants
Prerequisite: BIOL C240. A survey of the taxonomy, morphology, life cycles, and evolution of representatives of the lower plants (algae, mosses, lichens, liverworts). Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C345
Horticultural Science
Prerequisite: BIOL C240. The scientific concepts of horticulture are emphasized. Topics include plant breeding for adaptation to climate, chemical regulation of plant processes and effects on crop yield, environmental factors in crop production, pollutant impact on horticulture, problems in bulk storage, processing and marketing of perishables. The role of horticultural science in meeting world food requirements, as well as its impact on society, are discussed. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C347
Plant Anatomy
Prerequisite: BIOL C240. A study of the internal structure of the plant as related to the processes of growth and metabolism. An experimental approach is presented to the study of the relationship between structure and function of various parts of the plant. The study of pathological, ecological, and economic aspects of anatomy, with emphasis on developmental anatomy. Laboratory work includes the preparation of permanent slides using plant microtechnique. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C348
Plant Physiology
Prerequisite: BIOL C240, and Chemistry C221 and C222. A study of physiological processes of higher plants including mineral nutrition, water absorption, transport, transpiration, photosynthesis, carbohydrate and nitrogen metabolism, respiration; plant responses to growth regulators, their mechanism of action, and their role in plant growth and metabolism. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

BIOLOGY C351
Field and Laboratory Ecology
Prerequisite: BIOL C250 and permission of the Department. An introduction to the methods of qualitative and quantitative studies of aquatic and terrestrial ecosystems. Students will gain experience in techniques of field investigation. Field trips and laboratory work. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C352
Plant Field Ecology

Prerequisite: BIOL C240. This course is normally offered for a two-week period during August at the Lacolle Centre. It will involve identification of local plant species, methods of sampling of communities, and examination of the pattern of plant communities in the area. Handling of data on populations and communities will be discussed, as well as statistics on population distributions. A mixture of formal lectures, organized field studies, and informal discussion. Students will be required to hand in a written report after the course has ended. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C353
Intermediate Ecology

Prerequisite: BIOL C250. An in-depth analysis of factors affecting distribution and abundance of plants and animals. Environmental physiology, adaptations of plants and animals; population structures and behaviour patterns as responses to the physical environment will be discussed. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C355
Fundamentals of Limnology

Prerequisite: BIOL C250, previously or concurrently. An introduction to the study of fresh-water ecosystems, with major emphasis on geographical, physical, and chemical characteristics. The major topics include the origin of lake basins, lake morphology and morphometry, waves and currents, the optical and thermal properties of lakes, dissolved chemicals. Some aspects of water pollution are considered. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C356
Microbial Ecology

Prerequisite: BIOL C270. The course is designed to give an understanding of the environement in which microorganisms live, the structure of microbial communities, and the ways in which microbes interact during the processes involved in decomposition and nutrient cycling. Stress will be placed on the ecology of soil microorganisms, though aquatic communities will also be discussed. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C360
General Genetics

Prerequisite: BIOL C230 and C240. A study of the principles and processes of plant, animal, and human heredity from the classical foundations, through the modern to the recent molecular developments; developmental and population genetics, and evolution. Laboratory: directed experiments with Drosophila and other organisms. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with BIOL C260.

BIOLOGY C361
Cellular Metabolism I

Prerequisite: BIOL C230, C240, and CHEM C221 and C222. This course will deal with the simple metabolism of biomolecules in both plants and animals. A basic study of enzymes and their mode of action; nucleic acids and their role in protein synthesis. Distribution of organelles and their metabolism, cellular oxidations and energetics. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with CHEM C371.

BIOLOGY C362
Cellular Metabolism II

Prerequisite: BIOL C361. Designed to follow Biology C361, the course examines the intracellular localization of enzymes, their activity and control from a comparative cellular basis; coenzymes and their importance in intermediary metabolism. Membrane and cell-wall synthesis; hormones and their mode of action. Nutritional requirements of organisms. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with CHEM C371.

BIOLOGY C363
Genetics of Higher Organisms

Prerequisite: BIOL C260. This course will cover various aspects of the genetics of multicellular and eukaryotic organisms, including cytogenetics, developmental, human, behavioral, and population genetics, as well as somatic cell genetics. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C364
Cell Physiology

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 401 or BIOL C220; CHEM C221 and C222, previously or concurrently. A survey of the mechanisms involved in functions of single cells and subcellular components, particularly organelles; membrane phenomena, motility, bioenergetics, and cellular responses to environmental stress, including ionizing radiation, cold, and hydrostatic pressure. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C365
Cytology

Prerequisite: CEGEP Biology 401 or equivalent, and CHEM C221 and C222. Cell structure and ultrastructure, with reference to organelle function; microscopic and cyto-chemical techniques of analysis; emphasis is on experimental, molecular, and ultrastructure analysis, to achieve a correlation between cell structure and function. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C370
Intermediate Microbiology

Prerequisite: BIOL C270, and CHEM C221 and C222; BIOL C361 or CHEM C371 recommended. Designed to continue from Biology C270. Nutrition and metabolism of microorganisms, with special emphasis on metabolic processes unique to microorganisms (fermentations, oxidation of inorganic compounds, aerobic respiration, and anaerobic respiration). Basic immunology and immunochemistry; brief discussion of microbes in medicine and industry. Laboratory will include metabolic and serologic methods of identifying microorganisms. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C380
Nutrition

Prerequisite: CHEM C221 and C222; BIOL C361 or Chemistry C371 recommended. The concept of a balanced diet will be studied in relation to caloric content, and to protein, lipid, carbohydrate, vitamin, and mineral requirements. The consequences of dietary deficiencies will be examined. Special topics such as dieting, organic foods, megavitamins, food additives, and toxins will be discussed. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C420
Radiation Biology and Radiotracer Methodology I

Prerequisite: BIOL C260 or C360, and C364. A survey of the elements of radiation physics, with emphasis on the properties of ionizing radiation and its interaction with matter, including dosimetry and methods of radiation counting. The effects of radiation at the macromolecular, cellular, and organismal level will be considered from both the somatic and genetic points of view. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C421
Radiation Biology and Radiotracer Methodology II

Prerequisite: BIOL C420. A detailed study of selected topics in chemical and solid state dosimetry, liquid scintillation counting, neutron irradiation techniques, cell kinetics, target theory, radiation botany, and mammalian radiobiology. Laboratory will emphasize the use of a wide range of radiosotopes and radiation sources. A visit to a major radiation lab or reactor will be arranged. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C431
Biology of Fishes

Prerequisite: BIOL C330 or C331. This introduction to fish biology will include a study of anatomy, physiology, and classification of the major groups of fishes, as well as their ecology and zoogeography. Emphasis will be placed on freshwater fishes. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C432
Microscopical Techniques

Prerequisite: BIOL C335. Histological techniques involved in the preparation of various animal tissues for microscopic study; techniques of microscopy, and some practical experience in photomicrography. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C433
Neurology

Prerequisite: BIOL C330 or C331. A study of the anatomy and physiology of the nervous systems of vertebrates, especially of the mammals and man. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

BIOLOGY C434
Comparative and Environmental Physiology

Prerequisite: BIOL C333, C362, or CHEM C371. This course is designed on a function-system basis and deals with a comparative study of physiological processes in animals, their behaviour and physiological adaptations to the environment. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

BIOLOGY C438
Advanced Topics in Zoology

Prerequisite: Third year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Lectures and seminars or laboratories on recent developments in taxonomy, ecology, physiology or experimental techniques. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C439
Advanced Topics in Zoology

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization, or Major programme, and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for BIOL C438 may register for BIOL C439 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C441
Plant Biochemistry

Prerequisite: BIOL C348 or CHEM C371 or BIOL C361 and C362. Biochemical study of the natural constituents and secondary metabolites unique to plants. Their biosynthesis, biotransformations, and functions in plants, as well as their economic and pharmacologic importance will be stressed. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C442
Plant Responses to Environmental Stresses

Prerequisite: BIOL C348. Morphological, physiological, and biochemical responses of plants to various environmental stresses, including freezing, drought, light, mineral deficiencies, radiation, and environmental pollutants. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C448
Advanced Topics in Botany

Prerequisite: Third year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Lectures and seminars or laboratories on recent developments in taxonomy, ecology, physiology or experimental techniques. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C449
Advanced Topics in Botany

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization, or Major programme, and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for BIOL C448 may register for BIOL C449 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C450
Aquatic Ecology and Water Pollution

Prerequisite: BIOL C355. An inquiry into factors governing the distribution and abundance of aquatic organisms in lakes and streams. Emphasis on the nature and significance of the responses of aquatic organisms and communities through changes in water quality with pollution. Sources and types of pollutants and methods of evaluating pollution and treating wastes. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C454
Population Ecology

Prerequisite: BIOL C353. A theoretical approach to ecological problems. Evolutionary aspects of ecological problems, population dynamics, species diversity, stability of ecosystems, regulation of population size, competition, and predation. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C458
Advanced Topics in Ecology
Prerequisite: Third year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Lectures and seminars or laboratories on recent developments in plant, microbial, animal, aquatic or population ecology. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C459
Advanced Topics in Ecology
Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization, or Major programme, and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for BIOL C458 may register for BIOL C459 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C460
Molecular Genetics
Prerequisite: BIOL C260 or C360, and CHEM C371 previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Basic microbial and molecular genetics, including mechanisms in protein synthesis, bacteriophage recombination. Use of genetics in the study of regulation of gene expression, the code and mechanism in protein synthesis; bacteriophage genetics; episomes. Lectures and conferences. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C461
Advanced Genetics
Prerequisite: BIOL C260 or C360. Directed readings and seminars in classical and contemporary genetics designed to expose the student to research literature and problems. Students will probe in greater depth areas of particular interest in order to develop a critical sense and deepen an understanding of past and current work in this field. Seminars only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C462
Immunology
Prerequisite: BIOL C364, C260, or C360; Chemistry C371, previously or concurrently. A course in modern immunology stressing the following areas of study: the structure and properties of antigens and antibodies; the nature of the immune response; cellular antibody synthesis; genetic aspects of antibody synthesis; theories relating antibody specificity to genetic potential. Lectures and conferences. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C463
Developmental Biology
Prerequisite: BIOL C364, C260, or C360; C237 or C337 recommended. A study of the cellular aspects of development of animals and plants in relation to the acquisition of form. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C464
Advanced Cell Physiology
Prerequisite: BIOL C364; Chemistry C371, previously or concurrently. Lectures and seminars dealing with selected topics in cell physiology, emphasizing a molecular experimental approach. Lectures only. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C465
Biological Regulatory Mechanisms
Prerequisite: Biology C260 or C360; Chemistry C371, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Metabolic pathways, with an emphasis on their control and coordination; intercellular messengers in developmental and adult systems. Lectures and conferences. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C467
Cytogenetics
Prerequisite: BIOL C365 and C260 or C360, or permission of the Department. A detailed study of plant and animal chromosomes, their structures, and normal and abnormal behaviour; species evolution and preservation; various anomalies, ploidy, heterosis, apomixy; human cytogenetics. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C468
Advanced Topics in Cell and Molecular Biology
Prerequisite: Third year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization or Major programme and permission of the Department. Lectures and seminars or laboratories on recent developments in prokaryotic and eukaryotic cellular physiology, genetics, immunology, cytogenetics, or molecular biology. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C469
Advanced Topics in Cell and Molecular Biology
Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Biology Honours, Specialization, or Major programme, and permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for BIOL C468 may register for BIOL C469 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C470
Microbial Physiology
Prerequisite: BIOL C270, Chemistry C371 previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A study of the biochemical activities underlying the life of microorganisms to survey the diverse patterns used by microorganisms in energy metabolism and biosynthesis. Applications of theoretical knowledge to industrial microbiology, including fermentation and antibiotic production will be examined. Lectures and conferences. (3 credits)

BIOLOGY C490
Independent Study
Prerequisite: Third-year standing in Honours Biology, or permission of the Department. In this course, the student undertakes a special research project selected in consultation with and conducted under the supervision of a faculty member of the Department. The project is intended to develop the student's knowledge of standard scientific procedures, including methods of researching scientific literature, the planning and execution of experimental and analytical procedures, the writing of a formal report, and the presentation of a seminar on the project. (6 credits)

31.040 Canadian Studies

Coordinator
G. DECARIE, Associate Professor

The Canadian Studies Programme seeks to give students a better understanding of the diverse origins and multi-faceted character of Canada. It provides the opportunity to obtain a liberal arts education given direction and depth by a focus on Canada.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the Programme Coordinator prior to registering for Canadian Studies courses.

60 BA Specialization in Canadian Studies

6 CDNS C220[6]
6 ENGL C290[6]; or ENGL C291[3] and C292[3]
6 French Language, at a level to be determined in consultation with the French Department
6 HIST C203[3] and C205[3]
6 CDNS C421[6]
30 Elective credits in related Canadian content courses, chosen in consultation with the Coordinator, from Anthropology, Art History, Communication Studies, Economics, Education, English, French, Geography, History, Interdisciplinary Studies, Journalism, Political Science, Religion, Sociology, and World Music.

42 BA Major in Canadian Studies

CANADIAN STUDIES C220
Introduction to Canadian Studies

Prerequisite: First-year standing Canadian Studies Major, or permission of the Coordinator. An introduction to some of the problems which have been explored by the humanities and social sciences in the study of Canada. The themes will vary from year to year and could cover topics such as the industrialization of Quebec, immigrant and ethnic traditions and the Americanization of Canada. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C220 may not take this course for credits.

CANADIAN STUDIES C320
Selected Topics in Canadian Studies

This course focuses its attention on one or more aspects of the Canadian Studies programme. The theme and methodology chosen will depend upon the background and interests of the instructor. Students are advised to consult the Programme Coordinator before registering in order to be sure of the title of the course in any one session. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C320 may not take this course for credits.

CANADIAN STUDIES C321
Selected Topics in Canadian Studies

Students who have received credit for CDNS C320 may register for CDNS C321 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C321 may not take this course for credits.

CANADIAN STUDIES C421
Seminar in Canadian Studies

Prerequisite: CDNS C220 or permission of the Coordinator. This is an advanced seminar in Canadian Studies which emphasizes an interdisciplinary approach to certain concerns or characteristics of Canada and Canadians. It will normally be taken by students near the end of a Canadian Studies Programme. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C421 may not take this course for credits.

CANADIAN STUDIES C422
Seminar in Canadian Studies

Prerequisite: CDNS C220 and CDNS C421. Students who have received credit for CDNS C421 may register for CDNS C422 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C422 may not take this course for credits.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

NOTE: The Order of Chemists of Quebec has fully accredited the curricula of i) Honours in Chemistry ii) Specialization in Analytical Chemistry iii) Specialization in Biochemistry iv) Specialization in Chemistry. Upon satisfactory completion of any of the above-mentioned programmes, a graduate is eligible for membership in the Order. A working knowledge of French is required.

72 BSc Honours in Chemistry

Year I

24 CHEM C211^{6}, C221^{3}, C222^{3}, C231^{2}, C232^{2}, C233^{2}, C241^{3}, C242^{3}

3 MATH C220^{3}

Year II

26 CHEM C311^{2}, C316^{1}, C321^{2}, C322^{2}, C329^{2}, C331^{2}, C332^{2}, C338^{2}, C339^{2}, C342^{2}, C348^{1}, C391^{3}; C310^{2} and C315^{1}, or C314^{2} and C319^{1}

Year III

19 CHEM C450^{6}, 3 credits of Physical Chemistry, 10 credits at the 400-level (6 credits must be in one area)

60 BSc Specialization in Chemistry

Year I

22 CHEM C211^{6}, C221^{3}, C222^{3}, C231^{2}, C232^{2}, C241^{3}, C242^{3}

R.H. ZIENIUS, Associate Professor, Chemistry

The Chemistry Co-Operative Programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the B.Sc. Honours or Specialization in Chemistry, Specialization in Biochemistry and Specialization in Analytical Chemistry.

Students in Chem Co-Op take the regular academic programme. The schedule of academic and work periods for an entering group of Chem Co-Op students is given in § 31.515.

The overseeing of the Chem Co-Op programme is the responsibility of the Chem Co-Op Committee, which provides the connecting link between students, employers and the University.

Students interested in applying for the Chem Co-Op should refer to § 31.515, where a full description of the admission requirements is provided, or write to Dr. G.J. Trudel, Director, Institute for Cooperative Education, 7141 Sherbrooke Street West, Montreal, Quebec, H4B 1R6 (telephone (514) 482-0320, local 331).

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

CHEMISTRY C205
General Chemistry I

Stoichiometry, states of matter, atomic structure, electron structure of atoms, the periodic table, periodic properties, bonding, solids. Lectures, tutorials, and laboratories. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

CHEMISTRY C206
General Chemistry II

Prerequisite: CHEM C205. Thermochemistry, solutions and their properites, equilibrium, ionic equilibrium, pH, buffers, kinetics, reaction mechanisms, other selected topics related to biochemistry, biology, and engineering. Lectures, tutorials, and laboratories. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

CHEMISTRY C208
Chemistry for Non-Science Students

This course covers aspects of Chemistry which are of general interest to the non-science student. Sections deal with the social impact of chemistry and with chemistry of the natural environment. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is not a prerequisite for any Chemistry course. This course may not be taken for credit by Science students.

CHEMISTRY C211
Introductory Quantitative Analysis

Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301, CEGEP Mathematics 103 and 203; or equivalent courses. Treatment of analytical data; chemical equilibria as applied to volumetric and gravimetric procedures; general theory of titrations and titration curves; neutralization, precipitation, complexation, oxidation-reduction, and non-aqueous titrations, gravimetric analysis; potentiometry and potentiometric titrations; absorptimetric methods. Laboratory is taken concurrently and provides experience in the techniques of analysis discussed in the lectures. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

NOTE: A student who has obtained credits for GEOL C324 may not take this course for credits.

CHEMISTRY C221
Introductory Organic Chemistry I

Prerequisite: CEGEP 201 or equivalent. Synthesis, structure, and reactivity of saturated and unsaturated hydrocarbons. Elementary stereochemistry. Chemistry of benzene. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C222
Introductory Organic Chemistry II

Prerequisite: CHEM C221 or one semester CEGEP Organic Chemistry. Synthesis, structure, and reactivity of principal functional groups. Simple reaction mechanisms. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C231
Introductory Physical Chemistry I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103 and 203, or equivalent courses. Real gases, equations of state (Van der Waal's, Virial, etc.), first law of thermodynamics, thermochemistry, entropy, and the second and third laws of thermodynamics, free energy and chemical equilibrium, electrochemical cells and the Nernst equation, use of activities, Gibbs-Helmholtz equation. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C232
Introductory Physical Chemistry II

Prerequisite: CHEM C231 or an equivalent course. Applications of thermodynamics to one-, two-, and three-component systems, including the properties of liquids, colligative properties, phase equilibria, kinetic molecular theory, chemical kinetics, the behaviour of electrolytes in solution. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C233
Introductory Quantum Chemistry

Prerequisite: MATH C220; CEGEP Chemistry 201, CEGEP Physics 301, or equivalent courses. This course is intended to introduce the student to the fundamental ideas of quantum theory as applied to chemistry. Topics covered include the origins of quantum theory, the postulates of quantum mechanics, applications to simple systems, the hydrogen atom, other atoms, and simple molecules. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C241
Introduction to Inorganic Chemistry

Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103 and 203, or equivalent courses. The structure of the atom; Ionic Bonding; Covalent Bonding; Chemical Forces; Acid-Base Chemistry; Chemistry in Aqueous and Non-aqueous solutions. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C242
Chemistry of the Main Group Elements

Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201; CEGEP Physics 301; CEGEP Mathematics 103 and 203, or equivalent courses. A survey of the properties and reactions of: Hydrogen, Group IA Lithium to Cesium, Group IIA Beryllium to Radium, Group IIIA Aluminum to Thallium, Carbon, Group IVB Silicon to Lead, Nitrogen, Group VB Phosphorus to Bismuth, Oxygen, Group VIB Sulphur to Polonium, the Halogens, the Noble Gases, Group IIB Zinc, Cadmium, and Mercury. Lectures and Laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C280
Photographic Chemistry I

Prerequisite: Open to non-Science students, preferably with some high school chemistry. This is a combined lecture-and-laboratory course in photographic chemistry. It is to be taken in conjunction with Physics C215/C217. Basic chemical principles in the study of the photographic process. Factors affecting the control of development and some chemical reactions involved in the photographic process will be discussed and demonstrated. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C281
Photographic Chemistry II

Prerequisite: CHEM C280. This is a continuation of CHEM C280. Manufacturing of photographic emulsion, developer composition, fixer composition, fixation and washing; reversal processing; mechanism of latent image formation and the theory of development will be discussed and demonstrated. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C282
Environmental Chemistry

Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201, or equivalent. General aspects of environment and ecology; cycles in nature. The chemistry of pollution, air-pollution, water pollution, water treatment. Compounds treated: oxides of carbon, nitrogen, and sulphur, hydrocarbons and types of particles. Photochemical and chain reactions. Mercury, lead, oil detergents, and insecticides will be examined with regard to their chemistry, and their contribution to pollution. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C310
Electrochemical Methods of Analysis

Prerequisite: CHEM C211; CHEM C315 concurrently. Topics in theory and application involving potentiometry and potentiometric titrations; automated methods; polarization titrations; coulometry and coulometric titrations; electrogravimetry and electrolytic separations; voltametry and polarography; pulse and sweep methods; amperometric titrations; conductometric techniques; chronopotentiometry and chronoamperometry. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C311
Introductory Analytical Organic Chemistry I

Prerequisite: CHEM C211 and C222, or CHEM C222 and 6 credits in Biology course(s) with laboratory, CHEM C316 concurrently. Identification of organic compounds and trace impurities by chemical and instrumental methods. Discussion of analytical procedures, sample preparation, and instrumental methods, with emphasis on spectroscopic methods. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C312
Introductory Analytical Organic Chemistry II

Prerequisite: CHEM C211 and C222, or CHEM C222 and 6 credits in Biology course(s) with laboratory. CHEM C317 con currently. Separation, purification, and identification of organic components in chemical mixtures. Discussion of the basic principles of physical and chemical separations and related instrumentation, with emphasis on chromatographic methods. Lectures only (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C313
Environmental Pollution and Pollutant Analysis

Prerequisite: CHEM C222, and any one of CHEM C211, C371, BIOL C250; Chemistry C318 concurrently. Scope and purpose of environmental chemistry; nature and composition of natural waters; pollution and trace-level substances in water; water analysis; nature and composition of the atmosphere; atmospheric levels of the oxides of carbon, sulphur, and nitrogen; organic, inorganic and particulate pollutants in the atmosphere; monitoring and analysis of pollutants in the atmosphere. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C314
Optical Methods of Analysis

Prerequisite: CHEM C211; CHEM C319 concurrently. Theory and application of absorptimetric, turbidimetric, nephelometric, and fluorescence techniques; flame absorption and emission spectroscopy; electrical and plasma arc emission spectroscopy; atomic absorption flame and flameless techniques; X-ray fluorescence and diffraction methods; X-ray microprobe methods; radiochemical techniques. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C315
Electrochemical Methods of Analysis Laboratory

Prerequisite: CHEM C211; CHEM C310 concurrently. Analytical experiments providing experience in the methods discussed in CHEM C310. Laboratory only (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C316
Introductory Analytical Organic Laboratory I

Prerequisites: CHEM C211 and C222, or CHEM C222 and 6 credits in Biology course(s) with laboratory; CHEM C311 concurrently. Macroand semimicro- separation techniques and procedures providing experience in the methods discussed in CHEM C311. Laboratory only (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C317
Introductory Analytical Organic Laboratory II

Prerequisites: CHEM C311, C316; CHEM C312 concurrently. Macro- and semimicroseparation techniques and procedures providing experience in the methods discussed in CHEM C312. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C318
Environmental Pollution Analysis Laboratory

Prerequisite: CHEM C222, and any one of CHEM C211, C371, BIOL C250; CHEM C313 concurrently. Analytical experiments providing experience in the pollutant analysis methods discussed in CHEM C313. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C319
Optical Methods of Analysis Laboratory

Prerequisite: CHEM C211; CHEM C314 concurrently. Analytical experiments providing experience in the methods discussed in CHEM C314. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C321
Organic Stereochemistry

Prerequisite: CHEM C222, C232, or C234. Conformational analysis of acyclic and cyclic systems. Relationship to physical properties and chemical reactivity: Chirality, enantiomerism, diastereomerism, prochirality, enantiotopism, and diastereotopism. Examples from steroid, carbohydrate, and enzyme mediated reactions. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C322
Organic Reactions

Prerequisite: CHEM C321 and C331, previously or concurrently. A mechanistic survey of reactions of major synthetic utility. Determination of reaction mechanisms. Importance of reactive intermediates: carbocations, carbanions, radicals, and carbenes. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C323
Bio-Organic Chemistry

Prerequisite: CHEM C321. Chemistry of carbohydrates. Aspects of heterocyclic chemistry, particularly as they apply to purines, pyrimidines, and important coenzymes: pyridoxal, NADH, thiamine, flavines. Model enzyme studies. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C326
Natural Products

Prerequisite: CHEM C222, or equivalent. Structure determination, synthesis, and stereochemistry of various natural products. Examples from terpenes, carotenoids, steroids, alkaloids, and antibiotics. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C327
Industrial Organic Chemistry

Prerequisite: CHEM C222, or equivalent. Study of various industrial organic processes. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C328
Organic Chemistry of Polymers

Prerequisite: CHEM C222 or equivalent, C232 or C234. Methods and mechanisms of polymer synthesis. Condensation polymerization, addition polymerization, ring opening reactions. Vinyl and diene polymers. Polyesters, polyamides, etc. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C329
Organic Reactions Laboratory

Prerequisite: CHEM C322 or C323, previously or concurrently; CHEM C331, and C332 or C333 previously or concurrently.

Experiments with reactions of synthetic and mechanistic importance. Reactions involving reactive intermediates. Kinetic and thermodynamic control. Rearrangements. Laboratory only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C331
Chemical Kinetics
Prerequisite: CHEM C232 or C234. Topics in chemical reaction kinetics, including: mechanisms of elementary reactions; theories of chemical reaction rates; free radical reactions; factors influencing rates of reactions in solution; acid-base catalysis; catalysis by enzymes; the Michaelis-Menten mechanism; inhibition in enzyme-catalyzed reactions. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C332
Intermediate Thermodynamics
Prerequisite: CHEM C232 or C234. Comparison of closed and open systems. Partial molal quantities. Chemical potential. Real gases. Fugacity. Equilibrium constant. Free energy function. Ideal solutions. Real solutions. Duhem-Margules equation. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C333
Intermediate Physical Chemistry for Biochemists
Prerequisite: CHEM C234. Activities and standard states for non-electrolytes. Activities and activity coefficients for electrolytes. Electrical and magnetic properties of molecules. Basic electrostatic ideas. Dielectric behaviour. Circular dichroism. Optical rotatory dispersion. Fluorescence. Phosphorescence. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C334
Radiation Chemistry
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201, or equivalent. A study of the chemical effects caused by ionizing and other nuclear radiations in their passage through matter. A description will be given of the quantitative measure of radiation, energy absorbed, the energy absorption mechanism, the reaction paths of the unstable intermediates (excited molecules, radicals, and ions). A discussion of the mechanism for the radiation-induced dissociation of water, organic compounds in the gaseous and liquid state, and radiation effects in specific solids. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C338
Physical Chemistry Laboratory
Prerequisite: Chemistry C232 or C234. Experiments in physical chemistry to illustrate some of the concepts studied previously, and to acquire basic dexterity in the physical chemistry laboratory. Laboratory only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C339
Physical Chemistry Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C232 or C234. Further experiments in physical chemistry. The student will be expected to investigate more complex systems and to write meaningful laboratory reports. Laboratory only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C342
Chemistry of the Transition Elements
Prerequisite: CHEM C241 and C242, CHEM C211. Coordination chemistry; structure, theory of bonding, reactivity of transition metal complexes of various coordination numbers. Descriptive chemistry of transition metals of various oxidation states. Organometallic chemistry. Inorganic chemistry in biological systems. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C343
Industrial Inorganic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CEGEP Chemistry 201, or an equivalent course. Study of selected industrial inorganic processes. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C348
Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C342, previously or concurrently. Syntheses of coordination, and organometallic compounds requiring various techniques. Determination of various properties of the compounds prepared at the laboratory bench. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C371
Introductory Biochemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C222 and, for Biochemistry students, CHEM C234. Fundamental aspects of biochemistry are surveyed. Protein structure and function, enzymology and enzyme kinetics. Carbohydrate metabolism: glycolysis, Krebs cycle, respiratory chain. Phosphogluconate pathway. Intermediary metabolism of lipids and proteins. Biosynthetic pathways of lipids, proteins, carbohydrates, amino acids, and nucleotides. Nucleic acid structures and their function in protein synthesis; control of gene expression. Photosynthesis. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

CHEMISTRY C380
General Industrial Chemistry
Prerequisite: Second-year chemistry students, or permission of the Department. Broad outline of major factors to be considered by the chemical industry when contemplating manufacture of a new product or product group, with special emphasis on market determination, customs, tariffs, use of Statistics Canada data, existing or potential competition, inherent advantages or disadvantages. Relative importance of labour versus capital; plant location; transportation considerations; by-product disposition; hazard and pollution considerations; government-regulated products; government incentives. Marketing channels; export considerations; foreign tariffs, and non-tariff barriers. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C390
Introductory Instrumentation
Prerequisite: CHEM C211, or two 6-credit Biology courses with laboratory; CHEM C399 concurrently. Introduction to measurement principles. Instrument design and basic techniques; analysis of basic modules in pH meters, potentiometric titrators, polarographs, gas chromatographs, photometers, and spectrophotometers, to emphasize facility in the use of similar instruments for measurement of specific systems. Lectures only. (2 credits)

CHEMISTRY C391
Chemical Spectroscopy I
Prerequisite: CHEM C222 and C232. General theories of spectroscopy. Infrared, ultraviolet, proton magnetic resonance spectroscopies and mass spectrometry will be applied to the elucidation of the structure of organic molecules. Rates and activation energies by pmr. Lectures, problem periods and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C399
Introductory Instrumentation Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C211 or two full laboratory courses in Biology; CHEM C390 concurrently. Basic RLC circuits, filters, semi-conductors, transistors, transistor amplifiers, difference amplifiers, operational amplifiers. Introduction to mechanical, optical, and electrical transducers and recorders; signal-to-noise optimization, digital electronics, logic circuits, and automation. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C411
Advanced Analytical Organic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C311 and C312, C316 and C317; CHEM C416 concurrently. Methods and techniques for the analysis of complex organic industrial formulations and natural products. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C416
Advanced Analytical Organic Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C311 and C312, C316, C317; CHEM C411 concurrently. Experiments in the analysis of industrial formulations and natural products, providing experience in the methods discussed in Chemistry C411. Laboratory only (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C419
Research Project and Thesis in Analytical Chemistry
Prerequisite: The student must be enrolled in the Specialization in Analytical Chemistry Programme. The student will work on a research project involving a theoretical and/or practical aspect of analytical chemistry, and will write a thesis on the results. The research project will be scrutinized by a committee of members of the Department. Experimental work and theory. (6 credits)

CHEMISTRY C421
Physical Organic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C322. Theory and use of sigmatropic, pericyclic, and electrocyclic reactions. Woodward-Hoffman rules, Moebius-Huckel approach. Application to thermal and photochemical reactions. Introduction to organic photochemistry. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C422
Organic Synthesis
Prerequisite: CHEM C322. Consideration of synthetic strategy and synthesis design. Modern synthetic methods and reagents. Exemplified by syntheses of terpenes, alkaloids, pheromones, and novel structures. Lectures and laboratory. (4 credits)

CHEMISTRY C427
Industrial Synthetic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C322. Selected study of industrial synthesis of fine chemicals, pharmaceuticals, dyestuffs, etc. Group assignments in scaling up laboratory syntheses to large scale, patent literature, toxicology, pollution and related industrial legislation. Lectures and laboratory. (4 credits)

CHEMISTRY C431
Statistical Thermodynamics
Prerequisite: CHEM C331, C332, or C333. Elements of probability theory, microcanonical, canonical, and grand canonical ensembles; Boltzmann distribution; quantum mechanical treatment of an ideal gas; Fermi-Dirac and Bose-Einstein statistics; Einstein and Debye models of a monatomic crystal; conformation of polymer chains. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C432
Selected Topics in Physical Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C331, C332, or C333. Subject matter will differ from year to year to take advantage of the special interest of the instructor concerned. The course will provide opportunities to senior students for discussion and advanced study in physical chemistry. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C433
Advanced Quantum Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C233, C332, or C333. This course deals with the theories of valence for both organic and inorganic materials. Topics covered include symmetry, construction and use of character tables, valence bond theory, molecular orbital theory, crystal field theory, ligand field theory. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C434
Advanced Physical Chemistry for Biochemists
Prerequisite: CHEM C333. Thermodynamics applied to biological systems. Surface tension. Capillarity. Surface thermodynamics. Surface films. Adsorption. Electrocapillarity. Electrokinetic effects. Transport properties. Light scattering, Zimm plot. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C435
Physical Chemistry of Polymers
Prerequisite: CHEM C332 or C333 previously or concurrently, C222. Physical properties of polymers; polymer solution theory; molecular weight distributions and fractionation; molecular determinations by colligative properties, light scattering and ultra-centrifuge techniques; kinetics of condensation and addition polymerizations; copolymerization. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C436
Electrochemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C331, and Chemistry C332 or C333. Thermodynamic relations in electrolyte solutions. Strong electrolytes. Electrolytic dissociation. Transport phenomena. Thermodynamics of electrode equilibria. Glass electrode. Electrical double layer. Dependence of electrode reaction rate on potential. Electrochemical kinetics. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C439
Advanced Physical Chemistry Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C331, C332 or C333, C339. Advanced experimentation in chemical kinetics and thermodynamics, with complete laboratory reports. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C441
Selected Topics in Inorganic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C342. Selected topics in the field of Inorganic Chemistry chosen from current interest in this field. Particular topics may include: Organometallic Chemistry, Kinetics and Mechanisms of Inorganic Reactions, Electronic Spectroscopy of Transition Metal Complexes, Inorganic Photochemistry, Introduction to X-ray Crystallography, and other current topics from the literature. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C442
Physical Methods in Inorganic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C241 and C242; CHEM C211; CHEM C391, previously or concurrently. Introduction to symmetry and the character tables. Diffraction methods, X-ray, ESCA, UV-Visible, ORD and CD, EPR, Moessbauer, NQR, NMR, IR, and Raman. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C449
Laboratory in Synthesis and Techniques in Inorganic Chemistry
Prerequisite: CHEM C442, previously or concurrently. Some of the techniques discussed in CHEM C442 will be employed in the laboratory to characterize and determine properties of compounds synthesized at the laboratory bench. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

CHEMISTRY C450
Research Project and Thesis
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The student will work on a research project under the direction of a staff member, and will write a thesis on the results. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students planning to take this course must consult with the Chemistry Department as early as possible the year before the final year.

CHEMISTRY C470
Proteins and Lipids-Structure-Function Relationships
Prerequisite: Chemistry C371. Protein conformation in relation to muscle contraction and relaxation including ATP-myosin, actin-myosin and troponin-Ca++ interactions. Structure-function analysis of immunoglobulins and antigens: amino acid sequence, three-dimensional structure, antibody diversity, immunity, hypersensitivity, auto-immunity and graft versus host response. Biochemical and physical properties of lipids in relation to functions of biological membranes. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C471
Enzyme Kinetics and Mechanism
Prerequisite: CHEM C371 and C331. Steady-state kinetics, including derivation of rate equations and the use of initial velocity studies and product inhibition to establish a kinetic mechanism; non-steady-state kinetics, isotope effects, energy of activation, etc; methods used to study the role of amino-acid residues in enzymic reactions; roles of various coenzymes and metals in enzyme mechanisms. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C472
Selected Topics in Biochemistry
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Selected topics in the field of Biochemistry chosen according to the interests of the instructor. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C473
Medicinal Chemistry I
Prerequisite: CHEM C371. Types of drug action. Influence of physicochemical factors on drug activity, solubility partition coefficients, surface activity, molecular geometry, electronic properties, ionization. Receptor theory and methods, drug-receptor interactions of cholinergic, adrenergic, and opiate drugs. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C474
Medicinal Chemistry II
Prerequisite: CHEM C371. Theories of drug action. Survey of structure and mechanism of action of selected groups of drugs (e.g., antihistamines, diuretics, antibiotics, psychotropic drugs, steroids, pesticides, etc.). Drug design; modulation of drug metabolism, transport, bioactivation by molecular modification. Antimetabolites. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C475
Pharmacology I
Prerequisite: CHEM C371. Pharmacokinetics, drug metabolism and interaction. Toxicology, carcinogeneticy, and teratogeneticy. Drug development and testing. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C476
Pharmacology II
Prerequisite: CHEM C475. Autonomic nervous system pharmacology. Functions of central nervous system, depressants, stimulants. Narcotic analgesics, addiction. Cardiovascular, renal, and endocrine pharmacology. Lectures only. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C479
Advanced Biochemistry Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C470, C471, or C472, previously or concurrently. This course deals with the theory and practice of modern biochemical laboratory techniques. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C490
Advanced Instrumentation
Prerequisite: CHEM C390 and C399; CHEM C499 concurrently. Instrumental amplifiers, transducers, and measurement errors. Analog, time, and digital data domains. Optimization of electronic measurements, frequency response, sampling parameters, signal-to-noise enhancement. Micro-processors for control, data acquisition, and interface to computers. Lectures only (3 credits)

CHEMISTRY C492
Chemical Spectroscopy II
Prerequisite: CHEM C321, C311 and C316 or C391. Theory and application of EPR Spectroscopy, rotational spectroscopy, rotation-vibrational spectroscopy, Raman spectroscopy. Lectures and laboratory. (4 credits)

CHEMISTRY C499
Advanced Instrumentation Laboratory
Prerequisite: CHEM C390 and C399; CHEM C490 concurrently. Selected experiments to demonstrate the topics discussed in CHEM C490. Laboratory only. (1 credit)

PROGRAMMES

The Department offers courses in Ancient History, in Ancient Greek and Latin, and in classical literature read in the original or in translation. It also offers courses in classical civilization, Pre-History, and Archaeology.

The Department offers two programmes. The programme of Classical Philology requires linguistic competence in Ancient Greek and Latin, and is directed towards a comprehensive understanding and appreciation of Ancient History and Literature. The programme of Classical Studies does not require a knowledge of the languages, but is concerned with a broadly based study of ancient society. Students may register for Honours, Specialization, Major, or Minor in Classical Studies; or Honours, Major, or Minor in Classical Philology. Moreover, all courses in these programmes are open as electives to students in other departments.

Students must consult the Department Chairman to select the courses in their programme. For details on suggested programmes, see the Classics Brochure. Students are advised to consult the timetable for the campus where individual courses will be offered.

Students admitted to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977, are bound by the Honours requirements outlined in 16.2.4 of this calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977, continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

60 BA Honours in Classical Studies

Year I

24 CLAS C211^{3}, C212^{3}, C240^{3}, C242^{3}, C261^{3}, C262^{3}, C264^{3}, C265^{3}

Years II and III

36 credits in Classical Studies over the two years, which must include the following courses:

18 CLAS C320^{6}, C324^{3}, C325^{3}, C343^{6}

The remaining 18 credits may be chosen from the following:

18 CLAS C230^{3}, C231^{3}, C241^{3}, C254^{6}, C280^{6}, C290^{6}, C322^{3}, C323^{3}, C344^{6}, C350^{3}, C351^{3}, C352^{3}, C353^{3}, C370^{6}, C446^{6}, C448^{6} or C449^{6}, C470^{3}

60 BA Specialization in Classical Studies

Year I

24 CLAS C211^{3}, C212^{3}, C240^{3}, C242^{3}, C261^{3}, C262^{3}, C264^{3}, C265^{3}

Classical Studies

A. LITERATURE

CLASSICS C211
The Beginnings of European Literature (Greek Literature)

The Greek background of European literature. Selections from Homer, the Greek dramatists, Plato, and Aristotle's Poetics. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C212
The Beginnings of European Literature (Latin Literature)

The Roman background of European literature. Selections from Lucretius, Catullus, Cicero, Virgil, Horace, Ovid, Seneca, and Juvenal. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C320
Greek Drama: Theatre and Democracy in Fifth Century Athens

Essentially, a study of the literary and artistic merits of the tragedies of Aeschylus, Sophocles, and Euripides, and the comedies of Aristophanes. The ritual origins of drama, mythical sources, and the growth of the dramatic form. Greek theatre as an expression of the democratic movement and of the intellectual revolution in Fifth Century Athens. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C220 may not take this course for credits.

CLASSICS C322
The Comic Art

An investigation into the evolution of comedy from our earliest literary sources to the present. The classical influence in later comic literature. Theories of comedy, ancient and modern. Reading material will be drawn mainly from Greek and Roman dramatic literature. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C222 may not take this course for credits.

CLASSICS C323
Roman Satire I

A study of the satiric genre, its birth and development in Roman literature and its connection with the early novel as seen in the English translations of the works of Horace, Juvenal, Petronius, Persius, Seneca, and Apuleius, with attention to the social climate and historical events of the period. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C223 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C324
Homer and the Epic Hero I

This course will deal principally with the Iliad of Homer: its form, content, and meaning as an oral epic. Also investigated will be the hero in a warrior society: his privileges, responsibilities, and moral values. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C224 may not take this course for credits.

CLASSICS C325
Homer and the Epic Hero II

This course will deal mainly with the Odyssey of Homer and the Aeneid of Virgil. A comparison will also be made with the concept of the hero in ancient and in modern literature. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C225 may not take this course for credits.

B. HISTORY

CLASSICS C230
(also given as History C219)
The Ancient Near East I

A survey of the political, social, economic, and intellectual history of the Ancient Near East, from the Neolithic age to the Indo-European invasions of the early 2nd Millennium, with special emphasis placed upon the problem of the emergence of civilization in Mesopotamia, Egypt and the Indus valley. Ancient sources utilized wherever possible. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C231
(also given as History C221)
The Ancient Near East II

A survey of the political, social, economic, and intellectual history of the Ancient Near East, from the Indo-European invasion of the early 2nd Millennium to the establishment of the Persian Empire, with special emphasis placed upon the process of diffusion of civilization throughout the Near Eastern World, the creation of Egyptian,

Mesopotamian, and Persian imperialism, and the development of Hebrew monotheism. Ancient sources utilized wherever possible. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C240
(also given as History C223)
Greek History I

A political, social, economic, and cultural history of Greece from Minoan-Mycenaean times to the end of Classical Greek civilization in the 4th Century B.C., with special emphasis placed upon 5th Century Athens. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C241
(also given as History C224)
Greek History II

A political, social, economic, and cultural history of the Greek World from Alexander the Great to the Roman conquest of Greece in 146 B.C. Although due attention will be paid to developments within the Hellenistic kingdoms and to the later Greek achievements in art, literature, science, philosophy, and religion, the process of fusion of Hellenism with the Orient - vital for the evolution of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam - will be extensively explored. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C242
(also given as History C225)
Roman History

A political, social, economic, and cultural history of Rome from the City's origins to the establishment of the Roman Empire under the Emperor Augustus. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C343
(also given as History C320)
History of the Roman Empire

Prerequisite: CLAS C242 (HIST C225); or permission of instructor. A political, social, economic, and cultural history of the Roman Empire from Augustus to Justinian the Great. Attention will be paid to the rise of Christianity and the continuity of Roman law and administration in both the eastern and western parts of the Late Roman Empire. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C344
Propaganda and Political Deception in Greek and Roman History

Prerequisite: An Ancient History course. An examination of the relationship between political ideas and practice, with particular emphasis upon the slogans and false ideologies invented to justify war, peace, and the implementation of political and constitutional programmes by both radical and reactionary elements. Though inevitably the chief sources discussed will be literary, due attention will also be directed towards the value of numismatic, epigraphic, and artistic material as a means of winning over the mind of man. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C345
(Also given as History C324)
History of Byzantium, 602-1453

A survey of the transformation from the Late Roman Empire into the Byzantine commonwealth, and changes in economic and social conditions. Special attention is given to the reorganization of administrative and military structures, the relationship between Byzantium and its Balkan neighbours, the Arab conquest, and the rising importance of Asia Minor. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C446
(also given as History C321)
Continuity and Change: An Intellectual History of the Late Roman Empire

Prerequisite: One course on the ancient or the medieval world. A study of the main intellectual and social forces in the late Roman Empire that contributed most significantly to the formation of European culture. Among those topics treated will be Neo-Platonism, Gnosticism, the Greek and Roman system of education, government and private welfare policies, mystery religions, late Judaism, early Christianity, the religious policy of pagan and Christian Emperors, contemporary art and architecture. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C346 may not take this course for credits.

CLASSICS C448
(also given as History C420)
Alexander the Great and Julius Caesar

Prerequisite: An Ancient History course. A course devoted to the careers of two of the most notable and influential figures in Ancient History, seeking to discover them as they were, the worlds which they conquered, their aims, and their achievements. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C449
(also given as History C422)
Human Beginnings: The Stone Ages

The origin of man, and man's place in evolution and in nature. Man, the toolmaker: australopithecines, homo habilis, homo erectus, Peking man, Java man, Soloman, and others. The fossil evidence and taxonomic problems. Man, the hunter: meat-eating, intelligence, and sexual differentiation. Territoriality and aggression. The struggle for existence and the survival of the fittest: Darwinism, Marxism, and sociology.

Palaeolithic cultures: Abbevillean, Acheulean, Clactonian, and Mousterian. Neanderthal and Cro-Magnon mixtures. Man, the artist. From Perigordian to Magdalenian. Epipalaeolithic and Mesolithic societies. The Neolithic revolution. Stone Age cultures of today. Importance and relevance of prehistory. Homo ludens. (6 credits)

C. CULTURE & CIVILIZATION

CLASSICS C254
Women in Classical Antiquity

An examination of the social status and political influence of women in ancient Greece and Rome. Particular emphasis will be placed upon the apparent contradiction between the seemingly inferior position occupied by women in Fifth-century Athens and the general enlightenment that characterized the epoch. Within this context, the influence of war upon the struggle for feminine emancipation , as seen through the eyes of tragedians, comic writers, philosophers, and historians, will be considered. Due attention will also be paid to the movement for feminine emancipation during the Late Roman Republic and Early Empire. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C256
A Comparative Study of Judaic and Greek Traditions

The course deals with the problems involved in the encounter of the Judaic and Greek traditions and is designed also for students of philosophy, theology, and history.

The end of the First Diaspora. Different currents (exclusiveness versus rapprochement) under Persian rule. Alexander legends. Maccabaean Hellenism. Anti-Semitism in Alexandria. The mutual influence of Judaism and Hellenism, as manifest in philosophical and religious writings, in symbols and customs. Their importance for the development of Western culture. The destruction of political Judaic independence and gradual intellectualization of Jewish life. The development of the Synagogue and the Tanaitic Academies. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C261
Introduction to Greek and Roman Mythology

This course will explore the nature of Classical Mythology and will examine the stories about the gods and the heroes of the Greeks and Romans, as found in their literature and culture. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C260 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C262
Myth and Mythmaking

An examination of the universal features of myth. Recurrent patterns of myth in primitive cultures. Near Eastern Mythologies. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C260 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C264
(also given as History C227)
An Introduction to Archaeology

Archaeology as a science; its purpose, methods, theories, and techniques. The relationship of Archaeology to pre-History, Ancient History, Fine Arts, and Anthropology. The Neolithic Revolution and the emergence of the earliest civilizations: Mesopotamia, Egypt, India, and China. The Bronze Age in Crete and in Greece. Most of the course will consist of the presentation, classification, dating, and interpretation of selected artifacts. Some work at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C265
(also given as History C229)
Greek and Roman Art and Archaeology

The Archaeology of Greece and Rome, with particular attention to painting (especially ceramics), sculpture, and architecture. The concept of "style" in archaeology, and in art history and criticism. The works of Exekias and Douris, of Phidias and Praxiteles, and of Iktinos and Kratinos as representative of the "ideal" in Classical Greek Art. The Greek and Etruscan influence on Roman Art, as well as the native Roman contribution. The falsifications of history, and the truth that can be recovered by the archaeologist. Some work at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C268
Meso-American Archaeology

An archaeological and anthropological study of the pre-Columbian peoples, cultures, and civilizations of ancient Mexico, Belize, Guatemala, and Honduras: the Olmec "mother culture" Izape, Monte Alban, Tlatilco, and Teotihuacan. The glory and the grandeur of the Maya. Form and iconography in meso-American art. From the Toltecs to the Aztecs. An aesthetic appreciation of pre-Columbian art and architecture. Current excavations, theories, and controversies among Americanists. Some work at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C269
South American Archaeology

An archaeological and anthropological study of the pre-Columbian peoples, cultures, and civilizations of ancient Peru, Columbia, Ecuador, Bolivia, and Chile: the "mother culture" of Chavin de Huantar. Valdivian pottery and stone age (Jomon) Japan. The great empires of Peru before the Incas: Huari-Tiahuanaco, Chan Chan, and Chimu. Paracas, Nazca, and Mochica art. The "tears of the sun", and the coming of the Incas. Characteristics of Inca civilization. A survey of current excavations and research. Some work at the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C350
Greeks and the Afterlife

A study of ideas of immortality as reflected in classical Greek literature. An examination of myths, mystery religions, and schools of philosophical thought. This literary survey will include readings translated from the works of Homer, Hesiod, Sophocles, Euripides, and Plato. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C250 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C351
Romans and the Afterlife

A study of the growth of early Roman customs connected with the supernatural. Burial practices and tomb paintings of the Etruscans. Popular Roman concepts of the underworld and the influence of Greek myth. The intellectual influence of Greek philosophy on later Roman religious thought as reflected in the works of Cicero and Lucretius. Religion and the patriotic ideal in the Augustan revival, as reflected in Virgil's Aeneid. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C251 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C352
Love, Hate, and Friendship in the Classical World I

The growth and the failure of human relationships were of intimate concern to men and women in the ancient world, as they are today. This course will investigate, in the literature of classical times, the evolving shape of human encounter in terms of three basic emotions: love, hate, and friendship. The theme "love" will be examined as expressed in the Odyssey of Homer, and especially in the love poetry of Greece and Rome. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C252 may not take this course for credit.

CLASSICS C353
Love, Hate, and Friendship in the Classical World II

The theme "hate and revenge" will be seen in its most tragic form in the Iliad of Homer, and in the plays of the Greek dramatists. The third theme, "friendship", will be examined in its elemental form in the Iliad of Homer, and then in its urbane expression in the works of Plato and Cicero. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for CLAS C253 may not take this course for credit.

Special Courses

(either Philology or Classical Studies)

CLASSICS C370
Selected Topics in Classics

Content and prerequisite will depend on the theme assigned by the Department. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C371
Selected Topics in Classics

A student may repeat CLAS C370, provided the content is different, by registering for credits under CLAS C371. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C470
Advanced Topics in Classics

This course treats advanced topics of interest in Classics. Content and prerequisite will depend on the theme assigned by the Department. (3 credits)

CLASSICS C471
Advanced Topics in Classics

A student may repeat CLAS C470 provided the content is different, by registering for credits under CLAS C471. (3 credits)

Classical Philology

A. CLASSICAL GREEK

CLASSICS C280
Elementary Classical Greek

A course for those with no previous knowledge of Greek. Major emphasis will be placed on assisting the student in acquiring a reading command of the language. This course is designed not only for those interested in classical literature but also for students in the departments of History, Philosophy and Theology. (6 credits)

CLASSICS C380
Intermediate Classical Greek

Prerequisite: CLAS C280, or equivalent. Further work towards the acquisition of a reading command of the language. Readings from works such as Plato's Apology and Crito, Xenophon's Anabasis, and the New Testament. (6 credits)

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

The Department offers two programmes of study, and a third programme jointly with Journalism.

a) Bachelor of Arts, Specialization in Communication Studies: consisting of 60 credits in Communication Studies and 30 credits from electives outside the Department.

b) Bachelor of Arts, Major in Communication Studies: consisting of 42 credits in Communication Studies and 48 credits from electives outside the Department.

Elective credits are understood as courses taken in other departments or Faculties of the University. Credits in Communication Studies (Loyola Campus) or Cinema (Sir George Williams Campus) may not be used in lieu of electives.

200-level courses are normally taken in first year, 300-level courses in second year, 400-level courses in third year.

60 BA Specialization in Communication Studies (Loyola)

18 COMS C230^3, C240^3, C255^3, C275^3, C278^3, C284^3

6 Chosen from Communication Group A courses
6 Chosen from Communication Group B courses
18 Additional Communication and/or Journalism courses. With the approval of the Chairman of the Communication Studies Department or the Director of the Journalism Programme, 6 of these credits may be cognate course(s) outside Communication and Journalism. A maximum of 6 of these credits may be from Communication Group C courses.

NOTE: The University has approved a BA Specialization in Broadcast Journalism to be offered jointly by Communication Studies and Journalism. The date of implementation of the programme has not yet been determined, but may be as early as September 1981.

Department Objectives

The Department of Communication Studies, founded in 1965 as Communication Arts, the first at a Canadian university, has developed a programme that combines the study of the major media with the Humanities and Sciences needed for their understanding and optimal use.

The programme is designed to provide students with a high level of media literacy and with a grasp of the scientific, technological, social, and historical contexts of modern media and communication. It is multi-disciplinary both within its own curriculum and in its recommended electives in the humanities, sciences, and social sciences, all of which are integral to the programme.

Intellectually and critically, both in seminar rooms and laboratories, the primary concern is to investigate "media man" and "media world", to understand more fully the role of media in society, to examine critically the goals of society as projected in media, and to assess realistically the responsibilities of media vis-à-vis that society. To this end, students are encouraged to develop a personal artistic and ethical statement on the quality of life and the goals of society.

Integrated with this, the student's creative work starts with acquiring skills in the basic technology of the media, and understanding these media as communicational modes. This is followed and enlarged by a concentration on the rhetorical and artistic dynamics of media (be it film, television, radiosound, photo,etc.) and on the content of a work created in a particular medium.

The curriculum is designed:

1. for students who intend to pursue graduate studies in communication;

2. for future writers, critics, communication studies consultants, directors, and performers;

3. for future teachers in all aspects of radio, television, film, photography (research, theory or practical);

4. for students who plan a career in the areas of publicity, promotion, advertising, and public relations.

Facilities

The department has one television-film studio equipped with 3/4" colour videocassette recording and editing facilities, two 3/4" colour video portapak units, 14 B/W 1/2" portapaks, 7 x 16mm film units, 16mm sync and editing units, and complete super 8mm sync sound/film units; photographic laboratories, an optical laboratory, a holographic and laser laboratory, multiple sound facilities, a research studio for the measurement of visual and audio information loads, and an electronic and electro-mechanical programmer for multi-media use, a multi-media room, and a learning centre with audio-film-video terminals for independent study.

Department Admission Requirements

Applications repeatedly outnumber the Department's space and faculty. To permit a fair and informed selection, we ask applicants to provide adequate information about themselves, their work, and their aims. For this purpose, applicants are requested to submit the following:

1) A comprehensive letter of intention, setting forth clearly and effectively why the applicant wishes to enroll in the Department of Communication Studies. (This letter is critical.)

2) Meaningful letters of recommendation, at least two of which should be from teachers who are acquainted with the applicant's talents and ability.

3) A complete record of all studies to the present time, including those courses in which the applicant is now enrolled.

4) One or two examples of creative effort in any medium of expression.

5) An interview which will include discussion of any or all of the foregoing, plus any topics that the committee feels will provide insight into the candidate's potential for university-level study of media.

Applications and all supporting documents should be sent before March 15 to the Admissions Committee, Department of Communication Studies, Loyola Campus of Concordia University, 7141 Sherbrooke St. W., Montréal, Québec, H4B 1R6.

Diploma in Communication Studies

The Department also offers a one-year diploma programme for students who have completed their undergraduate degree in another field. Detailed information on the programme is given in the University's Calendar of Graduate Studies.

Please note that new course numbers were used in 1977-78 and 1979-80. For equivalent course numbers under the old system, please see §200.1

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C230
Basic Writing for the Media

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course is designed to provide knowledge of and practice in the special written forms and formats utilized by the media. Assignments are practically oriented toward possible student productions. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C240
Communication Theory

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Through lectures, discussions, and selected readings from the works of key theoreticians, this course introduces students to major approaches to the understanding of the process of communication. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C255
Communication Analysis

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. General and detailed analysis of various information complexes; e.g., museums, galleries, exhibitions, countrysides, landscapes, city streets, highways, department stores, churches, etc., from the point of information values used to influence future prospective audiences of films, television programmes, or exhibition and theatre visitors. The basic values of light, space, sound, picture, words, and exhibit structures will be explored through individual student projects in real locations. COMMUNICATION STUDIES C490 Communication Research Laboratory

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Research under tutorial direction in one of the following topics: communication programming, computer communication programming, digital and analog media analysis, biometric or biotelemetric research in film and television, basic and advanced holography, multi-media design. (6 credits)

GROUP C

Visual Dynamics II

Prerequisites: COMS C275, and permission of the Department. This course involves both theory and fieldwork in photographing man-made environments; e.g., the city, using natural light. The student will acquire an understanding of the problems of distance and direction by means of lectures, critiques of fieldwork, and individual consultation. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students are required to possess certain recommended equipment and to bear some of the costs of materials.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C375
Visual Dynamics III

Prerequisite: COMS C374, and permission of the Department. A study of the development of visual artifacts and media in the search for an increasingly adequate mimesis of persons, situations, and meanings. The course comprises both the practical and the theoretical aspects of the visual image, historically and currently, and examines the assumptions underlying the quest for the auto-communicative image. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C378
Seminar and Practicum in Sound II

Prerequisite: COMS C278 and permission of the Department. This course gives the student a knowledge of the basic disciplines necessary for constructing aural message forms from the simplest to the most complex; also, experience in the various technologies required to apply these aural forms to radio, film, television, etc. Students will prepare, produce, and direct, individually and in teams, a number of projects. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C381
Seminar and Practicum in Film II

Prerequisite: Above-average standing in COMS C284 and permission of the Department. This course involves an examination of the communicative process through the medium of film. Areas covered include scripting, directing, and shooting, with both silent and sync-sound equipment. Productions are designed to test the students' theoretical knowledge and give practical experience in the craft of film-making. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C387
Seminar and Practicum in Television II

Prerequisite: COMS C284 and permission of the Department. A study of the components related to the creation of the television documentary and short-feature programme in terms of the theoretical possibilities inherent in the medium. Student productions in the two genres, from idea-stage through completed videotape, constitute the laboratory section of the course. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C475
Visual Dynamics IV

Prerequisite: COMS C375, and permission of the Department. Developing the visual imagination: conceiving and organizing ideas for expression through media such as Print, Film, Television. Each student will be asked to conceive a 'story' (an integrated narrative), and to determine its most appropriate visual presentation (emphasizing the story's significance and maintaining overall unity). Three presentational modes will be considered: a) the controlled sequence; b) the randomly perceived message; c) the pictorial symbol. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C481
Seminar and Practicum in Film III

Prerequisite: Above-average standing in C381 and permission of the Department. An advanced course in film theory and communication. Film-making processes covered will include scripting, directing, "A and B roll" editing, ar d shooting with crystal sync-sound equipment. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C487
Seminar and Practicum in Television III

Prerequisite: Above-average standing in COMS C387, and approval of the Department. An advanced course in television theory and communication. Possible options, depending on the ability of the students in any one year, include the dramatic documentary and the complete adaptation for television of professional plays. Lectures and Laboratory: average, 6 hours per week. Students are required to bear some of the cost of materials. (6 credits)

WHEN OFFERED, THE FOLLOWING COURSES WILL BE DESIGNATED AS GROUP A or B or C COURSES

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C300
Selected Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Department. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C301
Selected Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes Students who have received credit for COMS C300 may register for COMS C301 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C302
Selected Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Department. (3 credits)

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Students who have received credit for COMS C302 may register for COMS C303 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C440
Advanced Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in Communication Studies. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Department. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C441
Advanced Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Students who have received credit for COMS C440 may register for COMS C441 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C442
Advanced Topics in Communication Studies

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in Communication Studies. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Department. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C443
Advanced Topics in Communication Studies

Students who have received credit for COMS C442 may register for COMS C443 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C496
Honours Project I

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Towards the end of their second year, students enrolled in a Communication Studies programme who have demonstrated scholarly and creative ability may be selected for major research or production in a communications area of special interest. During the third year, individually or in teams, the project is realized in close collaboration with Faculty directors. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for COMS C495 may not take this course for credits.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES C497
Honours Project II

Prerequisite: Open only to students in Communication Studies programmes. Students who have received credit for COMS C496 may register for COMS C497. (3 credits)

Students seeking admission to the Honours Programme on or after June 1, 1977, will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in §16.2.4 of this Calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977, will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours Programme.

The courses in Economics listed below are acceptable as Science credits in the Bachelor of Science degree.

ECONOMICS C222[3], C325[3], C326[3], C421[3], C422[3], C425[3], C426[3]

ECONOMICS C200
Introductory Economics

This course is primarily for students not majoring in Economics. Its content is essentially the same as that of ECON C201 and C203. However, there is greater emphasis on Canadian economic institutions and government policies. It is open to all students except those in Commerce, and does not count as credit towards any Economic programme. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C201
Introduction to Microeconomics

Introduction to the functioning of the market system; concepts of supply and demand, the role of prices in resource allocation; production decisions by firms. Analysis of differences between competition and monopoly, and the implications for economic efficiency; theories of labour markets and wage determination. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C203
Introduction to Macroeconomics
An introductory analysis of aggregate economic activity. The focus is on the principles of determination of the level of employment, national income, real output, inflation, and international balance of payments. The course also analyzes the principles which govern the trade relations among countries. These topics are integrated by a discussion of government monetary and fiscal policies to stabilize economic activity. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C221
Statistical Methods I
Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 201, or equivalent. Elementary probability, permutations and combinations, binomial and normal distribution. Analysis and organization of statistical data. Tests of hypotheses. Confidence limits. Introduction into linear regression and correlation. (3 credits) NOTE: See §200.7

NOTE: Credits will be given for only one 6-credit course or two 3-credit courses from Economics C221 and C222, Mathematics C207, Geography C362 and C363, Mathematics C241, Quantitative Methods C243 and C244, Sociology C210, Psychology C317 and C318.

ECONOMICS C222
Statistical Methods II
Prerequisite: ECON C221, or equivalent. The course is an introduction to the application of statistical techniques to economic data. Topics discussed will include, among others, time series, statistical inference, analysis of variance, correlation and regression. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7

NOTE: Credits will be given for only one 6-credit course or two 3-credit courses from Economics C221 and C222, Mathematics C207, Geography C362 and C363, Mathematics C241, Quantitative Methods C243 and C244, Sociology C210, Psychology C317 and C318.

ECONOMICS C250
Introduction to Economic History
A study of the economic development of western societies. Particular attention will be paid to Europe during the period from the Sixteenth Century to the present day. The aim of the course is to provide an understanding of the interconnections between social, economic, and political change. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C301
Intermediate Microeconomic Theory I
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. Theory and measurement of demand, theory of consumer behaviour, production, theory of the firm, and cost analysis. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C302
Intermediate Microeconomic Theory II
Prerequisite: ECON C301. Market structure (perfect competition, monopoly, oligopoly), industrial concentration, factor markets, income distribution, economic efficiency, general equilibrium, welfare economics. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C303
Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory I
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. An analysis of the major areas of aggregate economics. Topics will include the definition and measurement of regional income and the theory of income determination in the classical and in the Keynesian systems. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C304
Intermediate Macroeconomic Theory II
Prerequisite: ECON C303. Topics will include review of the complete Keynesian system, business cycles, economic fluctuations in Canada, inflation and unemployment theories, macroeconomic policies, economic growth, and their theory and application to Canada. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C311
Economic Development I
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The course investigates comparative economic development, with special attention to problems of capital formation, population growth, quality of labour force, and social and cultural attitudes towards economic modernization. Theories of economic development are evaluated in the context of the realities of historical patterns and the varying degrees of ability to achieve modernization. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C312
Economic Development II
Prerequisite: ECON C311. The meaning and concept of economic planning, methodology and strategy of planning, input-output and sector analysis, techniques of planning, investment criteria and priorities, study and appraisal of economic plans of a few countries. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C315
The Economic Development of Quebec
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course will review past and present trends in the economic development of Quebec. Emphasis will be placed on the economic growth of Quebec since the Second World War. Attention will be given to the regional aspects of Quebec's growth problems. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C316
Canadian Economic Issues I
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course will be devoted to an analysis of some economic issues facing Canada; for example, employment and unemployment, inflation, economic growth and potential, income distribution, social security policies, monetary and fiscal policies. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C317
Canadian Economic Issues II
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course is similar to ECON C316, but will cover a different group of topics; for example, foreign ownership and control, regional development problems, monopoly and competition, government regulation of business, agricultural policy, trade policy. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C323
The Use of Economic Data

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. Concepts of economic accounting and related measurement techniques, with special reference to the procedures used in Canada, and in international economic institutions like the U.N., I.M.F., and O.E.C.D. The topics include: national accounts, input-output tables, flow-of-funds accounts, national balance sheets, international and interregional comparison of economic data, choice of index. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C325
Mathematics For Economists I

Prerequisites: ECON C201, C203; MATH C201, or equivalent. This course introduces the student to differential and integral calculus and to their applications in economic analysis. Topics covered include set theory, the concept of limits and rules for differentiation and integration. It also deals with the relevance of these concepts and techniques to economic problems such as maximization, equilibrium analysis, and dynamic adjustments. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C326
Mathematics for Economists II

Prerequisite: ECON C325. The main emphasis is on the study of linear algebra and its application to the solution of economic models consisting of a system of linear simultaneous equations. Topics covered include: matrices and vectors; basic properties of determinants and their use in solving equations pertaining to economic problems, such as linear programming and constrained optimization. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C331
Money and Banking

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. Overview of a monetary economy: nature, forms and the economic role of money. Monetary standards: markets, prices, and the value of money; the payments system; financial markets. Determinants of size and distribution of wealth portfolios. Supply of money: measure, composition, and size determination. The economic role of commercial banks and non-bank financial intermediaries. Central banking and monetary policy. The international monetary system. (Topics will be covered within the Canadian banking institutional framework). (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C335
Economics of the Public Sector I

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course examines government fiscal activity within the context of a free market system. Rationale for public sector activity is reviewed in terms of economic efficiency conditions and the market failures. Among the topics covered in the course are growth of public spending, the concept of public good externalities, collective decision-making process, pure theory of public expenditures, local expenditures analysis, and efficiency in public spending, with special reference to Quebec and Canada. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C336
Economics of the Public Sector II

Prerequisite: ECON C335. The principal purpose of this course is to examine and evaluate the important elements of the Canadian fiscal structure, emphasizing taxation and the financing of public expenditures. Among others, issues in taxation of income - both at the individual and corporate levels, excise and sales taxation, taxation of capital gains and wealth, intergovernmental fiscal relations, and tax reform will be taken up. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C341
International Economic Relations

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course focuses on the discussion and the analysis of the major forms of economic relations among nations; viz., international trade and international capital movements. Emphasis is placed on policies and institutions for the smooth functioning of the international economy, although some theoretical constructs are also introduced. Topics covered include international trade, protection, balance of payments, economic integration, and international monetary system. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C351
Economic History of Canada

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course is designed to introduce the student to Canadian economic development from the early period of settlement to the present day. Emphasis will be placed on the economic history of Canada since Confederation. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C352
Economic History of the U.S.A.

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. American economic history will be presented from the viewpoint of the "new" economic history. This is a topical approach in which formal economics is used to evaluate traditional historical material. Among the topics which will be covered are: the economic consequences of slavery, the American business cycle, the development of American central banking, the merger movements, the causes of the American "take-off", and the economic causes and consequences of the major wars. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C353
Economic History of Europe

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The course will explore the causes and consequences of the British Industrial Revolution and its diffusion to the Continent, in terms of differential national growth patterns and social problems associated with economic change. It will include an analysis of free trade, economic nationalism, the new imperialism, the importance of the crisis of 1929, in terms of economic organization, thought, and policy. Post-World War II reorganization, in terms of planning the welfare state, and economic integration. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C361
Industrial Organization

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course develops the relationship of the firm to various forms of market structure. The course will focus on the objectives of the corporation, corporate interdependence, and the government control of industry. A study of policy matters will centre on anti-trust and corporate regulation, with respect to both the legislative and economic aspects. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C362
Economics of the Firm

Prerequisite: ECON C201; ECON C222 or QUAN C244. This course stresses the application of economic principles and methodologies to the decision making process of the firm, with an emphasis on the role of risk and uncertainty. Topics will include decision-making criteria, demand analysis and estimation, cost analysis and estimation, pricing theory under various market structures, applied topics in pricing, and the impact of government on the firm. This course is primarily of interest to Commerce students, but is open to others as well. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C370
Comparative Economic Systems

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. A comparative study of contemporary economic systems. While mainly concerned with the institutional features of contemporary free market economics, the course will also deal with their counterpart, the systems of a command economy, and a Socialist market economy. Of primary interest will be the institutions, mechanisms, and policies which govern allocation, efficiency, growth, and distribution of income, with emphasis on the historical background of the institutions and the social, political, and ideological influences which continue to shape them. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C374
Theory and Practice of Cooperation

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course will deal with the effect of cooperatives on economic and social development, with emphasis on Quebec and Canada. Among the topics discussed are the origins and development of the cooperative economy, differences among cooperative, capitalist, and communist economic systems; economic, social, educational, and moral transformations taking place under cooperative influence, and the role of cooperation on the international political scene. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C375
The Soviet Economy

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The evolution of the Soviet economic system and the policy measures adopted to deal with the problems of establishing and consolidating a socialist state. Special attention is given to Lenin's role in the early phase of the Soviet system, and early economic measures such as the collectivization of farms. Other topics covered are: the nature of economic planning and progress under Stalin, and the important recent reforms and modifications of the Soviet system under the impact of Liberman's proposals. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C377
The Chinese Economy

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course is devoted to an analysis of Chinese economic development since 1949. Topics include: performance and efficiency, strategy for development, agricultural organization, the contribution of policy to economic growth, the industrial sector, control and allocation of resources, national economic planning. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C381
Labour Economics I

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course deals with labour force concepts and analysis; labour markets and other aspects of demand for and supply of labour; population, immigration, and participation rates; theory of wages; structure and determination of wages; minimum wage and manpower policies. Emphasis will be on the Canadian institutions. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C382
Industrial Relations I

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. A study of the general and practical problems that arise in the labour field, such as collective bargaining, the legal framework for the settlement of industrial disputes, the weapons of industrial conflict; the labour movement; contemporary labour issues, such as automation, cost-push inflation, and structural employment. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C383
Industrial Relations II

Prerequisite: ECON C382. Topics in industrial relations, with particular emphasis on developments in Canada. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C386
Economics of Human Resources

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. A study of recent contributions by economists to the understanding of and solution to social problems which society currently faces in the areas of crime, health, education, and welfare. In addition, specific federal and provincial governmental policies in these areas are analyzed with the standard tools of economics. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C387
Labour Law

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The development of the trade union movement and early labour legislation in the U.S.A. and Canada; collective bargaining; labour law in Canada and Quebec today, with emphasis on the Industrial Relations and Disputes Investigations Act (Canada), the Quebec Labour Code, and related statutes. An in-depth study of employer's free speech; evocation in matters of arbitration awards; injunctions; successor rights. Practice and procedure before the courts, and labour relations boards and commissions. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C391
Economics of the Environment

Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The subject of this course is environmental quality. It proceeds through an analysis of the relationships among the natural environment, economics, and institutions. The objective is to depict the problem of environmental quality as an economic problem whose solution demands major changes in economic, political, and legal institutions. Attention is also given to policies of collective environmental actions in which the effective management of common property resources will be discussed. The course concludes with a discussion of some broader issues, such as the consistency of improved environmental quality with continued economic and population growth. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C392
Urban Economics
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course will focus on the basic issues of economic growth and stagnation, urban land use, the problems, of the urban public economy, and special urban problems, such as transportation, congestion, poverty, housing, and urban renewal and zoning. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C396
Natural Resource Economics
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course focuses on the problems of the finiteness of the natural resources base in Canada and in the world, and on an analysis of the demand for and supply of natural resources and energy. The course also discusses the economic aspects of a selected group of conservation measures (financial incentives, reallocation of property rights, regulation). (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C397
Economics of Discrimination
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. The purpose of this course is to examine some economic issues of discrimination with particular reference to women in a Canadian context. Among the topics so examined are: techniques for measuring discrimination and poverty, review of empirical studies, traditional and radical approaches to the study of discrimination, and policies to combat discrimination and poverty. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C398
Study in a Special Subject I
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. This course is designed primarily for Honours, Specialization, and Major students. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for advanced students to intensify their study beyond the traditional areas of specialization already represented by the curriculum. The selected subject will depend upon the special interest of the instructor offering the course in any given year. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C399
Study in a Special Subject II
Prerequisites: ECON C201 and C203. A student who has received credit for ECON C398 may register for ECON C399 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C401
Advanced Microeconomic Theory
Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302, C325, and C326. Selected topics in microeconomic analysis, including: methodology, general equilibrium analysis, welfare economics; theory of the firm, factor pricing, and income distribution capital theory. Primarily for Majors, Specialization, and Honours students. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C403
Advanced Macroeconomic Theory
Prerequisites: ECON C303, C304; C325 and C326. Selected topics in macroeconomic analysis, including construction of models of the economy encompassing the labour, product, and financial markets; the role of monetary and fiscal policies; classical, Keynesian, and post-Keynesian models. Primarily for Majors, Specialization, and Honours students. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C405
Welfare Theory
Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303 and C304. This is an advanced course, intended primarily for Honours students. The course will be devoted to an examination of selected topics in contemporary welfare economics and its applications. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C408
History of Economic Thought
Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303 and C304. This course traces the development of economic analysis from the time of the Scholastics to modern times. It also includes a description of the prevailing economic, social, and cultural environment in which economists have written. Primarily for Majors, Honours, and Specialization students. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C411
Quantitative Development I
Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C325 and C326. Methods of national accounting and input-output analysis for underdeveloped countries. Methods of comparing standards of living. Patterns of economic development. Appraisal of models constructed on the premises of modern theories of economic development. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C412
Quantitative Development II
Prerequisite: ECON C411. The model of economic policy. Planning in stages. The model of linear activity analysis and efficient decentralization of economic decisions. Planning of efficient accumulation of capital. Individual project evaluation. Foreign aid and debt service models. Projection of manpower requirements. Evaluation of empirical applications of optimum planning to underdeveloped economies. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C413
Economic Growth and Fluctuations
Prerequisites: ECON C303 and C304. A review of some theories of causes of economic fluctuations. Discussion of the economic climate and of stabilization policies. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C421
Econometrics I
Prerequisites: ECON C221, C222, C325, and C326. This course develops the simple and multiple classical regression models. The problems of misspecified structures, multicollinearity, and forecasting will also be presented. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C422
Econometrics II
Prerequisite: ECON C421. This course is a continuation of ECON C421. It deals with the problems of random error correlation, stochastic regressors, and the stimulation and the estimation of multiple equation models. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C425
Mathematical Economics I
Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302, C303, C304, C325, and C326. A set-theoretic approach to the theory of demand and production. Special topics in the application of static optimization. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C426
Mathematical Economics II

Prerequisite: ECON C425. Optimization over time: theory and applications to problems of consumption and investment planning, growth, and capital accumulation. Differential equations. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C428
Optimization Techniques

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303, C304; C325, C326. This is an advanced course for Honours students, and for Specialization and Majors students with the consent of the Department. Topics include linear programming and input-output analysis; basic concepts and solutions of linear programming, its application to optimum resources allocation; exposition of basic inter-industry theory within the framework of input-output techniques; its applications to structural analysis. (3 credits)

NOTE: Only 3 credits will be awarded from Economics C428 and Quantitative Methods C416.

ECONOMICS C432
Advanced Monetary Theory

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303, C304, or permission of the Department. The nature of the monetarist-Keynesian controversy and critical appraisal of the IS-LM-AS model. Special topics; theory and evidence of term structure of interest rates, post-Keynesian demand for and supply of money in aggregative and disaggregative economic models. Theory of macro-economic policy. Transmission mechanisms, policy coordination, lags, international constraints, and other problems. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C435
Advanced Public Finance

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303, C304, C335, C336. In this course, several key areas in Public Finance will be dealt with in depth. Topics covered will be selected from the following: public goods and externalities, cost benefit analysis, pricing policy of public enterprises, structure of commodity taxation, structure of income taxation, issues in tax reform, and intergovernmental fiscal relations. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C442
International Economics I

Prerequisites: ECON C301 and C302. The basis of international trade, gains from trade, factor-price equalization, the tariff, Canadian commercial policy, trade and development, economic integration. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C443
International Economics II

Prerequisites: ECON C303 and C304. International monetary economics, foreign exchange markets, adjustment mechanisms, capital flows, balance of payments and domestic policy goals, international liquidity. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C450
Advanced Economic History

Prerequisites: ECON C221, C222; C301, C302, C303, and C304. Advanced topics in economic history, with emphasis on the application of economic theory to specific historical questions. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C461
Industrial Economics

Prerequisite: ECON C221 and C222; C301 and C302. This course analyzes the structure, conduct, and performance of Canadian and U.S. industries. Topics include the determinants of industrial structure, such as economies of scale and barriers to entry, measures of conduct and performance, technological change, advertising, mergers, integration, and public policy. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C462
The Corporate Economy

Prerequisites: ECON C221 and C222; C301 and C303 or FINA C314 and C315. This course will examine the nature of the large firm, its behaviour and its impact on the national and international economy. Topics will include: the emergence and historical development of the corporate firm; the separation of ownership from control; the large firm in Canada; theories of the large firm; mergers; macro-economic effects of large firms (administered pricing-inflation); the multinational corporation (theories, evidence, and effects). (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C473
Economics of Socialism

Prerequisites: ECON C301 and C302. This course analyzes the theoretical aspects of various types of socialist economies: market, centrally planned, and worker-managed. Definitions and models of the various forms will be developed and compared with a capitalist model and with existing socialist economies such as those of Cuba, China, Yugoslavia, and the U.S.S.R. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C476
Marxist Economics

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302, C303, and C304 or ECON C370, or permission of the Department. A general survey of Marxist theory, including historical and dialectical materialism. Marx's microeconomics: labour theory of value and its classical predecessors; theory of exploitation and the Iron Law of Wages; transformation problem and price theory. Marx's macroeconomics: business cycles and the theory of capitalist development; crises and the breakdown of capitalism. Contemporary Marxism and the question of the withering away of the state. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C481
Labour Economics II

Prerequisites: ECON C301 and C302; C303 and C304, C381. This course examines the determination of wages and employment, at the level of both the firm and of the economy as a whole. Analyses are made of the demand for labour by individual firms. Occupational, regional, and inter-industry wage differentials, effect of wage changes on employment. Impact of unions on wages and employment, and labour mobility.Aggregate questions examined include current problems of structural and cyclical unemployment; price inflation, and the role of monetary and fiscal policies in attaining full employment, and controlling inflationary pressures. These topics are analyzed in the context of the Canadian economy. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C490
Economics of Social Welfare

Prerequisites: ECON C301 and C302; C303 and C304. This course will be devoted to an examination of the economic aspects of social welfare issues in Canada. Topics include: employment and unemployment; manpower problems and policies, inequality, poverty, social insurance and social assistance; investment in man, especially education and health; urban and regional development; environmental economics; federal, provincial, and municipal policies. (6 credits)

ECONOMICS C493
Regional Economics

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302; C303, C304. This course introduces the student to the methods and techniques of regional economic analysis, and their application to the problems of regional economies within Canada. Among the microeconomic topics covered are: the location behaviour of firms and households and the factors determining the allocation of land among alternative competing uses. Macroeconomic topics include: the measurement and analysis of regional income and growth levels, cyclical changes in those levels, and interregional differences in growth rates. Policy problems pertinent to Canadian regions are stressed throughout the course. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C495
Economics of Transportation and Communications

Prerequisites: ECON C301, C302. Congestion problems and solutions, pricing, costs, demand and regulation in transportation. Some applications to communications. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C498
Study in a Special Subject III

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is designed primarily for Honours, Specialization, and Majors students. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for students to intensify their study beyond the traditional areas of specialization already represented in the curriculum. The selected subject will vary with the special interest of the instructor offering the course in any given year. (3 credits)

ECONOMICS C499
Study in a Special Subject IV

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for ECON C498 may register for ECON C499 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

6 additional undergraduate credits in Education chosen in consultation with the Director of the Programme.

Transfer

Students with a maximum of 15 credits from other recognized institutions may be allowed to transfer into the programme.

NOTE:

1. The student must meet the minimum scholarity requirements set by the Provincial Government before being recommended for certification.

2. This programme is not open to teachers of vocational subjects.

 NOTE: Upon successful completion of the BA Specialization in Early Childhood Education programme and application to the Registrar's Services Department, students may be recommended to the Quebec Teachers Certification Service for a Quebec Teaching Permit (Probation), for prekindergarten, kindergarten and Grades 1-3. Previously certified teachers will be recommended for a Teaching Diploma.*

To be recommended for certification (Permit or Diploma), students must

(1) achieve at least a B (75%) grade in EDUC C270, C271, C371, C470 and C472; and

(2) achieve at least a C (65%) grade in EDUC C380, C382, C385, C386, C387 and C388.

Students who obtain a passing grade that is below the level required for recommendation for certification will be placed on conditional standing within the programme and will be so informed in writing by the Chairman of the Department of Education. Students will be allowed to repeat the course(s) in question only once in order to achieve the required grade. (For the status of this grade as part of the student record, see calendar § 16.3.8.)

Students who fail to repeat the course successfully within one year will, to remain in the degree programme, be required to acknowledge in writing that they have forfeited the right to be recommended for certification.

Students who obtain a failing grade (F, R or NR) in any of the courses listed in paragraphs (1) and (2) above will be required to withdraw from the programme and will be so informed in writing by the Chairman of the Department of Education.

In the event that a student meets regular University standards but does not satisfy the requirements for recommendation for certification, the student may apply to receive the University degree but will not be recommended to the Ministry.

The provisions of this policy also apply to the Certificate in Education programme. In EDUC C471, at least a B (75%) grade is required for such recommendation, in EDUC C480 and C481 at least a C (65%) grade.

For other programmes which may be of particular interest to teachers, see §21.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

EDUCATION C201
The Nature and Function of Teaching
An introduction to the purpose, theories, and methods of teaching. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

EDUCATION C210
Psychology of Education
This course will introduce the student to a broad range of content in educational psychology, including its scope and methods, learning motivation, growth and development, adjustment, individual differences, guidance, and concept of self. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

EDUCATION C211
Child Growth and Development
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization or Major in Child Studies, with permission of the Department. Students will study and practice methods to facilitate and improve school-parent communications. (3 credits)

EDUCATION C270
Practicum I: Curriculum, Classroom Management, and Micro-Teaching
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization. Students will study curriculum development and classroom management at the pre-school level. Teaching skills will be modelled and practiced in microteaching sessions. Students will plan and develop activities, lessons, and units, which they will implement in the microteaching sessions. Videotapes of performance will be reviewed and discussed. (3 credits)

NOTE: To be recommended, upon completion of their programme, for teacher certification, students must achieve at least a B (75%) grade in this course.

EDUCATION C271
Practicum II: Pre-School Field Experiences
Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Education Specialization. This course requires students to spend one day a week for one semester in the Concordia Child Care Centre, or other pre-school setting. Students will be required to observe, record, and assess the behaviour of young children, to study programme organization and general classroom functioning. Each student will develop a curriculum unit which will be taught. Students must attend a weekly seminar given by the Director, Concordia Child Care Centre. (3 credits)

NOTE: To be recommended, upon completion of their programme, for teacher certification, students must achieve at least a B (75%) grade in this course.

EDUCATION C305
Technology for Educational Change I
This course introduces the student to a wide range of ideas and practical skills in Educational Technology, a field which encompasses mass communications, computer-based systems, audio-visual instrumentation, simulation and gaming, systems analysis, and instructional design. A modular approach is adopted; each module covers, in a six-week period, a particular area of thought in Educational Technology. Two modules are offered. The first deals, from a theoretical viewpoint, with human communication processes (semiotics, gesture, sociolinguistics, etc.). The second module focuses on specialized applications of computer technology in education: computer-assisted learning (CAL) and computer-managed instruction (CMI). The course will require laboratory work outside class. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

EDUCATION C306
Technology for Educational Change II
Like Education C305, this course offers two modules focusing on particular aspects of Educational Technology. Each module is covered in six weeks. The first module deals with small-studio television production, tutorials in production skills culminating in script-writing, and group production of an educational TV programme. The second module introduces techniques for systematically designing instructional units tailored to individual needs. The course requires laboratory work outside class. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

EDUCATION C317
The Urban Child

This course concentrates upon the life of the inner-city child and the concomitant influences upon his development in and out of the classroom. Students are instructed in how to view the urban area from the child's perspective, through field assignments in inner-city schools or recreation centres. Lectures by social workers, police officers of the youth section, legal aid counsellors, and inner-city teachers heighten the awareness of students to the environment in which the inner-city child lives. (3 credits)

EDUCATION C321
Sex Role Socialization in the School

This course will focus upon how children at the elementary- and secondary-school level are socialized for different work roles and how work segregation has occurred on the basis of this process. The role of schools and curriculum, then, will be examined in relation to cultural changes in social roles. (3 credits)

EDUCATION C324
Patterns of Educational Culture

This course is an introduction to the variety of cultural settings in which formal schooling and informal education socialization - take place. The cultural milieu of education both inside the classroom and outside, in the family, the neighbourhood, the market-place, and the political arena is the focus of readings and lectures.

The aim of this course is to immerse the student in the concepts of anthropology and education in the broadest sense. It is hoped that students will become sensitized to the concept of culture, cultural assimilation, enculturation, socialization, informal, non-formal, and formal educational systems, open and closed societies, and cross-cultural comparison. (3 credits)

EDUCATION C371
Practicum III: Classroom Interaction Dynamics

Prerequisite: Enrolment in Early Childhood Specialization or Major in Child Studies or permission of the Department. This course is designed to encourage both systematic and anthropological observation of children in large and small groups in the classroom. Interaction between child/teacher, children/teacher and children/children will be studied. Models of interaction will be examined and verbal as well as non-verbal communication will be covered. The purpose of this course is to develop more effective teaching. The implications of classroom grouping as well as individual interactions in teaching styles and techniques will be discussed. Videotapes, classroom observation and participation will be employed. (3 credits)

NOTE: To be recommended, upon completion of their programme, for teacher certification, students must achieve at least a B (75%) grade in this course.

EDUCATION C380
Language Arts in Early Childhood Education

Prerequisite: Second year standing in Early Childhood programmes or permission of the Department. The aim of this course is to give the early childhood educator the skills to develop a stimulating and appropriate language arts programme for the classroom. The language arts curriculum, resource materials and teaching methodologies for the preschool and primary child will be studied. This course will consist of writing an integrated review of literature. It is intended to make the student a critical consumer of research in adult education. The course will cover key research concepts necessary in reading and understanding research articles. The student will acquire the necessary skills to locate a given body of research for a particular topic. It is also expected that the student will write a review of existing research for a topic of interest. (3 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C461
Research in Adult Education II

Prerequisites: ADED C200 and C460. This course will consist of developing a research proposal. Where possible and appropriate, the student will be encouraged to carry out the research outlined in the proposal. The course will cover the basic elements of writing a research proposal: statement of the problem, review of the literature, formulation of hypotheses, research design, instrumentation, sampling, data collection, and significance of the study. The course will also cover ethical issues and principles regarding research involving humans. (3 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C490
Practicum and Field Placement Seminar in Adult Education

Prerequisites: ADED C200 and permission of the Department. This course requires that the student work directly with adults in an educational programme or set of experiences, such as workshops. Where feasible, the practicum placement will be coordinated with the student's work setting. A seminar will be run in conjunction with the practicum experience. The seminar is designed so that students may share problems, issues, and experiences of their practicum setting. (6 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C491
Special Projects Seminar in Adult Education

Prerequisites: ADED C200 and permission of the Department. The student will develop and design a special project of interest in the area of adult education. In addition to providing the student with on-hand experience, the course is designed to provide the student with grant-writing skills. A contract for conducting the project and a final report for the project will be written as if for a granting institution. Where possible and appropriate, students will be encouraged to write requests for grants to obtain funds for the project or programme which is implemented. (6 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C492
Special Topics Seminar in Adult Education I

Prerequisite: ADED C200, or permission of the Department. The subject for the seminar will vary from year to year, reflecting recent developments in adult education, special interests of the students or the instructor. (3 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C493
Independent Study in Adult Education

Prerequisite: ADED C200, or permission of the Department. This course is designed to provide the student with an opportunity to pursue an in-depth analysis of a particular topic area. The student may elect to pursue a literature review of a subject of interest or develop an action programme with adult learners. The student is responsible for drawing up a project contract with a faculty adviser. (3 credits) NOTE: Please see §200.1

ADULT EDUCATION C494
Special Topics Seminar in Adult Education II

Students who have received credit for ADED C492 may register for ADED C494 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

---

200 level courses and 300 level courses without prerequisites are open to all students and may be used as English electives unless otherwise indicated.

Admission to the Honours programme is granted at the end of the student's first year, after Departmental review. Students seeking admission to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977, will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in the Academic Regulations §16 of this calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977, will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

Because of the extensive renumbering of English Department courses, students are advised to see §200 of the calendar for a list of equivalent courses.

ENGLISH C205
Basic Language Skills - Stage I
A course in English composition for students who need basic training in written and spoken English. Emphasis will be placed on grammar, sentence structure, and other fundamentals of good usage. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C206
Basic Language Skills - Stage II
A course in language skills and research techniques for students who need basic training in the preparation of effective reports, term papers, and other written accounts of their work for business and academic purposes. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C209
Elements of Written English
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course will deal with problems in written English that students encounter when writing university assignments. The course will begin a few weeks after the commencement of term. This will give students an opportunity to register for it after they have discovered deficiencies in their written English that hinder their academic progress. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C211
English Composition
This course is designed to help the students to develop skills in writing, research, and documentation, so that they may be able to prepare written accounts of their work clearly, concisely, and in a logically organized way. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL C212 or C213.

ENGLISH C212
English Composition - Stage I
This course in English composition is designed to provide students with the basic training in writing upon which all forms of effective written communication are founded. Stress will be laid on the development of skills in the writing of good expository prose through a study of the basic rules of grammar, in the organization of essays, in effective sentence construction and diction, in effective paragraphing, and in paraphrasing and summarizing. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have taken ENGL C211 may not take this course for credit.

ENGLISH C213
English Composition - Stage II
Prerequisite: ENGL C212, or permission of the Department. This course develops further the writing skills acquired in ENGL C212. The aim of this course is two-fold: a) to develop skill in writing, appropriate to the audience; and b) to familiarize students with research techniques necessary for the preparation of term papers and other written accounts for business and academic purposes. Instruction will focus on the techniques of persuasion, narration, and description, on logical structure, and how to use the library. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have taken ENGL C211 may not take this course for credit.

ENGLISH C215
Rhetoric
An inquiry into the nature and function of Rhetoric (Classical and "New") and of rhetorical criticism; a study of the fundamentals and some of the refinements of prose style; logical and rhetorical analysis, and original compositions. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C225
Creative Writing: Poetry
A seminar in the writing and criticism of poetry, including detailed discussion and written criticism of the students' work, and, at the discretion of the instructor, the study of selected poems. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C226
Creative Writing: Prose
A seminar in the techniques of short fiction, including investigations of and exercises in a variety of creative and technical problems, as well as analysis and criticism of the students' own work. Students may be required to read selected works of short fiction. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C227
Creative Writing: Drama
A seminar in the writing of plays, including an exploration of dramatic forms and techniques. The students are expected to submit work of their own for discussion and analysis. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C232
The Oral Interpretation of Poetry and Drama
The aim of this course is to demonstrate the close relationship between the rhythm and texture of the spoken word and meaning in poetry and drama. We shall read aloud poems and scenes from plays, studying the importance of emphasis to meaning and (in the latter) the relationship of dialogue to character. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C234
The Bible and English Literature
A study of the literary handling of Biblical material and the literary uses of Biblical allusion in English Literature by authors such as Milton, Bunyan, Blake, Byron, and T.S. Eliot. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C237
Children's Literature
A survey and analysis of literature for children, undertaken with the aim of developing a critical vocabulary, and of arriving at workable standards of assessment. The kinds of literature discussed will include works written for adults, but traditionally read by children as well, works specifically written or adapted for children, fairy tales, and other children's versions of folklore and myth, nursery rhymes, and other children's verse. The course will be of general interest to students of literature, and should prove especially helpful to those who teach children in the schools. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C238
Canadian Children's Literature
This course examines the ways in which elements of the Canadian experience, such as language, setting, folklore, and history, have contributed to the content and tradition of children's literature in Canada. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C239
Topics in Children's Literature
This course deals with specific topics, such as the works of an author or group of authors, or a particular theme, or development of a genre. The topics to be studied may vary from year to year. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C240
Topics in Children's Literature
Students who have received credit for ENGL C239 may register for ENGL C240 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C244
Special Topic in English I
A basic, or introductory, course in a special subject of general interest for which no prerequisites in English are necessary. The subject matter will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C245
Special Topic in English II
A basic, or introductory, course in a special subject of general interest, for which no prerequisites in English are necessary. The subject matter will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C249
Women in Literature I
A selection of short stories, poems, and plays by authors such as Ibsen, Lawrence, Mailer, Pinter, and MacEwen, in which woman is of major importance, either as the central experiencing character in adolescence, maturity, and old age, or as the embodiment of sexual archetypes and social roles. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C250
Women in Literature II
Prerequisite: ENGL C249, or a course which has stressed the novel as form. A study of some women novelists emphasizing Charlotte Brontë, Woolf, Lessing, and Atwood, and including others from among George Eliot, Rhys, Plath, Drabble, Engel, Watson, and Munro. (3 credits)

ENGLISH C251
Selected Topics in Literature Written by Women I
This course explores the ways in which women have employed conventions of such literary genres as poetry, the novel, and the drama to define their own lives and those of their contemporaries. The emphasis will be on literary analysis of the works. The course will also deal with the social and historical circumstances which are relevant to the works in question. The texts studied, the themes and concepts pursued, will vary from year to year. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C252
Selected Topics in Literature Written by Women II
A student repeating ENGL C251 for credits will register under ENGL C252. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C254
Psychology and Literature
A study of the relationship between the basic theories of psychology or psychoanalysis and literature through a consideration of selected literary works, such as novels, poems, dramas, and fairy tales. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C255
Translation
Prerequisite: Fluency in both French and English. Intensive work to improve the student's skill at translating a variety of texts from French to English. Emphasis will be placed on non-literary texts. Training will be given in style and idiom. The course will help the student gain proficiency in rendering a variety of French texts into idiomatic English prose. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C256
Major Writers in English
An introduction to major periods of English literature through the study of such representative authors as Chaucer, Shakespeare, Marlowe, Jonson, Donne, Milton, Swift, Pope, Blake, Coleridge, Wordsworth, Keats, Shelley, Dickens, Hardy, Browning, Tennyson, Conrad, Lawrence, Yeats, Eliot, Woolf, Joyce. (6 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL C257 or C258.

A continuation of ENGL C257. An introduction to Swift, Pope, Wordsworth, Tennyson, Yeats, T.S. Eliot, and other major English authors of the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth centuries. (3 credits)
NOTE: This course may not be taken for credit with ENGL C256.

ENGLISH C259
Literature: Ideas and Myths
An exploration through literature of some of the myths which generate our ideas, and some of the ideas which rationalize our myths. A study of Gilgamesh, The Republic of Plato, Antony and Cleopatra, The Marriage of Heaven and Hell, Crime and Punishment, 2001, and other works. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C260
Myth in Literature
The sources, development, and continuing function of some central Mediterranean myths. The course defines the nature and functions of myth, traces the most influential myths from their first appearance in literature to their transformation in the Christian art of Europe, and goes on briefly to examine their use by contemporary writers. The primary texts include the Bible, in the King James version, and such works as the Apocrypha, the Odyssey, selected Greek tragedies, and Ovid's Metamorphoses. (6 credits)

ENGLISH C262
Medieval Literature in Translation
An introductory study of some major works in England and Europe between 400 and 1400, beginning with St. Augustine, and including examples of epic, Grail literature, and courtly romance such as Beowulf, The Song of Roland, The Cid, Chrétien de Troyes' Parsifal, Tristan and Isolde, The Romance of the Rose, and parts of Dante's Divine Comedy. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

ENGLISH C263
European Literature from the Middle Ages to the Onset of Modernism
A study of some of the classical works of European literature from Dante to Dostoevsky, including such writers as Boccaccio, Rabelais, Cervantes, Rousseau, and Goethe, with emphasis on evoling cultural patterns leading from Faith to Reason, and beyond. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

 NOTE: Students registered in Specialization or Major programmes in Exercise Science may not take this minor, but should see Specialization in Exercise Science: Sports Science Option.*

30 Certificate in Outdoor Education

3 BIOL C208[3]
3 GEOL C201[3]
18 EXCI C370[6], C470[6], C472[6]
6 Elective credits chosen from the following: BIOL C209[3], C250[3]; EXCI C337[3]; GEOL C202[3], C323[3]; HEAL C208[6]; PHYS C270[3]; SCHA C254[3], C255[6], C353[3]

 NOTE: Acceptance into certificate programme is dependent upon possession of Bachelor's degree by applicant or graduation from the three-year CEGEP programme no. 391 (Recreation).*

Recreation and Leisure Studies

The courses listed below are open to all students, in particular Exercise Science students desiring an increased competency in the field of Recreation and Leisure Studies.

EXCI(LEIS) C241[3], C342[6], C426[6], C464[6]

EXERCISE SCIENCE C201
Philosophical and Sociological Foundations of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation

The first part of the course involves study of the history of Physical and Health Education and Recreation and of the impact of philosophical tenets on these disciplines. Subject to critical analyses are the basic concepts of idealism, pragmatism, realism, materialism, and existentialism. The second part of the course deals with the relationship of sport and recreational participation and socialization benefits for the participant. Lectures and Seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE Students who have received credit for BIOP C201 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C211
Introduction to Motor Learning

Prerequisite: MATH C207. The course is concerned with the capacities people have for processing information. It attempts to demonstrate how these capacities influence performance, the acquisition of skills and, in particular, sports skills. Also considered are the effects of the following factors: decision making, information theory, reaction time, psychological refractory period, selective attention, memory, and others. Lectures and Seminars: 3 hours per week. Labs: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C211 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C241
Recreation and Leisure in Contemporary Society

The course provides a basis for understanding recreation and leisure as increasingly important aspects of our culture. In an era of rapidly changing life styles, with a high incidence of anxiety and frustration, the value of worthy use of free time in maintaining mental and physical health is presented. Topics discussed include: motivations for participation in leisure and recreation; social, psychological, and historical foundations of leisure; education for leisure; and the analysis of special problems. Lectures and seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C241 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C251
Introduction to the Science of Movement

The course introduces physiological parameters influencing activity. The influence of personal characteristics, societal structures and other factors on human performance are explored. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students registered in the Specialization and Major programmes in Exercise Science may not take this course for credit within this programme of concentration.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C251 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C261
Principles and Techniques of Physical Education and Recreation Skills

The course stresses i) the basic skill acquisition in most of the popular sports ii) the knowledge of the rules in each sport, and iii) the observation of teaching progressions and techniques. Also , each sport or activity is analyzed from a scientific aspect (i.e., Biomechanical and Physiological) so that the student can understand how and why a skill may be developed. Laboratory: 10 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C261 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C310
Methods and Materials in Physical Education and Recreation

In this course consideration is given to the needs, interests and characteristics of children of elementary school-age. Methods and materials most conducive to motor skill and recreational skill learning for this age group are of major concern. Emphasis is placed on movement education and traditional approaches. Basic skills and teaching sequences are reviewed. Students are afforded the opportunity to teach children and analyze methodological techniques. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Laboratory: 2 hours per week. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C310 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C313
Motor Learning and Human Performance

Prerequisite: EXCI C211 or permission of the Department. The principal aim of this course is to examine in more depth the topics of learning. Major consideration is given to the effects that feedback and manipulation may have on the acquisition and improvement of sports skills in performance. Lectures and Seminars: 3 hours per week. Labs: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C313 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C315
Physical Education in the Early Childhood Curriculum I: Psycho-Motor Learning

The psychomotor domain of learning in young children is of major concern in this course. Principles of perceptual motor feedback processes are studied in detail. Application of these principles to motor learning in the early childhood curriculum is analyzed. The interrelationships of cognitive and psychomotor development are studied for symbiotic cause and effect relationships. Lectures: 2 hours per week. Labs: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C331
Health Science

The subject matter is approached with "health" viewed as the optimal functioning of the human organism. The course synthesizes and applies knowledge from biological, psychological, and medical sciences to present the student with a comprehensive understanding of factors influencing personal health. Areas covered include: hereditary considerations, growth and development patterns, human sexuality, nutrition, fitness, mental health, diseases, drugs, pathology, and environmental ecology. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C331 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C333
Personal and Community Health Problems

The course examines causes and symptons, and proposes plausible steps which can be taken towards solving individual and community health problems. Consideration is given to alcoholism, drug abuse, mental illness, smoking, sex education, communicable and non-communicable diseases, pollution, industrial and occupational health hazards. Lectures & Seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C333 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C335
Prevention of Athletic Injuries

Prerequisite: EXCI C337 and C351. An examination is undertaken of age, body structure, heredity, and acquired factors in relation to athletic injuries. Reviewed are injuries to the muscular, skeletal, and other systems in specific sports and under various conditions. The effects of aerobic, anaerobic, flexibility, and strentgh conditioning programmes in the prevention of traumatic sports injuries and chronic ailments are studied. Research findings are surveyed in the area of testing and fitting of equipment as they relate to injury prevention and safety. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Laboratory: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C335 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C337
Emergency Care of Athletic Injuries

Prerequisites: EXCI C351, or permission of the Department. Principles and techniques of first aid, emergency care, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and transportation of the sick and injured are discussed, demonstrated, and practiced. Injuries associated with participation in sports, active leisure, and physical activities are emphasized. Proper management of wounds, fractures, dislocations, cardio-respiratory arrest, asphyxia, drowning, shock, dehydration, and exposure is included. Students successfully completing the course are certified by the St. John's Ambulance Society. Lectures: 2 hours per week. Laboratory: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C337 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C342
Principles and Practices of Recreation Services

The course is concerned with the fundamental concepts governing the field of recreation and leisure. Many aspects of programme planning and development are examined, including planning models and principles, classification, evaluation leadership; analyses of programme models in social, cultural, and physical recreation, leisure education, therapeutic recreation, as they relate to the provision of services. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Laboratories/ Field Study: 1 hour per week. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C342 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C351
Structural Human Anatomy

The course is a study of gross and functional anatomy, with major emphasis on the skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Labs and Cadaver Demonstrations: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C351 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C353
Human Physiology

Prerequisites: BIOL C230 and a university-level Chemistry course. The course analyzes the functional organization and integration of the muscular system and of the nervous and hormonal systems controlling movements in human beings. Because of their close relationships, the special senses and the reproductive systems are also examined in this course. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Labs: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C353 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C355
Systemic Human Anatomy

Prerequisite: EXCI C351. The course is a study of the organ systems of the human body, with major emphasis on the circulatory, respiratory, digestive, excretory, reproductive, and endocrine systems. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Labs and Cadaver Demonstrations: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C355 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C357
Cardiovascular - Respiratory Physiology

Prerequisite: EXCI C353. The major concern of the course is to examine the functional organization and integration of the cardiovascular and respiratory systems which provide nutrients for man's energy metabolism. Related to this, the dynamics of metabolic processes, digestive and excretory systems are also analyzed. Lectures & Seminars: 3 hours per week. Labs: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C357 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C370
Scientific Foundations of Outdoor Education and Recreation

The course examines different models of outdoor education as strategies in the educational process. Analyses are made of the use of outdoor settings in terms of providing experiences for building concepts, and developing concerns about man and his environment. Fundamental principles covered include: man's adaptation to various environments, environmental studies, physical education skills, camping, and hiking. Lectures, Laboratories, and Field Study. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C370 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C393
Selected Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course focuses on current topics of interest in the field of Exercise Science. The content will depend upon the theme designated by the Department when the course is offered. The course will draw upon the expertise of individuals and visiting guest lecturers. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C393 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C395
Selected Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for EXCI C393 may register for EXCI C395 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C395 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C397
Selected Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course focuses on current topics of interest in the field of Exercise Science. The content will depend upon the theme designated by the Department when the course is offered. The course will draw upon the expertise of individuals and visiting guest lecturers. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C397 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C399
Selected Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Students who have received credit for EXCI C397 may register for EXCI C399 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C399 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C401
Adapted, Corrective, and Rehabilitative Physical Education

Prerequisite: EXCI C351, C353 or permission of Instructor. The role of exercise in the treatment and rehabilitation of individuals with specific physical, metabolic, physiological, mental, and emotional impairment is discussed. The physiopathology of obesity, arteriosclerosis, hypertension, lower back syndrome, diabetes, cardio-vascular disease, emphysema, cystic fibrosis, muscular dystrophy, birth defects, and psychosocial disorders is presented so that the role of appropriate physical exercise can be critically evaluated. Current techniques of rehabilitation and specific programmes for the impaired are discussed. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C401 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C402
Therapeutic Role of Movement

The course explores uses of physical activity, rhythm and dance with special populations. The use of movement as a means of integrating the individual will be emphasized. A variety of movement/dance therapy techniques that follow developmental approaches to body awareness and motor skill building for the physically/mentally handicapped and the emotionally disturbed will be presented. The course is experiential and didactic. Lectures and seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C411
Research Design

Prerequisites: MATH C207 and third-year standing in Exercise Science. The course provides theoretical and practical background in experimental design specific to the allied health professions. Topics will include historical perspectives, basic principles of research, statement of the problem, literature search, criteria selection, ethical and moral considerations, and research models. Procedures involved in data collection, interpretation and statistical methodology are analyzed. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C411 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C412
Advanced Methods and Materials in Physical Education and Recreation

Prerequisite: Third-year standing and consent of instructor. The interactive behaviour between student and teacher is to be approached scientifically. Among topics considered are history and philosophy of physical education, modern trends in education and their adaptation to the physical education field, Mosston's spectrum of styles, T.E.T. (Teacher Effectiveness Training), learning performance criteria, pupil's perception of teacher influence, behavioural objectives, values clarification, leadership theory, curriculum and daily lesson planning. In the laboratory periods, students are given the opportunity for practicing various methodological techniques on peers and on adolescents and young adults in academic or recreational settings. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C412 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C415
Physical Education in the Early Childhood Curriculum II: Eurhythmics

The utilization of rhythmic activities as a learning mode in the early childhood curriculum is studied from both a practical and a theoretical perspective. Students examine rhythms as a means of developing kinesthetic awareness, understanding the role of coordination and timing in the performance of complex movement patterns. Interaction with young children to discover first hand how rhythms are involved in developmental sequences constitutes the practical aspects of the course. Lectures: 2 hours per week. Labs: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C415 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C421
Organization and Administration of Physical Education Programmes and Facilities

The course examines and applies fundamental concepts of business administration to the field of physical education. Topics covered include organizational structures, management systems, equipment purchasing and control, promotion, public relations, theories of motivation and scheduling which can be applied in the school and community. Lectures and Seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C421 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C426
Administration of Recreation Services

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. Analysis of the processes involved in planning and managing leisure service delivery systems. Topics to be studied include: principles of planning, organization, zero-based budgeting, financial control, and supervision. The course exposes the students, through field study, to a variety of management procedures currently used in the field. Lectures, Laboratories, and Field Study. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C426 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C433
Rehabilitation and Treatment of Athletic Injuries

Prerequisite: EXCI C337 or consent of professional staff. The role and relationship of the sports therapist to the physician, nurse, and physiotherapist in the rehabilitation and treatment of athletic injuries is studied. Subject to review are thermal and cryotherapy, and the use of diathermy, ultrasonic, whirlpool, defibrillator, and other equipment. Emergency treatment, methods of transportation, and legal aspects are discussed. An introduction is also provided to basic counselling techniques. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Labs: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C436
Sports Medicine

Prerequisite: EXCI C453. A wide variety of current research in sports medicine is presented, discussed, interpreted, criticized, and critically evaluated. Students make professional presentations on topics including thermo-regulation, cardiovascular risk prevention, fitness testing, bio-mechanics of running, ergogenic aids, exercise at high altitudes, physiological effects of scuba diving, etc. The design, methodology, analysis, results, and conclusions are critically examined and recommendations for future investigations are formulated. Library research is required for class preparation. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C436 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C451
Kinesiology

Prerequisite: EXCI C351, a post-secondary school physics course (preferably Physics C241), and third-year standing in Exercise Science. The course involves a study of anatomical, mechanical, and descriptive analyses of basic human movement and specific sport skills. Included is an examination of the skeletal, muscular, and the nervous systems, and their application to the teaching and coaching of efficient motor performance. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Labs: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credits for BIOP C451 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C453
Physiology of Exercise

Prerequisite: EXCI C355 and C357 or BIOL C333. In this course, physiological principles are examined as they apply to man's acute and chronic adaptation to physical activity. Using the physiological principles as guidelines, training programmes to enhance muscle strength, cardio-respiratory endurance, flexibility, and other components of fitness are studied. The effect of factors such as environmental temperature, altitude, and age on physical performance is also given consideration. Students learn to assess physical fitness through the measurement of selected physiological parameters and, on the basis of the results, prescribe exercises and training programmes to enhance physical performance in general or for a specific sport. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Lab: 3 hours per week. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C453 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C455
Preventive Medicine and Geriatrics

Prerequisite: EXCI C453, the equivalent, or permission of the Department. The course focuses on the physiological, psychological, and sociological needs of adults - in particular, geriatric patients. The aging process is examined as it influences the choice of physical activities. In addition, the preventive aspect of physical activity and its effects on the medical problems associated with aging are studied. Methods of implementing and evaluating preventive programmes are analyzed. Disorders of the metabolic processes, neuromuscular, cardiovascular, and respiratory systems receive prime consideration. Lectures: 2 hours per week. Labs: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C455 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C462
Field Experience Internship

Prerequisite: This course is open only to students with third-year standing in Exercise Science who have followed the Therapeutic Activity Option or Recreation and Leisure Majors who have followed the programming option. Practical problems of the professions may be studied. The course offers a supervised period of work in school, agency, or institutions for a special population. Students choose sites and formulate study proposals. The course involves a minimum of a six-week, 240-hour period. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C462 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C464
Recreation Internship

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. In consultation with their mentors, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical and practical problems confronting professionals in the field of recreation. The course offers a supervised period of work with a selected organization. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal. The practicum commences, based upon the approved proposal, immediately following the student's last final examination. This course involves a minimum of a six-week, 240-hour period. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C464 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C466
Para-Medical Internship

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. In consultation with their adviser, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical and practical problems confronting paramedical professionals in the field. The course offers a supervised period of work as sports therapist, activity leader in a hospital or rehabilitative centre, a technician in a physiological evaluation laboratory, or related position. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal, immediately following the student's last final examination. The course involves a minimum of a six-week, 240-hour period. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C466 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C468
Research Internship

Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. In consultation with their adviser, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical, practical, and scientific problems related to the fields of Bio-Physical Education, Health and Recreation. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal. The practicum commences, based upon the approved proposal, immediately following the student's last final examination. The practicum involves working as a member of a research team and reporting the experience. The course involves a minimum of a six-week, 240-hour period. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C468 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C470
Outdoor Education in the Elementary School Curriculum

The course offers a comprehensive analysis of outdoor education at the elementary school level. The aims and objectives of outdoor education are examined; organization and administration of model programmes are analysed; innovative units of instruction and outdoor education programmes are evaluated. Lectures, Laboratories, Seminars, and Field Study. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C470 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C472
Outdoor Education in the Secondary School Curriculum

The course provides an overview of outdoor education programmes at the secondary school level. Various concepts, planning, and development of units of instruction, administration, and other facets of outdoor education for the secondary age students are examined. Lectures, Laboratories, Seminars, and Field Study. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C472 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C491
Independent Study in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Students will work on topic(s) chosen in consultation with their department supervisor. The study can include readings, field studies, interviews, and field work. An in-depth report of the activities conducted by the student will be presented to the supervisor upon completion of the course. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C491 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C493
Advanced Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Consent of professorial staff. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in the field of Exercise Science. The content will be dependent upon the theme designated by the Department when the course is offered. The course will draw upon the expertise of individuals and visiting guest lecturers. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C493 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C495
Advanced Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Consent of professorial staff. Students who have received credit for EXCI C493 may register for EXCI C495 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C495 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C497
Advanced Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Consent of professorial staff. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in the field of Exercise Science. The content will be dependent upon the theme designated by the Department when the course is offered. The course will draw upon the expertise of individuals and visiting guest lecturers. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C497 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C499
Advanced Topics in Exercise Science

Prerequisite: Consent of professorial staff. Students who have received credit for EXCI C497 may register for EXCI C499 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for BIOP C499 may not take this course for credits.

72 BA Joint Honours in French and History

30 French Credits:

6 Chosen from FRAN C270[3], C271[3], C320[6], C321[3], C322[3]
6 FRAN C251[6]
6 18th Century French Literature
6 19th Century French Literature
6 20th Century French Literature

30 History credits:

18 HIST C209[3], C210[3], C375[3], C376[3], C344[6]
12 HIST C430[6], C436[6]
6 Elective credits in French or History
6 HIST C496[6] or FRAN C498[6]

NOTE: Prior to registration students must have written approval for their programme from an authorized member of the Department.

72 BA Joint Honours in one of the Modern Languages and in French*

6 Chosen from FRAN C270[3], C271[3], C320[6], C321[3], C322[3]
6 FRAN C251[6]
18 Credits chosen in consultation with the French Department
6 FRAN C498[6]
36 Modern Languages: These 36 credits are to be chosen in German, Italian, or Spanish, in consultation with the Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics. Literature courses will be chosen to parallel as much as possible the choice in French courses.

 NOTE: Sequences of courses to be determined in consultation with the departments concerned.*

NOTE: Prior to registration students must have written approval for their programme from an authorized member of the Department.

72 BA Joint Honours in English and French

6 ENGL credits chosen from courses C256 through C284
6 ENGL credits chosen from courses C286 through C305; C376[6], C377[6], C390[6], C392[6]
6 ENGL C310[6], C311[3], C312[3], C320[6], C328[3], C329[3], C330[6]
12 ENGL credits chosen by genre or periods to parallel choice in French courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
18 FRAN C251[6], C270[3], C271[3], C320[6] or C321[3], and C322[3], C324[6]
12 FRAN credits chosen by genre or periods to parallel choice in English courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
6 Elective credits in English or French, outside the parallel periods or genre chosen
6 ENGL C499[6] or FRAN C498[6]*

 NOTE: Students intending to take FRAN C498[6] should note that it has a 400 level prerequisite. 6 of the 12 FRAN elec-* tive credits should therefore be chosen at the 400 level.

NOTE: Prior to registration students must have written approval for their programme from an authorized member of the Department.

63 BA Honours in French Literature

12 Chosen from FRAN C270[3], C271[3], C320[6], C321[3], C322[3], C324[6], C370[3], C371[3], C372[3]

Approches critiques IV: la psycho-critique

Préalable: 6 crédits en littérature. Ce cours est une introduction à la psychanalyse de la littérature. Axé sur le créateur et sur ses rapports avec sa création, il permettra à l'étudiant de faire le point sur les différentes méthodes psycho-critiques et sur leurs applications. Par des travaux pratiques d'interprétation portant sur des oeuvres particulières, on évaluera les avantages de chaque méthode et on en précisera les limites. (3 crédits)

FRANCAIS C489
Méthodologie des travaux de recherche

Préalable: FRAN C324, C367 ou C401. Destiné aux étudiants de dernière année et préparant aux études graduées, ce cours permettra, par des exercices de rédaction commentés et critiqués, d'atteindre la précision, l'élégance, et l'originalité dans l'expression écrite. Analyse stylistique proprement dite (définitions et procédés de style). Théorie et pratique de l'analyse de texte - Théorie de la versification - Théorie et pratique des recherches bibliographiques. (6 crédits)

FRANCAIS C490
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier

Préalable: 12 crédits de langue ou de linguistique au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue ou de la linguistique. (6 crédits)

NOTE: Tout étudiant s'inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours C490 obtient les crédits C491 et C492.

FRANCAIS C491
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier

Préalable: 12 crédits de langue ou de linguistique au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue ou de la linguistique. (3 crédits)

FRANCAIS C492
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Préalable: 12 crédits de langue ou de linguistique au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la langue ou de la linguistique. (3 crédits)
NOTE: Tout étudiant s'inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours C491 obtient les crédits C492.

FRANCAIS C493
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature dont 6 au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature. (6 crédits)
NOTE: Tout étudiant s'inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours C493 obtient les crédits C494 et C495.

FRANCAIS C494
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature dont 6 au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature. (3 crédits)

FRANCAIS C495
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Préalable: 12 crédits en littérature dont 6 au niveau "400". Etude d'un sujet particulier dans le domaine de la littérature. (3 crédits)
NOTE: Tout étudiant s'inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours C494 obtient les crédits C495.

FRANCAIS C498
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Préalable: 12 crédits dans la spécialité dont 6 au niveau "400". Ce cours n'est ouvert qu'aux étudiants des programmes de majeure, de spécialisation ou d'honneurs. Il offre l'occasion d'approfondir l'étude d'un sujet à déterminer par l'étudiant en accord avec son conseiller et/ou un professeur du département. Chaque étudiant exécute des travaux individuels sous le contrôle du professeur spécialiste de la matière. (6 crédits)

FRANCAIS C499
Etude avancée d'un sujet particulier
Tout étudiant s'inscrivant pour la seconde fois au cours C498 obtient les crédits C499. (6 crédits)

60 BA Honours in Geography

Pattern A: Physical Geography
Year I
18 GEOG C211^{6} , C262^{6}, C271^{6}
Years II & III
12 GEOG C341^{6}, C362^{3}, C391^{3}
18 Chosen from GEOG C371^{6}, C372^{6}, C373^{6}, C475^{3}, C476^{3}
6 GEOG Elective credits at the '300' or '400' level (excluding those listed above)
Year III
6 GEOG C491^{6}

Pattern B: Human Geography
Students following this pattern may emphasize one of the following areas within Geography: cultural, economic, historical, or urban.
Year I
18 GEOG C211^{6}, C262^{6}, C271^{6}
Years II and III
12 GEOG C341^{6}, C362^{3}, C391^{3}
18 GEOG chosen from one of the following groups. An approved 6 credit option outside Geography may be substituted for 6 of the credits listed below:
Cultural : GEOG C313^{6}, C316^{6}, C317^{3}, C345^{6}, C356^{6}, C357^{6}, C412^{6}
Economic : GEOG C350^{3}, C351^{3}, C355^{6}, C356^{6}, C357^{6}, C451^{6}, C457^{6}
Historical : GEOG C313^{6}, C316^{6}, C325^{3}, C422^{6}, C424^{6}
Urban : GEOG C313^{6}, C331^{6}, C355^{6} , C412^{6}, C433^{6}, C457^{6}
6 GEOG electives at '300' or '400' level other than those listed in the selected group
Year III
6 GEOG C491^{6}

NOTE: The Department of Geography will hold a series of field trips outside regularly scheduled class times.

All Honours students will be required to participate in at least five such trips during the course of their undergraduate programme.

60 BA Specialization in Geography

Pattern A: Physical Geography
18 GEOG C211^{6}, C262^{6}, C271^{6}
12 GEOG C341^{6}, C362^{3}, C391^{3}
18 GEOG Chosen from C371^{6}, C372^{6}, C373^{6}, C475^{3}, C476^{3} or an approved 6-credit option outside Geography
12 GEOG Elective credits at the '300' or '400' level

Pattern B: Human Geography
Students following this pattern may emphasize one of the following areas within Geography: cultural, economic, historical, or urban.
18 GEOG C211^{6}, C262^{6}, C271^{6}
12 GEOG C341^{6}, C362^{3}, C391^{3}
18 GEOG chosen from one of the following groups. An approved 6 credit option outside Geography may be substituted for 6 of the credits listed below:
Cultural : GEOG C313^{6}, C316^{6}, C317^{3}, C345^{6}, C356^{6}, C357^{6}, C412^{6}
Economic : GEOG C350^{3}, C351^{3}, C355^{6}, C356^{6}, C357^{6}, C341^{6}, C457^{6}
Historical : GEOG C313^{6}, C316^{6}, C325^{3}, C422^{6}

Urban : GEOG C313[6], C331[6], C355[6], C412[6], C433[6], C457[6]

12 GEOG Elective credits at the '300' or '400' level

42 BA Major in Geography

18 GEOG C211[6], C262[6], C271[6]
12 GEOG C341[6], C362[3], C391[3]
12 GEOG Elective credits at the '300' or '400' level

42 BA Major in Man-Environment Relationships (Loyola)

Year I
18 GEOG C211[6], C265[3], C266[3], C275[3], C276[3]
Year II
6 GEOG C305[6]

(3 credits)

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

GEOGRAPHY C200
Foundations of Geography: Environment and Man

A course designed for the student with no previous training who is interested in the geographic background to world and environmental problems. A study will be made of both physical and human factors in geography. Areas of concentration will be: energy, natural systems, and the environment; landscape evolution, climate, and resources; variation and spatial distribution of man's economic, social, and political activities; the relationship of urban and non-urban man to the environment. Lectures: 3 hours per week, including Lab. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C202
Ecology of Man

A general introduction to the relationship between physical and cultural distributions on the earth's surface. Global patterns of human, economic and natural resources will be examined. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C211
Introduction to Human Geography

A study of the evolution of the earth's populated areas and the gradual enlargement of geographical horizons. The emphasis will be on cultural distributions, landscape and settlement, and the geography of economic, social, and political activities. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C222
Prehistoric Man and Environment

An examination of the scientific evidence of the unwritten part of man's evolutionary history, covering both food-gathering and food-producing man. The course will consider changes in the natural environment during this period as a background against which the temporal and spatial aspects of biological and cultural evolution occurred. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have taken GEOG C212 may not take this course for credits.

GEOGRAPHY C262
Introduction to Cartography

An introduction to the study of maps as a tool of the geographer. The course will focus on the various stages involved in topographic map production and map interpretation, and the study of the cartographic methods available for presenting qualitative and quantitative statistical data on maps. Laboratory assignments of a practical nature complementary to the lectures form an important part of the course. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C265
Maps and the Presentation of Statistical Data I

This course is useful to anyone interested in how to read and analyze the information on a map; or in how to display data by means of maps and diagrams. It is basic to all other courses in Geography. Topics include: analysis of topographic, land use, urban, and weather maps; the application of maps to economic, social, medical, and historical topics; the interpretation of aerial photographs. Lab: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C266
Maps and the Presentation of Statistical Data II

The emphasis in this part of the course will be on thematic maps, and statistical diagrams and graphs. Elementary quantitative techniques will be studied along with their application to the analysis of geographic, economic, population, and other scientific and problem data. Lab: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C271
The Natural Environment

An introduction to the earth sciences as they relate to the environment of man, with special emphasis on weather, climate, and the evolution of landscape. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C273
The Sea

A physical, historical, and human geography of the world ocean. The course includes an introduction to oceanography, navigation, and elementary geophysics, as well as an account of travels and discovery ending with modern scientific exploration of the deeps. Topics include coasts and islands; ports, ships, and shipping; submarine topography; waves, tides, and earthquakes; marine life, fish, and fisheries. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C275
Climate and the Biosphere

A study of the energy systems of the atmosphere and an introduction to environmental geography. The hydrologic cycle, world climates, and weather systems. Interrelationships in the biosphere and man's impact upon them. Weather and climate maps will also be studied. Lectures: 3 hours per week, including Lab. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C276
Landforms and the Biosphere

GEOG C275 a help. An introduction to the energy systems of the earth's crust and oceans, and the processes that have shaped our environment. The evolution of land forms and man's impact upon landscapes. The Pleistocene and Recent epochs in Canada, and their effects on soils and land use. The study of relevant topographic land-use maps and aerial photographs. Lectures: 3 hours per week, including Lab. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C305
Tutorial in Man-Environment Relationships I

Prerequisite: 18 credits in Geography. Tutorial discussion of the changing human attitudes to nature, perception of the environment, and of the impact of environmental factors on man and culture. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C313
Montreal: Habitat and Society

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. The course is an introduction to the urban geography of Montreal, both past and present. Three themes are investigated. They are: (a) 'habitat': the biophysical environment of the site, the growth of the physical fabric of the city, and the evolution of its architectural forms; (b) 'Society and ways of life': the origins and growth of population, the ethnic and cultural heritage of the city, and the pattern of social areas within the metropolitan region; and (c), 'the contemporary urban scene': the personality of the city's landmarks, nodes, streetscapes, and districts. Fieldwork is an important part of the course. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C316
Cultural Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. Cultural Geography is concerned with the application of the concept of culture to geographic problems. Attention is focused on the spatial patterning of material and non-material elements of culture (culture areas); on the processes of cultural, temporal, and spatial change; on the relationships between man and land (cultural ecology); and especially on how these relationships are reflected in different ensembles of man and land (cultural landscapes). (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C317
Population Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C200 or C211, or permission of the Department. The characterisitics, dynamics, and distribution of world populations. Census data and techniques of census analysis. Rural/urban populations and their varying proportions. The vital processes of population change; natural increase and migration. Growth rates, population policies, and population pressure. Study of selected groups. The demographic prospects. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C325
Introduction to Historical Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. An examination of the geographical factors in historic events of the distribution and migration of peoples; of differing settlement patterns and the growth of cities. The effect of physical boundaries in war and peace. The agricultural and industrial revolutions and their effects, and special reference to Europe. (3 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C331
Urban Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C211 or INTE C280, or permission of the Department. A study of the prehistoric town, the Greek and Roman town, towns in the Middle Ages, the trading city, the pioneer town, and the modern metropolis. The distribution of such towns, their development, growth, and internal pattern of organization will be looked at from an historical and geographical point of view. Problems of conurbations and large metropolitan cities in the present age will be discussed and evaluated. Special emphasis will be given to Canadian cities, to their site, function, organization, growth, and development, as well as to urban problems relating to zoning, transportation, urban renewal, etc. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C341
Regional Geography of Canada

Prerequisite: One of GEOG C200, C211, C271, C275, and C276, or permission of the Department. A study of Canada, past and present, based on the various natural regions into which the country is divided. In the first half of the course, an historic-geographical approach will be taken to bring to the student's attention the main trends in Canadian cultural and historical development from aboriginal times to the present. The changing nature of man-land relationships at different periods of time, and under different forms of occupance, will receive particular attention. In the second half of the course, the present-day pattern of human occupance on a regional and national basis will be analyzed. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C345
The Geography of a Selected Region

Prerequisite: One of GEOG C200, C211, C271, C275, and C276, or permission of the Department. A detailed examination of the physical environment, the people, their history, and the present political and economic patterns within the region. The course will provide a deep understanding of the interrelationships between the constituents of the region and an appreciation of those factors responsible for regional unity, and will also illustrate the holistic nature of the geographical discipline. (6 credits)

NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: In alternate years, beginning 1976-77, this course will focus on the Geography of the USSR.

GEOGRAPHY C346
The Geography of a Selected Region

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for GEOG C345 may register for GEOG C346 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C350
Geography of Agriculture

Prerequisite: Twelve credits in Geography, or permission of the Department. Classification of agriculture systems, food production in relation to new biological, cultural, and marketing developments. There will be some consideration of land use mapping and land potential assessment. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C351
Forest Geography

Prerequisites: GEOG C211 and C271, or enrolment in an Honours, Specialization, or Major programme in the Department of Biology. A study of the natural development and distribution of world forests, their modification by human interference, and the economic impact of forest management. Actual problems will be examined in a Quebec context, both in class and in the field. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C355
Spatial Organization

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. A study of how man organizes spatial activities, with emphasis on the concepts of spatial interaction, location of activities, diffusion, and individual decision. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C356
The Geography of Recreation and Tourism

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. The course examines the geographical aspects of recreation and tourism. Approaches are from the viewpoint of spatial patterns and man-environment relations. Contexts include the developed and less developed nations, and urban and rural regions. Topics such as the following will be studied: the geography of travel, tourism as a factor in space-economy development, the geography of national parks, and the location of recreation facilities in urban areas. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C357
Resource Utilization and Conservation

Prerequisite: GEOG C200 or C211, or permission of the Department. The course will examine the resource concept and concepts of conservation, together with the regional approach to resource management. Case studies will include problems in developing particular natural resources and inter-state areas of poor economic health, with emphasis on the regional and natural parts of such developments. Special emphasis will be given to Canadian problems and those of selected underdeveloped countries. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C358
Economic Geography I

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. An introduction to the field of economic geography in which the geographical aspects of economic systems are explored. Topics include: Spatial patterns of agricultural and industrial production; the spatial structure of transportation systems; the geography of international trade; and the geography of multinational corporations. (3 credits)

NOTE: Only 6 credits will be awarded for GEOG C355, C358, and C359.

GEOGRAPHY C359
Economic Geography II

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, C358, or permission of the Department. This course involves further study in the field of economic geography. The emphasis is upon theories relating to agricultural land-use patterns and industrial location, studies of location decision-making behavior, the role of governments in the evolution of space-economies, and the geographical aspects of economic problems. (3 credits)

NOTE: Only 6 credits will be awarded for GEOG C355, C358, and C359.

GEOGRAPHY C362
Quantitative Geography I

Prerequisite: 12 credits in Geography, or permission of the Department. An introductory course in the applications of descriptive and analytical statistical techniques in Geography. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: Only 6 credits will be given from Economics C221 and C222; Geography C362 and C363; Mathematics C241; Quantitative Methods C243 and C244; Sociology C210; Psychology C317 and C318.

NOTE: This course may be taken for credits in the Urban Studies Programme.

GEOGRAPHY C363
Quantitative Geography II

Prerequisite: GEOG C362. A study of selected multivariate techniques and their application in geography. Practical projects using computer facilities will be assigned. A course in Computer Science would be an asset. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: Only 6 credits will be given from Economics C221 and C222; Geography C362 and C363; Mathematics C241; Quantitative Methods C243 and C244; Sociology C241; Psychology C241 and C242.

GEOGRAPHY C371
Biogeography

Prerequisite: GEOG C271, or permission of the Department. A study of the distribution of plants and animals, with emphasis on their soil and climatic inter-relations. Relevant field trips are included. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C372
Analysis of the Environment

Prerequisite: GEOG C271, or permission of the Department. A review of modern theories and techniques in geomorphology, hydrology, pedology, denudation, chronology, and landscape classification. The course includes a discussion of the Pleistocene Epoch in terms of applied research methods. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C373
Climatology

Prerequisite: GEOG C271, or permission of the Department. The broad aspects of world regional climates considered from the point of view of both physical and dynamic climatology. The course includes practical work. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C391
History of Geographical Thought

Prerequisite: Eighteen credits in Geography. A study of the development of the field of geography from ancient times down to the present. Representative geographical works of the Greeks, the Romans, and of the Middle Ages, the Age of Discovery, the 19th and 20th centuries will be examined and discussed. The present-day concepts of the field and function of geography will receive special attention. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C405
Tutorial in Man-Environment Relationships II

Prerequisite: Geography C305. Tutorial discussion of man's impact on the environment, emphasizing current problems and issues. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C412
Political Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C316 or C355, or permission of the Department. The course will be structured around traditional and contemporary themes in political geography. Emphasis will be upon the political/administrative organization of space, the interrelationships between politics and environment, electoral geography, and the geographical aspects of public policy. These will be studied within the context of the four main levels of government (local, regional, national, and international). Consideration will be given to urban and regional systems, and to Canadian situations and problems. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C422
Historical Geography of Quebec and Ontario

Prerequisite: GEOG C325, C341, or permission of the Department. A study of an historical nature of past geographic patterns, economic, social, cultural, and political, in Quebec and Ontario. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C424
The Historical Geography of a Selected Area

Prerequisite: GEOG C211, or permission of the Department. This course will examine the evolution of the geography of a selected area of continental scale. The emphasis will be on such substantive issues as the growth, composition, and movement of population, the occupation of the land, settlement patterns, the evolution of the cultural landscape, and the emergence of regional patterns of man and land. (6 credits)

GEOGRAPHY C433
Applied Urban Geography

Prerequisite: GEOG C211 or INTE C280; GEOG C331, or permission of the Department. A study of the contemporary city, with emphasis on problems arising from urban growth. Attention will be given to the possibilities for planned development, including New Towns. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for GEOG C401 or INTE C480 may not take this course for credit.

GEOGRAPHY C451
Special Seminar in Economic Geography

Prerequisites: GEOG C211, C355, C362, or permission of the Department. This course will provide opportunities to senior students for discussion and advanced study. Subject matter will vary from year to year to take advantage of the special interests of the seminar leader. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C457
Geography of Transportation

Prerequisites: GEOG C211, C331, or C355, or permission of the Department. A study of patterns of transport facilities and traffic flows. Emphasis will be on general concepts of route alignment, network layouts, and on applications of spatial interaction models to economic flows. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C462
Advanced Cartography

Prerequisite: GEOG C262 and twelve additional credits in Geography. A study of the major stages and techniques involved in map compilation, design, and production. Lectures, practical periods with assignments, and relevant field trips. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: Students who obtained credits for Geography N-466 in 1975-76 may not register for this course.

GEOGRAPHY C463
Topics in Applied Cartography

Prerequisite: GEOG C462. The subject matter of the course will vary from year to year to take advantage of the special interests of the course instructor, and may include such topics as automated cartography, remote sensing, historical cartography, or special-purpose mapping. Seminars, practical applications with assignments, and relevant field trips. Students may register for this course a second time under C464. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C464
Topics in Applied Cartography

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for GEOG C463 may register for GEOG C464 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C475
Hydrology I

Prerequisite: GEOG C271, and one of GEOG C371, C372, or C373, or permission of the Department. Theories and practice of hydrology, with emphasis on geographical aspects and resource utilization. Includes introduction to glaciology. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C476
Hydrology II

Prerequisite: GEOG C475. Soil moisture experiments, textural analysis, hydrological models, and field trips. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

GEOGRAPHY C491
Research Methods

Prerequisite: Final-year standing in Honours Geography. A selected review of the methods and techniques used to acquire and process original geographical information in the field and laboratory. Includes field work and practical sessions. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

75 BSc Honours in Geology

Year I
18 GEOL C211^3, C212^3, C213^3, C215^3, C216^3, C221^3
6 Science elective credits chosen from CHEM C211^6, C231^2, C232^2, COMP C211^3, MATH C241^6, BIOL C222^3, C223^3

Year II
21 GEOL C311^6, C312^3, C313^3, C314^3, C315^3, C316^3
3 GEOL elective credits

Year III
21 GEOL C411^6, C412^6, C413^3, C414^6
6 GEOL elective credits

63 BSc Specialization in Geology

Year I
18 GEOL C211^3, C212^3, C213^3, C215^3, C216^3, C221^3
6 Science elective credits chosen from CHEM C211^6, C231^2, C232^2, COMP C211^3, MATH C241^6, BIOL C222^3, C223^3

Year II
21 GEOL C311^6, C312^3, C313^3, C314^3, C315^3, C316^3

Year III
15 GEOL C411^6, C412^6, C413^3
3 GEOL elective credits

45 BSc Major in Geology (Ecology Option)

Year I
18 GEOL C210^3, C211^3, C215^3, C220^3, BIOL C230^3, C240^3

Year II
15 GEOL C212^3, C213^3, C311^6, BIOL C250^3

Year III
3 GEOL C316^3
6 credits in Geology
3 credits in Ecology, in consultation with the Department of Biological Sciences

39 BSc Major in Geology

Year I
12 GEOL C210^3, C211^3, C212^3, C213^3

Year II
9 GEOL C220^3, C311^6
6 GEOL elective credits

Year III
12 GEOL elective credits approved by the Department

24 Minor in Geology

6 GEOL C210^3, C220^3
18 GEOL elective credits, of which no more than 9 credits may be chosen from the GEOL 200-209 series

NOTE: GEOL C201^3, C202^3, C203^3, C204^3, C205^3, and C220^3 may be taken in other disciplines by students who are interested in Geology. No previous background in Geology is required.

Students without CEGEP Geology 901, or equivalent, may be required, at the discretion of the Department, to take Geology C210^3.

Students seeking admission to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977, will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in § 16.2.4 of this Calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977, will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

Field Trips and Field Schools

Field trips and observation backed by lectures and laboratory work are essential to the successful completion of Geology courses. In addition, two field schools (Exploration Geology and Field Geology) are conducted by the staff in the two weeks immediately following the spring exams. Although the field schools are required in the Honours and Specialization programmes, other Geology students are encouraged to get this field experience, provided they have the appropriate prerequisite courses.

Summer Employment

It is strongly recommended that, prior to graduation, at least one summer be spent in some phase of geological work. Although the Department of Geology cannot guarantee summer employment, its students can normally expect to work in geology with government agencies or private exploration companies during the summer months.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

GEOLOGY C201
Principles of Geology

The nature, origin, and evolution of the universe, stars, and of planetary systems: the physical properties of the Earth and its environment; the materials and structures of the Earth's interior and surface, and the processes affecting these regions, such as continental drift, the formation of oceanic basins, and mountain building. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

GEOLOGY C202
Oceanography

Geomorphology of the ocean floor, with emphasis on the significance of the mid-oceanic ridges and trench systems. The physical and chemical characteristics and circulation of ocean waters and their causes. Tides and waves. Distribution and origin of terrigenous, biogenous, chemogenic, volcanogenic, and polygenic sediments in the ocean basins. Conditions of oceanic sedimentation. Quantitative distribution of suspended sedimentary materials at the ocean bottom. Size composition of suspensions and bottom sediments. Economic resource potential of the oceans. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Geology students in Honours, Specialization, or Major programmes may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOLOGY C203
Environmental Geology

Geology in the ecosystem. The earth's atmosphere, hydrosphere, lithosphere, and biosphere in the geologic time. Long-range geological effects of ecosphere pollution. Trace nutrients and health, with emphasis on the geology of trace elements and their cause and effect on biological systems. Understanding of, control for, and prevention of natural hazards. Changes in the earth's climate. Role of Geology in land use. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Geology students in Honours, Specialization, or Major programmes may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOLOGY C204
Continental Drift

An introduction to the concept of Continental Drift. The origin and development of the theory, the nature of the earth's crust, the ocean floor, and the theory of sea-floor spreading. The revolution of the Earth Sciences as a result of widespread acceptance of the concept. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Geology students in Honours, Specialization, or Major programmes may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOLOGY C205
Geology of Resources

Rocks and ore minerals. Present and future availability of earth resources. The nature, classification, and mode of occurrence of mineral deposits. Exploration, development, and rational exploitation of mineral resources. Elements of mining economics. Distribution of oil, gas, coal, and base-metal deposits. Evaluation of the effects of mining operations on environment. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Geology students in Honours, Specialization, or Major programmes may not take this course for Geology credits, except by special permission of the Department.

GEOLOGY C210
Physical Geology

An elementary study of minerals and rocks, and of the internal and external processes which shape the earth's surface. Laboratory work deals with identification of minerals, rocks, and fossils, as well as interpretation of topographic and geologic maps. Field trips to Mount Royal, Eastern Townships, and Laurentians. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C211
Mineralogy I

Physical and chemical properties of minerals. Crystallography, crystal notation, stereographic projection. Crystal structures. Identification, description, and classification of minerals. One or two field trips near Montreal. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C212
Invertebrate Paleontology

Prerequisite: GEOL C210, or equivalent. A systematic survey of major invertebrate fossil groups, with chief emphasis on morphology, classification, and geologic occurrence. Study of principles of evolutionary concepts and zonation. Some selected discussion on paleoecology. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C213
Structural Geology

Prerequisite: GEOL C210, or equivalent previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Identification and origin of geologic structures. Primary structures. Evaluation of folds, mesostructures, joints, and faults. Principles of rock deformation. Laboratory includes interpretation of geologic structures by orthographic and stereographic methods. Several field trips and structural study of selected areas. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C215
Photogeology

Prerequisite: GEOL C213, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. Evaluation of rocks, landforms, and geologic structures by means of aerial photographs. Principles of photointerpretation and photogrammetry. Introduction to remote sensing. Laboratory: geological interpretation of stereopairs from Canada and other countries; horizontal and vertical measurements and calculations. Construction of base maps using triangulation methods. Preparation of a geological map, with sections and report based on photointerpretation. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C216
Exploration Geology

Prerequisite: GEOL C221. Two-week field school right after final exams. The first part of the course consists of surveying and map preparation. The second part includes actual geophysical surveys, using seismic, magnetic, gravity, electrical, and radiometric methods. Students will be required to pay for room and board for a one-week period at the Concordia Field School. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C220
Earth History

The hydrologic cycle and the cycles of erosion; the measurement of geologic time; the history of life on earth and the geologic evolution of North America; glaciation and the ice age; the nature and origin of mineral deposits; the geology of coal, oil, and gas; the conservation of natural resources. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Geology students in Honours or Specialization may not take this course for Geology credits.

GEOLOGY C221
Physics of the Earth

Prerequisite: CEGEP MATH 103, 203, GEOL C210, or equivalent. This course is directed toward the general understanding of physical phenomena of the solid earth. Subjects for consideration include the following: earth's origin, age, radioactivity, magnetism, gravity field, seismology, heat flow, structure, and physical state of the earth's interior, theory of sea-floor spreading, theories of mountain formation. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C222
Principles of Geochemistry

Prerequisite: GEOL C201 or C210; and C211. An introduction to geochemistry, including the chemical make-up of the solar system and the geochemistry of the atmosphere, hydrosphere, crust, mantle, and core. The chemistry of igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks, with some emphasis on the trace elements which characterize each. Anomalous trace-element concentrations in rocks, soils, and water, and the application of geochemistry to mineral exploration. In the laboratory, the material discussed in the lectures is illustrated by geochemical calculations, trace element distribution maps, and methods of geochemical analysis. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C311
Introductory Petrology

Prerequisite: GEOL C211. The identification and description of hand specimens of igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks. Rock associations. Classification and origin of major rock groups. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

GEOLOGY C312
Mineralogy II

Prerequisite: GEOL C211. Point and translational symmetry, point groups, space groups, interpretation of space group tables, elements of crystal chemistry, chemistry and phase relations of important rock-forming minerals. Stereographic projections of crystal data; the Universal Stage and powder diffractometry in identifying minerals are subjects stressed in laboratories. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C313
Optical Crystallography

Prerequisite: GEOL C211. Behaviour of light in crystals. The optical indicatrix. The polarizing microscope and optical properties of minerals. Identification of non-opaque minerals in oil immersion and thin sections. If time permits, use of the Universal Stage will be introduced. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C314
Stratigraphy

Prerequisite: GEOL C212 and C311. Introduction to historical developments of stratigraphic concepts. Role of natural dynamic processes in the evolution of stratigraphic record. Discussion on stratigraphic classification and nomenclature. Major classification of tectonic elements in sedimentary basins, and broad patterns in the distribution of sedimentary rocks in relation to tectonic framework. Detailed analysis of stratigraphic principles, such as correlation (lithostratigraphic, biostratigraphic, chronostratigraphic), facies (lithofacies; biofacies), unconformities, and cyclotherm. Critical evaluation of stratigraphic sequences using modern and ancient examples for the recognition of aeolian, alluvial fan, fluvial, lacustrine tidal flats, barrier coastlines, carbonate shoreline, shallow marine and submarine environments. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C315
Tectonics

Prerequisites: GEOL C213, C221. Variations of physical properties in the Earth. Detailed structure of the Upper Mantle. The Crust: crustal types; tectonics of shields, platforms, and Phanerozoic fold belts; continental rifts; island-arc trench belts; oceanic rises. Critical evaluation of the hypothesis of sea-floor spreading. Plate tectonics: critical evaluation of the hypothesis; magma associations; plate reconstructions. Crustal origin and growth. Laboratory work: studies of tectonic maps of crustal types from continents. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C316
Field Geology

Prerequisites: GEOL C213 and C311, or permission of the Department. Two-week field work right after the final examination period. Working in pairs, students will map an area, prepare sections, and write a geological report. Group studies of important outcrops or outcrop areas and quarries. Students are expected to pay for room and board. Field work: 2 weeks in May at the Concordia Field School. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C322
Geology of Canada

Prerequisite: GEOL C201 or C210 (GEOL C314 or C212 also is recommended). Geologic study of the major geomorphic subdivisions of Canada, with special emphasis on stratigraphy, correlation, paleogeography, sedimentation, and tectonics. Reading assignments and colloquium are used to probe into specific problems. Lectures and Seminar. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C323
Precambrian Geology

Prerequisite: GEOL C315 (may be taken concurrently). Evolution of the earth in the Precambrian era. Problems in Precambrian correlation, paleoclimates, and structural history. Emphasis on Canadian and North American Precambrian areas. Term paper and Seminars. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C324
Analytical Methods in Geochemistry

Prerequisites: CEGEP CHEM 201; CEGEP PHYS 301; CEGEP MATH 103 and 203; or equivalent courses. Chemical equilibrium as applied to volumetric and gravimetric procedures; general theory of volumetric titrations; titration curves; application of general titration theory to neutralization precipitation; complexation oxidationreduction and nonaqueous solvent titrations; theory of potentiometry and potentiometric titrations; theory of gravimetric analysis; methods of separation by chemical and physical means; electrogravimetry and electrolytic separations; absorptimetric theory and absorptimetric methods of analysis. Analyses of major and minor components of geological material. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

NOTE: A student who has obtained credits for CHEM C211 may not take this course for credit.

GEOLOGY C325
Geostatistics and Computer Applications in Geology

Prerequisite: GEOL C201 or C210, or equivalent. Statistical analysis and computing methods applied to geological problems. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C411
Igneous and Metamorphic Petrology

Prerequisites: GEOL C311 and C313. Interpretation of phase diagrams. Mineralogy, fabric, and petrogenesis of igneous and metamorphic rocks. Magmatic and metamorphic processes. ACF and AKF diagrams for various metamorphic facies. Study of selected problems. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

GEOLOGY C412
Economic Geology and Ore Deposits

Prerequisites: GEOL C213 and C311. Part I. The Mining industry and the economic problems related to the industrial revolution. Chemical, physical, and structural controls of ore-forming fluids. The origin and economic evaluation of ore deposits, coal, and oil reservoirs. Industrial minerals. Part II. General classification of ore deposits. Geothermometry and isotope studies. Geology of representative mining districts of the world. Laboratory includes property evaluation, ore and petroleum reserve calculations, ore microscopy, examination of ore suites, term projects. Lectures and laboratory. (6 credits)

GEOLOGY C413
Sedimentary Petrology

Prerequisites: GEOL C311 and C313. General principles of sediment diagenesis, followed by detailed analysis of the diagenetic evolution of sandstone, shale, and carbonate rocks. Emphasis is placed heavily on the microscopic criteria in the recognition of diagenetic fabric. Problems of primary sedimentary structures and their hydro-dynamic interpretation are also discussed. Specialized topics on current development in sedimentary lithogenesis are also included. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C414
Research Project

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Honours students in their final year are expected to show competence in isolating and examining a geological problem using techniques available within the department, working in conjunction with assigned Faculty advisers. Student evaluation will be based on the student's performance in the investigation and on the written report. Specialization students may also take the course at the discretion of the Department. 6 hours per week. (6 credits)

GEOLOGY C421
Exploration Geochemistry

Prerequisites: GEOL C210 and C211, or permission of the Department. Basic principles; primary and secondary dispersion processes and their significance in geochemical exploration; field and analytical techniques (one field excursion early in the fall term); interpretation of geochemical data; organization of exploration programmes; selected case histories. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C422
Exploration Geophysics

Prerequisites: GEOL C210, C211, or permission of the Department. A brief study of the principles of magnetic, gravimetric, electric, and seismic methods of mineral exploration; interpretation of geophysical data; organization of exploration programmes; selected case histories. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C423
Introduction to X-ray Crystallography

Prerequisite: GEOL C312. The nature of X-rays, diffraction, the reciprocal lattice, powder diffractometer, powder cameras, single-crystal methods. Laboratory work will stress the techniques of powder diffractometry and precession photography. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C424
Engineering Geology

Prerequisite: GEOL C210, or equivalent (GEOL C213 and C215 is recommended). Engineering properties of rocks and soils. Landslides, groundwater, frost action, and permanently frozen ground. Application of geology to engineering problems - concrete petrology, tunnels, slope control, foundations, roads, airports, dams, and reservoirs. One term paper to be prepared. The laboratory period will include field trips, engineering geology, case histories, and feasibility study of engineering geology problems. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

GEOLOGY C425
Fossil Fuels

Prerequisite: GEOL C314 and C315, or permission of the Department. Origin and accumulation of petroleum hydrocarbons and coal. Distribution of oil, natural gas, and coal deposits as a function of geological environments. Geology of major oil and coal fields of the world. Global energy requirements and production forecasts. Lectures. (3 credits)

31.150 Health Education

Director
M. UPRICHARD, Professor

Associate Professor
L. HOULE

Assistant Professor
C. MARTEL

NOTE: In the near future the University hopes to offer a programme that will lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science - Nursing (B.Sc.N.).

EXISTING PROGRAMMES

Health Education offers three programmes:
1. B.A. Specialization in Community Nursing
2. Certificate in Community Nursing
3. Certificate in Health Education

All three programmes may be taken on a full- or part-time basis. A minimum of one course in a semester is mandatory in all three programmes.

Both the Certificate in Community Nursing and the B.A. Specialization in Community Nursing are open to registered nurses only. The Certificate in Health Education is open to any student admissible to the University.

Admission Requirements:

1. B.A. Specialization in Community Nursing and

2. Certificate in Community Nursing

a) A nursing diploma from an approved school of nursing

b) An authorization to practise nursing issued by the Order of Nurses of Quebec, or equivalent

c) For any nurse who graduated in 1972 or later, a written declaration from a hospital showing at least one full year of employment as a nurse and indicating the specific nature of that employment

d) Relevant transcripts should be submitted to the Admissions Office well in advance of registration

e) All students must be interviewed by a Faculty member of the Department before admission.

3. Certificate in Health Education

a) Admission to the University

b) Satisfactory work experience in any aspect of community health

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

66 BA Specialization in Community Nursing (Loyola)

Prerequisite: R.N.

Year I

18 NURS C205[3], HEAL C206[6], C209[3], C211[3], C215[3]

Year II

24 NURS C301[3], C307[3], C320[6], C323[3], C324[6], C325[3]

Year III

24 NURS C415[3], C417[3], C432[6], C435[3], C437[3], C445[3], C447[3]

45 Certificate in Community Nursing (Loyola)

Prerequisite: R.N.

24 Elective credits in Health in consultation with the Director.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

Nursing Courses:

NURSING C205
Current Issues in Nursing

An introductory course designed to explore, at the local and national levels, educational and professional concepts of nursing, their similarities and differences, and their influence on the changing patterns in nursing. The major intent is to illustrate the relationship between the profession, the impinging pressure to change, and nursing's reaction and response to this concept. (3 credits)

NURSING C213
Basic Nutrition

The goal of this course is to provide instruction on theoretical and practical knowledge of normal nutrition. The course content includes food habits and food ways; psychological, sociological, and cultural effects on food habits; the world food crisis; hunger and its effects on people; major nutrients and their interrelationships in human nutrition. The Nutrition Canada Survey assessment of nutrition status will be discussed. Nutrition during the life span, pregnancy and lactation, growth and development, aging and the aged will be described. Weight control, food economics, protection of food supply, food fads and fallacies will be examined. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is not available to students who have received credit for an equivalent course.

NURSING C301
Pharmacology for Nurses

Prerequisite: HEAL C206, or equivalent. This course is designed to introduce nurses to the basic concepts of drug pharmacokinetics as the basis for rational therapeutics. The major drug classes will be reviewed, emphasizing those drug effects that are important for the Registered Nurse in providing modern therapeutic care. Stress will be made on the importance of collaboration between professions for the better care of the patient. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students are advised to take NURS C301 and C307 in consecutive terms.

NURSING C307
Pharmacology: The Nurse's Role in the Community

Prerequisite: NURS C301. The purpose of this course is to apply the principles of pharmacodynamics and pharmacokinetics given in NURS C301 to individual and community health problems. The course content includes identification and discussion of major drug classes; hormones, contraceptives, psychotropic drugs, alcohol, opiates, barbiturates, stimulants, hallucinogens, nicotine, antibiotics, etc. The consequences of drug use and abuse in personal, family, and community life, as well as the nurse's role will be considered. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students are advised to take NURS C301 and C307 in consecutive terms.

NURSING C320
(Also given as HEAL C320)
Interviewing Techniques and Counselling Concepts

Prerequisite: HEAL C209, or equivalent. A course in which the student examines the dynamics of helping interviews, models of human effectiveness, and theories of counselling. The variety of issues to be covered include the enhancement of specific skills through different training experiences, a proper emphasis on self-understanding, an awareness of the role of philosophy, ethical standards, and research. This course demands a high level of observation, participation, and involvement from each student. (6 credits)

NURSING C323
(Also given as HEAL C323)
Teaching Strategies for the Health Professional

Prerequisites: HEAL C209 and NURS/HEAL C320. This course is designed to meet the needs of individuals who are involved in education programmes; i.e., schools, industry, clinics, volunteer agencies, in-service programmes, etc., aimed at promotion and maintenance of health, prevention of disease, and rehabilitation. (3 credits)

NURSING C324
Pathophysiology

Prerequisite: HEAL C206. This course will study body systems and the common diseases which attack them. Normal and abnormal functioning will be compared; e.g., the circulatory system and heart disease. Stress will be laid upon control and prevention. The systems to be discussed are: digestive, excretory, endocrine, circulatory, nervous, musculatory, and respiratory. (6 credits)

NURSING C325
Community Nutrition

Prerequisites: NURS C213 or equivalent, NURS C323. This course will apply basic nutrition knowledge to the problems of nutrition in the community. It will prepare students to act as facilitators of change in the food habits of their clients and assist them to practise clinical evaluation of nutrition through field work under supervision. Existing community programmes and resources to improve nutritional status will be evaluated. (3 credits)

NURSING C393
Anthropological Concepts in Nursing

This course is an introduction to anthropological concepts relevant to nursing problems and an explanation of the application of these concepts. The cross-cultural perspective on health attitudes, illness behaviour, and medical practices is of particular interest to nurses providing service to culturally diverse communities and to third-world medical aid programmes. No previous anthropology is required. (3 credits)

NURSING C394
Selected Topics in Nursing

Prerequisites: As determined by the Programme Coordinator. A student who has received credit for NURS C393 may register for NURS C394 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NURSING C395
Leadership and Community Change

Prerequisites: HEAL C209 and NURS C320, or equivalent. This course examines a variety of leadership styles and the effectiveness of each in producing social change. Students learn methods of determining when social change is needed and methods of planning, implementing, and evaluating interventions designed to produce such changes. (3 credits)

NURSING C415
Community Nursing I: Nursing Assessment

Prerequisites: HEAL C215 and NURS C320. This course is designed to help students to learn to make comprehensive community nursing-care plans. Such plans require understanding of the ethnic, cultural, demographic, and socio-economic influences upon the lives of people and of the methods for collecting data with which to assess the health needs of the individuals and families comprising a community. (3 credits)

NOTE: NURS C415 and C417 must be taken in consecutive terms.

NURSING C417
Community Nursing II: Roles in Intervention

Prerequisites: NURS C323 and NURS C415. In this course, students study the concerns of governments, educational institutions, and health agencies with the prevention of disease and the promotion of health. They learn ways in which nurses may intervene to help individuals and families to adopt healthful life styles. (3 credits)

NOTE: NURS C415 and C417 must be taken in consecutive terms.

NURSING C431
School Health Nursing

Prerequisite: NURS C430. This course presents the health needs of school pupils and personnel. It explores the responsibilities of provincial and local Departments of Health, the school authorities, and the school personnel and nurse in meeting these needs. It assists nurses to plan programmes of health services, health education, and healthful school living for various levels and types of schools, to inaugurate such programmes, and to coordinate the efforts of schools and community agencies to promote health and prevent illness in schools. (3 credits)

NURSING C432
Primary Care: The Nurse's Role

Prerequisites: NURS C301, C324 and C325. This is the final course required for the degree in Community Nursing. It seeks to give students the knowledge and skills needed to apply their previous learnings to the assessment of a client's health status and his referral, when needed, to other suitable health professionals. It will concentrate on screening processes, obtaining meaningful health histories, and on problems and means of making wise referrals. Students intending to practise these skills in the community may choose an experimental project in NURS C445 or C447. (6 credits)

NURSING C433
Nursing the Elderly

Prerequisites: NURS C320 and C329. This course provides a study of the physiological and psychological adjustments necessary to adapt a life style to the later years of life. It attempts to assist students to make an accurate assessment of a client's physical, social, and emotional condition, to use available health resources to maintain or restore health, and to develop guidelines for home care, health counselling, referral to other health professionals, and follow-up. (3 credits)

NURSING C435
Family Structure and Health Care Delivery I

Prerequisite: NURS C417. This course is concerned with the life cycle of the family structure, the interaction between the ever-changing family relationships and the health system, and the influence of health and disease upon these relationships. (3 credits)

NOTE: NURS C435 and C436 must be taken in consecutive terms.

NURSING C436
Family Structure and Health Care Delivery II

Prerequisite: NURS C435. Building on the theoretical knowledge of NURS C435, this course emphasizes home visiting, patterns of home-care process recording, teaching families to know and use suitable community agencies. Stress is placed on knowledge of healthful life styles as a means of preventing illness. (3 credits)

NOTE: NURS C435 and C436 must be taken in consecutive terms.

NURSING C437
Occupational Health Nursing

This course will deal with the relationship between doctor and nurse, employer and employee; management and the health department. Also, the role of the nurse today and tomorrow in our rapidly changing society. Instruction will consist of lectures, group discussions, and practical applications through field work and simulation. (3 credits)

NURSING C445
Nursing Practicum I

Prerequisite: Permission of the Programme Coordinator. In cooperation with a Tutorial Adviser, the nurse will choose a field of interest within the health-care system for fieldwork. The student will have freedom to choose how quickly the practicum requirements are satisfied. There will be no final exam. Students will submit a written report at the end of the term, based on the learning objectives established with the adviser at the beginning of the course. (3 credits)

NURSING C447
Nursing Practicum II

Prerequisite: NURS C445. In cooperation with a Tutorial Adviser, the nurse will choose a field of interest within the health-care system for fieldwork. The student will have freedom to choose how quickly the practicum requirements are satisfied. There will be no final exam. Students will submit a written report at the end of the term, based on the learning objectives established with the adviser at the beginning of the course. (3 credits)

NURSING C495
Advanced Topics in Nursing

Prerequisite: As determined by the Director. The theme will vary according to the special interests of the professor and the needs of the students. The course is de-

INDIVIDUAL STUDIES PROGRAMME

Acting Director
T. GRAY, Assistant Provost

Individual Studies Programmes-
Self-Elected Specialization
Undergraduate Scholars Programme
Para-Academic Credit

Objective

To accept the challenge implicit in living in a world where specialization can so easily be synonymous with narrowness of vision. This narrowness can be overcome if the specialist is able to see the interconnections among all fields of endeavour. Interdisciplinary Studies attempts to integrate knowledge, providing the specialist with a perspective which his discipline alone cannot give. Our primary aim, therefore, is to work with specialists and specialization, rather than to provide a substitute for them. We hope to achieve this objective through the offering of programmes containing courses given in a number of different departments.

Self-Elected Specialization

Requirements leading to a Bachelor of Arts with a "self-elected" Specialization in ... (title of chosen specialization)

Students may apply to pursue a Self-Elected Specialization by submitting in writing a statement of the proposed programme. There is no limitation on the subject matter of the proposal. The proposal should, however, contain the following information:

a) a title of proposed area of specialization,

b) a personal statement of purpose in taking such a programme,

c) a list of ten or more courses directly related to the title, and totalling 60 credits over a three-year period.

This proposal should be submitted to the Director as early as possible before registration. It will then be examined by a committee of Faculty from the general area of the student's interest. Students submitting proposals less than a month before registration may be admitted by the Director on a holding basis, but this implies no guarantee of any later acceptance of a programme.

The following guidelines should help students in constructing a valid set of courses in the area of their Specialization.

1. The title or theme of the proposed area of Specialization must be interdisciplinary; i.e., it must contain a coherent perspective that cuts across at least three traditional disciplines.

2. A student must maintain a 70% average in those courses proposed in setting up the programme. Failure to meet this requirement will prohibit the student from entering the second and third years of study.

3. The programme must include at least four courses (24 credits) falling within a single discipline - hereafter called the foundation discipline. These courses must include some of the "core" courses towards a Major in that discipline. This practice is not only sound pedagogy but has added significance in that a student failing to maintain a 70% average can then transfer to the department of the foundation discipline and still continue towards a Major or Specialization in that field.

4. For the final year, the student must enrol in a tutorial for SELF-ELECTED SPECIALIZATION students. This tutorial is directed by a faculty member from a field of studies relevant to the student's programme. He/she will be chosen by the Director in consultation with the students concerned. The tutorial Director will supervise an intensive reading programme and assist the student in the preparation of a paper. The tutorial is intended to bring together the various fields of knowledge included in the student's programme. Normally, the tutorial will carry a value of six credits.

Requirements leading to a Bachelor of Science with a Self-elected Specialization in ... (title of chosen specialization)

1. Normal entrance requirements to B.Sc. programmes.

2. Programme requirements: The same regulations as for the Self-Elected Specialization BA degree.

30 credits must be in Science courses; the remaining 30 credits must be Science-related courses. All courses must be approved by the Director.

Undergraduate Scholars Programme

The Undergraduate Scholars Programme is designed to meet the needs of responsible students with high academic standing, whose educational goals can best be achieved through an individually tailored programme of study. Such students must register in a programme leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major, a specialization, or honours in an area of concentration, although the approach may be of an interdisciplinary nature.

Each programme of study is planned through consultation between the scholar and a faculty adviser from his main field of interest. As many as 54 of the 90 credits required for the degree may be taken as Undergraduate Scholars Programme credits or tutorials. This work might take the form of guided independent study, independent field or laboratory research, or creative activity. Its precise nature will depend on the scholar's educational goals, interests, and area of specialization.

Since this programme involves a great deal of individual attention on the part of faculty members, the number of entrants is necessarily limited. Students wishing to apply are therefore encouraged to prepare their applications as early as possible. Each student should submit a written statement of educational goals and arrange to have a collegial transcript and two letters of recommendation sent to:

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES COURSES

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C200 Introduction to the Methods of the Humanities and Social Sciences

This course will introduce students to representative methods used in the humanities and social sciences. Methodologies suitable to each discipline will be shown through examples and projects centered upon themes with Canadian content where possible. Instruction will be shared by the professors from the disciplines concerned. (6 credits)

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C201 Aesthetics: An Interdisciplinary Approach

This course attempts to bring together a number of areas central to the cultural climate of our time, with emphasis on aesthetics, and man's encounter with the creative arts. The course examines the relation of aesthetics, generally, (and art in particular) to the crisis in values, and to contemporary identity crisis. More specifically, artistic questions such as the meanings and functions of style, taste, and criticism; the questions of form and content, subjectivity and objectivity in art; and the comparison of different artistic media are integrated into the broader issues noted above. The course's format is lecture and discussion, with the use of slides, recordings, and films as illustrative material. (6 credits)

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C230 Philosophy and Literature I: The Ancient World

The interaction of philosophy and imaginative literature in the ancient world, from the origins of civilization in Mesopotamia through some of the major texts of Ancient Greece and Rome. Reading and discussion of literature with a high thematic content and philosophy with important literary connections: for example, selections from Gilgamesh, The Iliad, and the works of Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, Plato, Aristotle, Lucretius, and Virgil. There will be special emphasis on the following topics: epic, fate and free will, and justics in the individual and the community. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C300 or L391 may not take this course for credits.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C231 Philosophy and Literature II: The Middle Ages and the Renaissance

The interaction of philosophy and imaginative literature in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, from late Rome to 1605. Reading and discussion of literature with a high thematic content and philosophy with important literary connections: for example, selections from The Romance of the Rose, and the works of Apuleius, Augustine, Dante, Thomas Aquinas, Machiavelli, Marlowe and Shakespeare. There will be special emphasis on the following topics: romance, faith, reason, and will. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C302 or L393 may not take this course for credits.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C232 Philosophy and Literature III: The Modern World (1605-1832)

The interaction of philosophy and imaginative literature in the Western World in the seventeenth, eighteenth, and early nineteenth centuries. Reading and discussion of literature with a high thematic content and philosophy with close literary connections: for example, from the works of such authors as Bacon, Pascal, Newton, Milton, Locke, Berkeley, Pope, Rousseau, Hume, Goethe, Kant, Blake and Shelley. There will be special emphasis on the following topics: the development of natural science, the problem of perception, classicism and romanticism. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C300 or L391 may not take this course for credits.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C233
Philosophy and Literature IV: The Modern World (1832-The Present)

The interaction of philosophy and imaginative literature in the Western World in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Reading and discussion of literature with a high thematic content and philosophy with close literary connections: for example, from the works of such authors as Mill, Darwin, Dostoevsky, Shaw, Freud, Sartre, and Kafka. There will be special emphasis on the following topics: the theory of evolution, the emergence of modern psychology, and existentialism. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C302 or L393 may not take this course for credits.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C300
Selected Topics in Interdisciplinary Studies

The theme and methodology chosen will depend upon the background and interests of the instructor. Students are advised to consult the Director before registering, in order to be sure of the title of the course in any one session. (3 credits)

NOTE: With the permission of the Director, students may take this course twice for credits, provided that a different subject is dealt with the second time, and will register under INTE C301.

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C301
Selected Topics in Interdisciplinary Studies

Students who have received credit for INTE C300 may register for INTE C301 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C302
Lecture Series

This course provides a flexible context for study in a field of immediate or specific interest. The theme or topic discussed will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES C400
Self-Elected Specialization Tutorial

Prerequisite: Reserved for Self-Elected Specialization students in their final year. This tutorial is directed by a faculty member from a field of studies relevant to the student's programme. The faculty member will be chosen by the Director in consultation with the student concerned. The tutorial Director will supervise an intensive reading programme and assist the student in the preparation of a paper. The tutorial is intended to bring together the various fields of knowledge included in the student's programme. (6 credits)

ADMISSION AND GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Enrolment in the writing workshops in the Journalism Programme is limited.

All applicants should apply through the University Admissions Office; they should also contact the Journalism Programme office at 879-8123 for an interview.

Admission procedures include: a test of English proficiency; a letter of application of about 300 words describing the student's academic and work background and aspirations in journalism; and an interview. Although it will not determine acceptance, applicants are advised that a working knowledge of French is important.

Deadline for applications is May 15.

Due to enrolment limitations, priority of placement is given to students enrolled in the specific Journalism programmes.

A student must achieve a final mark of C or better in the reporting workshops in order to proceed to the next level.

To graduate with a Minor, Major or Specialization in Journalism, a student must demonstrate a working knowledge of French. Tests of oral and reading proficiency in French are administered by the French Department on behalf of the Journalism programme, which is responsible for the final evaluation of each student's competence.

60 BA Specialization in Journalism and Communication

NOTE: Students must meet the admission requirements of both the Department of Communication Studies and the Journalism Programme.

Year I

12 JOUR C201[6], C205[3], COMS C240[3]
6 Chosen from COMS C275[3], C278[3], C284[3]

Year II and III

12 JOUR C301[6], C400[3], C402[3] or C403[3]
6 Chosen from Communication Group A courses
6 Chosen from Communication Group B courses
18 Additional Communication and/or Journalism courses. With the approval of the Chairman of the Communication Studies Department or the Director of the Journalism Programme, 6 of these credits may be cognate course(s) outside Communication and Journalism. A maximum of 6 of these credits may be from Communication Group C courses.

42 BA Major in Journalism

Year I

12 JOUR C201[6], C205[3], C210[3]
6 Chosen from HIST C203[3] and C205[3]; or POLI C250[6]

Year II

15 JOUR C301[6], C306[3], C310[3], COMS C360[3]

Year III

3 JOUR C400[3]
3 Chosen from JOUR C402[3], C403[3]
3 Chosen from JOUR C410[3], C415[3]

30 BA Minor in Journalism

Year I

12 JOUR C201[6], C205[3], C210[3]

Year II

9 JOUR C301[6], C310[3]

Year III

6 JOUR C400[3], C410[3]

3 Chosen from JOUR C402[3], C403[3]

NOTE: The University has approved a BA Specialization in Broadcast Journalism to be offered jointly by Communication Studies and Journalism. The date of implementation of the programme has not yet been determined, but may be as early as September 1981.

JOURNALISM C201
Writing and Reporting I

Prerequisite: Permission of the Director. This course gives training in basic reporting and newswriting. Students will practise writing news and will receive out-of-classroom assignments. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

JOURNALISM C205
History of Journalism

A history of the news media in the English-speaking world, starting with the government gazettes of Seventeenth-century England and their illegal, underground competition, through the "news" papers of the Eighteenth Century, the rise of the yellow press, the human interest story, the penny press in the Nineteenth Century, down to today's corporate press. The course is designed to show that our expectations of the news media are not inherent in human nature, but are the result of historical processes that continue to evolve. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

JOURNALISM C210
The Media in Quebec

This course studies the special characteristics of Quebec media, focusing particularly on the historical development of Quebec journalism and the part it has played in the shaping of modern Quebec. Particular attention is given to the influence of journalists in cultural and political affairs. The recent increasing concentration of media ownership will be examined. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have credit for JOUR C305 may not take this course for credits.

JOURNALISM C301
Writing and Reporting II

Prerequisite: JOUR C201. A general workshop in news and feature writing, with assignments emphasizing the journalism of municipal affairs and contemporary urban life. (6 credits)

JOURNALISM C306
Radio News

Prerequisite: Students with second-year standing in the Journalism Major, or Communication Studies students who have permission of the Director. Students will learn to write for newscasts and for longer broadcast formats. There will be field assignments in interviewing, tape editing, and preparation for broadcast. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C310
The Press and the Law

Prerequisite: Second-year standing in Journalism, or permission of the Director. Lectures will cover those aspects of criminal and civil law which will bear most directly on the work of professional journalists - libel, slander, contempt of court. (3 credits) NOTE: Students who have credit for JOUR C405 may not take this course for credits.

JOURNALISM C400
Advanced Reporting

Prerequisite: JOUR C301. Students will be introduced to several areas of specialist reporting - economics and business, public affairs, medicine and science, the arts, etc. - and to a variety of journalistic treatments: background, interpretive and investigative reporting. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have credit for JOUR C401 may not take this course for credits.

JOURNALISM C402
Specialist Reporting

Prerequisite: JOUR C400. Students will cover a beat in the field of their choice for several weeks, producing news, features, and background stories. A term-end major background story will also be produced. There will be seminars and discussions, with leaders from the media on the specifics of beat coverage and on general media topics, such as trade unionism, ethics, journalistic responsibility. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C403
Quebec Affairs

Prerequisite: JOUR C400 and fluency in French. Assignments will bring students into contact with leaders from many areas of Quebec life through interviews, press conferences, speeches, and seminars, conducted almost exclusively in French. They will meet politicians, businessmen, labour leaders, entertainers, and artists, and people active at all levels of community life. Students will have the choice of writing in English or French. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C410
Principles of Editing

Prerequisite: JOUR C301. Lectures and workshops in the art of story editing, with an introduction to layout and design. While the material used is designed primarily for print reproduction, the techniques, and particularly the intellectual processes employed are applicable to all media. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C415
Television News

Prerequisite: JOUR C306. The study of and practice in the application of news writing and editing for television. Classes and field assignments will cover writing, interviewing, and editing of videotape for short television newscast items and for longer news feature formats. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C425
Special Topics in Journalism

Content will depend on the theme designated by the department. (3 credits)

JOURNALISM C426
Special Topics in Journalism

Students who have received credit for JOUR C425 may register for JOUR C426 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTE: All Library Studies students must take C201 and C202 as prerequisites to all other Library courses, the only exception being Library Studies C411 and C461.

Library Studies Programme offers a Major in Library Studies to those who wish to pursue a career in library work at a non-graduate level. For those interested in taking advanced studies at the Master's level, a Double Major will be necessary. (36 credits are required in Library Studies for a Major).

All new applicants must be interviewed by the Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator. Appointments may be made at the Library Studies Office, Vanier Library. All students must preregister with the Programme and obtain course approval prior to the date of registration.

Students will be expected to maintain an average of 65% throughout the Programme.

The Certificate in Library Studies is offered to meet the needs of students who may not wish to fulfill the requirements of a Bachelor of Arts degree. All courses in the Programme are 3-credit courses. Sixty (60) credits are required to complete the Certificate Programme, thirty-six (36) of which consist of Library Studies, with twenty-four (24) credits of electives.

Diploma in Library Studies

The Department also offers a diploma programme for students who have completed their undergraduate degree in another field. Detailed information on the programme is given in the University's Calendar of Graduate Studies.

LIBRARY STUDIES C201
Principles of Library Service

This course, which is the prerequisite to all others in the programme, lays the groundwork for the development of sound supportive staff in libraries. The effective use of the library, its basic tools and terminology, the skills and duties required of the library technician in the library organization will be introduced as they relate to the principles of librarianship. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students may be required to bear some of the cost of materials.

LIBRARY STUDIES C202
Organization of Library Services

Prerequisite: LIBS C201. This course examines the objectives of library service in different types of libraries and outlines both internal library functions and organization, and some of the ways in which libraries cooperate. Much of the course is concerned with the introduction of the skills and sources used in researching a term paper and with the bibliographic form used in documenting research. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students may be required to bear some of the cost of materials.

LIBRARY STUDIES C303
Information Services

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. The course will examine the basic informational services given in all types of libraries relating to book and non-book materials. Standard general reference works will be studied to enable the student to work under a professional librarian in the Information Services Department of a library. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C305
Bibliographic Searching

Prerequisites: LIBS C201, C202, C303. This course will provide a broad introduction to bibliographic searching. General and subject bibliographies as well as indexes and directories will be studied to enable the student to use the library's resources effectively. Procedures relating to verifying and searching will be studied in detail as they relate to ordering, cataloguing, and inter-library loans. The mechanics of literature searching in any subject field will be introduced. The main emphasis in this course will be on the study of bibliographical sources to enable the student to work in a library as a bibliographical searcher. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C320
Cataloguing and Classification I

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. This course is designed to give the student a basic knowledge of book and serial cataloguing. Coverage includes: Pre-cataloguing routines, the composition of catalogue cards, and descriptive cataloguing. Weekly laboratory sessions, assignments, and readings are required. A knowledge of typing is essential. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C325
Cataloguing and Classification II

Prerequisites: LIBS C201, C202, and C320. This course is designed to give the student who possesses a thorough understanding of descriptive cataloguing a basic knowledge of and ability to assign classification numbers and subject headings. Sears and Library of Congress subject headings and the Dewey Decimal classification systems will be studied in depth, but the Library of Congress classification system to a lesser extent. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C331
Data Processing and Automation

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. A basic introduction to the use of computers and a systems approach in solving library problems. Students will receive instruction in flowcharting, and other concepts of systems design and data processing. Automated library applications, services, and networks will be considered. Tours of an automated library and a data centre will provide an insight into the practical application of library automation and the routine technical activities performed by the library staff. No previous knowledge of or experience in mathematics, business administration, or data processing is required. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C333
Technical Skills - Multi-Media Operations

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. This course will be largely practical in nature, giving the student an opportunity to operate audio-visual machinery. He/she will handle the main types of filmstrips, filmslides, tape recorders, video, and other media software found in today's modern library. Practical assignments will allow the student to create a variety of software, such as slide-tape presentations, transparencies, graphics, and filmstrips. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C345
Technical Skills - Collection Control

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. The course is designed to provide the student with a thorough understanding of library practices and procedures as related to the acquisition, housing, and maintenance of library collections. The student will study different types of circulation-control systems and the various circulation functions, including loan policies and procedures, inter-library loans, reserves, overdues, statistics, weeding, inventory control, and library security. The acquisition, organization, housing, and maintenance of monographs, serials, and uncatalogued collections of material will be examined. The last includes government publications, technical reports, and pamphlets. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students may be required to bear some of the cost of materials.

LIBRARY STUDIES C374
Selected Topics in Library Studies

Prerequisite: Permission of Coordinator. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Programme; this theme varies from year to year. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C375
Selected Topics in Library Studies

A student who has received credit for LIBS C374 may register for LIBS C375 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C376
Selected Topics in Library Studies

Prerequisite: Permission of Coordinator. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Programme; this theme varies from year to year. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C377
Selected Topics in Library Studies

A student who has received credit for LIBS C376 may register for LIBS C377 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C407
Research Methodology

Prerequisites: LIBS C303 and C305. The aim of this course is to develop an understanding and appreciation of research methods and approaches specific to subject disciplines, based on the consideration of general principles of research methodology and the planning of logical research strategies. The library-oriented approach insures a solid background of data from which problems may be attacked and solutions arrived at. Topics covered in logical progression include: selecting and defining the problem; planning the research programme; developing and testing hypotheses; collecting; classifying, evaluating, and analyzing evidence; drawing conclusions; presenting results. Sound knowledge of general reference and bibliographic sources, and those of one academic discipline is assumed. Students will be evaluated principally on a term paper related to a research strategy, and methods applied to a problem of their own choosing, as well as class participation. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C409
Library Research and Library Resources in Science and Technology

Prerequisites: LIBS C201, C202; otherwise, the student should be enrolled in a Major in one of the sciences. The course is designed to introduce Science and Engineering undergraduates, as well as the Library Studies student, to the structure of scientific literature, the basic types of information sources in Science and Technology, information networks, and computer-based retrieval systems. The student will also become familiar with search strategies and indexing techniques. Emphasis will be placed on developing in-depth skills in the student's particular discipline or interest; e.g. Chemistry, Biology, Physics, etc. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have taken LIBS L475 (76/77); L478 (78/79); C376 (79/80) may not take this course for credit.

LIBRARY STUDIES C411
Library Service and Work with Children

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Purposes of the course: to introduce the student to the major genres of children's literature; to study the methods and techniques used in the library to stimulate the child's reading interest and ability. The student will be called upon to do book talks, evaluate children's literature from the child's as well as the librarian's point of view. Role-playing simulation and experience in a children's library will also be provided. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C421
Library Service and Work in Schools

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. The duties and responsibilities of the library assistant in the school, and those of the teacher-librarian, will be discussed, including programmes for teaching the use of the library, methods for cooperating with teachers, assembling materials for instructional units, curriculum demands upon the library, and the effects of new curriculum trends in education upon the school library/resource centre. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C430
Advanced Cataloguing and Classification

Prerequisites: LIBS C320 and C325. This course is designed for the student who possesses a working knowledge of basic cataloguing and classification. It will cover Library of Congress Classification in depth; Library of Congress Subject Headings, MARC formats and coding. Laboratory sessions and assignments will be required of the student. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C432
Library Service and Work in the College and University

Prerequisites: LIBS C201 and C202. The organization, administration, and functions of academic libraries will be studied, with special references to curriculum-oriented library service, together with services relating to large academic research libraries and library colleges. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C435
The Organization of Audio-Visual Collections

Prerequisites: LIBS C320, C325, C333. This course will study audio-visual materials and the tools and aids for their acquisition, cataloguing, and maintenance. Descriptive cataloguing and classification of the various audio-visual documents, such as tapes, cassettes, filmstrips, film loops, films, kits, and the processing of these materials, as well as their storage and circulation, will be discussed. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C441
Library Service and Work in Business and Industry

Prerequisites: LIBS C201, C202, and permission of the Coordinator. The role of the library in relation to business and industry will be examined. The specific skills and devices employed to provide direct information to the users will be explored. Some lectures will include role playing, simulation, and group activity. On-site training and experience in a business library will also be provided. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C451
Library Service and Work in the Public Library

Prerequisites: LIBS C201, C202, and permission of the Coordinator. This course traces the development of the public library, particularly in Québec. It deals with the objectives, roles, and functions of public library service in contemporary society. Topics such as freedom of access to information, library bill of rights, and collection and preservation of library materials will be explored. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C461
Library Service and Work with the Young Adult

Prerequisites: Permission of the Coordinator. The course will explore the major phenomena of the teenager's world, his lifestyle, problems, and responsibilities. Some of the skills needed to serve young adults in a library setting will be examined. Literature written especially for young adults, and some adult literature which is especially popular with, and suitable for, young people, will be studied. A pre-course reading list is available. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C478
Advanced Topics in Library Studies

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in Library Studies. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Programme, and will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C479
Advanced Topics in Library Studies

A student who has received credit for LIBS C478 may register for LIBS C479 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C480
Advanced Topics in Library Studies

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. This course focuses on advanced topics of interest in Library Studies. Content will depend on the theme designated by the Programme, and will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C481
Advanced Topics in Library Studies

A student who has received credit for LIBS C480 may register for LIBS C481 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

LIBRARY STUDIES C495
Field Work and Research Project

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Upon completion of all required Library Studies courses, the student will be placed in a library system related to the elective courses of study. Seventy (70) working hours will be required in one block under the supervision of a professional librarian. In addition, students are required to do independent research on a topic of relevance to library studies. (3 credits)

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

A student wishing to follow a Mathematics Programme but not meeting the entrance requirements should consult with the Department.

By careful choice of electives, students can select whether the emphasis of the programme will be in the area of Pure Mathematics, Applied Mathematics or Statistics.

Students seeking admission to the Honours programme on or after June 1st, 1977 will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in § 16.2.4 of this Calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1st, 1977 will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

24 MATH credits approved by the Department of Mathematics. At least 12 credits must be at the level of MATH C231 or above.

NOTE: Students in BA programmes are also eligible for a regular Minor in Mathematics or Statistics provided they have the necessary prerequisites.

The Department also offers to practising teachers the following undergraduate programmes:

30 Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary School Level)

6 MATH C305[6]

24 Chosen from MATH C300[6], C301[6], C302[6], C303[6], C304[6], C307[3], C309[3]

NOTE: Where students have completed similar courses in previous studies, pro tanto credits may be approved up to a maximum of 12 credits. In some cases, students with fewer than 12 pro tanto credits may, with approval of the Faculty of Arts and Science obtained upon the recommendation of the programme director, be permitted to take courses in related areas for credit towards the certificate. However, at least 18 of the credits must be taken within the programme.

30 Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Junior Secondary School Level)

NOTE: In some cases where students have completed similar mathematical courses in previous studies, the Mathematics Department may modify a student's programmes to meet his professional requirements. It may grant pro tanto credits up to a maximum of 12 credits.

For further details about the Certificate Programmes, see Section 31.290.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

MATHEMATICS C200
Fundamental Concepts of Algebra

This course is designed to give students the background necessary for MATH C201. Some previous exposure to algebra is assumed. Sets, algebraic techniques, inequalities, graphs of equations. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have credit for MATH C201 or equivalent may not take this course for credits.

Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C201
Elementary Functions

Sets, inequalities, graphs of functions, and relations. Trigonometric, exponential, and logarithmic functions. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C202
College Algebra

Progressions, combinations, permutations, Binomial Theorem, mathematical induction, inequalities, polynomials, cartesian and polar forms of complex numbers; conics. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C203
Differential and Integral Calculus I

Prerequisite: MATH C201, or equivalent. Functional notation. Differentiation of polynomials. The power, product, quotient, and chain rules. Differentiation of elementary functions. Implicit differentiation. Higher derivatives. Maxima and minima. Applications: tangents to plane curves, graphing, related rates. Approximations using the differential. Antiderivatives, definite integrals, area. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C204
Vectors and Matrices

Prerequisite: MATH C202 or equivalent. Algebra and geometry of vectors, dot and cross products, lines and planes. System of equations, operations on matrices, rank, inverse, quadratic form and rotation of axis. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C205
Differential and Integral Calculus II

Prerequisite: MATH C203. Techniques of integration: substitutions, integration by parts, partial fractions. Improper integrals. Physical applications of the definite integral. Infinite series: tests for convergence. Power series, Taylor's theorem. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C207
Statistics for the Social Sciences

Prerequisite: MATH C201 or equivalent, or permission of the departments of Mathematics or Economics. Elementary probability, permutations and combinations, binomial and normal distribution. Analysis and organization of statistical data. Tests of hypotheses. Confidence limits. Introduction into linear regression and correlation. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7.

NOTE: Students with credit for MATH C241 or equivalent may not take this course for credits.

Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C208
Fundamental Mathematics I

Prerequisite: MATH C201, or equivalent. This course is intended primarily for pre-Commerce students. Progressions, compound interest, annuities, permutations, combinations, and binomial theorem, polynomials, curve fitting, inequalities, linear programming. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C209
Fundamental Mathematics II

Prerequisite: MATH C201, or equivalent. This course is intended primarily for pre-Commerce students. Limits, differentiation of rational, exponential, and logarithmic functions, theory of maxima and minima, integration. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C210
Mathematics for the Biological Sciences I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 103, or equivalent. Discrete probability, probability distributions, difference equations, differential equations, transients, steady-state solutions, system concept, block diagrams, linear programming, game theory. Markov chains, applications to ecology, population models, physiology. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C211
Fundamental Mathematics III

Prerequisite: MATH C209, or equivalent. This course is intended primarily for pre-Commerce students. Operations on matrices, determinants; system of linear equations, rank, inverse matrix, characteristic values. Functions of two variables, partial derivatives, maxima and minima, iterated integrals; difference and differential equations. (3 credits) This course was first offered in 1979-80.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for MATH C205 may not take this course for credits.

Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

MATHEMATICS C215
Ideas in Mathematics I

A course for non-Science students. The course endeavours to reveal the extent and power of mathematics and to give some insight into its historical development. The topics chosen will be presented in a way that requires a minimal mathematics background. This course has no formal prerequisites and does not serve as a prerequisite for any other course in Mathematics. Students should consult with the Department before registering for this course. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C216
Ideas in Mathematics II

A course for non-Science students. The course objectives are identical to those of MATH C215, but different topics are covered. This course has no formal prerequisites and does not serve as a prerequisite for any other course in Mathematics. Students should consult with the Department before registering for this course. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C220
Mathematical Methods in Chemistry

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent. Partial derivatives. First-order differential equations (first- and second-order chemical reactions). Hermite, Laguerre, and Legendre equations. Solutions by power series. Eigen-functions and eigenvalues, Sturm-Liouville Theory. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C225
Mathematics of Investment

Prerequisite: MATH C202 and C201 or their equivalents, or Functions. Theory of interest, annuities certain, amortization and sinking funds, evaluation of bonds and other investments, depreciation, depletion, and capital cost. Brief introduction to life insurance. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C231
Introduction to Applied Mathematics

Prerequisite: MATH C281, previously or concurrently. Introduction to the theory of optimization, linear programming, the Simplex Method. Deterministic and stochastic models for growth processes. Introduction to graphs and networks. Applications. (3 credits)

NOTE: Only 3 credits will be awarded from Mathematics C231, Quantitative Methods C313, Engineering C412.

MATHEMATICS C241
Introduction to Statistics

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 203, or equivalent. Fundamental concepts of probability, probability distribution, sample statistics, estimation of parameters, test of hypotheses, regression and correlation. (6 credits) NOTE See §200.7.

MATHEMATICS C261
Advanced Calculus

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105, 203, or equivalent. Functions of several variables, partial derivatives, maxima and minima, vector functions, multiple integrals, line and surface integrals and related topics. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C271
Differential Equations I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105, 203. Separable equations, exact equations, integrating factors, force fields, first-order linear equations, input-output concept, second-order equations, reduction of order, variation of parameters, nth-order linear equations with constant coefficients, Laplace transforms, block diagrams and signal-flow graphs. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C281
Linear Algebra I

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 105, or permission of the Department. The theory of matrices as related to the solution of linear equations, matrices as an algebraic system, orthogonality and application to linear differential equations, linear inequalities and maximization problems, vector spaces. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C290
Algebraic Systems (Introduction)

Prerequisite: Collegial pre-Science Mathematics profile or equivalent. Sets, functions, binary operations, examples of number systems, polynomial functions, divisibility, definitions and examples of groups and subgroups, fields. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C300
Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I

This course and the following course (C301) are designed to cover the main mathematical topics in the programme-cadre for elementary schools. In both courses, the study of the mathematical content will be linked to thorough consideration of classroom applications. A project will be included among the assignments in both courses. In both courses, the mathematical language of sets, relations, functions, and operations will be applied where appropriate, and various modes of graphical representation used. Counting numbers and systems of numeration, number operations, factors and multiples, numbers as measures, classification and properties of geometrical shapes. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C301
Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II

This course and the preceding course (C300) are designed to cover the main mathematical topics in the programme-cadre for elementary schools. In both courses, the study of the mathematical content will be linked to thorough consideration of classroom application. A project will be included among the assignments in both courses. In both courses, the mathematical language of sets, relations, functions, and operations will be applied where appropriate, and various modes of graphical representation used. The extension of the number system to fractions, decimals, and signed numbers. Equalities and inequalities, bases of symmetry and geometric transformations. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C302
Transformation Geometry

Prerequisite: MATH C301. A more advanced study of symmetry and geometric transformations, applications in 2 and 3 dimensions, an overview of a K-6 programme of geometry. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C303
Measurement

Prerequisite: MATH C300. A more advanced study of measures and measurement, descriptive statistics, and elementary notions of probability, an overview of a K-6 programme of measurement. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C304
Advanced Topics in Elementary Mathematics

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Topics will be scheduled to meet more advanced mathematical needs of students, especially in the light of potential developments in the elementary school curriculum. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C305
Psychology of Mathematics Education

Prerequisites: Any three chosen from MATH C300, C301, C302, C303, C304; or permission of the Department. The content of the course will be selected from those areas of psychological theory and research which have implications for the teaching of mathematics. It will normally include: psychological theories of cognition, studies of mathematical learning in children, motivation, applications of research to the classroom. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C307
Selected Topics in Mathematics I

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Topics will be chosen to take advantage of competencies and interests of the instructor as well as of the students. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C309
Selected Topics in Mathematics II

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Topics will be chosen to take advantage of competencies and interests of the instructor as well as of the student. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C310
Mathematics for the Biological Sciences II

Prerequisite: MATH C210, or equivalent. Continuous probability, stochastic processes, population models, systems of linear difference and differential equations, Laplace transforms, signal-flow graphs, systems trajectories, stability, applications to ecology and biology. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C311
Numerical Analysis I

Prerequisites: CEGEP MATH 105 and 203; or equivalent. Introduction to the solution of non-linear equations; interpolation and approximation; numerical integration; solutions to systems of linear equations. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C312
Numerical Analysis II

Prerequisite: MATH C281 and C311 or equivalent. Fixed point iteration for solving non-linear equations. Orthogonal polynomials for curve fitting and quadrature. Orthogonal decompositions and eigenvalue problem in linear algebra. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C322
Mathematical Logic

Prerequisites: 18 credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. This course deals with the mathematical ideas and techniques required to state and prove one of the most spectacular theorems of modern mathematics: Godel's incompleteness theorem establishing the non-algorithmic nature of Arithmetic and, hence, of most of higher mathematics. The subject involves the study of formal languages and recursive functions and is suitable for students interested in computer science. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C325
Actuarial Mathematics

Prerequisite: MATH C225. The measure of mortality. Life annuities, life insurance, net annual premiums, net level premium reserves. The expense factor, special topics, population theory. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C331
Deterministic Methods of Operations Research

Prerequisite: MATH C231. Linear programming, simplex method, revised simplex, duality, dual simplex, method, convex set, convex functions, post-optimal analysis, transportation problem, networks. Lagrange multipliers, Kuhn-Tucker conditions, search methods, quadratic programming, gradient techniques. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C332
Introduction to Game Theory

Prerequisites: 18 credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. Matrix games. Strategies. Optimum stategies and the value of a game. Strictly determined games, Non-strictly determined games and linear programming. Applications. Further material according to interest of instructor and students. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C342
Quality Control and Industrial Statistics

Prerequisite: MATH C241, or equivalent. Concepts of statistical control; X, R, P, and C charts; acceptance-sampling inspection, continuous-sampling plans, reliability and life tests. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C343
Sample Surveys

Prerequisite: MATH C241, or equivalent. Simple random sampling, stratified random sampling, systematic sampling, multi-stage sampling, regression and ratio estimates, non-sampling errors. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C344
Regression and Analysis of Variance
Prerequisites: MATH C241, C281. Simple, multiple, and polynomial regression, analysis of variance and covariance, multiple comparison, computer packages. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C345
Mathematical Statistics
Prerequisites: MATH C241, C261. Probability, random variable in one or more dimensions, point distributions and transformations, order statistics, sequential hypothesis testing, Bayesian methods, computer simulation of random variables. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C347
Non-Parametric Statistical Methods
Prerequisite: MATH C241. Chi-square and Kolmogorov-Smirnov Goodness-of-Fit tests, the sign, rank, and Mann-Whitney Wilcox tests for one and two samples, Kruskal-Wallis tests for k-samples, rank correlation and Kendall's TAU statistics, computer packages. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C351
Concepts of Probability
Prerequisite: MATH C241. Axiomatic approach to probability, combinatorial probability, discrete and continuous random variables, geometric probability, expectation, conditional probability and conditional expectations, introduction to Markov chains and the Poisson process. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C353
Stochastic Processes and Applications
Prerequisite: MATH C351. Continuous stochastic processes. Poisson processes, continuous-time Markov processes, queuing models, birth and death processes, renewal theory and reliability of systems. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C362
Introduction to Analysis I
Prerequisites: MATH C261 and C281. Real-number system, cardinality, least upper bounds, limits, sequences, series, properties of continuous functions. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C363
Introduction to Analysis II
Prerequisite: MATH C362. Riemann integration, fundamental theorem of calculus, sequences and series of functions, uniform convergence, functions of bounded variation; Riemann-Stieltjes integration. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C366
Complex Analysis I
Prerequisite: MATH C261. Algebra and geometry of complex numbers, linear transformations, analytic functions, Laurent's series, calculus of residues, special functions. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C371
Differential Equations II
Prerequisite: MATH C271. Numerical methods for ordinary differential equations, relation-to-existence theorem, solution-in-power series. Partial differential equations, separation of variables, Fourier series, diffusion equation, wave equation, Laplace's equation, Schrodinger's equation. Separation of variables leading to further applications of power-series method. Physical illustrations and problems. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C373
Qualitative Theory of Differential Equations
Prerequisite: MATH C271. Systems of linear differential equations. Fundamental matrices. Nonhomogeneous linear systems. Non-linear systems. Solutions and trajectories. The phase plane. Stability concepts. Liapunov's second method. Periodic solutions and limit cycles. Introduction to Boundary-value problems and Sturm-Liouville theory. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C381
Linear Algebra II
Prerequisite: MATH C281. Matrices, linear transformations, determinants, metric concepts, inner-product spaces, dual spaces, spectral theorem, bilinear and quadratic forms, canonical forms for linear transformations, matrix functions, selected topics. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C382
Geometry
Prerequisites: MATH C261, C281. An introduction to a number of geometries both from the historical point of view and in terms of groups of transformations. Particular topics may include Euclidean, projective, or hyperbolic geometry. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C392
Elementary Number Theory
Prerequisites: 18 credits in post-Collegial Mathematics. Number systems, division and factorization, number-theoretic functions, congruences, algebraic congruences and primitive roots, quadratic residues, diophantine equations. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C393
Algebraic Systems I
Prerequisite: MATH C290, or permission of the Department. Introduction to algebraic systems: groups, rings, fields, homomorphisms. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C394
Algebraic Systems II
Prerequisite: MATH C393, or equivalent. Normal subgroups, quotient groups, isomorphism theorems, polynomial rings, principal ideal rings, elementary field theory. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C395
Selected Topics in Mathematics
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C397
History of Mathematics
Prerequisite: MATH C261, C281, or permission of the Department. Early mathematics, Greek mathematics, European mathematics in the Middle Ages, the origin and development of analytic geometry and calculus, mathematics as free creation, the generality of mathematics in the 20th Century. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C400
Seminar on the Teaching of Mathematics
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is conducted in the form of a workshop and examines alternative methods of presentation of mathematical ideas at the secondary school level. It studies relevant aspects of the psychological development of the adolescent in the context of existing mathematics curricula. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course should be taken at the end of the programme and is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C401
Functions

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course examines the topics in a traditional functions course: the concept of a function and its inverse. Linear and quadratic functions, rational functions, exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. Graphing is stressed. An historical overview is given. Methods of teaching these topics and of preparing secondary school students for a functions course are discussed. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C402
Algebra I

Prerequisite: MATH C401 or equivalent, previously or concurrently. Natural numbers, integers and their properties. Sequences and progressions. Mathematical induction. Logic. Real numbers, complex numbers. Polynomials. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C403
Calculus I

Prerequisite: MATH C401, or equivalent. Functional notation, limits, and continuity. Differentiation of polynomials. The power, product, quotient, and chain rules. Implicit differentiation. Higher derivatives. Mean value theorem, Rolles theorem. Maxima and minima. Applications: tangents to plane curves, related rates. The differential, use in finding approximations. Indefinite and definite integrals, areas and volumes. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C404
Geometry for Teachers

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Certain fundamentals of the methods of Cartesian, vector, and transformation geometry. Applications of these methods to topics presented as informal geometry in grades 7 - 10. Activity oriented. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C405
Calculus II

Prerequisite: MATH C403. Differentiation and integration of trigonometric functions. Derivatives of inverse trigonometric functions, logarithmic functions, and exponential functions. Methods of integration by parts, by substitution, by separation into partial fractions. Improper integrals, L'Hopital's Rule. Series: Convergence tests, Maclaurin and Taylor Theorems. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C406
Algebra II

Prerequisite: MATH C401, or equivalent. Systems of equations, determinants, Cramer's rule. Matrices, operations on matrices, the inverse matrix. Gauss-Jordan method. Matrix transformations. Linear programming. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C407
Topics in Probability and Statistics

Prerequisite: MATH C405 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Introduction to, and brief historical survey of probability and statistics. Techniques for teaching these topics in the junior secondary school curriculum. Application of the techniques of probability and statistics to the interpretation of research results in mathematics education. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C408
Transformation Geometry

Prerequisite: MATH C401, or equivalent. Distance-preserving motions in the plane, affine transformations with applications in Euclidean geometry. Projective transformations and applications to conics. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

MATHEMATICS C409
Computational Mathematics

Prerequisite: MATH C401, or equivalent. Introduction to the computer and to the writing of simple programmes in BASIC. The use of pocket calculators as pedagogic devices. Approximately one-third of the course will be spent on problems related to the secondary school curriculum which can be solved by computer or calculator. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available to practising teachers only.

MATHEMATICS C410
Curriculum Seminar

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Conducted in the form of a workshop. Examines arithmetic, algebraic, and geometric aspects of the mathematics curricula, grades 7 - 11. Critical examination of various textbooks and pedagogic approaches used in the schools. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is available to practising teachers only.

MATHEMATICS C431
Probabilistic Methods of Operations Research

Prerequisite: MATH C331. Difference and differential-difference equations, z transforms, stochastic distributions. Markov chains, queuing theory, inventory theory, reliability and renewal theory, competition and introduction to decision theory, dynamic programming, simulation and Monte Carlo techniques; formulation, testing and stability of mathematical models incorporating uncertainty. (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C432
Theory of Graphs and Networks
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. Directed and undirected graphs. Partitions, planar graphs, matrix representation, applications to network theory. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C433
Calculus of Variations
Prerequisite: MATH C373. Nature of problems, Weak variations, the first variation, Euler's equation. The second variation, Jacobi's equation, Legendre's test, conjugate points. Relative maxima and minima, isoperimetrical problems. Integrals with variable end points. Applications to problems in pure and applied mathematics; the principle of least action. Strong variations, the Weierstrass E-function. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C435
Topics in Numerical Analysis
Prerequisite: MATH C311, C312, or equivalent. Advanced problems and techniques in numerical linear algebra, systems of non-linear equations, roots of polynomials, spline fitting, mini-max fitting, extrapolation techniques, solution of initial value ordinary differential equations, solution of two-point boundary value problems in ordinary differential equations, elliptic partial differential equations, finite difference and finite element methods for hyperbolic and parabolic partial differential equations. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C445
Topics in Statistics
Prerequisites: MATH C345 and C351. Topics such as sequential procedures, multivariate analysis, time series, reliability, advanced design of experiments, advanced topics in estimation, and hypothesis testing. (3 credits)
NOTE: With permission of the Department, students will be allowed to repeat this course as MATH C446.

MATHEMATICS C446
Topics in Statistics
Prerequisite: MATH C445. Additional topics as in MATH C445. (3 credits)
NOTE: Students who have taken MATH C445 may register for this course with permission of the Department.

MATHEMATICS C451
Topics in Probability
Prerequisite: MATH C351. Topics in Markov Chains, occupancy and matching problems, characteristic functions and moment-generating functions, central limits theorem and weak law of large numbers, probability generating functions and applications to combinatorial problems, random walk and the reflection principle, branching processes. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C461
Analysis
Prerequisites: MATH C362, C363. Metric spaces, completeness, fixed-point theorems, Baire's theorem, function spaces, Ascoli-Arzela theorem, Stone-Weierstrass theorem, C(0,1). Measure and Lebesgue integration on the real line, convergence theorems, absolute continuity and completeness of L(0,1). (6 credits)

MATHEMATICS C466
Complex Analysis II
Prerequisites: MATH C363, C366. Cauchy's theorem, singularities, maximum modules principle, uniqueness theorem, normal families, Riemann mapping theorem. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C471
Partial Differential Equations
Prerequisite: MATH C371 or C373. Classification of partial differential equations, the Cauchy-Kowalewski theorem, characteristics, boundary value and eigenvalue problems for elliptic equations, initial value and initial boundary value problems for parabolic and hyperbolic equations. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C472
Linear Systems
Prerequisite: MATH C281, C371, or C373. State-space analysis and design of continuous and discrete systems. Controllability and observability, modal control, pole-displacement techniques. Luenberger observers, Liapunov stability. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C473
Stability Theory of Differential Equations
Prerequisite: MATH C373. Existence and uniqueness of solutions of nonlinear differential equations. Properties of solutions. Linear systems. Asymptotic behaviour of linear systems. Stability in nonlinear systems. Linearization. Liapunov functions. Two dimensional systems. Limit cycles. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C474
Introduction to Mathematical Control Theory
Prerequisites: MATH C363, C472. Linear control systems. Attainable sets; compactness, convexity, continuity in time. Controllability and observability. Time optimal control. Maximum principle. Examples of physical systems. Switching curves. Optimal control with quadratic cost. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C475
Topology
Prerequisite: MATH C362, or equivalent. An introduction to fundamental ideas in topology. Topics will be chosen from general topology and combinational or algebraic topology. These may include compactness and connectedness, topological equivalence, winding number of a curve, Euler characteristic and classification of surfaces. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C491
Abstract Algebra I
Prerequisite: MATH C394, or equivalent. Sylow theorems, composition series, ideal theory of rings, noetherian rings, modules. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C492
Abstract Algebra II
Prerequisite: MATH C491, or equivalent. Elements of field and Galois theory, including ruler-and-compass construction and the unsolvability of equations of fifth degree. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C495
Advanced Topics in Mathematics
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. (3 credits)

MATHEMATICS C499
Mathematical Thinking
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is intended to stimulate the student's mathematical creativity and to improve his ability to think systematically, analyze problems, and communicate his reasoning. Students participate actively in discussing and solving problems drawn from a variety of sources (including previous Putnam competitions) and are expected to explain their thinking both orally and in writing. Discussions include the following topics: problem posing, Polya's techniques of problem solving; equivalence and similarity of problems; generalization; applications. The problems are selected from: combinatorics, geometry, group theory, number theory, real analysis, etc. (3 credits)

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

72 BA Joint Honours in one of the Modern Languages and in English

6 Chosen from ENGL C256 through C284
6 Chosen from ENGL C286 through C305; C376[6], C377[6], C390[6], C392[6]
6 Chosen from ENGL C310[6], C311[3], C312[3], C320[6], C328[3], C329[3], C330[6]
12 ENGL credits chosen from two different periods to parallel Modern Language courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
12 Modern Language credits in one language chosen from two different periods to parallel in English courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
18 Elective credits from one modern language
6 ENGL or Modern Language elective credits
6 ENGL C491[6]

60 BA Joint Specialization in one of the Modern Languages and in English

6 Chosen from ENGL C256 through C284
6 Chosen from ENGL C310[6], C311[3], C312[3], C320[6], C328[3], C329[3], C330[6]
12 ENGL credits chosen from two different periods to parallel Modern Language courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
6 ENGL elective credits
12 Modern Language credits in one language chosen from two different periods to parallel English courses to be chosen in consultation with the departments
18 Elective credits chosen from one modern language

72 BA Joint Honours in one of the Modern Languages and in French

6 Chosen from FRAN C270[3], C271[3], C320[6], C321[3], C322[3]
6 FRAN C251[6]
18 In consultation with the French Department
6 FRAN C498[6]
36 Modern Languages: These 36 credits are to be chosen in German, Italian, or Spanish, in consultation with the Department of Modern Languages and Linguistics. Literature courses to be chosen to parallel as much as possible the choice in French courses.

NOTE: For all Joint Programmes, the sequence of courses shall be determined in consultation with the departments concerned. For any combination of programmes, students should consult the departments.

Generally, all language courses numbered 400 and above are literature courses and are on a similar academic level.

60 BA Honours in German, Italian, or Spanish

A student entering any of these programmes with no previous knowledge in the field would take the following sequence of courses in German, Italian, or Spanish. Students must consult with the Department prior to selecting their courses.

Year I
18 GERM (or ITAL or SPAN) C210[6], C220[6], C235[6]

Year II
12 GERM (ITAL or SPAN) C250[6], C255[6]
6 LING C200[6]

Year III
12 GERM (ITAL or SPAN) C300[6], C305[6]
12 credits (in the language studied) at the 400 level in a sequence approved by the Department. Certain 300-level courses may be substituted with prior approval of the Department.

NOTE: Students in the Honours in Italian programme may register for HIST C346[6]: History of Modern Italy, with permission of the Department.

For students with previous knowledge in the field, the programme will be established in consultation with the Department.

42 BA Major in German, Italian, or Spanish

A student entering any of these programmes with no previous knowledge in the field would take the following sequence of courses in German, Italian, or Spanish. Students must consult with the Department prior to selecting their courses.

Year I

12 Chosen from GERM (or ITAL or SPAN) C210[6], C220[6], C235[6]

Year II

12 GERM (or ITAL or SPAN) C250[6], C255[6]

Year III

18 credits (in the language studied) at the 300 level or higher in a sequence approved by the Department.

For students with previous knowledge in the field, the programme will be established in consultation with the Department.

30 Minor in German, Hebrew, Italian, or Spanish

A student entering any of these programmes with no previous knowledge in the field would take the following sequence of courses in German, Hebrew, Italian, or Spanish. Students must consult with the Department prior to selecting their courses.

Year I

12 Chosen from GERM (or HEBR*, or ITAL, or SPAN) C210[6], C220[6], C235[6]

Students in Hebrew must select 6 credits in consultation with the Department.*

Year II

12 GERM (or HEBR*, or ITAL, or SPAN) C250[6] and C255[6]

Year III

6 credits (in the language studied) at the 300 level or higher in a sequence approved by the Department.

For students with previous knowledge in the field, the programme will be established in consultation with the Department.

30 Minor in Russian

Students following a programme in Russian must establish the course sequence in consultation with the Department.

Year I

12 Chosen from RUSS C210[6], C220[6], C235[6]

Year II

6 RUSS C250[6]

12 RUSS C300[6], HIST C347[6], RUSS C420[6], C430[6], C435[6], C470[3], C471[3]

LINGUISTICS

The Department offers an Honours, a Major, and a Minor programme in Linguistics.

60 BA Honours in Linguistics

A student entering an Honours programme in Linguistics will normally take the following courses:

6 LING C200[6]

6 LING C410[3], C411[3]

12 LING C320[3], C321[3], C372[3], C373[3]

12 LING credits chosen at the '300' level

6 Chosen from LING C421[6], C431[6]

6 LING credits chosen at the '400' level

12 credits in Linguistics or 12 credits chosen in consultation with the Department in one of the following: Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Russian, German, Spanish, Italian, French, English, Sociology, Philosophy, Psychology, Arabic, Portuguese

The Philosophy Department offers a number of programmes of study which include: Honours, Specialization, Major and Minor, and certain joint programmes. Double majors programmes are also offered in consultation with other departments. The Philosophy Department should be consulted for information concerning these programmes. Seminars and tutorials are offered mainly for students in a programme in Philosophy. In addition, courses are offered to students with a general or specific interest in Philosophy.

Students enrolled in Philosophy programmes are required to confirm their status with the Department during the second week of lectures of each year.

Students admitted to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977, will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in § 16.2.4 of this Calendar. Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977, will continue to be governed by the requirements that applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

PHILOSOPHY C201
Problems of Philosophy
This course is designed for students who wish to be acquainted with philosophy through problems rather than through the historical approach. Methods used in Philosophy will be discussed and topics, such as the existence of God, the mind-body problem, freedom and determinism, rights and duties, will be used to illustrate philosophical approaches. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C202
Introduction to Philosophy
A study of basic questions in the major areas of philosophy, and the classical attempts to answer them. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C211
Philosophical Classics
A critical discussion of selected philosophical classics. Readings will be chosen from Plato, Aristotle, Descartes, Hume, Kant, and one recent or contemporary philosopher. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C223
Critical Thinking
This course is designed to help students to think more clearly and critically and to improve their ability to present, defend, and evaluate arguments. Sample topics may include the nature of definition, validity and truth, formal and informal fallacies. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C224
Introduction to Logic
A study of the basic elements of Aristotelian and modern logic, including an analysis of argumentation, language, definition, fallacies, deduction, and induction. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C226
Elementary Deductive Logic
This course begins with an analysis of syllogistic logic and proceeds to an extensive treatment of propositional logic. The course will conclude with an examination of the rudiments of predicate logic. The techniques of constructing formal derivations will be included. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C228
Methods of Enquiry
A study of the methods and structure of basic types of organized knowledge: mathematics, science, history, and normative disciplines. This course will discuss crucial concepts in scientific methodology, such as the axiomatic system, the hypothetico-deductive method, and scientific explanation. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C230
Human Identity
A critical examination of some theories of human identity, including reference to male and female identity, the unity of self, and transcendence of self. Works will be selected from the history of philosophy, literature, and the social sciences. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C231
Introduction to General Systems Theory
An elementary survey of the transdisciplinary general systems approach. Such basic concepts as structure information and regulation will be explored, and a teleological framework suited to the social and behavioural sciences will be developed. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C240
Philosophy of Man
A study of representative classical and contemporary positions on human nature, action, and life. Such topics as knowledge, affectivity, freedom, person, will be treated. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C241
Ethics
A study of the principles underlying moral conduct with reference to classical and contemporary positions. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C242
Business Ethics
The purpose of this course is to elucidate the key ethical notions with reference to the business world. The intention is to make students aware of situations in which ethical implications arise rather than to impose specific rules. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C244
Social and Political Philosophy
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or the permission of the Department. This course treats of the individual in relation to the State and Society through the reading and discussion of selected texts. Problems treated: political authority, its sources and varieties; the limits of political authority; classical images of man; personality and society; the paradox of social control. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C245
Philosophy and Society
The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the philosophical treatment of social problems. Examples would include conceptions of man as individual and as citizen, as free and as determined, as well as conceptions of the state and of the community. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C246
Introduction to Philosophy of Religion
This course examines the classical arguments for the existence of God. Course content includes the nature of faith and of religious experience, as well as the nature of religious language. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C291
Introductory Special Topics in Philosophy
The topics selected will vary from year to year. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C292
Introductory Special Topics in Philosophy
A student who has received credit for C291 may register for C292 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C310
Ancient Western Philosophy
A study of the principal developments from the Presocratics through Plato and Aristotle up to Plotinus. Emphasis will be placed on the critical reading of selected texts. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C312
Existentialism
A course designed to acquaint the student with the fundamentals of the existentialist movement as a philosophical perspective. Among philosophers considered will be Kierkegaard, Nietzsche, Heidegger, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty, Jaspers, Marcel, and Berdyaev. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C313
Contemporary Philosophy
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of selected philosophers of the Twentieth Century. Movements and figures discussed vary from year to year. Such topics as the following will be considered: Positivism, Pragmatism, Marxism, Phenomenology, Existentialism, and Philosophical Analysis. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C321
Symbolic Logic
An introduction to modern formal logic, its techniques and applications. The course covers sentential logic, first-order predicate logic with identity, intuitive set theory, relations, and functions. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C331
Philosophical Ideas in Literature
Prerequisite: Second-year standing, or permission of the instructor. A critical examination of philosophical ideas as expressed in various literary works. The subject matter is chosen for its relevance to such themes as the nature of man, the nature of the good life, and the relation of man to society. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C334
Anarchism and Marxism
The contradictory character of Russian cultural and philosophical development is used as a basis for an analysis of the main philosophical differences between Anarchism and Marxism as presented in the works and activities of its main protagonists (Bakunin, Kropotkin, Plekhanov, Lenin). Philosophical relevance of such major Russian writers as Dostoyevsky, Tolstoy, and Solzhenitsyn will be shown as well. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C335
Contemporary Marxism
Critical and comparative analysis of different schools and individual thinkers of 20th-Century Marxism, in particular, those in Russia, Germany, and France. These positions will be considered primarily on their philosophical merits. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C338
Philosophical Psychology
A critical examination of the explanation of human behaviour and the self in the light of new developments in philosophy and psychology. Detailed studies of selected problems such as motives, intention, the concept of person, choice, reason, freedom, purpose, and action. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C340
Contemporary Theories of Love
Prerequisite: One previous course in Philosophy. A two-semester topical analysis of love and attendant phenomena, with special emphasis on their metaphysical, epistemological, psychological, aesthetic, social, theological, and linguistic dimensions. The classes will be conducted on a lecture-seminar basis. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C341
Political Philosophy
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or the permission of the Department. This course concentrates on the theoretical foundations of communism, fascism, and democracy through the reading and discussion of selected texts. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C342
Political Philosophy
Prerequisite: Second-year standing, or permission of the Department. Critical analysis of contemporary political-philosophical concepts, such as tolerance, violence, separatism, racism, and the nationalism of visible minorities. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C343

Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or the permission of the Department. This course concentrates on definitions of law and the ways of reasoning in Law. It includes discussion of such basic legal issues as responsibility and excuse, person and property, right and obligation, contract and punishment. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C344
Law, Liberty, and Human Rights
In this course, the student will examine several perspectives from which the problem of the relation between law and morality may be treated. Conflicting concepts of law, morality, and the relation of the individual to society will be discussed. The problem of authority will be examined in relation to issues of civil liberties, civil rights, and the social basis of legal conflicts. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C345
Philosophy of Social Science
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy or third-year standing in a social science department, or permission of the Department. Following the distinction between natural and social sciences, this course will be concerned with philosophies of the social sciences. It will investigate the structure, methodology, and problems of these sciences toward understanding and clarifying how they function as quasi-separable disciplines and how they contribute to a wider understanding of man and his varied social relations. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C346
Philosophy of Social Science
Philosophical examination of the structure and methodology of the social sciences. Special attention to problems of functionalism, teleological explanation, and the testing of social theories. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C347
Phenomenology and Psychology
This is an introduction to the fundamentals of Phenomenology through a study of conscious experience, both subjective and intersubjective. Standard psychological models and methods will be examined in order to open up phenomenological alternatives in the fields of aesthetics, literary criticism, religious and moral experience. Phenomenology complements psychological research in these areas. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C348
Philosophy of Culture
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or the permission of the Department. This course entails a philosophical critique of contemporary culture, stressing such issues as identity crisis, the weakening of structures of orthodoxy, meditation and humour in relation to the vita activa, work in relation to labour, and the socio-cultural manifestation of value crisis. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C349
Philosophy of Education
An examination of philosophical principles underlying educational theories and of the problems arising from the practical implementation of those theories. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C350
Philosophy of Communication
This course is concerned with a philosophical analysis of the foundations of communication acts: linguistic and non-linguistic, cognitive and affective. Philosophical sources may include: F. Nietzsche, M. Black, M. Merleau-Ponty, and P. Ricoeur. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C351
Philosophy of Religion
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A critical assessment of modern developments in Philosophy regarding the question of whether thinking man can maintain a religious belief in God. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C352
Philosophy of History
(Also given as History C390)
Prerequisite: Second- or third-year standing in a History programme, or permission of the Philosophy Department. An analysis of the nature of historical knowledge and explanation will be followed by a study of classical and contemporary attempts to elucidate the meaning of history. Authors discussed include Augustine, Vico, Kant, Hegel, Marx, Spengler, Popper, Toynbee. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C353
Aesthetics I
Prerequisite: Second-year standing, or permission of the Department. A philosophical analysis of selected aspects of the aesthetic experience and the logic of appraisal. Specimen topics include: perception in art, symbolic expression, the role of feeling and emotion in aesthetic judgment, objectivity and subjectivity of value judgments, commensurability of values. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C362
Second-Year Seminar
Prerequisite: Second-year standing in a philosophy programme, or permission of the Department. Problems in Moral Philosophy, with topics to be announced. This seminar will conduct the students through a series of problems on moral topics. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C398
Intermediate Special Topics in Philosophy
Consideration of a special topic selected from the principal areas of philosophy, e.g., ethics, epistemology, metaphysics, logic. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C399
Intermediate Special Topics in Philosophy
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for PHIL C398 may register for PHIL C399 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C410
Medieval Philosophy
Prerequisite: PHIL C310, or permission of the Department. A study of Western Philosophy from Augustine to the later Scholastics. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C412
Modern Philosophy
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of Western Philosophy from Descartes to Hume. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C417
Nineteenth-Century Philosophy
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. An examination of some of the main currents of post-Kantian philosophy. Hegel and the post-Hegelians, the romantic reaction, positivism, and pragmatism. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C421
Philosophy of Science
Prerequisite: One course in logic, or permission of the Department. A critical examination of problems pertaining to the structure and status of scientific theories and the logic of scientific inference. Such topics as the following will be discussed: explanation, confirmation, verifiability and falsifiability, problems of definition, observational and theoretical terms, models and analogies. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C422
Advanced Topics in Logic
Prerequisite: A 300-level course in Symbolic Logic, or permission of the Department. This course is designed to extend the basic knowledge of logic by introducing students to areas such as modal logic, deontic logic, higher-order calculi, logical theory, and logical semantics. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C449
Phenomenology
Prerequisites: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Origins and development of phenomenology from Brentano and Meinong through the different stages of Husserl's writings. Post-Husserlian modifications will be considered briefly. The second term will be devoted to a discussion of the influence of the phenomenological movement on contemporary developments in the social sciences and humanities. Actual topics will be determined by the student's areas of interest and academic qualifications. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C453
Epistemology
Prerequisites: 12 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A study of characteristic problems in epistemology, with particular emphasis on their historical and systematic contexts. The concepts analyzed include fundamental questions in the empirical sciences. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C454
Metaphysics
Prerequisites: 12 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. In this course, metaphysics will be treated in two ways: firstly, the problem of being in classical and contemporary ontologies; secondly, the metaphysical suppositions underlying epistemological, moral, and social theories. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C455
Aesthetics II
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. This course will examine central problems in the philosophy of art and sensibility, examining the works of major authors in this area, such as Aristotle, Longinus, Kant, Hegel, Dewey, Santayana. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C456
Recent Ethical Theory
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A critical analysis of leading contemporary ethical theories from Moore to the present. Special attention is given to the naturalistic fallacy, the reducibility or normative statements, ethical reasoning, and the relation of ethics to psychology and sociology. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C457
Philosophy of God
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. The problem of the natural knowledge of God, including readings from Plato, Aristotle, Anselm, Aquinas, Descartes, Hume, Pascal, Kant, Hegel, Feuerbach, Marx, Kierkegaard, Newman, Nietzsche, Sartre, Ayer, and Russell. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C460
Honours Seminar in Epistemology and Metaphysics
Prerequisite: Second-year standing. Intensive study of major contemporary issues in the theory of knowledge and metaphysics, designed to accommodate honours students in any department. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C463
Third-Year Seminar
Prerequisite: Third-year standing in a philosophy programme, or permission of the Department. Themes selected from modern and contemporary Philosophy, with topics and authors to be announced. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C469
Contemporary Analytic Philosophy
Prerequisites: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of Department. A seminar devoted to the investigation of selected philosophical problems as they arise in the writings of such philosophers as Moore, Russell, Ayer, Carnap, Quine, Wittgenstein, Ryle, Wisdom, Austin, and others. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C471
Tutorial in Philosophy
Prerequisites: 18 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. If permission for a tutorial is granted, the tutorial Director will supervise an intensive reading programme in the student's area of special interest. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C472
Tutorial in Philosophy
Prerequisites: 18 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. If permission for a tutorial is granted, the tutorial Director will supervise an intensive reading programme in the student's area of special interest. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C480
Author Course in Philosophy
Prerequisites: 18 credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. If permission for a tutorial is granted, the tutorial Director will supervise an intensive reading programme in the student's area of special interest. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C485
Kant
Prerequisites: Twelve credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. An intensive study of Kant's Critique of Pure Reason and related works. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C486
The Study of a Given Thinker
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A detailed study of one or more of the central works of a major philosopher. When appropriate, some attention may be devoted to his philosophical development. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C488
The Study of a Given Thinker
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. A student who has received credits for Philosophy C486 registers for credits under Philosophy C488. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C493
Advanced Special Topics in Philosophy
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Consideration of a special topic selected from the principal areas of philosophy: e.g., value theory, epistemology, metaphysics, philosophy of mind, philosophy of science, philosophical logic. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C495
Advanced Special Topics in Philosophy
Prerequisites: Six credits in Philosophy and permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for PHIL C493 may register for PHIL C495 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C496
Advanced Special Topics in Philosophy
Prerequisite: Six credits in Philosophy, or permission of the Department. Consideration of a special topic selected from one of the principal areas of philosophy; e.g., value theory, epistemology, metaphysics, philosophy of mind, philosophy of science, philosophical logic. (3 credits)

PHILOSOPHY C497
Advanced Special Topics in Philosophy
Prerequisites: Six credits in Philosophy and permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for PHIL C496 may register for PHIL C497 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

NOTES:

(i) It is recommended that Physics students take the Minor in Mathematics with appropriate substitutions to be determined in consultation with the Departments of Mathematics and Physics.

(ii) In general, experiments involved in the laboratory courses on the Sir George Williams campus can be done from week to week, at variable times chosen by the student.

(iii) All one-credit laboratory courses in Physics must be completed within one term.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

PHYSICS C204
Mechanics

Prerequisite: CEGEP Mathematics 103 or equivalent, previously or concurrently. Kinematics, Newton's Laws of Motion. Statics, Dynamics. Conservation of momentum and energy. Rotational motion. Periodic motion. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits. See PHYS C224 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C205
Electricity and Magnetism

Prerequisite: PHYS C204 or equivalent. Electrical charge and Coulomb's Law. Electrical field and potential. Capacity, Steady state, and transient currents. Electro-magnetic induction and alternating currents. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits. See PHYS C225 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C206
Waves and Modern Physics

Prerequisite: PHYS C204 or equivalent. Simple harmonic motion. Wave propagation. Superposition. Stationary waves. Doppler effect. Interference. Diffraction. Photoelectric effect. Compton effect. Bohr's atom. Radioactivity, fission, fusion. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits. See PHYS C226 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C207
Heat and Sound

Prerequisites: 6 credits of Collegial Physics, and 6 credits of Collegial Calculus or equivalent. Temperature and thermometry, heat effects, measurement and transfer, thermal properties of matter, thermodynamics, first and second laws, kinetic theory, waves, vibrations, and accoustical phenomena. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course is intended for pre-Engineering students. Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C210
Discoveries in Physics

A non-mathematical course in physics specifically designed for students who have had little or no experience in physics. It traces the fundamental ideas from which modern physics has emerged and attempts to develop insights into the understanding of natural phenomena. Lectures only. (6 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C215
The Mechanics of Visual Representation

An introductory course combining laboratories and lectures illustrating the basic laws that govern the mechanism of image reproduction. Relevant topics concerning the interaction of light and materials are discussed and demonstrated. Students perform experiments with light-sensitive materials, the pinhole camera, light intensity, and illumination measurement. Human visual response, the gray scale, sensitometry, densitometry, the characteristic curve and ASA, DIN; film speeds are examined in depth. This course parallels Chemistry C280, and both are designed to complement Communication Studies C275 (Visual Dynamics I). This course is designed for students in Communication Studies. Lab and Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C216
Understanding the Physics of Media

The course covers the evolution of Physics in the discoveries that apply to technology and media. This course is designed for Communication Studies students. Lab: One 3-hour session per week for two terms. (6 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C217
The Physics of Photo-Reproduction

Prerequisite: PHYS C215. A combined laboratory and lecture course designed for students in Communication Studies who have some basic knowledge of physical laws. Ideas introduced in the "Mechanics of Visual Representation" (PHYS C215) are further developed, covering such topics as exposure measurements and control, and the Standard Association Institute Photographic Exposure Guide. The mechanics of a lens, image formation, f-stops diaphragm openings, the 3-colour composition of light, the colour-temperature scale, and filters are studied. This course is designed so that the student will gain an intelligent and efficient use of his equipment. Lab and Lecture: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

Physics of Photography

Prerequisite: 6 credits of Collegial physics, or the equivalent. This course is intended for students in university science programmes. It includes the following topics: Light, illumination; the photographic process, tone reproduction, the gray scale; sensitometry: the characteristic curve; characteristic curve analysis, gamma, contrast index, film speeds; exposure measurement and control; the exposure guide; previsualization, exposure zones; correct exposure, control of development, Optics: image formation, lenses, standards of definition, depth of focus, depth of field; covering power, perspective; image brightness, exposure, shutters; colour analysis, filters,. Lectures and laboratories: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C224
Introductory Experimental Mechanics

Prerequisite: PHYS C204, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering fundamental experiments in classical mechanics. Experiments will include: Resolution of forces, centrifugal force and conservation of energy, pendulums. Laboratory only, 10 experiments. (1 credit)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

PHYSICS C225
Introductory Experimental Electricity

Prerequisite: PHYS C205, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering fundamental experiments in electricity. Experiments will include Kirchoff's Law, resistors in series and parallel, oscilloscope, induction, Alternating Current. Laboratory only. 10 experiments. (1 credit)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

PHYSICS C226
Introductory Experimental Waves and Modern Physics

Prerequisite: PHYS C206, previously or concurrently, or permission of the Department. A laboratory course covering the fundamental experiments in waves and modern physics. Experiments include spectrometer measurements. Newton's rings and measurements involving radioactivity. Laboratory only. 10 experiments. (1 credit)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for Science credits.

PHYSICS C232
Theoretical Physics I

Prerequisite: MATH C261, previously or concurrently. Introduction to linear algebra. Ordinary Vector Calculus, matrices, determinants, system of linear equations; Introduction to ordinary differential equations with application to physics. (Linear first-order and second-order ordinary differential equations, Wronskian, non-homogenous differential equations, power-series method, problems from mechanics and electricity). Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C241
Biomechanics of Human Motion

Prerequisites: PHYS C204 or CEGEP Physics 101. The application of elementary laws of mechanics to the understanding of static equilibrium conditions of the human body subjected to external forces - the efficiency of human movement seen from the reference point of physical laws as applied to sports. This course is intended for the physio-therapist, the athlete, and all those interested in understanding body mechanics in the light of inanimate physical laws. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have credits for

PHYS C243 or equivalent may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C243
Classical Mechanics I

Prerequisites: PHYS C204 or CEGEP Physics 101; MATH C261, previously or concurrently. Fundamental concepts, the laws of motion, equilibrium of forces, friction, forces of constraint, centre of mass, work, potential, motion of a particle, motion in resisting media, simple harmonic oscillation, damped oscillations. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: See PHYS C291 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C244
Classical Mechanics II

Prerequisite: PHYS C243 or equivalent. Central forces, Kepler's Laws, dynamics of a system of particles, mechanics of rigid bodies, Lagrange's equations, Hamilton's equations. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: See PHYS C292 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C251
Introductions to Consumer and Commercial Electronics

A course primarily for people who wish to acquire a basic knowledge of some of today's consumer and commercial electronics. The course consists of a series of lectures, laboratory projects, and demonstrations. Topics to be treated are: High Fidelity Amplifiers; Programme Sources and Reproducers; AM, FM, and SSB Transmission; Black-and-White and Colour Television Reception; Auto-Electronics; Electronic Control Systems; Applications of Linear and Digital Integrated Circuits. Lectures: 2 hours per week. Laboratory: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C253
Electricity and Magnetism I

Prerequisites: PHYS C205 or CEGEP Physics 201, or equivalent; MATH C261, previously or concurrently. Electric charge, Coulomb's Law, Electrostatic forces, electric field, Gauss's Law, electric potential, stored energy. Dielectrics, properties of materials in electric fields. Electric current, conduction in a vacuum and in material media, displacement current, magnetic field of a current, force on a current-carrying wire, magnetic induction, electromotive force, energy stored in a magnetic field. Magnetism in material media, magnetic circuits, Time-varying fields. Capacitance, resistance, inductance; circuitry. Lectures only. (3 credits) See PHYS C293 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C254
Electricity and Magnetism II

Prerequisite: PHYS C253. The field concept. Maxwell's equations. Boundary conditions. Power and energy. The electrostatic field. Electrostatic potential. The concept of capacitance. Polarization. The concept of local field in matter. The magnetostatic field. The Biot-Savart law. The scalar magnetic potential. Plane waves. Total internal reflection. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: See PHYS C294 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C255
Electronic Instrumentation

This course is recommended for Science students and others who might be working in scientific research laboratories. This course begins with basic electrical measurements, and gradually leads to amplifier circuits of vacuum tubes and transistors, operational amplifiers, oscillators. Servo systems as in strip-chart recorders, feedback control, digital circuits and other devices currently used in research laboratories. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Laboratory: 2 hours per week. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C270
Introduction to Energy and Environment

This course is designed for students who have little or no background in physics. Topics covered include: Relationship of physics to environment and energy. Concept and definition of work and energy. Interaction of man and inanimate objects with the environment. Heat and chemical energy. Electromagnetic and nuclear energy. Conservation of energy - how it affects everyday life. Sources of energy used on earth. Solar energy. Production of wind power, water power, solar cells from sun's energy, biological uses, biopower. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: Science students may not take this course for credits.

PHYSICS C273
Energy and Environment

Prerequisite: PHYS C270, or 6 credits in CEGEP Physics or equivalent. Nuclear energy stored in the earth. Geothermal energy. Biological energy stored in the earth. Second law of thermodynamics. Entropy. Food energy. Home heating and cooling. Solar heating. Transportation of man, goods, and energy. Recycling materials. Resource conservation and man's ability to change - need for a conservation ethic, need for alternate energy sources, need for public knowledge. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C291
Experimental Mechanics I

Prerequisite: PHYS C243, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in mechanics. Experiments include pendulum, coefficient of restitution, centrifugal force, rotational inertia, inelastic impact. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C292
Experimental Mechanics II

Prerequisite: PHYS C291. A laboratory course in mechanics. Experiments include the use of air tracks to study acceleration, collisions, dissipative forces, and periodic motion. Other experiments include viscosity and surface tension of liquids. (1 credit).

PHYSICS C293
Experimental Electricity and Magnetism I

Prerequisite: PHYS C253, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in electricity and magnetism. Experiments include motion of electrons in electric and magnetic fields, exponential relaxation, damped oscillations, resonance, nonlinearity, negative resistance. (1 credit).

PHYSICS C294
Experimental Electricity and Magnetism II

Prerequisite: PHYS C293. A laboratory course in electricity and magnetism. Experiments include the transistor, amplification and frequency response, transient response and negative feedback, positive feedback and oscillation, periodic structures. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C295
Experimental Electronics I

Prerequisite: PHYS C225 or CEGEP Physics 201, or equivalent. A practical laboratory course in electronics. Experiments include resistors in series and parallel, voltmeter, Ohm's Law, Kirchhoff's Current and Voltage Laws, Ohmmeter, capacitor, inductor, transformer, rectifiers, voltage doubler, zener diode, power supplies. (2 credits)

PHYSICS C296
Experimental Electronics II

Prerequisite: PHYS C295. A practical laboratory course in electronics. Experiments include oscilloscope, biasing of bipolar transistors, transistor amplifiers, voltage and current regulators, field-effect transistor, oscillators, operational amplifier circuits, audio amplifier, I-F transformer, limiter, amplitude and frequency modulation. (2 credits)

PHYSICS C302
Space Physics

A highly descriptive course for university science students in the elements of astronomy, astro-physics, artificial satellite motion, and space travel. The topics covered are: The earth and its motions; celestial mechanics; the solar system; elements of atomic physics; radio astronomy; the sun, other stars, galaxies, and nebulae; artificial satellite motions; communication satellites; rocket motion; space travel, space missions and their findings; the nature of our universe. Lectures: 3 hours per week for two terms. (6 credits)

PHYSICS C324
Selected Topics in Physics

The topics chosen will vary from year to year. The course is designed to provide students with the opportunity of extending their studies beyond subjects already included in the curriculum. Open to all students with permission of the Department. (3 credits each)

PHYSICS C325
Selected Topics in Physics

Students who have received credit for PHYS C324 may register for PHYS C325 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C335
Theoretical Physics II

Prerequisite: PHYS C232 or equivalent. Linear Algebra: Linear Map, Linear coordinate transformations, eigenvalue problem, Vector space of functions, Sturm-Liouville problem, Fourier Series and applications. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C336
Theoretical Physics III

Prerequisite: PHYS C335 or equivalent. Classification and derivation of partial differential equations in physics. Separation of variables technique. The Fourier method for solving partial differential equations. Special Functions. Application to physical problems arising from electro-statics, heat conduction, wave propagation, etc. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C344
Advanced Classical Mechanics

Prerequisites: PHYS C232 and C244; or equivalent. Lagrangian and Hamiltonian dynamics, collision between particles, motion of rigid bodies, Hamilton-Jacobi theory, small oscillations. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C345
Special Relativity

Prerequisites: PHYS C244, C254. Historical introduction, Einstein and relativity, application of the Lorentz transformation, four-vectors, the Lorentz invariance of physical theories. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C352
Optics

Prerequisite: PHYS C205, or CEGEP equivalent. Geometrical optics: General treatment of optical systems. Wave optics: review of simple harmonic motion, wave equation, superposition of waves, electromagnetic waves, scattering, polarization, interference-coherent sources, interference-uniformly extended sources, diffraction, waves in a dispersive medium, lasers. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C354
Electronics I

Prerequisite: PHYS C205 or CEGEP Physics 201, or equivalent. Semi-conductor physics: p-n junction, bipolar transistor, field-effect transistor, Circuit Theory, Diode Applications, Bipolar Transistor: h-parameters, small-signal amplifiers. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: See PHYS C295 and C296 for associated laboratory courses.

PHYSICS C355
Electronics II

Prerequisite: PHYS C354. Biasing of Transistors; Feedback Analysis, Common Circuits involving Operational Amplifiers; Large Signal Amplifiers, Digital Circuits: gates, flip-flops, logic functions. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C364
Atomic Physics

Prerequisite: PHYS C205 or the CEGEP equivalent. Special relativity. Wave-particle duality. The Rutherford atom, the Bohr-Sommerfeld atom. Origin of quantum theory. Schroedinger's equation. Electrons and ions. Electromagnetic radiation. Atomic structure. Lectures only. (3 credits)

NOTE: This course should not be taken before the second year of university studies. See PHYS C394 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C383
Medical Physics

Prerequisite: CEGEP Pre-Science or equivalent. This course provides a background in the physics needed to understand instrumentation used in the fields of biology and medicine. Topics are taken from the fields of mechanics, properties of materials, thermodynamics, optics, electromagnetic theory, and radiation physics. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C392
Experimental Optics
Prerequisite: PHYS C352, previously or concurrently. An experimental course in optics. Experiments include diffraction, optical instruments, resonance, and various experiments using lasers. Laboratory only, 10 experiments. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C394
Experimental Atomic Physics I
Prerequisites: PHYS C364, previously or concurrently, PHYS C226 or CEGEP Physics 301 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. An experimental course in atomic physics. Experiments include the Frank-Hertz experiment, the Zeeman effect, Mass spectrometer, and some X-ray work. Laboratory only, 10 experiments. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C395
Communication Media Electronics
Prerequisite: PHYS C296 or equivalent. Distortion, Noise, i.f. transformers, converters, power supplies, superheterodyne circuits, video amplifiers and detectors, VHF and UHF tuning, automatic gain control, FM and FM detectors, synchronization circuits, sweep circuits, automatic frequency and phase control, color demodulation, burst-gate amplifiers, chromabandpass amplifiers, static convergence, dynamic convergence, high-voltage generators, Techniques of troubleshooting electronic circuits. Laboratory only. (5 credits)

PHYSICS C396
Computer Electronics
Prerequisite: PHYS C296 or equivalent. Diode clipping circuits, transistor as a switch, multivibrator circuits, logic circuits. Study and troubleshooting of integrated circuit logic gates, J-K flip-flops, analogue-to-digital and digital-to-analogue converters, frequency-divider circuits, digital multiplexers and demultiplexers, pulse-distributor logic gates. Study and implementation of basic logic functions and Boolean expressions to programme a small digital computer. Laboratory only. (5 credits)

PHYSICS C397
Experimental Medical Electronics
Prerequisite: PHYS C296 or equivalent. A laboratory course in the maintenance and use of medical instruments, including ECG monitor, electro-cardiograph, cardiotachometer, blood-pressure recorder, respiration-rate recorder, and clinical thermometer. The component parts of the instruments are studied first, and then, the instruments are constructed and operated. Laboratory only. (5 credits)

PHYSICS C428
Advanced Topics in Physics
The topics chosen will vary from year to year. The course is designed to provide students with the opportunity of extending their studies beyond subjects already included in the curriculum. Open to all students with permission of the Department. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C429
Advanced Topics in Physics
Students who have received credit for PHYS C428 may register for PHYS C429 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C434
Thermodynamics
Prerequisite: PHYS C204 or CEGEP Physics 101, or equivalent. Temperature, simple thermodynamic systems; work, heat, and first law; ideal gas, Van der Waal's gas, heat engines, reversible and irreversible processes; entropy, second law, thermodynamics potentials, kinetic theory, Maxwell distribution, mean free path. Lectures only. (3 credits)
NOTE: This course should not be taken before the second year of university studies. See PHYS C494 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C435
Statistical Physics
Prerequisites: PHYS C364 and Physics C434. Basic probability concepts, statistical description of systems of particles, thermal interactions, microscopic theory and macroscopic measurements, temperature and entropy, M-B, E-D, B-E statistics. Canonical distribution in the classical approximation, general thermodynamics interaction. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C436
Theoretical Physics IV
Prerequisite: PHYS C232. Theory of Complex variables leading to Residue theory, with applications to Physics. Tensor calculus: tensor algebra; line element, covarient differentiation; applications. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C456
Electromagnetic Theory I
Prerequisites: PHYS C254, C336. Derivation of the laws of electrostatics and magnetostatics from the basic experimental laws; methods of images; solutions of Laplace's and Poisson's equations for electrostatic problems, magnetism, Maxwell's equations. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C457
Electromagnetic Theory II
Prerequisite: PHYS C456. Wave Solution of Maxwell's equations in various media. Classical model of a dielectric. Helmholtz equation and wave equation by Green's functions. Multipole fields. Interaction of charged particles. Radiation by moving charges. Abraham-Lorentz theory. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C465
Nuclear Physics
Prerequisite: PHYS C364. Discussion of nuclear properties. The deuteron nuclear structure and models. Scattering. Nuclear transitions, disintegrations, and reactions. Radioactivity and decay laws. Passage of radiation through matter, shielding, radiation dosage. Detection and acceleration of particles. Neutrons. Nuclear reactors. Environmental concerns. Lectures only. (3 credits)
NOTE: See PHYS C495 for laboratory associated with this course.

PHYSICS C467
Solid State Physics
Prerequisite: PHYS C477 previously or concurrently. Crystal structure of solids. Lattice dynamics. Specific heat. Electrons in metals. Free-electron Theory of conduction. Band Theory. Semi-conductors. Dielectric and magnetic properties of solids. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C477
Quantum Mechanics I
Prerequisites: PHYS C364; PHYS C232 or PHYS C244. State functions and their interpretation, wave packet, linear momentum, motion of a free particle, Schroedinger's equation, stationary state, solution, potential wells. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C478
Quantum Mechanics II
Prerequisite: PHYS C477. The harmonic oscillator, creation operators, approximation methods of solving Schroedinger's equation, perturbation theory, system of particles, motion in three dimensions, spin, angular momentum, hydrogen atom. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C481
Biophysics I
Prerequisite: University-II standing in science, or permission of the Department. Biophysical principles of size and shape of organisms, bio-energetics, physiological fluid flows, and mathematical models of biological processes. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C482
Biophysics II
Prerequisite: PHYS C481, or permission of the Department. Biophysical and physiological systems analysis, circulatory regulation, muscles, and neural network. Lectures only. (3 credits)

PHYSICS C494
Experimental Thermodynamics I
Prerequisite: PHYS C434, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in thermodynamics. Experiments include Clement and Desormes' experiment, vaporization, specific heats, liquid nitrogen boiling. Laboratory only, 10 experiments. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C495
Experimental Nuclear Physics I
Prerequisite: PHYS C394 and C465, previously or concurrently. A laboratory course in nuclear physics. Experiments include gamma- and beta-ray spectroscopy, nuclear magnetic resonance, absolute counting, half-life determination, nuclear activities. Laboratory only, 10 experiments. (1 credit)

PHYSICS C496
Methods of Experimental Physics
Prerequisites: PHYS C296 or equivalent, and C394 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Experiments include fundamentals of digital logic and applications of operational amplifiers, solid-state and nuclear physics. Students are encouraged to propose new experiments and will have the opportunity to design and build equipment. Laboratory only. (4 credits)

PHYSICS C497
Experimental Atomic Physics II
Prerequisites: PHYS C364 and C394. An experimental approach to some basic methods of radiation detection and measurement, including alpha-, beta-, and gamma-ray spectroscopy. Other experiments present Hall Effect, Microwaves and Vacuum Techniques. Laboratory only. (2 credits)

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

60 BA Honours in Political Science

18 POLI C200[6], C270[6] or C271[3], and C273[3], C372[6]
42 Chosen from at least three of the five Groups in Political Science, with a minimum of 18 credits taken at the 400 level, 12 of which must be seminar courses.*

 6 credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.*

60 BA Honours in Political Science (Concentration in a Special Field of Study)

18 POLI C200[6], C270[6] or C271[3], and C273[3], C372[6]
18 Chosen from at least three of the five Groups in Political Science
24 Chosen from one of the five Groups in Political Science with a minimum of 18 credits taken at the 400 level, 12 of which must be seminar courses.*

 6 credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.*

66 BA Joint Honours in Political Sociology

18 SOCI C200[6], C300[6], C435[6]
18 POLI C200[6], C270[6], C470[6]
12 Chosen from SOCI C400[6], C405[6], POLI C370[6], C372[6]
12 Chosen from SOCI C280[6], C320[6], C330[6], C335[6], C353[3], C354[3], POLI C230[6], C336[6], C351[6], C353[6], C360[6], C430[6]
6 Chosen from SOCI C409*, POLI C438[6]

* With the approval of the Honours Adviser, the prerequisites for SOCI C409 may be modified for students in this programme.

60 BA Specialization in Political Science

18 POLI C200[6], C270[6] or C271[3] and C273[3], C372[6]
42 Chosen from at least three of the five Groups in Political Science. A minimum of 24 credits must be taken at the 300 level. A minimum of 12 credits must be taken at the 400 level.*

 6 credits may be taken in a cognate discipline with the permission of the Department.*

42 BA Major in Political Science

6 POLI C200[6]
36 Chosen from at least three of the five Groups in Political Science. A minimum of 24 credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level.

42 BA Major in Political Science (Concentration in a Special Field)

6 POLI C200[6]
18 Chosen from one of the five Groups in Political Science. A minimum of 18 credits must be at the 300 or 400 level.
18 Chosen from the other four Groups in Political Science. A minimum of 6 credits must be at the 300 or 400 level.

24 Minor in Political Science

6 POLI C200[6]
18 Chosen from any of the five Groups in Political Science. A minimum of 12 credits must be taken at the 300 or 400 level.

The Department of Political Science offers the following programmes of study: a General Honours; an Honours, with concentration in a special field of study; a Specialization; a General Major; a Major, with concentration in a Special field of study; and a Minor.

Additionally, in cooperation with the Department of Sociology and Anthropology, the Department offers an Honours programme in Political Sociology.

In order to maintain Honours status, students must obtain approval for their programmes from the Honours Adviser each year prior to registration. In the second year of the Honours programme, each student will choose a faculty adviser to advise the student on course selection and seminar research essays.

Students seeking admission to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977 will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in Section 16.2.4 of this calendar.

Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977 will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

The Specialization is designed for students who wish to acquire a broad knowledge of the discipline without the additional requirements of the Honours programme.

The programme of courses leading to a Minor in Political Science consists of 24 credits in the Department. The Minor is designed to provide an opportunity for students to make a combination with a Specialization, a Major, or Honours in another discipline. A student's Minor will be arranged in consultation with the Department of Political Science so that it relates to courses in the Major area of study.

Explanation of Course Numbers.

1. Courses in the 200 and 300 range are open to all Political Science students and students in other departments.

2. Courses in the 400 range are open to all students in Political Science who are in their second or third year. Students in other departments may take these courses with the permission of the Political Science Department.

Because of the renumbering of courses in the Department, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

POLITICAL SCIENCE C200
Introduction to Political Science
A description of the features universal to the governing processes of societies, and the nature and consequences of the major variations in these processes. The course combines a theoretical and conceptual framework, with a study of selected political systems and countries. It is designed to act both as an introduction to the discipline for those students who plan to study further and to serve also those students who require a systematic examination of the field in a single course. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C210
International Relations
An introductory course in world affairs. Among the topics covered will be: the historical evolution of the international system; definitions of basic concepts; types of conflict and cooperation among states; environmental, economic, socio-cultural, and ideological factors; critical problems, current issues, and major trends in world politics. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C230
Comparative Politics of Western Europe
A comparative study of a selected number of Western European countries. Special emphasis will be given to the dynamics of the political process. Most of the illustrative content will be based on Great Britain, France, and the Federal Republic of Germany. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C236
The Politics of Developing Areas
A study of the politics and structures of government in developing areas such as Asia, Africa, or Latin America, against the background of social and economic change since World War II. The specific area which will be studied will vary from year to year depending on the interests of the instructor. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C250
Canadian Government and Politics
An institutional and functional analysis of the Canadian federal system. The course centers upon the major problems of concern in the Canadian political process and considers the formal and informal institutions within which these problems might be solved. The political system is studied within the context of federalism; the electoral system; political parties; interest groups; public opinion and the Canadian political culture. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C270
History of Political Theory
A general survey of the writings of the great thinkers in the western political tradition, from the classical period to the middle of the 19th Century. This course provides a general introduction to the history of political thought. (Students who have taken POLI C271 or C273 will not be allowed to take this course for credit). (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C271
Ancient Greek Political Philosophy
A study of the political thought of the ancient Greeks. The principal texts to be studied are The Republic of Plato and The Politics of Aristotle. This course is particularly recommended for students in the political theory area of concentration. (Students who have taken POLI C270 may not take this course for credit.) (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C273
Roman, Mediaeval, and Renaissance Political Philosophy
A study of the political thought of Rome, the Middle Ages, and the Renaissance, with special emphasis upon the political writings of Cicero, St. Augustine, St. Thomas Aquinas, and Machiavelli. This course is recommended for students in the political theory area of concentration. Students who have taken POLI C270 may not take this course for credit. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C311
International Public Law
An introductory course in legal inter-state relations. Among the topics covered will be: the sources and development of law; relationships with municipal law; meaning of legal concepts; rights and duties of states; sovereignty and territoriality; state recognition and succession. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C313
International Law and Power Relations
A general course on the role of law in world politics. Among the topics covered will be: the theory and reality of law; international transactions and diplomatic law; customary and treaty law; judicial settlement of disputes; the laws of war and neutrality. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C315
International Organizations
An introductory course in intergovernmental institutions. Among the topics covered will be: the development of international public unions; the League of Nations and the United Nations; the structure and function of international administration; specialized agencies and world order. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C317
Regional Organizations
A general course in international structural integration. Among the topics covered will be: the dynamics of socio-political unification; theories of regionalism; supranational communities and common markets. Emphasis will be given to institutions such as the EEC, COMECON, OAS, OAU, LAFTA, and ASEAN. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C321
(Also given as History C281)
The Middle East in World Politics
An area study of the Mid-Eastern states in international affairs. Among the topics covered will be: the Islamic Heritage; Arab nationalism and Zionism; the Arab-Israeli conflict and the USA-USSR power struggle. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C323
Eastern Europe in World Politics
This course will deal with the role of the Soviet Union and its East European allies in international affairs. Among the topics covered will be: the ideological foundations and historical development of socialist foreign policy; problems of domestic security, defense, international trade, foreign aid, and expansion of influence; the East European alliance system, CEMA, and the WTO (Warsaw Pact). (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C330
American Government and Politics
A study of American politics dealing not only with formal political institutions, such as the legislature, the executive, and the judiciary, but also with the processes and problems of government: public opinion, political parties, pressure groups, health and welfare, foreign policy, and racial problems. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C331
British Government and Politics
Government and politics in Britain, with particular emphasis on political parties and pressure groups, the changing role of the legislature and executive, and the Public Corporations. The issues of current constitutional interest will be discussed, such as the office of Prime Minister and Parliamentary sovereignty. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C332
African Government and Politics
The government and politics of African states south of the Sahara, with reference to traditional political systems, colonial policies, nationalism, and the problem of nation building. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C333
The Government and Politics of the Soviet Union
A study of the government and politics of the Soviet Union. Discussion of the basic theories of Communism and the evolution of the Soviet System. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C334
Women and the Law
Prerequisite: POLI C200 or equivalent. An historical comparative study of the status of women as seen in different legal systems. The course will deal with women in relation to private, family, and public law. The framework will be primarily legal, but will also include a consideration of the social and political implications of women's legal status. Special attention to be directed to Quebec and Canadian law. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C335
Contemporary Politics of China
An analysis of the political development of and change in China since the triumph of Communism in China, with special emphasis on the role of the CCP, mass mobilization and prospect, and influence on Asia and world politics. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C336
Urban Politics
Prerequisite: POLI C200 or C250. A course in the problems and prospects in urban politics, with special emphasis on the processes of the local community. This course, although dealing primarily with urban politics in Canada, will go beyond national boundaries for its comparative treatment. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C337
Contemporary Politics of Japan
An analysis of the political change in and development of Japan since the end of World War II, with special emphasis on the reorientation of Japan, characteristics of Japanese modernization and of post-industrial politics, problems of national post-industrial politics, problems of national security and constitutional pacifism, and influence on Asia and world politics. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C339
(Also given as History C283)
Mid-East Political Systems
A comparative study of selected Mid-East Governments (Egypt, Iraq, Israel, Jordan, Lebanon, Libya, Saudi Arabia, Syria, Turkey, and Yemen). (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C350
Canadian Public Law
This course is an introduction to Canadian Public Law, emphasizing such areas as constitutional law, criminal law, administrative law, applications for bail, and consumer protection. In addition, the course will involve a study of the organization and functioning of the court system. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C351
Canadian Federalism
Prerequisite: POLI C250. A critical and analytical study of the theory of federal government and its application to the nature, principles, and techniques of federalism in Canada. The reaction of the Canadian federal system to the demands of cultural dualism and regional pressures. Some attention will also be given to the problems of provincial governments and Federal-Provincial relations. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C352
Canadian Parties, Interest Groups, and Public Opinion
Prerequisite: POLI C250. An examination of the functions of parties and interest groups, with an emphasis on political socialization, ideology, political recruitment, and leadership selection. Attention will also be given to the formulation and expression of public opinion and its impact on public policy. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C353
Quebec Politics
Prerequisite: POLI C250. A study of the changing party structure and political issues in Quebec and their relationship to constitutional, cultural, and economic factors. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C355
Nationalism: The Canadian Experience
Prerequisite: POLI C250, or permission of the Department. Examines the origins and development of nationalism and regionalism in Canada, with particular attention centered upon the interaction between French-Canadian and English-Canadian nationalist sentiments. Considers the similarities and divergencies of nationalist and regionalist sentiment in Canada with those of European nationalism, and evaluates their significance with regard to the development of the Canadian federation and its capacity to confront the realities and demands of the modern technological environment. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C360
Comparative Public Administration
Concerned with the theories and maxims, as well as with the development of public administration. The student is introduced to issues such as the organization of governmental departments, budget policy, decision-making in government administration, personnel selection and training methods, as well as the application of efficiency ratings. There is, throughout, strong emphasis on attitudes and differences pertinent to the civil service in a selected group of countries. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C361
The Politics of Public Choice
The course will examine the latest theoretical literature on the problems of social choice in domestic policy making. It will assess the influence of social, cultural, ideological, economic, and political factors on the formation of public policies and will analyze the impact of citizen participation at both élite and mass levels. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C363
Issues in Canadian Public Policy
The course will examine alternative public policies in selected areas at the federal, provincial, and municipal levels in Canada, leading towards the development of individual research projects. Policies analyzed will vary from year to year and will include such areas as: social welfare policy, culture, education, and language policy; environmental protection, energy conservation, urban renewal, economic policy. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C365
Canadian Public Administration
Prerequisite: POLI C250, or permission of the Department. This course will examine the organization and composition of the federal bureaucracy, the role of the bureaucracy in the making and execution of public policy, patterns of recruitment, and the mechanisms of accountability to, and control over the behaviour of, these bodies. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C367
Quebec Public Administration
Prerequisite: POLI C250, or permission of the Department. This course will examine the organization and composition of the provincial bureaucracy, the role of Quebec civil servants in the making and execution of public policy, patterns of recruitment, and the mechanisms of accountability to, and control over the behaviour of, these bodies. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C370
Problems and Concepts in Political Theory
Prerequisites: POLI C270, or C271 and C273. A course in political theory that examines central concepts in political thinking, such as liberty, equality, and power. The content of the course will include basic methodology and terminology to the extent that the thematic orientation in any given year may require its inclusion. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C371
Early Modern Political Philosophy
The Reformation and rise of modern individualism. The principal political thinkers studied in this period will be Luther, Calvin, Bellarmine, Bodin, Hobbes, Harrington, Locke. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C372
Methodology of Political Science
A study of the contemporary subject matter and methods of political science. The course deals with: 1) fundamental concepts, principles, institutions, and processes of politics; 2) methods and techniques of the study of Politics, including an introduction to statistical analysis; 3) present approaches, such as functionalism, behaviourism, and practical laboratory periods. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C373
Late Modern Political Philosophy
The Enlightenment and its critics, and the political thought of the early industrial period. The most important thinkers to be studied in this period are: de Montesquieu, Hume, Rousseau, Burke, J.S. Mill, and Marx. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C375
Nationalism: Origins, Operation, Significance
Examines the foundations of nationalist ideology developed originally in the early 19th Century as a purely European phenomenon. Considers specific nationalist ideologies European, African, Asian, etc., with regard to their modality of operation, and their significance in relation to a society's capacity to evolve and confront the demands, both internal and external, of the contemporary environment. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C377
Catholic Social and Political Thought
An inquiry into contemporary Catholic social and political thought as stated in papal encyclicals; a broad survey of Catholic political activity as manifested in the European and Latin-American Christian Socialist and Christian Democratic movements and parties. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C391
Selected Topics in Political Science I
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The topic will vary with the special interest of the instructor conducting the course in any given year. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C393
Selected Topics in Political Science II
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. The selected topic will vary with the special interest of the instructor conducting the course in any given year. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C410
Seminar on Modern World Society
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. An advanced study of various concepts of the modern world society. Among the topics considered will be: the impact of technology on modern society and the problems it poses for international world order; the various theoretical models (i.e. federalist, functionalist, universal, culturalist) proposed to solve these problems and promote international order. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C411
Diplomacy

Prerequisite: At least 3 credits in International Affairs. A specialized course on the art of statesmanship and the practice of diplomacy. Among the topics covered will be: diplomatic intelligence and communication; protocol, rhetoric, and propaganda; negotiation techniques and treaty-making; informal consultations and conference diplomacy; conflict resolution and conciliation of national interests. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C413
Foreign Policy

POLITICAL SCIENCE C432
Seminar on Western Political Systems

A seminar on the political systems of western Europe and North America. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C434
Seminar on Asian Political Systems

A discussion of selected themes nationalism, communism, process of modernization and/or Asian political institutions, political forces and foreign policies. The topics may vary from year to year depending upon the interests of the instructor. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C436
Seminar on Politics of East Europe

A study of selected problems of government in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C438
Honours Tutorial

Prerequisite: Third-year Honours standing. Students will choose an area of study from one of the various fields in Political Science and, under the guidance of a Faculty supervisor, prepare and submit an appropriate Honours research paper. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C450
Seminar on Quebec Government and Politics

Prerequisite: POLI C250 or C353. An institutional and functional survey of the executive, legislative, judicial, and administrative branches of the Quebec government. A detailed study of Quebec's jurisdictional and fiscal problems with the federal government. Discussion on the political process in Quebec; the electoral system, political parties, pressure groups, and public opinion. The role of the Catholic Church in Quebec politics. A study of the most important thinkers in French Canada. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C451
Canadian External Affairs

Prerequisite: POLI C210 or C250. This course will study Canada's position in the world. The presentation will include an outline of the diplomatic history of Canada, as well as an analysis of its foreign and defence policies. Emphasis will be given to the decision-making process by which policy is formulated and executed, with particular reference to Canadian relations vis-à-vis the United States, the Commonwealth, and the United Nations. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C452
Seminar on Canadian Federal, Provincial, and Municipal Government

Prerequisite: POLI C250. An analysis of various aspects of the three levels of government and the way in which they interact. In general, the emphasis will be on case studies and original research. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C453
The Provinces in Canadian Federalism
Prerequisite: POLI C250. An analysis of regional political cultures in Canada; the development of provincial parties and public administrations; the rise of third parties; electoral behaviour and provincial public opinion. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C454
Seminar on Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Decision-Making
Prerequisite: POLI C250. An examination of formation of decisions in the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of government, using Canada as the model. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C460
Seminar on Government and Economic Policy
Prerequisite: POLI C250 or C361. A seminar on the role of government in the economic life of different countries; the relation of economic and political power, the changing balance of public and private power in political systems. Emphasis will be on Canadian government and economic policy-formation. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C462
Seminar on Comparative Policy Problems of Advanced Industrial Societies
Prerequisite: POLI C361 or C363, or permission of the Department. The seminar will examine, in a comparative framework, some of the major policy problems confronting advanced industrial societies (East and West). The aim of the seminar is to understand how similar problems are approached by different political systems and to discover what we can learn in Canada from the experience of other societies in managing socio-economic change. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C470
Contemporary Political Thought
Prerequisite: POLI C270 or C271, and C273 or C371 and C373. A study of the most important political thinkers and the main currents of political thought in the past century. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C471
Political Thought and Ideology in Canada
A study of the writings of the most significant political and social thinkers in Canada, and of the main ideological orientations in Canadian politics. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C472
Seminar on Communications and Politics
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course will include communication and national unity, communications and social mobilization, politics and the mass media, the use of political symbols, communication, and authority, and the "Canadian School" of culture and communications, based on the ideas of Harold Innis. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C473
Seminar on Political Theory and Historical Understanding
Prerequisite: Political Science C270; or C271 and C273; or C371 and C373. An advanced seminar on the relation between historical understanding and political thought. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C474
Seminar on Political Theory and Scientific Method
Prerequisite: Political Science C270; or C271 and C273; or C371 and C373. An advanced seminar on the problems of applying scientific method in the study of politics. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C475
Marxism
Prerequisite: POLI C270; or C271 and C273; or C371 and C373. A critical examination of the major texts of Marx and Engels, and a study of representative selections of Marxist thinkers chosen from among the following: Kautsky, Plekhanov, Lenin, Luxemburg, Trotsky, Stalin, Lukacs, Gramsci, Althusser, Mao. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C490
Advanced Topics in Political Science
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is designed primarily for Honours students. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for students to intensify their study beyond the areas of specialization already represented in the curriculum. The topic will vary with the special interest of the instructor conducting the course. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C492
Advanced Study in a Special Subject
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Political Science and enrolment in a Major or Honours programme in the Social Sciences. Subject matter will vary from year to year depending on the interests of the instructor. This course will provide opportunities to senior students for discussion and advanced study. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C494
Advanced Study in a Special Subject
Prerequisite: POLI C492 and permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for POLI C492 may register for POLI C494 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C495
Advanced Study in a Special Subject
Prerequisite: 6 credits in Political Science and enrolment in a Major or Honours programme in the Social Sciences, or permission of the Department. Subject matter will vary from year to year to take advantage of the special interests of the instructor. This course will provide opportunities to senior students for discussion and advanced study. (3 credits)

POLITICAL SCIENCE C497
Advanced Study in a Special Subject
Prerequisite: POLI C495 and permission of the Department. A student who has received credit for POLI C495 may register for POLI C497 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements. The superscript indicates credit value.

Students must apply to the Departmental Honours Adviser for formal admission to Honours Programmes. The application is usually made after completion of the first-year courses.

Students seeking admission to the Honours programme on or after June 1, 1977 will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in Section 16.2.4 of this calendar.

Students who already had Honours status by June 1, 1977 will continue to be governed by the requirements which applied at the date of their admission to the Honours programme.

For additional information concerning programmes and courses, students should consult the course guide published annually by the Department.

NOTE: All 300- and 400-level courses in Psychology are acceptable as Science credits in the Bachelor of Science degree except:

PSYCHOLOGY C320
C390-C394

Because of the renumbering of Psychology courses, please see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

PSYCHOLOGY C200
Introductory Psychology

This comprehensive survey course will introduce the student to the phenomena and terminology encountered in a number of areas of scientific psychology. Topics covered include basic mechanisms of the receptors and nervous system, memory, motivation, perception, learning, abnormal psychology, personality, cognition, and social aspects of behaviour. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have credit for or exemption from Introductory Psychology at CEGEP or elsewhere may not take this course for credits.

SELECTED TOPICS IN PSYCHOLOGY

The following 3-credit courses, numbered at the '200' level, are designed as elective courses for students who are not registered in a psychology programme. The particular topic covered will vary from session to session and from campus to campus. The material will be dealt with in a manner appropriate to students who have little or no formal background in psychology. Students registered in a psychology programme will not normally take these courses for credit. It is not possible to offer topics in all the subject areas each session. Students should see the Psychology Department Course Guide (published yearly) to ascertain which topics are available in each session.

PSYCHOLOGY C220
Selected Topics in Developmental Psychology A
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C221
Selected Topics in Developmental Psychology B
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C222
Selected Topics in Social Psychology A
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C223
Selected Topics in Social Psychology B

PSYCHOLOGY C235
Selected Topics in Cognitive Processes B
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C236
Selected Topics in Physiological Psychology A
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C237
Selected Topics in Physiological Psychology B
(3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C310
Research Methods in Experimental Psychology I
Prerequisites: Introductory Psychology or equivalent; PSYC C315 to be taken concurrently. An examination of the experimental method in psychology. Students will complete experimental projects to acquaint themselves with procedures in various areas of psychology, such as perception, learning, and motivation. Statistical procedures for analysis of the results of the experiments will be presented in the concurrently taught course in psychological statistics. Lectures and laboratory. (3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C311
Research Methods in Experimental Psychology II
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. This course will build on the experience gained in PSYC C310 and C315. It will be devoted to a critical examination of more complex designs used in psychology. Students will be required to conduct and evaluate experiments. An opportunity will be provided for them to undertake a supervised research project. (3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C312
Field Research Methodology
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. This course will deal with techniques for studying complex behaviour in non-laboratory settings. Topics such as the neutrality or invisibility of the observers, participant observation, categorization, and recording problems may be studied. The relationship between laboratory findings and findings from the non-laboratory setting will be considered. (3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C315
Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology I
Prerequisites: Elementary Algebra and Functions, or equivalent. PSYC C310 to be taken concurrently. This course is an introduction to statistics, presented in an experimental psychology context. Topics dealt with include frequency distributions, measures of central tendency and dispersion, the normal curve, correlation, elementary probability theory, an introduction to hypothesis testing, and the t test. These topics are coordinated with the laboratory projects in Research Methods I which must be taken concurrently. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7

PSYCHOLOGY C316
Statistical Analysis in Experimental Psychology II
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. This course builds on the experience derived from PSYC C310 and C315 to advance the student's understanding of hypothesis testing and statistical inferences. The material dealt with will include non-parametric statistics, the chi-square and F-distribution, introductory analysis of variance, and various correlational techniques. (3 credits) NOTE See §200.7

PSYCHOLOGY C317
Introductory Statistical Methods in Psychology
Prerequisite: Any two CEGEP courses in Mathematics. Topics dealt with include frequency distributions, measures of central tendency and dispersion, correlation and regression, elementary probability theory, the binomial and normal distributions, sampling and statistical inference, simple analysis of variance, miscellaneous non-parametric techniques. Lectures and laboratory. Only 6 credits will be recognized from PSYC C315, C316, or C317. (6 credits) NOTE See §200.7

PSYCHOLOGY C318
Advanced Statistical Methods in Psychology
Prerequisite: PSYC C315 and C316, or C317 or equivalent. The course is intended for students who already possess some background in statistics. Knowledge of elementary descriptive and inferential statistics will be assumed. The course will cover topics such as advanced analysis of variance designs, introductory multivariate analysis, advanced topics in correlation, and regression. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C320
Modern Psychology in Historical Perspective
Prerequisite: Introductory Psychology or equivalent. The course deals with the historical background of psychology from ancient and mediaeval times up to the present. Early contributions to psychology from the fields of philosophy, physics, physiology, and psychophysics are presented and related to the various schools of psychological thought from the late Nineteenth Century to the modern era. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C330
Developmental Psychology
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. Basic findings and contemporary issues concerned with human cognition, social and emotional development are considered. The course deals with a variety of topics such as the behavioural organization and competence of the new-born, relationships in the pre-school period, effects of different early environments, Piaget's theory of cognitive development. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C333
Social Psychology

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The behaviour of the individual as a member of a larger grouping or society will be dealt with. The study of the social influences on individuals or groups will involve consideration of topics such as attitude change and development, intragroup communication and problem solving, leadership, prejudice, development of social movements, and cults. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C336
Personality: Normal and Abnormal

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The organization, functioning, and development of personality will be discussed according to major theories of personality. Evidence from experimental studies and field findings are discussed. Socio-economic, cultural, and biological system factors may also be considered. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C339
Behaviour Disorders

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The course will deal with contemporary research and theory related to the aetiology, diagnosis, and treatment of various psychological disorders. Psychoneuroses, psychoses, and psychosomatic conditions will be studied. Social, learning, and biological influences on the development of such disorders as schizophrenia, depression, anxiety neuroses, and phobias will be discussed. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C342
Motivation

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. Contemporary theory and empirical research concerned with factors related to the initiation and maintenance of goal-directed behaviour will be reviewed and evaluated. Research findings from human and sub-human studies in such areas as hunger, sleep, sex, agression, cooperation, and competition may be presented and evaluated. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C345
Learning

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. Current theories and research findings concerning the basic mechanisms of learning are considered. The current status of the Pavlovian and instrumental conditioning paradigms will be reviewed from behavioural and cognitive viewpoints. Topics such as the mechanisms of reinforcement, cognitive versus associative theories of conditioning, memory, and control of autonomic nervous system responses will be dealt with. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C348
Sensory and Perceptual Processes

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. Physiological and psychological bases of sensory and perceptual phenomena will be discussed. Topics such as pitch perception, colour vision, perception of movement, size, and distance are included. The areas of sensation and perception are integrated through a human information-processing approach to the understanding of auditory and visual phenomena. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C351
Cognitive Processes

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The course will involve a study of the processes involved in thought and language. Possible topics for discussion are: cognitive development, psycholinguistics, pattern recognition, organization and memory, attention, problem solving and concept formation, and creativity. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C354
Mathematical Theories of Behaviour

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The course will survey applications of mathematical techniques to problems of psychology in such areas as motivation, learning, decision making, sensory psychophysics, and perception. Students enrolling in this course should have a mastery of elementary probability theory and should be confident of their ability to deal with elementary calculus, algebra, and logic. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C357
Physiological Psychology

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315, or permission of the Department. This course deals with current theory and research concerning the neural and humoral bases of behaviour. The biological bases of behaviour will be clarified through study of such topics as the function of nerve cells and circuits, brain-hormone interactions, physiological mechanisms of sensation, perception, memory, and coordinated movement. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C360
Brain Chemistry and Behaviour

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315, or Second- or Third-year standing in a chemistry or biology programme. Neural systems will be classified in terms of their different chemical transmitter substances. The mechanisms of hunger, thirst, pain, reward, drug abuse, and the neurochemical basis of disorders such as schizophrenia, depression, and Huntingdon's Chorea may be discussed. Methods for the identification and selective stimulation and destruction of the various systems are included. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C363
Anatomical and Physiological Bases of Motivation and Emotion

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. A study of determinants: neural, hormonal, stimulus, and experiential determinants of behaviour. Emphasis will be on factors that account for the initiation, direction, and regulation of behaviour. Animal and human research data underlying major psychological theories of motivated behaviours will be emphasized. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C366
Animal Behaviour

Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315, or permission of the Department. The study of animal behaviour will be approached from the point of view of sociobiology, ethology, and comparative psychology. Research findings from the experimental laboratory and from studies of animals in their natural environment will be discussed. A study of genetic and evolutionary aspects of behaviour is intrinsic to the course. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C369
Hormones and Behaviour
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The course deals with the role of hormones in integrating the activity of various neural, endocrine, and sensory systems to bring about organized, purposeful behaviour. Topics discussed include the reproductive, sexual, or environmentally adaptive systems, with treatment of material ranging from the molecular to the behavioural level. (3 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C375
Industrial and Organizational Psychology
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. A systematic examination of current research and theory about human behaviour as it occurs in the context of work organizations. Possible topics are: motivation to work, communication in organizations, career development, and systems approach to conceptualizing the social psychology of organizations. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C378
Learning in the Classroom
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. A systematic examination of psychological principles and research reports that contribute to an understanding of learning in the school. (6 credits)

PSYCHOLOGY C381
Scaling
Prerequisites: PSYC C310 and C315. The theoretical basis and application of scaling methods in psychophysics and social psychology will be studied. Quantitative scales for the measurement of attitudes and sensations will be derived and constructed. 31.260 Recreation and Leisure Studies

Director
R. SWEDBURG, Associate Professor

Recreation and leisure service is a basic social and cultural need, and is concerned with the interrelationships among people in their environment. A great deal of money is poured into recreation and leisure at all governmental levels, leading to a pressing need for people to administer and develop programmes at the necessary standards of sophistication.

This programme attempts to fulfill this need and is offered to those students interested in a career in recreation and leisure services together with those students who foresee the increasing academic enquiry into the problems derived from recreation and leisure within the work ethic.

The primary focus is on managing, programming, counselling, and coordinating rather than instructing. The programme draws from the departments of Exercise Science, Psychology, Sociology and the Faculty of Commerce and Administration.

Requirements:

Both required and elected courses within the Social Science and Applied Recreation options should be chosen in consultation with the Director.

Additionally it will be required that students must maintain an overall average of 65% (1) to continue into the second and third year of their studies and (2) to graduate.

Students registered in the programme who are not fluent in French are strongly advised to use some of their elective credits in pursuit of French-language competence.

Upon completion of all requirements the student will receive a BA with Specialization in Recreation and Leisure Studies.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the Programme Director prior to registering for Recreation and Leisure Studies courses.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C241
Recreation and Leisure in Contemporary Society

The course provides a basis for understanding recreation and leisure as increasingly important aspects of our culture. In an era of rapidly changing life styles, with a high incidence of anxiety and frustration, the value of worthy use of free time in maintaining mental and physical health is presented. Topics discussed include: motivations for participation in leisure and recreation; social, psychological and historical foundations of leisure; education for leisure; and the analysis of special problems. Lectures and seminars: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C342
Principles and Practices of Recreation Services

The course is concerned with the fundamental concepts governing the field of recreation and leisure. Many aspects of programme planning and development are examined, including: planning models and principles, classification, evaluation, leadership; analyses of programme models in social, cultural, and physical recreation, leisure education, therapeutic recreation, as they relate to the provision of services. Lectures: 3 hours per week. Laboratories-/Field Study: 1 hour per week. (6 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C426
Administration of Recreation Services

Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year of a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. Analysis of the processes involved in planning and managing leisure service delivery systems. Topics to be studied include: principles of planning, organization, zero-based budgeting, financial control, supervision. The course exposes the students, through field study, to a variety of management procedures currently used in the field. Lectures, Laboratories and Field Study. (6 credits)

EXERCISE SCIENCE C430
Recreation and Leisure Studies Seminar

Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year of a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. This is a third-year interdisciplinary seminar in which students can tie together all they have learned in the Recreation and Leisure Studies Programme. Additionally, students will be set on a course of study that should continue after they graduate so that they can keep up with future developments in this area. Lectures: 3 hours per week for two terms or equivalent time in independent study. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C430 may not take this course for credits.

EXERCISE SCIENCE C464
Recreation Internship

Prerequisite: Enrolment in the final year of a Recreation and Leisure Studies programme. In consultation with their mentors, students are given the opportunity to study theoretical and practical problems confronting professionals in the field of Recreation. The course offers a supervised period of work with a selected organization. Each student, during seminar sessions, formulates a study proposal. The practicum commences based upon the approved proposal. The course involves a minimum of a six-week 240-hour period. (6 credits)

31.280 Russian Studies

Coordinator
I. SMITH, Associate Professor

The Russian Studies Programmes prepare students for professional and academic careers in the Civil Service, Trade and Commerce, External Affairs, and other areas of relationship between Canada and the Soviet Union. A wide variety of courses in Russian language, politics, economics, history, philosophy and geography is taught by specialists who work closely with students in designing programmes which best fit their needs.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the Programme Coordinator prior to registering for Russian Studies courses.

60 BA Honours in Russian Studies

6	Chosen from ECON C370[6], C375[3], C476[3]*

Courses with Russian content may be taken, in consultation with the Coordinator, from the following departments: Economics, Geography, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Modern Languages.*

 It is suggested that students taking HIST C347 also register for C218.*

NOTE: Students with a previous knowledge of the Russian language will have their programme determined in consultation with the Programmme Coordinator.

31.290 Science/Mathematics for Teachers

CERTIFICATE IN THE TEACHING OF SCIENCE
(Elementary School Level)

Director
G. TRUDEL, Associate Professor

The Faculty of Arts and Science offers a Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level) for the professional development of teachers interested in science. Practising teachers are offered the opportunity to improve their knowledge of science in order to help them teach modern science more effectively. The presentation will generally be in workshop form, with emphasis on assignments that develop activities for classroom use. Courses will be offered on and off campus during the Winter and Summer months, subject to sufficient demand and the availability of suitable instructors.

Admission Requirements
Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold either a General Elementary Licence or an Elementary Special Education Licence. Under certain conditions individuals certified to teach at the Secondary level may be admitted into this programme depending on their educational background and teaching experience.

PROGRAMME

30 Certificate in the Teaching of Science (Elementary School Level)

30 SCIE C315[6], C316[6], C317[6], C318[6], C319[6]

NOTE: Where students have completed similar courses in previous studies, pro tanto credits may be approved up to a maximum of 12 credits. In some cases, students with fewer than 12 pro tanto credits may, with approval of the Faculty of Arts and Science obtained upon the recommendation of the programme director, be permitted to take courses in related areas for credit towards the certificate. However, at least 18 of the credits must be taken within the programme.

Science courses in this programme have been renumbered.

SCIENCE C315
Philosophy and Methodology of Teaching Science, Elementary Level
A study of the role, impact, and responsibility of science at the elementary school level, a study of science programme design, teaching processes, and classroom activities at the elementary level. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE C314 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE C316
Matter and Energy
Prerequisite: SCIE C315. States and properties of matter, change of state, force, common machines, mass, volume, expansion, gravitation, heat, light, sound, electricity, magnetism, other sources of energy, conservation of energy. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE C310 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE C317
Man and his Environment
Prerequisite: SCIE C315. Temperature, soil, water, air, atmosphere, reproduction, heredity, erosion, weather, nitrogen cycles, pollution, ecology and ecosystems. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE C311 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE C318
Our Earth and the Universe
Prerequisite: SCIE C315. Time cycles, volume, density, constitution, and properties of the solar system, gravity, seasons, water, and carbon cycles. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE C312 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE C319
Living Things and Their Activities
Prerequisite: SCIE C315. The cellular structure of living things, food chains, plants, animals, germination, growth, soil, water, respiration, nutrition, life cycles. Classification into families, communities, and populations. (6 credits)

NOTE: This course is available only to practising teachers.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for SCIE C313 may not take this course for credits.

CERTIFICATE IN MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS (Elementary School Level)

Programme Director
M.A. BOSWALL, Associate Professor

Admission Requirements
Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold either a General Elementary Licence or an Elementary Special Education Licence. Under certain conditions individuals certified to teach at the Secondary level may be admitted into this programme depending on their educational background and teaching experience.

The Department of Mathematics offers a Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary School Level) for the professional development of teachers interested in mathematics. This programme was designed in accordance with the programme-cadre for Elementary Mathematics issued by the General Directorate of Elementary and Secondary Education and approved for "perfectionnement" by the Higher Education Branch of the Department of Education on February 15, 1974.

Practising teachers are offered the opportunity to improve their knowledge of mathematics in order to help them teach mathematics more effectively. The presentation will generally be in workshop form with emphasis on assignments which develop activities for classroom use. Courses will be offered on and off campus during the Winter and Summer months subject to demand and the availability of instructors.

30 Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Elementary School Level)

6	MATH C305[6]
24	Chosen from MATH C300[6], C301[6], C302[6], C303[6], C304[6], C307[3], C309[3]

NOTE Where students have completed similar courses in previous studies, pro tanto credits may be approved up to a maximum of 12 credits. In some cases, students with fewer than 12 pro tanto credits may, with approval of the Faculty of Arts and Science obtained upon the recommendation of the programme director, be permitted to take courses in related areas for credit towards the certificate. However, at least 18 of the credits must be taken within the programme.

CERTIFICATE IN MATHEMATICS FOR TEACHERS (Junior Secondary School Level)

Programme Director
M.A. BRIAN, Associate Professor

Admission Requirements
Admission to this programme is open to teachers who already hold a teaching licence at the secondary level. This licence may be a generalist licence or a mathematics specialist licence.

The Department of Mathematics offers a Certificate in Mathematics for teachers who teach mathematics at the junior high school level. Some of the courses offered have been specially designed to deal with new subject matter which is being introduced into the secondary school curriculum, as well as with aspects of mathematical pedagogy necessary for the teaching of this material. This programme was approved for perfectionnement on February 14, 1974, by the Higher Education Branch of the Department of Education.

30 Certificate in Mathematics for Teachers (Junior Secondary School Level)

3	MATH C400[3]
27	MATH C401[6], C402[3], C403[3], C404[6], C405[3], C406[3], C407[6], C408[3], C409[3], C410[3]

NOTE: In some cases where students have completed similar mathematical courses in previous studies, the Mathematics Department may modify a student's programmes to meet his professional requirements. It may grant pro tanto credits up to a maximum of 12 credits.

Course descriptions see Section 31.200.

31.300 Science and Human Affairs

Coordinator
F. KNELMAN, Professor

This programme is concerned with the dimensions of science and technology. Its teaching and research provide an interdisciplinary examination of the ethical, cultural, political and environmental problems associated with scientific and technological change. Attention is also focused on analysis of the social systems of science from historical, sociological, economic and philosophical perspectives.

The programme is designed for students interested in science and technology, but who do not plan careers in scientific research or the technical professions. Rather it prepares them for constructive careers which involve a grasp of scientific methods, an understanding of scientific principles and an appreciation of the nature, content and implications of scientific research, technological innovation and industrial development. For students working toward degrees in science or engineering, the programme provides the opportunity to develop important additional perspectives and capabilities.

There are a number of streams or areas within the programme. In the History and Philosophy of Science, for example, students may concentrate so as to prepare themselves for graduate work. Another stream examines the social impact of science and technology by focusing on policy problems. Students may develop a variety of approaches for dealing with public policy in either the areas of science and technology or environment. These also are preparatory for existing graduate programmes.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.
The superscript indicates credit value.
Students should consult with the Programme Coordinator prior to registering for Science and Human Affairs courses.

60 BA Specialization in Science and Human Affairs

12 SCHA C250[3], C251[3], C253[3], C254[3]
6 Chosen from SCHA C350[6], C351[6], GEOG C222[6], or Science electives approved by the Coordinator
18 SCHA C450[6], C451[6], C453[6]
18 Chosen from SCHA C452[6], PHIL C226[3] and C228[3], C231[6], C421[6], RELI C433[6], SOCI C405[6], HIST C330[6] or electives approved by the Coordinator
6 SCHA C454[6]

NOTE: Students may be required by their adviser to take an English writing course at an appropriate level.

42 BA Major in Science and Human Affairs

12 SCHA C250[3], C251[3], C253[3], C254[3]
6 Chosen from SCHA C350[6], C351[6]; GEOG C222[6], or Science electives approved by the Coordinator

30 Minor in Science and Human Affairs

12 SCHA C250[3], C251[3], C253[3], C254[3]
18 Chosen from SCHA C350[6], C351[6], C450[6], C451[6], C452[6], C453[6]

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C250 Introduction to Science and Human Affairs I

The social and historical context of scientific and technological change. The reciprocal interactions of science with government, ideology, economic development, religion, literature and social theory; science and the city; science and the control of human life; science and human liberation; new definitions of scientific responsibility may be considered. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.1

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C250 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C251 Introduction to Science and Human Affairs II

A continuation of SCHA C250. This course may be taken independently. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C251 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C252 Contemporary Image of Science: The Physical Sciences

This course provides a general humanistic understanding of the physical sciences.

The three main themes are man and the universe; the reality and unreality of matter and energy; man and the dynamic earth. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C252 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C253
Environmental Issues I

The scientific, social and cultural nature of man's relationship to his environment. Emphasis will be placed on pollution, conservation, population resources and human ecology. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C253 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C254
Environmental Issues II

A continuation of SCHA C253. This course may be taken independently. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C254 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C255
Environmental Studies

The course is designed to provide a general background to the scientific and sociological study of man's relationship to his environment. Each lecture will attempt an in-depth treatment of a specific issue and will be presented by an invited specialist in that field. The course will present an overall view of the general problems followed by a serious analysis of specific areas of concern, such as the pollution of water, air and soil; noise pollution; the oceans; energy resources and population. Possible solutions for the restoration and preservation of our environment will be discussed and the associated social, political and economic considerations will be presented. The general content of the lectures, where applicable, will be directed to problems in our city and province. The presentation of material will include lectures, discussion groups, films and panel discussions. Readings on the various topics will be assigned and students will be involved in projects and term papers. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C255 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C256
The Technological Society

The purpose of this course is to familiarize the student with the characteristics of contemporary society which specifically relate to the large-scale application of technology and to appreciate the historical uniqueness of these characteristics. The course will concentrate on four main areas:

1. What is technology? Science as technique. Organization as technique. Machines as technique. Social planning as technique. Technology and social change. 2. Historical Studies Agrarian Revolution, Medieval Technology and Feudalism, Industrial Revolution, Development of Economics. 3. Comparative Studies Technology under American Capitalism and Soviet Communism, developed countries and "Third World" nations, national commitments to technological growth, multi-national corporations. 4. Problems of Technology Technological backlash (e.g., pollution from industry), Doomsday theories, uncontrolled growth, alternative futures. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C256 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C350
Case Histories in Experimental Science

Readings will concentrate on the original scientific texts (e.g. Harvey, Galileo, Newton, Faraday, Pasteur, Crick and Watson). In the laboratory section, students will follow the original experimental procedures which will also be examined in classroom demonstrations on film and videotape. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C350 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C351
Astronomy, Cosmology and the Space Age

The nature of the universe as described in both contemporary and historical astronomical theories; cosmology and its cultural context; the nature of scientific method in astronomy; life on other worlds; the social implications of space flight. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C351 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C450
Advanced Study in Technology and Society

Prerequisite: SCHA C250, C251, or permission of the Coordinator. The social role and impact of technology in modern society; alienation in the technological age; the critique of technology; the sources and processes of discovery; invention and innovation; methods of technological assessment and forecasting. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C450 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C451
Advanced Study in the History of Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Seminar in a selected topic in the History of Science. The emphasis will be on encouraging students to conduct historical investigation on their own under a professor's guidance. The specific content will vary from year to year depending on the instructor. (6 credits)

NOTE: With the permission of the Coordinator students may take this course twice for credits provided that a different subject is dealt with the second time and will register under SCHA C452.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C451 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C452
Advanced Study in the History of Science

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Students who have received credit for

SCHA C451 may register for SCHA C452 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C452 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C453
Science and Public Policy

Prerequisite: SCHA C250, C251, one course in Political Science or permission of the Coordinator or the Department. This course will deal with the relationship between science and government. Particular emphasis is placed on such problems as the role of the scientist in political decision-making, the making of Canadian science policy, the mix of basic, applied and mission-oriented research, the relations of science and the military, the nature of technocracy and the role of science in economically developing nations. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C453 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C454
Seminar in Science and Human Affairs

Prerequisite: Enrolment in Major or Specialization in Science and Human Affairs, or permission of the Coordinator. Taught by all members of staff, this seminar affords an opportunity for intensive examination of an explicitly interdisciplinary theme. (6 credits)

NOTE: With the permission of the Coordinator students may take this course twice for credits provided that a different subject is dealt with the second time and will register under SCHA C455.

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C454 may not take this course for credits.

SCIENCE AND HUMAN AFFAIRS C455
Seminar in Science and Human Affairs

Prerequisite: Permission of the Coordinator. Students who have received credit for SCHA C454 may register for SCHA C455 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C455 may not take this course for credits.

6 Chosen from SOCI C409[6]*, POLI C438[6]

 On approval of the Honours Adviser, the prerequisites for SOCI C409 may be modified for students in this programme.*

Because of the renumbering of Sociology courses, students should see Section 200 for a list of equivalent courses.

SOCIOLOGY C200
Introduction to Sociology

Introduction to the basic concepts used in the study of social structure, processes, and change. Survey of the substantive areas of social life ranging from the relations between individuals and groups to institutions and total societies. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C210
Statistics

An introduction to those descriptive and inferential statistics most applicable to the discipline of Sociology. (6 credits) NOTE See §200.7

SOCIOLOGY C220
Social Organization

Examines the basic characteristics of societal organization through the use of comparative and evolutionary perspectives. Conceptual analysis of specific forms of, and changes in, the comprehensive pattern of social organization. (3 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C230
Race and Ethnic Relations

Race and ethnicity are examined as bases of social differentiation. Ethnic group relations are analyzed in relation to stratification and the exercise of power. Explorations of the phenomena of discrimination, prejudice, and intergroup accommodation. (3 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C260
Deviance

Examination of the nature, forms, sources, and consequences of deviations from social norms and the mechanisms of social order and control. Theories of deviant behavior, including juvenile delinquency, and their social, legal, and practical implications are considered. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C261
Social Problems

Consideration of a range of social problems from a sociological perspective. Examination of the process by which "problems" are socially defined and recognized. (3 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C270
Socialization

Examination of the social and cultural processes by which the individual becomes a functioning member of society. Attention given to adult socialization and re-socialization in diverse institutional contexts; e.g., schools, occupations, hospitals, prisons, the military. The relation of social structure to role acquisition and role performance is a major focus of the course. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C272
The Family

The family as an institution is examined in relation to social structure and historical change. Special emphasis is placed on trends in the nuclear family patterns of contemporary North American society, and on the relation of the family to the broader societal environment. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C280
Quebec Society
Focus upon the historic changes in Quebec society, with emphasis upon the the period following the Second World War. Examination of issues which have provoked conflicting interpretations, including the Conquest, the nature of Confederation, Quebec nationalism, and the language question. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C282
Canadian Society
Analysis of Canadian social structure and change; the relation of the whole of Canadian society to its constituent elements; the relation of Canadian society to its international environment. (6 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C290
Selected Topics in Sociology A
Study of a special topic in sociology. (3 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C291
Selected Topics in Sociology B
Study of a special topic in sociology. (3 credits)

SOCIOLOGY C300
Classical Social Theory

ANTHROPOLOGY C211
Introduction to Anthropology
An introduction to the fields of Anthropology: facts and ideas about the nature of the human species and its past; and the search for the causes of social and cultural differences and similarities. This course deals with the diversity of languages, of family and marriage systems, religious beliefs and rituals, political and economic organizations. Examples are drawn from past and present societies, from western and non-western cultures. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C301
Oral Literature
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course will acquaint students with various types of oral poetry, historical tales, myths, and personal narratives from indigenous cultures of Africa, Oceania, and North America. The discussion of these materials will focus on contemporary anthropological issues, such as: 1) The various modes of conceptualizing time and historical truth, man's relation to nature and to his fellow man; 2) The reliability of narrator-informants as spokesmen for their own cultures. Translations of transcribed primary sources are supplemented by background lectures on the cultures studied. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C302
Art, Aesthetics, and Anthropology
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course introduces students to painting, sculpture, costume decoration, masks, music, and dance in different, non-industrial, cultural settings. Readings and lectures focus on contrasting values concerning beauty in various cultural and historical settings. The ways in which different cultures have expressed and explained their aesthetic values will be presented, alongside interpretations by anthropologists and art historians. The course will employ slides and readings. Students will attend films and possibly local galleries whenever they show relevant materials. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C321
The Stateless Societies of Africa
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The course will survey stateless societies spread across the Sudan into Nigeria. The course will outline hominid evolution in Eastern and Southern Africa and sketch the outlines of African prehistory as reconstructed by archeologists. These will be followed by an investigation of such present-day hunters and gatherers as the Kalahari Bushmen and the Ituri forest Pygmies. The bulk of the course will study a number of stateless societies in the area, such as the pastoral Nuer and the agricultural Tiv. Particular emphasis will be given to the ways in which kinship and marriage organize social, political, and economic relations and preserve social order in these cultures without institutionalized chieftainship. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C322
Early States and New Nations of Africa
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A survey of chiefdoms and early states in Africa, and of the response of Africa's peoples to colonial rule and new nationhood. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C325
Magic, Science, and Religion
Prerequisite: ANTH C211, or RELI C211 or C213, or permission of the Department. A comparative study of beliefs, ritual, and ceremony in tribal, peasant, and modern societies. Consideration of anthropological theories regarding the development and functions of supernaturalistic and naturalistic modes of thought. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C362
Aboriginal Indian and Inuit Social Organizations
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. Description and analysis of the diverse aboriginal forms of social and political organization of North American Indian and Inuit populations. Archaeology is briefly considered to ascertain whether it may provide explanations for the different levels of societal complexity which separated these cultures from one another at the time of first contact with Europeans. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C364
Peoples and Cultures of India
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course will deal with the development of these cultures from their earliest manifestation to the present. Emphasis will be upon the interrelations of techno-economic, social structural, and ideological aspects, with considerable attention to recent and prospective changes. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C365
Chinese Culture and Society
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course will deal with the development of Chinese culture from its earliest manifestation to the present. Emphasis will be upon the interrelations of techno-economic, social structural, and ideological aspects, with considerable attention to recent and prospective changes. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C367
Peoples and Cultures of Southeast Asia
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course will deal with the development of these cultures from their earliest manifestation to the present. Emphasis will be upon the interrelations of techno-economic, social structural, and ideological aspects, with considerable attention to recent and prospective changes. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C368
Peoples and Cultures of the Caribbean
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. A comparative study of Caribbean peoples and cultures, their history in colonization and slavery, their current similarities in diversity. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C369
Anthropology of Dependency
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. This course examines the phenomenon of dependency in terms of economic, political, and social linkages that may exist between economically advanced and traditional societies. An analysis of the structure of dependency will be followed by discussions of its effects upon traditional cultures. Case-study material will be drawn from the literature on tribal and peasant cultures, as well as from literature on those Canadian communities the economies of which have remained at the subsistence level. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C394
Topics in Ethnography I
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The area studied will vary yearly, reflecting students' interests and requests. This course, like other courses in Group A, offers a presentation of cultural and societal forms in a given area. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C395
Topics in Ethnography II
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The area studied will vary yearly, reflecting students' interests and requests. This course, like other courses in Group A, offers a presentation of cultural and societal forms in a given area. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C397
Topics in Culture and Society I
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The topic will vary yearly, reflecting students' interests. This course, like other courses in Group B, offers the analysis of aspects of social life in a comparative perspective, drawing examples from a world sample of societies or cultures. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C398
Topics in Culture and Society II
Prerequisite: ANTH C211 or equivalent, or permission of the Department. The topic will vary yearly, reflecting students' interests. This course, like other courses in Group B, offers an analysis of aspects of social life in a comparative perspective, drawing examples from a world sample of societies or cultures. (3 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C426
Symbolic Anthropology
Prerequisites: 12 credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. Comparative examination of the interaction between symbols systems and other components of society (e.g.political and economic). Religious ceremonies, rituals, rites of passage, myths, folk-tales, etiquette, and social conventions (from both western and non-western societies) will first be analyzed as sytems of communication. The effects of these phenomena upon the continuity of social structures will then be examined. Important publications by the major writers in this field will be closely examined: Levi-Strauss, Leach, Turner, Geertz, Sperber, Althusser, Baudrillard, and Barthes. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C434
Anthropological Theories

Prerequisites: 12 credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. A study of the major schools of thought in social-cultural anthropology, such as functionalism, structuralism, the American historical school, evolutionism, cultural materialism, Marxism, and symbolic analysis. Important publications by the major writers in these fields will be closely examined. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C459
Political Anthropology

Prerequisites: 12 credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. An examination of political process and political organization in cross-cultural perspective. Part I considers the differing approaches to political organization and processes, leadership, power, and authority in non-western cultures of various degrees of complexity. Part II analyzes social conflict in relation to politics, social continuity, and social change. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C460
Social Anthropology

Prerequisites: 12 credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. The first term will cover a range of techniques for analyzing descent and marriage in societies where these are the most important and all-encompassing social relations. Examples of systems of kinship nomenclature, methods of reckoning descent, and rules of marriage will be chosen from different societies throughout the world. The student will be introduced to a series of important anthropological debates concerning the relative significance of descent and marriage in these systems. During the second term, the focus will shift to cultures in which the various functions of the bonds of kinship and marriage have been taken over by government, markets, law courts, and other institutions. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C469
Economic Anthropology

Prerequisites: 12 credits in 300-level Anthropology, or permission of the Department. The study of the interrelations among production, exchange, and apportionment of goods and services in non-industrial societies. Conditions for the replication of such economic systems over time. Materials are drawn from societies in Africa, in Asia, in pre-capitalist Europe, in native America, and in the Pacific culture areas. The first term is devoted to a review of theories regarding the nature of economics within non-industrial societies and methods used in the analysis of their modes of production. The second term is concerned with selected case-studies. The course concludes with an appraisal of economic life in non-industrial societies and of the modifications brought to the human experience by capitalism. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C494
New Topics in Anthropology

Prerequisites: 12 credits in Anthropology 300-level courses, or permission of the Department. Subject matter will vary yearly to take advantage of the special aptitudes of the instructor. As in every 400-level course, this course is theoretically oriented and reflects current trends in Anthropology. (6 credits)

ANTHROPOLOGY C499
Honours Essay

Prerequisites: Third-year standing in Honours Anthropology. Under the supervision of an Anthropology staff member, the student will prepare an Honours essay on a subject chosen in consultation with, and approved by, the professor. (6 credits)

CERTIFICATE IN THE TEACHING OF ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

Admission Requirements

1. Candidates must have an appropriate teacher's certificate, or the equivalent of one year's experience as a full-time language teacher.

2. Candidates must demonstrate competence in spoken and written English. They may be tested formally, as well as through the normal admissions procedures.

3. Reasonable fluency in French is necessary for students who will teach in the French school system.

4. Candidates who meet these admission requirements, but who have not taught English as a second language in a classroom for a minimum of 400 hours, should arrange to include a practice teaching or internship course in their programme.

NOTE: Candidates who wish to obtain le certificat de spécialisation must have a teaching diploma recognized by Quebec, at either the elementary or secondary level. In Quebec, the holder of the Certificate is granted one year's scolarité (D.G.E.E.S. Adm. 73-54 sec 1.1.1.6). Upon successful completion of this programme, it is the responsibility of the individual to apply through the Registrar's Services Department for le certificat de spécialisation.

Elementary, Secondary, or Adult Option

This is a 30-credit programme comprising courses in the Teaching of English as a Second Language and English. It is offered in the day and evening divisions and the special summer session. The 30 credits that comprise this certificate are an integral part of the 90-credit requirement for the BEd (TESL) degree.

a) Elementary Option
6 ENGL C211[6]
6 English Literature, to be approved by the Centre
18 TESL C211[3], C221[3], C231[3], C322[3], C415[3], C422[3]

b) Secondary and Adult Options
6 ENGL C211[6]
6 English Literature, to be approved by the Centre
18 TESL C211[3], C221[3], C231[3], C323[3], C415[3], C423[3]

* NOTE: Upon successful completion of the BEd programme, and application to the Registrar's Services Department, students may be recommended to the Quebec Teachers Certification Service for a Teaching Permit (Probation) in English as a Second Language. Previously certified teachers will be recommended for a Teaching Diploma. Upon successful completion of the certificat or the Certificate programme, students (applying in the same way) may also be recommended for appropriate teacher certification.

To be recommended for certification (Permit or Diploma), students must achieve at least a C (65%) grade in methodology and teaching practice courses: that is,

1. for the BEd elementary option, in TESL C322 and C422; and TESL C382 and C482;

2. for the BEd secondary option, in TESL C323 and C423; and TESL C383 and C483;

3. for the certificat elementary option, in TESL C322, C422 and C479;

4. or the certificat secondary option, in TESL C323, C423 and C479;

5. for the certificate elementary option, in TESL C322 and C422; and

6. for the certificate secondary option, in TESL C323 and C423.

Students who obtain a passing grade that is below the level required for recommendation for certification will be placed on conditional standing within the programme and will be so informed in writing by the Director of the TESL Centre. Students will be allowed to repeat the course(s) in question only once in order to achieve the required grade. (For the status of this grade as part of the student record, see calendar § 16.3.8.)

Students who fail to repeat the course successfully within one year will, to remain in the programme, be required to acknowledge in writing that they have forfeited the right to be recommended for certification.

Students who obtain a failing grade (F, R or NR) in any of the courses listed in paragraphs (1) to (6) above will be required to withdraw from the programme and will also be so informed in writing by the Director of the TESL Centre.

In the event that a student meets regular University standards but does not satisfy the requirements for recommendation for certification, the student may apply to receive the University degree, certificat or certificate, but will not be recommended to the Ministry.

NOTE: Upon admission, students may be granted exemptions from courses in TESL programmes if they have completed equivalent work at the university level.

Replacement for these exemptions must be made in accordance with the guidelines established by the TESL Centre and approved by the University. Copies of these guidelines may be obtained in the TESL Centre.

ESL 100
English Language
A course for students whose first language is other than English and who require additional training in order to achieve a level of expression acceptable to the university. The focus of the course is primarily on the development and improvement of writing skills. All candidates will be tested prior to entry. (6 credits, which may not be applied to the degree programme of students admitted to the University on the basis of the D.E.C. or formal academic equivalent.). NOTE A/See § 200.1

ESL C201
English Language and Composition
Prerequisite: Successful completion of ESL 100, or placement by the Concordia English Language Diagnostic test. This course is designed for non-English students who have completed secondary school or its equivalent in a language other than English. The course encourages the development of effective written communication and improved reading comprehension, so that the student may perform competently in his other university work. (6 credits) NOTE A/See § 200.1

ESL C203

THEOLOGY C499
Theology Tutorial II

Prerequisite: Successful completion of THEO C498. With permission of the Department, in special cases a second tutorial or a continuation of a tutorial under Theology C498 may be given to students who request it. (3 credits)

31.340 Urban Studies

Coordinator
A. MELAMED, Associate Professor

The Urban Studies Programme introduces the student, through such disciplines as Economics, Sociology, Geography, and Political Science, to the many areas of research and theory relevant to the modern city and its problems. It also provides the necessary background for later post-graduate specialization in some aspect of urban research.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

The superscript indicates credit value.

Students should consult with the Programme Coordinator prior to registering for Urban Studies courses.

72 BA Honours in Urban Studies

18 Chosen from URBS C280[6]*, C380[6], C481[6], GEOG C433[6]
6 SOCI C200[6] or GEOG C211[6]*
9 ECON C201[3], C203[3], C392[3]

COURSES

URBAN STUDIES C280
Urban Development

An introductory course in Urban Development using an interdisciplinary approach to the process of urbanization, the city as a social system, the city as an economic system and the built environment. The material will be presented by films, tapes and special readings. (6 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C280 may not take this course for credits.

URBAN STUDIES C380
Urban Planning in Historical Perspective

An overview of the cycle of city growth, decline, decay and resurgence from the earliest settlements to the present day. Each stage of urban transformation is related to the economic, social, political and technological forces which engendered them. The reference material would include films of older urban areas still in active use, as well as new towns and urban districts. Field trips to different sections of the Montreal region will emphasize different historic periods of development. Class assignments will focus on historic analyses of urban areas as a background to planning. (6 credits) NOTE: Students who have received credit for HIST C380 or INTE C380 may not take this course for credit.

URBAN STUDIES C481
Seminar in Urban Studies I

Seminar limited to second and third year students in the Urban Studies programme. An advanced seminar on the urban phenomenon as it occurs in the Canadian context. It will explore relevant urban issues and seek the development of urban policy positions. Students will be asked to prepare and submit appropriate research policy papers. (6 credits) NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C481 may not take this course for credits.

URBAN STUDIES C482
Seminar in Urban Studies II

Prerequisite: URBS C481 and permission of the Coordinator. Field assignment(s) in an urban activity area of interest to the student. Seminar will provide for interchange of field experiences, evaluations, problem solving. (6 credits) NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C482 may not take this course for credits.

31.400 Computer Science

The Department of Computer Science offers a Minor in Computer Science available to students in the Faculty of Arts and Science. For further details of this programme, see §71.8.5.

For discontinued programmes formerly offered by the Loyola Faculty of Arts and Science and by the Sir George Williams Faculty of Science, refer to §71.8.7 of the 1979-80 University Calendar.

All courses in Computer Science are acceptable as Science credits in the Bachelor of Science degree except the following (though these are of course acceptable as general electives within the degree):

COMP C217
Computers in Society
(3 credits)

COMP C251
Introduction to Business Programming
(3 credits)

COMP C351
Advanced Cobol Programming
(3 credits)

COMP C455
Principles of Data Processing
(3 credits)

COMP C456
Information Retrieval
(3 credits)

31.410 Courses Offered in Summer 1980 Only

BIO-PHYSICAL EDUCATION C464
Recreation Internship
(6 credits)

BIO-PHYSICAL EDUCATION C472
Outdoor Education in the Secondary School Curriculum

The Faculty of Arts and Science is the largest Faculty in the University. It offers programmes based on sound scholarship, together with a high calibre of teaching and research.

In order to combat the depersonalization so often found in a large Faculty, the Faculty of Arts and Science has created smaller, more manageable units offering a personalized approach to education. At present, there are seven such units in existence: Centre for Mature Students, Institute for Cooperative Education, Liberal Arts College, Lonergan University College, School of Community and Public Affairs, Science College, and Simone de Beauvoir Institute. Each college, centre, school or institute is composed of a group of students and Fellows who are united by a particular philosophy of education.

Each unit operates in much the same fashion. Normally a student admitted to the University will enroll in a specific Department-based programme -- a Major, Specialization, or Honours. Students in the Liberal Arts College may, however, elect to enroll in the College Major in Western Society and Culture instead of in a Departmental programme. Similarly, students in the Simone de Beauvoir Institute may enroll in a Major programme in Women's Studies. Students attracted by the particular educational opportunities offered by one of the units of Division IV will apply to the unit in question. Once admitted to the College, Institute, School, or Centre of their choice, students may benefit from the academic curriculum, the extra-curricular activities, and social and intellectual environment provided in each of these units. It is the goal of Division IV to assist students to broaden their specialized disciplinary education with carefully chosen electives, with specially designed tutorials, and with career-oriented advising, all set in a more personal and friendly "university college" environment.

Each unit has a physical location of its own, where its students may gather to exchange ideas, whether in the classroom or in one of the lounges provided for such interaction. As well, there is a library of basic books and periodical literature. From time to time, there will be planned activities, special-interest seminars, and stimulating lectures by invited guest speakers.

Each unit has a group of faculty members from within the University assigned as Fellows or Tutors, whose major function will be to act as student advisers. Together, students and Fellows or Tutors plan a carefully integrated undergraduate programme based on the philosophy of education promoted.

The advantage of this approach to education is that students may utilize the resources of a large Arts and Science Faculty, yet still enjoy the effective interchange of ideas that only a small unit can provide.

Concordia University has a tradition of concern for the education of mature students; it has always sought to assist students of 21 and over to undertake undergraduate studies.

The primary aim of the Centre for Mature Students is to develop services to students returning to formal studies after an absence of many years. It is difficult to plunge suddenly into a very large urban university after years away from classes and studying; therefore, the Fellows and Staff of the Centre hope to reach out to all Mature-Entry students to offer them encouragement and guidance. The Centre has quarters on both campuses, that function as a "home base" for students who want counselling or are simply in need of some social contact with their peers. Newly equipped lounge facilities are provided in which students may meet.

Furthermore, the Centre has Fellows chosen from a cross-section of faculty members especially interested in the problems encountered by adults working towards a degree. Fellows of the Centre will be on hand at appointed times to offer advice and information on such matters as the choice of initial courses at the outset of studies and the variety of Concordia's programme offerings for those ready to embark on their field of undergraduate concentration. At all times, someone will be present to answer questions on both the Sir George Williams and the Loyola campuses.

It is the intention of everyone involved in the work of the Centre to provide mature students with a sense of belonging and thus help them gain the self-confidence so necessary for successful university work.

The Centre will be open from 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Friday. The Centre for Mature Students has two locations, as follows:

The Sir George Williams Campus
Hall Building
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd. W.
4th Floor
Suite H-462
Tel: 879-7269, -7271, -7277

The Loyola Campus
Central Building
7141 Sherbrooke Street West
3rd Floor
Room CC-308
Tel: 482-0320, Ext. 263

General Information

The Mature-Entry means of access to the University is designed to enable individuals who are 21 years of age or older, and who have not satisfied the normal admission requirements, but have demonstrated potential, to take undergraduate programmes. The University assumes that the age of the students will have allowed them to acquire informally some of the general education given to younger students at the collegial level and, as a result, the additional credits required of Mature Entrants are intended to supply the knowledge and skills which will be needed to undertake a given programme of specialization.

While they are obtaining these additional credits, mature students are considered in every way to be undergraduates.

The additional number of credits required of students who do not possess the necessary academic prerequisites to start immediately the 90-credit undergraduate programme is set out in Section 14 of this calendar, where Mature Entrants will also find information about specific requirements, recommended courses, etc..

31.515 Institute for Co-Operative Education

The Institute for Co-Operative Education at Concordia University has launched a Chemistry Co-Operative Programme (Chem Co-Op) as the first of a number of co-operative programmes to be offered by the University.

The Co-Operative Philosophy

Co-operative education is an educational process in which academic study terms are alternated with work terms in industry, giving students practical on-the-job experience in the area of their choice while continuing their work towards a degree.

Essentially, it is a system that integrates the interests of employer organizations, educators and students towards the attainment of common goals.

The Co-Operative Education concept as practised in a number of Canadian universities, has not only proved viable but has been outstandingly successful in developing career opportunities for students of almost any discipline. So much so, that a recent survey showed that Co-Op students are a university's most marketable product and major companies who have participated in Co-Op programmes readily admit that preference in hiring is given to the Co-Op student. With some companies, the practice has become commom to recruit from among Co-Op graduates when looking for candidates with leadership potential for future positions.

Although the potential rewards from completion of the Co-Op programme are great, students should keep in mind that the programme, with its alternating academic and work terms, is highly demanding.

How Co-Op Works

Admission to Co-Op

Students indicate that they wish to apply to the Co-Op by filling in the appropriate box on the University Admissions Form. Students are also asked to submit a resumé of past work experience and a statement of the reasons for their interest in the programme. Selected students will then be invited to an interview, and asked to expand on reasons for their interest. Students accepted to the programme will be assigned an Institute Fellow as an adviser.

Co-Op Performance Requirements

Accepted applicants to Concordia's Co-Op Institute enrol as regular undergraduates in the programme of their choice and are subject to the academic regulations that apply to their programme. The Co-Op programme consists of six academic terms interspersed with five work terms, one of which is optional, for a total commitment of forty months over four years.

Co-operative members who are registered in Honours programmes must meet the Honours academic requirements. Other students are also expected to maintain high academic standards.

The evaluation of the four required work terms will be documented on an assessment form completed by the employer and a Work Term Report submitted by the student at the conclusion of each work term. These papers are evaluated by at least two faculty members of the department concerned. The Work Term Reports are not considered for degree credits, and they are marked on a pass/fail basis. Failure to meet the Co-Op Performance Requirements will result in the dismissal of the student from the Co-Op programme and hence the Institute.

The Work Term

The Institute for Co-Operative Education or any department offering a Co-Op plan is not to be construed as a placement operation or a cheap labour apprenticeship. The Work Term is an essential part of the student's learning experience and there is to be equitable remuneration paid for work performed. The process by which students and employers choose each other for the Work Term is as follows.

Initially, as job opportunities are formulated, they will be posted in the Co-Op office early in the academic term preceding a work term. With the aid of their adviser, students will select up to six of the most appealing offers, and compile a resumé and submit an application for interview appointments to the prospective employers through the Co-Op Director. With the completion of the interviews, the employer and students separately state their order of preference to the Co-Op Director. He will then combine the two sets of choices to effect the best possible match of employer and student. It must be stressed that the securing of full-time employment after graduation is the responsibility of the student. During the work term, the Institute will continue to carry out its teaching responsibility by having a Fellow visit the students at their place of work to evaluate the work performance, gauge the learning opportunities, assess the compatibility of student and employer and, if necessary, take corrective action.

Advantages of a Co-Op Education

The training in theory and practice in a structured and purposeful manner allows the student to come to terms with the realities of professional development in a way that allows for the development of self-confidence, self-reliance and self-motivation. From the work terms, students learn to accept responsibility and the importance of deadlines. Realistic career expectations may be more easily formed. In the Institute, besides technical knowledge and practical experience, students gain skills in interpersonal relations through participation in seminars, workshops, talks and, of course, through social activities.

Employers benefit as well. The employer who agrees to co-operate with the Institute gains through the opportunity to evaluate prospective personnel, without making permanent employment commitments, and the availability of students on a year-round basis. In recruiting permanent employees, they have available to them trained graduates who can be slotted into an operation without a training period. These advantages are seen as rewards in terms of lower turnover in trained personnel as the Co-Op graduates know what their goals are. Hence the economic return is one of much lower recruiting costs for experienced staff. The collaboration between employers and faculty provides an opportunity for employers to contribute to the educational process and to gain clearer insights into the University's resources from which he can draw.

Chemistry Co-Operative Programme

The Chemistry Co-Operative Programme is offered to students who are enrolled in the B.Sc. Honours or Specialization in Chemistry, Specialization in Biochemistry and Specialization in Analytical Chemistry.

Students in Chem Co-Op enrol in a regular academic programme. The schedule of academic and work periods for an entering group of Chem Co-Op students is given below.

The overseeing of the Chem Co-Op Programme is the responsibility of a Chem Co-Op Committee.

The members of the Chem Co-Op Committee and the Institute Fellows provide the connecting link between students, employers and the University. They visit students on the job, call on prospective employers, act as advisers to the students, and are available to deal with special problems that may arise.

Liberal Arts College provides students with a broad, demanding educational foundation in the liberal arts. Its curriculum is an alternative for students dissatisfied with premature specialization and fragmentation of knowledge. Defining the "liberal arts" in contemporary terms, the College stresses work in a Core Curriculum of related courses, seminars, and tutorials in the humanities, social sciences, art, music, and science. Its core courses stress the acquisition of basic knowledge and research and writing skills, as well as an awareness of interpretative problems and advanced analytic approaches. The Core Curriculum, in turn, makes for informed choices in the College's second major component, advanced work, and research in a specific discipline or area.

Objectives

The major goal of Liberal Arts College is to assist the student in the process of becoming an educated person. The College seeks to translate into modern idioms the traditional vision of education as a preparation for life. Its core courses and seminars, sharing a common concern with the changing nature of society and culture, aim at the development of an informed critical consciousness.

Emphasis is also placed on sharpening the basic expressive and analytic tools indispensable to social and cultural understanding. All College students are expected to acquire a knowledge of a second language (normally, French), necessary for their research, and to write and to express themselves clearly. Training in research techniques is stressed, and original, independent work encouraged.

Liberal Arts College, linking demanding general education to significant specialization, is committed to serious intellectual work. Through its curriculum, staff, standards, and academic environment, it hopes to communicate the excitement and creativity of such engagement to its students.

Liberal Arts College Admissions and Programme Requirements

Students admitted to the University and seeking to enter the College must have a "B" average from CEGEP, or its equivalent. All students upon admission must demonstrate proficiency in English composition and a second language, or undertake necessary make-up work. All applicants should apply through the University Admissions Office; they should also call or write the College for an interview. Mature students are admitted to the College on the basis of an interview and an examination of their record. Full-time degree candidates will normally complete their College Core Curriculum within three academic years; part-time degree candidates should complete their College Core Curriculum within six academic years. Students who have been admitted to departmental Honours programmes must maintain a "B" average in their College Core Curriculum; all others must maintain a "C" average in their College Core Curriculum. All Honours students in the College are expected to undertake significant original work, on a staff-guided basis, in their final year.

Les étudiants francophones devront donner la preuve de leur connaissance de la langue anglaise.

Staff

Faculty Fellows chosen from the University's departments form the staff of all College courses, seminars, and tutorials. Teaching Fellows are resident in the College, as is its Principal, who also teaches in the Core Curriculum. It is intended that, each year, a Distinguished Visiting Fellow, selected on the basis of outstanding academic achievement and renown, will be resident and will teach in the College.

Facilities

Liberal Arts College is located on Concordia University's downtown Sir George Williams Campus. Much of its seminar and tutorial teaching is done in the same building that houses the College's Principal and Senior Fellows. The College has student study areas, a course-materials library, and audio-visual facilities, as well as Common Rooms and a collection of important newspapers, journals, and periodicals. The College is the focus of an extra-curricular programme of visiting speakers and cultural events, and is a place where the exchange of ideas and views generated in courses and seminars continues on a more informal basis.

Counselling

Close student-faculty contact and exchange is part of the Liberal Arts College's stress on serious intellectual work. Each student is assigned to a faculty Fellow who acts as a personal adviser, and who follows the student's progress through the College, advising on the choice of disciplinary or area specialization. All students' work is evaluated annually by the Principal and Fellows.

College Council

Council, composed of Fellows and students, is the formal decision-making body of Liberal Arts College. It meets regularly, under the chairmanship of the Principal, as a forum in which current issues and future policy are discussed and decisions taken. Council is that body which ensures the democratic participation of all members of the College in its on-going academic and extra-curricular work.

Programmes

All Liberal Arts College students must take the Core Curriculum. These inter-related courses, including seminar and tutorial work, as well as the final-year Integrative Seminar, constitute a significant segment of the course work required for College-sponsored B.A. programmes. Liberal Arts College stresses Honours work, although a student may, with the permission of the College, combine the Core Curriculum with a departmental Specialization or Majors programme, or with the Individual Studies Programmes. Selected students may, with College permission, be admitted to the College's BA Major in Western Society and Culture.

In order to complete the requirements for the Major in Western Society and Culture students must take, in consultation with the Liberal Arts College, an additional 24 credits within one department of the Faculty.

Further information on core courses and College programmes generally may be obtained either by writing for the Liberal Arts College Informational Brochure or by calling the College Secretary (2010 Mackay St., Montreal, Quebec H3G 1M8, tel: 879-8051). Personal interviews with a Fellow of Liberal Arts College may be arranged through the Secretary.

Admission into a Departmental Honours Programme requires the approval of the Department.

Students seeking admission to a Departmental Honours Programme will be bound by the Honours requirements outlined in §16.2.4 of this calendar.

COURSES

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C291
Structure and Dynamics of Western Civilization

Prerequisite: Registration in the Liberal Arts College, or permission of the College. A study of the changing relations between productive structures, socio-political institutions and cultural traditions from antiquity to the present. This course emphasizes the analysis of social change over time, and requires reading in a variety of primary sources and secondary materials. Primary sources such as Aristotle's Politics, Aquinas' Summa Theologiae, and Rousseau's Discourse on Inequality, and works such as Marc Bloch's Feudal Society, and Eric Hobsbawm's Age of Revolutions will be read. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C292
Modes of Expression and Interpretation

Prerequisite: Registration in the Liberal Arts College, or permission of the College. A survey of major Western literary, religious, and philosophical traditions, involving the reading and interpretation of significant primary texts from antiquity to the contemporary period. Emphasis is placed on development of writing skills and interpretive analysis. Works such as the Odyssey, Plato's Symposium, Goethe's Faust, And Dostoievsky's Crime and Punishment will be studied. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C293
Art and Aesthetic Experience

Prerequisite: Registration in the Liberal Arts College, or permission of the College. An integrated course in the nature and development of music and the visual arts, with work in criticism and aesthetic theory. The course examines artistic expressions through thematic and chronological approaches and includes attention to issues concerning the creative process and the relation of art to society. Slide viewing and music listening are part of the course. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C391
Contemporary Civilization

Prerequisites: LBCL C291, C292, C293, or permission of the College. Analysis of the dynamic relations between individual, state, and society in the recent contemporary world. Classical perspectives and contemporary analysis derived from the social sciences will be brought to bear on selected social, economic, ideological, and political problems. Students will read from such works as Hegel's Phenomenology, M. Weber's Economy and Society, Marx's Capital and S. Freud's Interpretation of Dreams. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C392
The Sciences in Society

Prerequisites: LBCL C291, C292, C293, or permission of the College. An introduction to the nature, development, organization, and social consequences of the scientific enterprise. Issues in the philosophy, sociology, and history of science, as well as in the relation of technology to science and to society, are emphasized. Works such as E.R. Dodds, The Greeks and the Irrational, K. Thomas, Religion and the Decline of Magic, And R.K. Merton's Science, Technology and Society, will be read, as well as a number of original sources like Aristotle's Physics and Darwin's Origin of Species. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C393
Contemporary Modes of Expression and Interpretation

Prerequisites: LBCL C291, C292, and C293, or permission of the College. An advanced seminar organized on a topical and thematic basis and emphasising intensive, sustained analysis of a limited number of fundamentally important literary, religious, and philosophical works. Stress is placed on bringing critical and interpretative approaches to bear on the texts in a series of extended written papers. It permits the requisite sustained analysis of authors such as Kant, Hegel, Kierkegaard, Mann, and Joyce. (6 credits)

LIBERAL ARTS COLLEGE C490
Integrative Seminar

Prerequisites: Two of LBCL C391, C392, C393, or permission of the College. The College research seminar will relate the student's disciplinary or area specialization to the general perspectives of the Liberal Arts College Core Curriculum. The seminar topic will vary from year to year, and students will be required to produce a significant research paper. (6 credits)

General Philosophy

Lonergan University College is named after Dr. Bernard Lonergan, a former student and, later, a professor of Loyola College, Montreal, who has since moved on to an international career. He is recognized throughout the Western world as one of the most significant thinkers in this century.

The Fellows of Lonergan University College are convinced that the deepest issues of life are implicitly involved in all the academic disciplines, and that both honesty and sanity demand that we attend to this fact and reflect upon it. The College is not governed by any religion or church, but is directly concerned with human aspirations, with ultimate values, and with the attempts of human institutions to serve this vitality. It asks questions that arise at the authentic centre of humanity, questions about meaning, about soul, about the spiritual, about God.

Lonergan University College offers its students all the resources of Concordia University. Lonergan students take a regular degree programme in the department of their choice on either of the two campuses of Concordia University. Moreover, the College aims to contribute to a style of life which will heighten intellectual experience and enrich personal growth during the student's university years. It does this, not by claiming to "raise standards", but rather by demanding that its students relate what they learn to their personal lives and deeper values.

A university is the place where the universe should be discussed and intellectually appropriated. Conversation, as much as courses or research, is at the heart of university life. It is precisely this aspect of university life that has been undermined in this century by the incredible growth in knowledge itself, and by the proliferation of specialties. What universal knowledge is now possible? What do students have in common to discuss?

Lonergan University College believes that there is something in common to be discussed, and dedicates its resources to assure the depth and vitality of that discussion. It involves all its members, both students and Fellows, in structured conversation that will grow in breadth and meaning through the three years of a student's university career.

Objectives

The immediate objective of Lonergan University College is to provide for and demand a healthy university life for its students and Fellows. The College courses, seminars, and social environment all stress interaction, with the intent of bringing students to the wholeness of life and knowledge.

It is our belief that university life is an important phase of personal growth - a time when one consciously assimilates what is deepest in oneself, defines one's personal values, and sets worthwhile goals in life. Contributing to this growth is the immediate objective of Lonergan University College.

A broader objective of Lonergan University College is to form a centre for the renewal of our culture. We perceive Quebec, and, in particular, Montreal, as a unique cultural centre, with strong religious roots (especially Catholic, Protestant, Jewish), and with vibrant ethnic communities which have been involved over decades in a political and cultural interchange of great intensity. Lonergan University College consciously attempts to "marry" the intellectual and the vital. In adopting Lonergan as a name, it acknowledges a "general systems theory" in which not only the diverse academic disciplines may speak to each other, but also human aspiration may grow. Lonergan students, coming alive together in their diversity, will hopefully form a nucleus of renewed life in Quebec.

Programmes

The normal degree requirements of the Arts and Science Faculty of Concordia University govern students of Lonergan University College.

1. All students of the College will be enrolled in a Major, Specialization, or Honours programme in the department of their choice.

2. Each year, students will be required to attend the College seminar. (3 credits each year - total of 9 credits required).

3. The College plans to offer two six-credit courses each year. The topics will be chosen from any one of the disciplines of the Arts and Science Faculty, and will be treated with particular attention being paid to implied ultimate values, to socio-ethical dimensions, and to other aspects of concern. Each student will be required to take at least one such College course during the three-year programme. (6 credits required)

4. Beyond the requirements listed above, students will complete their programmes with "elective courses". These are chosen by the student in consultation with a faculty adviser, who will be a Fellow of Lonergan University College. The College will provide a list of courses that it finds especially relevant to its own perspectives.

15 Lonergan University College: Required Curriculum

9 LUCC C302[3], C304[3], C306[3]

Students will normally participate in the College Seminar, under the course designations listed above, in each successive year of their programmes. Part-time students, and students attending the University for more than a three-year period, must register for the College Seminar in three of their years of study.

6 Chosen from LUCC C320[6], C326[3], LUCC C340[6], C346[3], LUCC C360[6], C366[3]

For this required course, students may substitute a course (or two half-courses) which has been "adopted" by LUC from a Departmental offering, and cross-listed as a College offering.

Students must meet the degree requirements of the Faculty of Arts and Science, and complete a departmental Major, Specialization, or Honours programme.

All College students should consult with a College adviser in selecting "elective" courses in other disciplines and fields.

The College Seminar is normally open only to members of the College. College courses will admit students who are not members, provided places are available once members have selected their courses.

College Facilities and Activities

The College, situated on the Loyola Campus of Concordia University, at 7141 Sherbrooke St. W., provides appropriate office and lounge space.

The College is governed by a set of by-laws, and by a College Council composed of students and Fellows.

Each year, the Council will select a major work that has significantly affected the direction of Western Culture. An internationally recognized scholar will be invited to come to Lonergan University College as the Visiting Fellow, to lead the College Seminar. The Visiting Fellow will give university lectures and public addresses, as seem appropriate.

Each student of Lonergan University College will join with a small number of students to form a seminar group. College Fellows will direct the seminar and be available for academic advising to all students. These groups will meet for two hours every second week. It is expected that continuous participation over a three-year period will ensure a stimulating experience and an ever-increasing depth of understanding.

Students and Fellows will be encouraged to share in College government, to participate in College events, and, in various ways, to make the College the centre of their lives at the University.

Students and Fellows will also be members of academic departments. Competence and excellence in specific academic disciplines are essential contributions to the ongoing conversation at Lonergan University College.

Admissions and Applications

Applicants may write to the Principal, Lonergan University College, Concordia University, 7141 Sherbrooke St. W., Montreal, Quebec, H4B 1R6. The letter should contain a reflective statement about why the applicant has chosen Lonergan University College.

The University will send appropriate forms for the student to fill in, and will request transcripts. These will be processed by the University Admissions Office to establish the academic standing of the student. Each candidate for admission will be invited to an interview with one of the College Fellows.

Objectives of the School

Community and Public Affairs is a diverse and rapidly growing field of activity. In general, it includes the institutions and processes through which concerned citizens and organized groups interact so as to improve the collective well-being of their communities. The many professionals who work in this area are concerned with community building in all its dimensions.

The purpose of the School of Community and Public Affairs is to prepare candidates for positions either in the public or private sectors as public affairs specialists. The School will also prepare students who wish to pursue post-graduate work in public affairs or public administration. The curriculum aims at the blending of vocational and scholarly values so as to produce graduates who are well educated in a broad sense.

Students enrolled in the School will benefit from a unique combination of the following components:

1. an internship programme within which students will receive credit for working in a public-affairs-related job;

2. a bilingual (French-English) environment within which to pursue their studies;

3. a combination of a Major, Specialization, or Honours in a discipline (History, Sociology, etc.) with what is essentially a multidisciplinary programme;

4. a common institutional setting for colloquia, discussion, and study relevant to community and public affairs.

One of the primary aims of the School is to provide an environment that is conducive to discussing and learning about public affairs. We believe, therefore, that what students do outside of formal courses is as important as the classroom experience itself. The historic building which the School now occupies is ideal inasmuch as it facilitates personal contact and easy communication between students and visiting practitioners. School facilities include a common room, reading room and documentation centre, a seminar room, faculty and student offices. The School also has a resource centre on the Loyola campus.

The School also houses the independent Institute for Research on Public Policy, one of Canada's best-known policy institutes. Students will benefit from on-going contact with the Institute's research personnel and from the extensive resources which it brings to the School.

The School Programme

In general terms, students who enrol in the School will follow a curriculum made up of three elements:

In the Science College, students will gain an understanding of several areas of science, while specializing in whichever one they choose. Curricular structures frequently restrict students to one discipline or another. To help overcome this, the Science College has designed a series of courses to show what practising physicists think about physics; what mathematicians do when they are thinking mathematics: - not "an introduction to", but "the state of the art".

The Science College provides an opportunity for students to become acquainted with science as practised and understood by scientists today. Its curriculum is planned to allow students to specialize in any one of the disciplines of science, while, at the same time, fulfilling the goal of the College - to provide an opportunity for research experience, for thinking about the nature of science, and for becoming aware of the style and content of the various scientific disciplines.

In the Science College, students will have the opportunity to participate in research. In order to introduce the students to the reality of scientific research, a programme of independent study has been designed which will allow the students to be involved in research in each of their university years.

In the Science College, students will be provided with an opportunity to consider the nature of science. The Science College offers courses in the intellectual and social context of science. Designed for science students in particular, these courses raise questions of interest to scientists and are based upon an understanding of the subject matter of science.

Facilities

The College has its own premises located on the twelfth floor of the Hall Building at the downtown Sir George Williams Campus. The College offers students the opportunity and facilities to discuss matters of interest among themselves and with their professors. The Science College also offers a number of courses and invites scientists to visit the University to meet College students.

Requirements for Admission to the Science College

The programme of the Science College is academically demanding, involving concentration in one discipline and a critical investigation of other aspects of science. The College is committed to serious academic work and high standards, and is planning to attract talented students who are willing to work hard in a search for an understanding of science.

The Science College represents a new departure at Concordia's downtown campus. Students must enrol in a science programme that leads to a B.Sc. degree in order to be part of the Science College. Students registered for a B.A. in Journalism are also eligible for membership in the College.

In addition to the normal requirements for admission to the University's various programmes, applicants are expected to have a good academic average. They will be considered on the basis of their academic record, and a personal interview. They will also be encouraged to submit an example of their own work for consideration.

Students must be prepared to attend courses at times outside the normal University schedule. The College is open to full-time students only.

Science College and Journalism

A limited number of students who have been admitted to the Major in Journalism programme may be allowed to register in the Science College, with a view to combining a basic understanding of science with a training in journalism. For such students, a second six-credit course in the historical, philosophical, and social aspects of science will be offered. Other members of the College will have the option of taking this course if they so desire.

Performance Requirement

Students in the College must maintain a "B" average in courses offered by the College, with no grade lower than a "C".

Further Information

Further information on the courses and activities of the Science College may be obtained either by writing to:

Concordia University
Science College
Room H-1260
1455 de Maisonneuve Blvd., West
Montreal, Quebec
H3G 1M8

or by telephoning the College office at 879-4160. Personal interviews with a Fellow of the Science College may be arranged through the Science College office.

Science College Core Curriculum

The College offers a core of courses which are required of all students. This core consists of 30 of the 90 credits normally required for a B.Sc. degree. These courses have been developed specifically for the College with the intention of providing a unique, integrated programme of education in science.

PROGRAMMES

In addition to completing the Core Curriculum, students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements by completing a departmental Honours, Specialization, or Major programmme leading to a B.Sc.

The superscript indicates credit value.

30	Science College Curriculum
3	SCOL C200[3]
9	Chosen from SCOL C250[3], C251[3], C252[3], C253[3]
12	SCOL C290[3], C390[3], C490[6]*
6	Chosen from SCOL C270[6], C271[6]

Additionally, all Science College students are required to attend the College seminars held once weekly. College students will be expected to act as tutors to students in their departments for two hours a week in two of their three years in the University.

 Students may replace SCOL C490[6] with a Departmental Honours Thesis, (6 credits) or the equivalent.*

COURSES

SCIENCE COLLEGE C200
Topics for Multidisciplinary Study

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the multiple levels at which a scientific problem can be understood. They will have the opportunity to study the interplay between scientific disciplines, the factors that distinguish the dominant approaches in each field, and the common qualities of the sciences that mark them as part of the same enterprise. The course will select one or more topics and analyze them from the viewpoint of various disciplines. Representatives of the disciplines will lecture on the different aspects. The unique contribution made by each field to the understanding of a problem will, in this way, become apparent. (3 credits)

SURVEY OF A SCIENTIFIC DISCIPLINE

Students are required to take 9 credits from the category of courses entitled "Survey of a Scientific Discipline". Different disciplines will be surveyed in the courses numbered SCOL C250, C251, C252, C253.

SCIENCE COLLEGE C250
Survey of a Scientific Discipline I

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. This course will survey one or two disciplines, these to include biology, chemistry, geology, computer science, engineering, mathematics, physics, and psychology. The form of the course may vary according to the particular discipline. The goal is to indicate the nature of the problems dealt with by a discipline at present and in the recent past, its characteric style(s) of analysis, and the directions in which it seems to be headed. (3 credits).

SCIENCE COLLEGE C251
Survey of a Scientific Discipline II

See description for SCOL C250 above. (3 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C252
Survey of a Scientific Discipline III

See description for SCOL C250 above. (3 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C253
Survey of a Scientific Discipline IV

See description for SCOL C250 above. (3 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C270
Historical, Philosophical, and Social Aspects of Science I

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. This course will discuss the intellectual framework of science and the relationships between science and society; the political and philosophical questions inherent in the scientific process. This course is primarily intended for science students and will rely heavily on primary sources. Students will be expected to understand the scientific issues at the level at which they were originally expressed. (6 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C271
Historical, Philosophical and Social Aspects of Science II

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College or permission of the College. A student who has received credit for SCOL C270 may register for SCOL C271 provided the subject matter is different. (6 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C290
Independent Study I

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. The student will work under the supervision of a member of the Faculty on either a practical laboratory project or a literature study. A formal, written report will be required. (3 credits).

SCIENCE COLLEGE C390
Independent Study II

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. A student who has completed SCOL C290 registers for SCOL C390. Students will be encouraged to work in a field different from that of their SCOL C290 project. (3 credits)

SCIENCE COLLEGE C490
Independent Study III

Prerequisite: Membership in the Science College, or permission of the College. A student who has completed SCOL C390 registers for SCOL C490. Students will be encouraged to work in a field different from that of their SCOL C290 and C390 projects. (6 credits).

31.560.1 SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

Founded in 1978 to promote the understanding of the historical and contemporary situation of women in society, the Simone de Beauvoir Institute of Concordia University helps women to discover and develop their potential, both by its academic base in Women's Studies and by its co-curricular activities. We are honoured that Simone de Beauvoir has authorized us to use her name and has expressed great interest in being informed of our current and future activities.

Membership in the Institute is open to all students registered in the Faculty of Arts and Science of Concordia University. Members will normally be registered in an Honours, Specialization or Major in any programme or department of the Faculty of Arts and Science and take a specified number of credits in Women's Studies. They may also be registered in a Certificate in Women's Studies or the General Certificate in Arts and Science.

Students from other Faculties (graduate and undergraduate) are encouraged to become Associate Members. We attach a great deal of importance to bringing together people from diverse disciplines or who have reached different stages in their academic career.

The co-curricular life of the Institute is extremely important, and all members are expected to contribute to our activities. Exciting opportunities are available to organize workshops, colloquia and debates on subjects which interest the members, as well as to collaborate with women's organizations outside the University on research projects and other joint ventures in which we can benefit from the experience of others.

Admission Requirements for the Simone de Beauvoir Institute

Students apply simultaneously to Concordia University and the Simone de Beauvoir Institute by filling out and submitting the Concordia University Application for Admission with the box for "colleges" checked and "Simone de Beauvoir Institute" written in the space provided. The Admissions Office will inform us of your application as soon as they receive it. Further information about the Institute can be obtained by calling us at 879-8521 or at 482-0320, local 715, or by visiting our offices.

Student members of the Institute are required to complete nine credits chosen from among the Simone de Beauvoir Tutors' Seminars and the Women's Studies courses. The choice of these courses must be approved in advance by the Principal or her delegate.

Location

The main centre for the Institute is 2170 Bishop Street on the Sir George Williams Campus. It includes Faculty and secretarial offices, a lounge, a reading and a seminar room; there is also a resource centre on the Loyola Campus at 7079 Terrebonne Avenue.

COURSES

SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR C301
Tutors' Seminar I

Prerequisites: Second-year standing and permission of the Institute. The aim of this course is to encourage students to acquaint themselves with current theoretical issues and areas of research related to women. The course will be given by the Tutors, either individually or jointly, according to their special interests and qualifications. (3 credits)

SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR C302
Tutors' Seminar II

Prerequisites: Second-year standing and permission of the Institute. The aim of this course is to encourage students to acquaint themselves with current theoretical issues and areas of research related to women. The course will be given by the Tutors, either individually or jointly, according to their special interests and qualifications. (3 credits)

SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR C303
Tutors' Seminar III

Prerequisites: Second-year standing and permission of the Institute. The aim of this course is to encourage students to acquaint themselves with current theoretical issues and areas of research related to women. The course will be given by the Tutors, either individually or jointly, according to their special interests and qualifiications. (3 credits)

31.560.2 WOMEN'S STUDIES

Coordinator
M. VERTHUY, Associate Professor

Women's Studies encompass and modify all areas of knowledge. Through the introduction of new perspectives and new research, this field of study helps to correct and complete the traditional scholarly record. It is in essence interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary since the specificity of the condition of women embraces all existing disciplines. It thus questions the concept and structures of knowledge contained within the disciplinary boundaries and contributes to bringing about a reunification of the knowledge and scholarship that has become increasingly fragmented.

The objectives of programmes in Women's Studies may be summarized as follows: to raise fundamental questions about women in society, using a scientific and academic approach; to stimulate interest in and support of research topics relevant to women and social change; to investigate our socio-political and cultural backgrounds and their effect on the status of women; to engage in a continuous evaluation of research into the history, conditions and changing needs of women; to promote the understanding of the historical and contemporary role of women in society; to encourage a new and full recognition of the contribution of women to human achievement; to ensure that women and issues of gender are studied in a non-discriminatory manner as part of the curriculum either in separate distinguishable Women's Studies courses or in courses so modified as to give women's perspective its rightful place; to strengthen and widen women's rights by providing the conditions which allow women to exercise those rights; to ensure the equality of all individuals without distinction of race, sex, age, language or religion and thus transform society.

PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for satisfying their particular degree requirements.

COURSES

WOMEN'S STUDIES C290
Woman's Identity and Image: Historic Attitudes

Women's Studies, because of its emerging yet rapidly developing nature, both affects and transcends pre-existing disciplines. On the one hand, this course will show, in a historical context, how by the use of new developments in various disciplines, fresh light can be shed on traditional assumptions. On the other, it will study not only the "mirror image" of women as found in certain male writings but also the images women have projected of themselves and the reasons underlying those projections. Topics may include: the witch question; the place of women in ecclesiastic reforms; the "blue stockings"; women and contraception; women and public life; women and education; women and socialism; theories of the family; the economic status of women; elitist feminism. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C290 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C291
Woman's Identity and Image: Recent Approaches

Again, by using new tools, culled from various disciplines, this course will look at the recent history of women; in particular, the diverse ways in which they have struggled to attain autonomy and the obstacles confronting them. Particular attention will be paid at the end of the course to questions involving women and language. Topics may include: women and revolution; women and work; theories of caste and class; changes in the status of women; women and personhood; women and their bodies; women and language; women and the national question. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C291 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C390
Selected Topics in Women's Studies I

This course focuses its attention on one or more aspects of the Women's Studies programme. The theme and methodology chosen will depend upon the background and interests of the instructor. Students are advised to consult with the Women's Studies coordinator before registering, in order to be sure of the special subject of the course in any one session. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C390 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C391
Selected Topics in Women's Studies II

Students who have received credit for WMNS C390 may register for WMNS C391 provided the subject matter is different. (3 credits)

WOMEN'S STUDIES C392
Social Change: Women in Modern Society I

An interdisciplinary course designed to survey some of the major theories on women's role in society. The specific discipline emphasized will vary from year to year depending upon the background of the instructor. Lectures and/or seminars: 3 hours per week for one term. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C392 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C393
Social Change: Women in Modern Society II

An interdisciplinary course designed to survey some of the major theories on women's role in society. The specific discipline emphasized will vary from year to year depending upon the background of the instructor. Lectures and/or seminars: 3 hours per week second term.(3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C393 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C491
Seminar in Women's Studies I

Prerequisite: Third-year standing. This is an interdisciplinary seminar on selected themes related to women in society, utilizing the perspectives of a number of academic disciplines. The emphasis is on independent study. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C491 may not take this course for credits.

WOMEN'S STUDIES C492
Seminar in Women's Studies II

Prerequisite: Permission of the instructor. This is a continuation of the interdisciplinary seminar on selected topics related to women in society. Lectures: 3 hours per week. (3 credits)

NOTE: Students who have received credit for INTE C492 may not take this course for credits.

The following departmental courses are also offered as components of the programmes in Women's Studies.

General admission requirements are listed in §13.

Specific requirements for admission to the Faculty of Commerce & Administration for students in CEGEP are Math 101, 103, 105, 203, or equivalent. Arrangements will be made in the first-year programme to give special instruction to those students who lack adequate mathematical preparation.

Individuals accepted under the provisions of the extended credit programme will be required to complete the following additional 30 credits within their first year:

MATH C208	3 credits
MATH C209	3 credits
MATH C211	3 credits
ENGL C211 or an appropriate alternative	6 credits
*electives	15 credits
TOTAL	30 credits

 These electives must be selected from outside the offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration, but not from disciplines represented in its degree programmes.*

61.2.1 BACHELOR DEGREE PROGRAMMES

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration offers two distinct Bachelor programmes. The Bachelor of Commerce (BComm) degree is the more structured "professional" type programme in which the student will select a Major from those offered in Commerce or Economics. The Bachelor of Administration (BAdmin) degree is a less structured "liberal" type programme which permits the student to pursue interests inside or outside the Faculty, and offers the possibility of complementing a fundamental grounding in Administration with minor concentrations in an area of interest. Degree requirements listed below apply to all students entering the programme on or after June 1, 1976.

61.2.2 CORE REQUIREMENTS

The required 51-credit core is identical for both programmes and comprises the following courses:

NOTE: Students are responsible for following the correct sequence of courses required for the completion of a particular programme.

61.2.3 BACHELOR OF COMMERCE PROGRAMME

This programme provides the student with an education for business life. It is our intention to graduate students liberally educated about business. To accomplish this, we have designed a multi-disciplinary and interdisciplinary curriculum which is intellectually challenging.

The first year of the programme is intended to provide an informative accumulation of operational attitudes, skills, and tools which form the base for the core concentration.

The core concentration in the second year attempts to give broad experience in all phases of business in a coordinated, analytical, and reflective period of study. All the resources of the student's intellectual ability are combined with his interdisciplinary studies to analyze, formulate, judge, and solve challenging business situations.

The last year of the programme is intended to provide students with an opportunity to immerse themselves in an area of specialized study. In addition, students participate in a course which is designed to test their ability to integrate their knowledge and to view the study of business as a whole.

In view of this design, all students must follow the sequence of the courses on the basis of an academic year as outlined in the curriculum. No student will be permitted to register for second- or third-year courses without having completed the courses of the first academic year.

Exceptions may be authorized in writing for valid reasons by the Dean or Academic Adviser.

Degree Requirements*

To obtain the degree of Bachelor of Commerce, all students are required to follow a Major Programme. A Major consists of at least 24 credits in the chosen discipline in addition to the required 51-credit core. The remaining credits are unrestricted electives and may be selected to form a Minor programme if applicable. Major and Minor programmes are available in the following areas:

 The Faculty plans to introduce an overall minimum performance level requirement in the near future.*

Students will indicate their preferred field of concentration at the time of application for entry. It should be noted, however, that since the programme of study of the first year is common to all programmes, students may change to another programme provided, of course, that the capacity of the programme permits it.

/ This programme is not open to students registered in a programme leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Commerce or Bachelor of Administration.

Both degrees have a common core of 51 credits out of a total of 90 credits.*

Students may follow an Honours in Economics but they must get approval from the Arts and Science Faculty (Department of Economics).*

61.2.4 BACHELOR OF ADMINISTRATION PROGRAMME

The Bachelor of Administration Programme is designed to develop problem-solvers and decision-makers in all walks of life.

A successful graduate is able to develop objectives and strategies, organize people and resources, direct an organization's activities and control these activities, and appraise objectives and strategies in the light of results.

The programme has been made flexible enough to allow a student to develop according to his own needs.

This programme provides the student with a fundamental grounding in administration and offers the opportunity to pursue varied interests among courses offered by the University.

Degree Requirements*

To obtain the degree of Bachelor of Administration, students are required to complete the 51-credit core and 9 elected credits from Commerce and/or Economics to complete the 60 credits required for Specialization. The remaining 30 credits may be selected from any of the offerings of the University, but at least half of these must be beyond the introductory level.

 The Faculty plans to introduce an overall minimum performance level requirement in the near future.*

61.3 General Information

Old Credit Programme (Transition)

Students who have enrolled in a programme at this Faculty prior to June 1, 1976 will complete the programme as shown in the University Announcement 1975/1976. For substitution of courses not offered in the new programme, students will consult with representatives of the respective departments.

Failures

Students are cautioned that a failure in a first-term course will prohibit them from proceeding to a second-term course for which the first is a prerequisite. Students who find themselves in this position must drop the second-term course and register in a section of the failed course, if available.

There will be a course-change period at the beginning of the second term, at which time students failing in the above category must make arrangements with the Office of the Registrar for the necessary course changes.

NOTE: THERE ARE NO SUPPLEMENTAL EXAMINATIONS IN THE FACULTY OF COMMERCE AND ADMINISTRATION.

French Language

The business community, as well as governments, now express a preference for university graduates who are bilingual. We, therefore, advise all students to take advantage of the opportunities available during their years at this University to ensure that they are bilingual when they present themselves for employment upon graduation.

61.4.2 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ACCOUNTANCY C213
Financial I

This course examines the theory and practice involved in recording and reporting an organization's financial information for interested parties. It includes the preparation and analysis of financial statements. This course is required for all Commerce and Administration students and is recommended for non-Commerce and Administration students, particularly those considering graduate studies in business administration. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C217
Financial and Managerial

Prerequisite: Accountancy C213. This course is designed to develop, through verbal analysis of business cases, an understanding and skill in the preparation of statements for financial accounting purposes, taking into account the needs of business management. The student must be able to analyze these statements and comment critically thereon. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Major and Honours students in Accountancy may not take this course for credits.

ACCOUNTANCY C218
Managerial I

Prerequisite: Accountancy C213. This course is an introduction to the development of accounting information for purposes of control, decision making, and the more efficient operation of the enterprise. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C220
An Accounting Approach to Management

This course is designed to cover certain major aspects of management related to the accounting process. These include: business organization; accounting concepts; financial statement analysis; management uses of accounting information; and the effect of taxation on business decisions. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Commerce and Administration students may not take this course for credits.

ACCOUNTANCY C221
Accounting and Management

Prerequisite: Accountancy C220. This course is sequential to Accounting C220, and examines in greater depth the areas covered in that course. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Commerce and Administration students may not take this course for credits.

ACCOUNTANCY C323
Intermediate I

Prerequisite: Accountancy C213. This course extends, at a senior level, the material covered in earlier courses, integrating the previous work with advanced theory and application. Intensive study is made of the theory and practice of external reporting by commercial and other entities. Concepts and procedures involved in the valuation of resources are studied, as are the concepts of income determination. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C325
Advanced

Prerequisite: Accountancy C326, previously or concurrently. This advanced course is concerned primarily with corporate combinations. A study is also made of other advanced accounting areas. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C326
Intermediate II

Prerequisite: Accountancy C323. This course continues the intensive study of Intermediate I, with particular emphasis on obligations, funds valuation statements, and financial statement analysis. (3 credits)

ACCOUNTANCY C403
Cost and Management Accounting

Prerequisite: Accountancy C218 and C323. This course, based primarily on lectures and problem-solving, is directed to needs of students who contemplate careers in professional accounting as members of recognized accounting bodies. A detailed examination is made of the various techniques, systems, and procedures applicable to the managerial use of accounting information for decision-making, profit-planning, and control. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C407
Accounting Practice and Policy

Prerequisite: Accountancy C323. Corequisite: Accountancy C326, C410, C429, and C432. Areas previously or concurrently covered in the field of corporate financial reporting are extended, and current accounting literature and pronouncements of professional accounting bodies are examined. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C410
Specialized

Prerequisite: Accountancy C326. In this course, an examination is made of some of the specialized aspects of financial accounting. The course focuses on the application of accounting principles and theory to "unusual" business transactions and entities. (3 credits)

ACCOUNTANCY C414
Information Systems and Control

Prerequisite: Accountancy C218. This course includes information systems theory, control theory and practice, responsibility accounting, and a survey of selected management science techniques. Through case analysis and discussions, the interrelationships between information and control systems, managerial style, and human behaviour are established. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Introductory-level knowledge of computer systems is recommended.

ACCOUNTANCY C422
Cost and Management Accounting (Advanced)

Prerequisite: Accountancy C403. This course, through cases and problems, continues at an advanced level the study of modern cost and managerial accounting systems, and emphasizes the contemporary problems facing accountants, and their potential solutions by the use of sophisticated techniques. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C429
Analytical Auditing

Prerequisite: Accountancy C326. This course introduces auditing theory and its application by external and internal auditors in fulfilling their respective objectives and responsibilities. The focus is on the audit of transactions or procedures used by organizations. An analytical approach is used to discuss different accounting systems and to evaluate systems of internal control. The development and use of detailed audit procedures and audit programmes is also covered. Cases and problem solving form the basis of student involvement in this course. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C432
Financial Auditing

Prerequisite: Accountancy C429. This course emphasizes the role of the public accountant in expressing an opinion on the financial statements of an organization. The use of audit standards, procedures, and internal control is related to the expression of an auditor's opinion. Cases and problems solving form the basis of student involvement in this course. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C433
Auditing and Investigation

Prerequisite: Accountancy C429. This course deals with questions related to professional accounting practices and also covers different types of management services that auditors are frequently requested to undertake. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C441
Taxation I

Prerequisite: Accountancy C213. This course examines the Canadian taxation structure. Emphasis is given to the income taxes levied on individuals, and includes the taxation of capital gains, employment, business, and investment income. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C442
Taxation II

Prerequisite: Accountancy C441. This course extends the coverage of Accountancy C441 with a detailed examination of taxes on corporate incomes, and of corporate distributions. Sales taxes, succession duties, and other tax areas are also examined. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C451
Computer Auditing

Prerequisite: Computer Science C211 or equivalent, and Accountancy C429. This course explores the impact of large scale computer use on the auditor and his examination of a company's records and systems of internal control. The emphasis is on helping the auditor understand when a computer can be used to assist him and how to follow through with its use. Topics covered include the different controls and techniques required in a computer system, the audit trail, approaches to computer auditing and computer application for auditing, computer and software security, and consideration of the various computerized audit packages available. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C461
Accounting Theory

Prerequisite: Accountancy C325. This course examines the framework underlying current accounting thinking and procedures. A study is made of the development and the influence of professional accounting organizations and regulatory bodies on accounting theory. Controversial areas are emphasized. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

ACCOUNTANCY C462
Accounting Theory II

Prerequisite: Accountancy C461. This course extends the coverage of Accountancy C461. Particular emphasis is placed on developments in the current literature and in problem areas facing the accounting profession. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C465
Collective Bargaining and Industrial Relations II

Prerequisite: Management C464. This course is designed to help the student to look at day-to-day problems connected with negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. The course puts some stress on the behavioural aspects of industrial relations. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MANAGEMENT C466
(Also listed under International Business)
Management of Multinational Corporations

Prerequisite: Marketing C462 or International Business C362, Management C213, C266, C340. (Students who have taken International Business C466 may not take this course for credit.)

This is a course that demonstrates the analytical tools of operations and organization theory applicable within a multinational company. The course is designed to give students a grasp of the problems of strategy formulation and organization, and inculcates a general knowledge of the major parameters in which an international manager operates. Focus is on the Canadian as well as other international companies based in U.S.A., Europe, Japan, etc. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C467
Management Theory - Advanced

Prerequisite: Management C266. This course will attempt to develop further the conceptual framework which was established in Management Theory I. To this end, it will examine selected management concepts and appraise their value in terms of their application to the actual practice of business. Issues such as the effect of innovation and technological change, managing the knowledge worker, organization planning, and comparative management will be considered. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MANAGEMENT C474
Institutional Administration

Prerequisite: Management C340. Management of institutions and agencies in the non-profit (private and public) sector presents unique opportunities and challenges to the manager. This class will provide an introduction to that field. Emphasis will be given to those characteristics of the organization and functioning of these programmes which distinguish them from commercial firms, including the peculiar nature of human services, and the influence of social-political processes. Class activities will utilize theoretical and case material and field observations. Student projects will concentrate on policy formulation and administrative function in an agency of the student's choice. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C475
Business Law I

Prerequisite: Second-year Standing in Commerce. This course deals with the Canadian and Quebec Law governing business organizations, and the Quebec Civil Law concerning property, contracts, sales, lease, agency, commercial paper, consumer protection, regulation of finance, warranties and product liability, civil responsibility and obligations. It is essentially the body of law governing the relationships among businessmen, and between businessmen and consumers; i.e., private business law. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C476
Business Law II

Prerequisite: Management C475. Federal and provincial government regulation of business, including bankruptcy, anti-combines, trade marks and patents, labour law, insurance, special commercial contracts including secured transactions, fair employment, environmental law. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C477
The Law of Insolvency and Secured Transactions

Prerequisite: Management C475. An examination of the various laws and cases, both Federal and Provincial, across Canada, governing commercial insolvency, with particular emphasis upon the liability of directors and officers, and the creditor's rights in bankruptcy, including the role of inspectors and the trustee. An examination of the various forms of secured transactions, of which creditors may avail themselves, more particularly financial institutions, including assignment of book debts, pledge, mortgages, bonds, trust deeds. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C478
Company Law

Prerequisite: Management C475. The examination of important legal issues relating to the business corporation, including an analysis of their legal nature and structure, and the powers, rights, and obligations of directors, officers, and shareholders, including analysis of the legal implications, insider trading, company re-organization, mergers, joint ventures, and takeovers. These matters will be studied through the Federal, Quebec, and Ontario Companies' Acts and relevant court cases. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C479
Labour Law

Prerequisite: Management C475. A study of the law and relevant court cases dealing with major labour-management issues, including collective bargaining, union certification, strikes, lock-outs, grievances, and arbitration. Covers Canadian law, primarily that of Quebec. (3 credits)

MANAGEMENT C499
Special Topics in Administration

Enrolment is restricted and subject to Departmental approval. Intended to complement and supplement business courses taken previously or concurrently, this course emphasizes business literature and modern thought. Students are encouraged to work independently on research topics of interest to them. (3 credits) Students repeating Management C499 register for credits under Management C498. NOTE A/See §200.2

61.9.2 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

MARKETING C213
The Marketing Process (Introductory)

The course examines the nature of marketing and its role in society, as well as the inter-relationships that are operative within the marketing process--both externally as related to society and the consumer, and internally as related to the organization of the marketing process within the firm. Many of the factors influencing these relationships are also examined. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C350
Marketing Management

Prerequisite: Marketing C213. An introduction to the managerial concepts and practices involved in planning and carrying out corporate marketing policies and strategies. The four basic elements of the marketing mix, product, price, promotion and distribution and their interrelationships will be examined in detail. The case method will also be used in order to apply these concepts to realistic marketing problems. (3 credits)

MARKETING C352
Buyer Behaviour

Prerequisite: Marketing C213 and Quantitative Methods C243. This course analyzes the motivations, roles, and behaviour of the consumers, how they are affected by economic, social, and cultural influences, and how the marketer may model this behaviour for decision-making purposes. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C402
Marketing Research I (Methods)

Prerequisite: Marketing C350 and Quantitative Methods C244. The role of research in the marketing process, the role of models, and the development of measurement techniques are discussed. Emphasis is placed on the nature and scope of marketing research methods for obtaining internal and external data, and on the steps and principles involved in gathering and analyzing data. The student is also briefly introduced to applications of marketing research. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C452
Marketing Research II (Application)

Prerequisite: Marketing C402. The application of marketing research to problem areas such as advertising, sales management and product strategy. Alternative research designs are applied to actual problems. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C453
Advertising and Sales Promotion Management

Prerequisite: Marketing C350. The course deals with the theory and practice of advertising and sales promotion. Through case studies, field trips and simulations the student learns how to analyze media and budgets, plan promotional campaigns, utilize research findings, and evaluate advertising effectiveness. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C454
Sales Management

Prerequisite: Marketing C350. The course deals with the theoretical and applied aspects of management of personal selling. Through cases, simulations and special presentations the student learns how to recruit, select, train, organize, motivate, evaluate, compensate, supervise, and control the sales forces. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C462
(Also listed under International Business)
Environment of World Business

Prerequisite: Second-year standing in Commerce. (Students who have taken International Business C362 may not take this course for credit.)

This is a foundation course in international business; the objective is to present information which will expose the student to cultural, social, political, economic, legal, and financial environments in which the Canadian businessman manages his operations abroad. Each student will be encouraged to develop his own philosophy toward international business activities by developing research and analytical skills in analyzing current and long-term problems perceived in different economic systems and environments. Specific topics include empirical dimensions of world economy, economic development, international trade and investment patterns, regional economic co-operation, area studies, Canadian nationalism, and foreign investment in Canada, etc. (3 credits)

MARKETING C463
Retail Management

Prerequisite: Marketing C350. This course seeks to apply the theories of marketing and administration to the retail situation. Topics to be covered include site selection for single and multi-unit retail outlets, organizing and staffing the retail operation, the wholesaler-retailer relationship, consumer behaviour in the retail situation. The impact of such new developments as consumer cooperatives, franchising, discounting, and computer technology on the future of retailing will also be considered. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C464
Consumerism

Prerequisite: Marketing C350. The current evolution of marketing and consumerism is subjected to critical evaluation and analytical review. Problem areas which may be examined include: marketing costs and efficiency, the social objectives of and objections to marketing, the impact of marketing on the environment, the 'pollution of advertising', ethics of marketers, and the role of governments in the market place. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C465
(Also listed under International Business)
International Marketing Management

Prerequisite: International Business C362 or Marketing C462. (Students who have taken International Business C465 may not take this course for credit). This course studies the management approach to international marketing, with emphasis on key variables that are controllable by the international marketing manager. Attention is focused on market measurement, product policy, channels, pricing, and promotion, with special emphasis on the development and control of multinational marketing strategies and programmes. (3 credits)

MARKETING C485
Industrial Marketing

Prerequisite: Marketing C350. The course will focus on the managerial aspects of industrial marketing. The concept of organization buying behaviour and its impact on marketing strategy formulation will be discussed. Management of the industrial marketing mix considering product service development, intelligence, promotion, channels, and performance measurement will be covered, both in existing product lines and new product-launch activities. (3 credits)

MARKETING C486
Product Management

Prerequisite: Marketing C213 and C350. In addition to analyzing product cycles and their characteristics and strategies which relate to each stage, this course delves into some of the more practical aspects of product policy-setting strategy formulation of the analysis, development, and execution of marketing programmes for new and existing products. This course should make the student familiar with one or more product management operations through case discussions and/or field studies. (3 credits)

MARKETING C490
Marketing Policy

Prerequisite: Marketing C350 and 9 additional credits in Marketing courses. A capstone course in Marketing, utilizing readings, projects, and selected case studies requiring the student to incorporate concepts and techniques of previous marketing courses in determining marketing policy. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

MARKETING C491
Special Topics Seminar

This seminar is an inquiry into various selected topics which will vary from year to year. (3 credits) Students repeating Marketing C491 register for credits under Marketing C492. NOTE A/See §200.2

61.10.4 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C221
Introduction to Data Processing

Prerequisite: None. An introductory course for students interested in the applications of computers in business and industry. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C223
BASIC Language Programming

Prerequisite: QUAN C221 or COMP C211 or equivalent. The BASIC programming language will be studied in detail, with applications to mathematical as well as data-processing problems. Elementary and advanced features of the language, as implemented on the CDC Cyber computer system, will be fully covered. Emphasis will be on the structured design of interactive programmes with proper documentation and user interface. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C243
Introductory Business Statistics I

Prerequisite: One CEGEP course in each of Algebra and Calculus, or equivalent. The objectives of the course are to introduce the student to some basic concepts of statistics in managerial decision-making, planning and analysis of data. Topics covered include: descriptive measures, frequency distribution analysis, probability theory, probability distributions, sampling theory, estimation and hypothesis testing. All examples will be derived from the functional areas of business, including Finance, Accounting, Marketing, Production, etc. Special attention will be paid to simple applications of sample designs in business. (3 credits)

NOTE: See § 200.7

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C244
Introductory Business Statistics II

Prerequisite: QUAN C243 or equivalent. This course offers further development of probability and statistical concepts needed for management decisions. Topics covered include regression and correlation analysis, forecasting and smoothing techniques, time-series analysis, indices and analysis of variance. The usefulness of these techniques in managerial applications will be discussed with examples, problems and cases. (3 credits)

NOTE: See § 200.7

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C313
Managerial Operations Research

Prerequisite: QUAN C243 and C244, or equivalent. This course is an introduction to managerial operations research and its role and function in executive decision. It emphasizes both assumptions and management applications. The basic areas covered include: formulation, solution techniques, optimization concepts, and model building; linear programming and related economic interpretation; transportation problems; trans-shipment problems; assignment problems; network analysis (CPM and PERT); game theory. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C314
Operations Research and Production Systems

Prerequisite: QUAN C313 or equivalent. This course is an extension of QUAN C313. The basic areas covered include: Managerial Decision theory and utility theory, inventory control; waiting lines; time-and-motion studies; plant lay-out; design of the production-planning systems; capacity planning models; sequencing and routing; Markov chains and applications; simulation. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C316
Optimization Techniques

Prerequisite: QUAN C313 or equivalent. This course deals with optimization techniques in Management Sciences. It includes: linear programming, simplex algorithm, sensitivity testing and duality, postoptimality analysis, separable programming, dynamic programming, integer programming, stochastic programming. Management applications, such as portfolio selection, capital budgeting, production smoothing, inventory scheduling, competitive strategies, regeneration models will be given particular attention. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C327
Business Systems

Prerequisite: QUAN C244. This is an overview of the quantitative behaviour of organized systems in business, industry and government. The following topics will be covered: typical system behaviour patterns such as time lags, cycling and instability; positive and negative feedback and control; and the use of simplified models for studying systems. Practical illustrative exercises will be taken from the fields of finance, production, marketing and economics. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C345
Business Decision Analysis

Prerequisite: QUAN C243 and C244, or equivalent. This course deals with the analysis of choices under uncertainty. It provides a coverage of Bayesian inference, decision theory, prior, posterior, and preposterior distributions (discrete and continuous). It includes the analysis of uncertain payoffs and biased measurements, analytical utility functions and their properties; the use of judgment probability and the principle of substitution for strategies. Economics of sampling, risk sharing, group decision will also be considered. Examples of decision making in production planning, research and development, manpower planning, finance, etc., will be presented and discussed. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C353
Mathematical Analysis for Business--Calculus

Prerequisite: One CEGEP course in each of Intermediate Algebra and Calculus, or equivalents. The various applications of differential and integral calculus and the use of difference and differential equations in the functional areas of management; e.g. production, marketing, accounting, finance, personnel administration, and purchasing will be studied. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C354
Mathematical Analysis for Business--Matrix Algebra

Prerequisite: One CEGEP course in each of Intermediate Algebra and Calculus, or equivalents. Properties and applications of matrix algebra in the functional areas of management; e.g., production, marketing, accounting and finance, personnel administration, and purchasing will be studied. Special applications (e.g. Input-Output Analysis) will be explored. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C365
Production Systems I

Prerequisite: QUAN C243, C244, and C313. In this course, an introduction to production systems of the enterprise is presented. Topics include: technology and design, forecasting, allocation of resources, scheduling, work methods and measurement, location problems, plant layout and materials handling, process control and quality control. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C412
Network Models

Prerequisite: QUAN C313. The course includes the fundamentals of graph theory; Euler graphs and "Chinese postman" problems; Hamiltonian graphs and "travelling salesman" tours; shortest-route problems; maximal and feasible static and dynamic flows and circulations in networks. Applications will be studied in the fields of scheduling, input-output models and optimal plant locations. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C414
Operations Research Models in the Social Environment

Prerequisite: QUAN C313 and C314, or equivalents. This course is designed to keep the student informed of the most recent and successful applications of Operations Research Models in the Social Environment. The topics to be discussed will be selected from: Criminal Justice, Educational Systems, Pollution, Rural and Agricultural Models, Transportation, Energy Models, etc. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C415
Non-Linear Programming

Prerequisite: QUAN C313 or equivalent. This course will introduce some fundamental concepts in non-linear optimization. The topics covered will include: convexity, formulation of non-linear problems, identification of optimal points, unconstrained and constrained optimization techniques. Emphasis throughout the course will be placed on business-related problems. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C416
Inventory, Replacement, Maintenance Models

Prerequisite: QUAN C313 and C314, or equivalents. This course covers deterministic inventory models, stochastic inventory models, special structures of inventory control practice; replacement of items which deteriorate with time; replacement of items which fail suddenly; staffing problems; maintenance models; reliability theory; analysis of operational warranty techniques; renewal theory and managerial applications. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C417
Commercial Software

Prerequisite: QUAN C223 or QUAN C423 or COMP C251. A study of a representative sample of the software programme packages available commercially for use in business applications, including systems packages, such as file management, payroll, inventory, and bill-of-materials; control packages, such as critical-path scheduling, linear programming, and simulation. Sources of software; criteria for evaluating and choosing packages; implementation, maintenance, and modification of packages. Class and individual projects on the use of typical packages. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C421
R.P.G. Programming

Prerequisite: QUAN C223 or QUAN C423 or COMP C251. R.P.G. stands for Report Program Generator. This course is designed to teach the students the logic of the R.P.G. compiler. The knowledge gained in class will be utilized to solve problems and write about 5 programmes geared for the business environment. There will be 3 lecture hours per week and approximately 5 to 10 hours of programming and debugging per week outside class. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C422
Data Processing Management

Prerequisite: QUAN C424 or COMP C455. The theory and practice of management as applied in commercial data processing. Planning for new business systems and computers; the feasibility study; the computer as an aid in planning; the organization of a data centre; staffing the data centre; job description and job specifications; maintenance and security; control methods for operation, data entry, processing and output. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C423
Business Computer Programming

Prerequisite: QUAN C221 or COMP C211 or equivalent. This course deals with the role of the programmer in a business information system, and is not a programming language course. A subset of COBOL will be used in exercises illustrating the following topics: design and specification of a programme; planning and structuring a programme; documentation; testing procedures; maintenance programming; standard algorithms for file handling and reports; and programming teams. (3 credits)

NOTE: Computer Science students with credits for COMP C251 may not take QUAN C423 for credit.

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C424
Data Processing Systems and Applications

Prerequisite: QUAN C221; and QUAN C327 (previously or concurrently). This course will survey and study the various currently available data processing systems, illustrated by a detailed study of typical applications to production, inventory control, ordering, and invoicing. The role of management (at all levels) in planning, implementing, staffing, operating, and controlling a data system will be studied by readings and cases. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C425
Business Systems Analysis and Design

Prerequisite: QUAN C424 or ACCO C414 or COMP C455. Principles of the design of data-processing systems, and a detailed study of the process of implementing a new system. Methods of evaluating an existing system or a proposed modification. Maintaining quality, economy, security, and integrity in a data system. Students will study and report on an actual operating data system. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C426
Business System Simulation

Prerequisite: QUAN C223 or COMP C211; and QUAN C327. Computer simulations of stochastic and deterministic systems will be studied, using procedural languages such as FORTRAN and BASIC, and also special simulation-oriented languages. Topics will include the collection and preliminary analysis of input data; verification; validation; design of model experiments; and the analysis and presentation of the results. Students will study and simulate a real-life situation. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C433
Topics in Quantitative Methods

Prerequisite: Permission of the Department. This course is intended primarily for Majors students, and allows opportunity for more intensive examination of one or more particular topics in quantitative methods. The specific subject will vary according to the special interest of the professor offering the course in any given year. (3 credits) NOTE A/See §200.2

NOTE: Students repeating Quantitative Methods C433 register for credits under Quantitative Methods C434.

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C444
Business Experimental Analysis

Prerequisite: QUAN C243 and C244 or equivalent. This course deals with the design and the analysis of experiments relevant to the decision-maker in management fields. It includes analysis of variance, orthogonal classification, factorial experiments, block designs, mixed models, replication, calibration studies, economics of experimentation, non-parametric statistical inference, discriminant analysis. All functional areas of management application will be considered and used as examples and in cases. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C447
Statistical Forecasting

Prerequisite: QUAN C244 or equivalent. This course presents the foundations of applied time-series analysis for managerial forecasting. It includes forecasting methods and objectives; fundamental concepts in time-series analysis; models for stationary time-series; model for nonstationary time-series; models for seasonal time-series; Box and Jenkins methods; forecast evaluation. (3 credits)

QUANTITATIVE METHODS C448
Business Sampling Techniques and Quality Control

Prerequisite: QUAN C243 and C244, or equivalents. This course consists of two parts: Part 1 deals with the different sampling methodologies and their applications to managerial problems. Problems relating to sampling of accounts receivable and payable, audit control, accounting information system, evaluation of inventories, market research studies, and assembly line situations, will be studied in detail. Part 2 involves understanding the use of different quality-control charts (C Chart, U Chart, X, and R Charts) in production and marketing environment. (3 credits)

61.14 Special Programmes in Accountancy

The three professional organizations listed below recognize certain Concordia University courses for course exemptions or standing in their professional designation programmes.

ORDER OF CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS OF QUEBEC: Chartered Accountant (CA)

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration offers a Diploma in Accountancy which has been approved by the Order of Chartered Accountants of Quebec. Entry into the programme normally requires a Bachelor's degree in Commerce, and a Major in Accountancy with high academic standing. Applicants lacking an appropriate pattern of undergraduate work will be required to complete successfully certain qualifying courses, as assigned by the Director of the diploma programme. For further details, refer to the Concordia University Graduate Studies calendar.

PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION OF INDUSTRIAL ACCOUNTANTS OF QUEBEC: Registered Industrial Accountant (R.I.A.)

Students who wish to follow the RIA programme must register with the Professional Corporation of Industrial Accountants of Quebec. A table of course equivalencies for RIA and Concordia courses is shown below.

1. This table is subject to amendment to reflect future changes in course relationships.

2. A student enrolling in a B.Comm. at Concordia would have this course completed prior to admission, or would be required to make up deficiencies in Mathematics.

3. The Corporation's examinations in 509, 511, 516, and 517 must be written in addition to Concordia prerequisites.

61.15 Special Certificate Programmes

There are many organizations within the business community designed to serve the needs of people working in specialized areas of business. These organizations recognize that the educational qualifications of those seeking membership must be continually upgraded. Therefore, they sponsor an Academic Certificate which may be obtained through correspondence courses, or through a lecture programme.

The Faculty of Commerce and Administration cooperates with these business organizations by permitting personnel to register as Special (partial) students, and to take courses leading to a certificate to be awarded by the organization concerned.

Students must comply with the University regulations regarding dates of application and independent (partial) student entrance requirements as outlined in the Academic Calendar §11. In addition, they must meet the requirements of the specific organization.

The credit course taken may be applied towards the Bachelor of Commerce degree, provided the student meets the admission requirements and wishes to transfer from independent (partial) status to undergraduate status after completing a certificate programme. Students are advised that they must meet the Bachelor of Commerce curriculum requirements in force at the date of transfer.

Each certificate programme has one or more special courses required to complete the programme. These courses do not carry credit toward a Bachelor's degree and are designated as non-credit courses.

Students interested in the following certificate programmes may obtain details of required courses from the organization concerned:

The American Marketing Association (Montreal Chapter)

Institute of Canadian Bankers

The Montreal Personnel Association

The Insurance Institute of Canada

The Trust Companies Institute of Canada

61.16 Concordia Centre for Management Studies

The Concordia Centre for Management Studies is designed to promote continuous and constructive relationships and frank discussion among the following groups: executives in business and government, faculty members and students. In this way, the relevance of the work of the Faculty to the needs of the business community is reinforced.

The Centre also serves as a meeting place where managerial skills can be developed and sharpened. It has five divisions:

1. The Business Executive Club, the backbone of the Centre, sets its direction through a Board of Directors whose Chairman is selected from among the business membership.

2. The Business Information Office runs the Centre's publication and information programme. Its principal information vehicle is the 'Montreal Business Report'.

3. The Management Development Institute develops, coordinates, and organizes seminars, symposia and public meetings.

4. The Business Research Division is essentially an applied research and diagnostic service to solve business problems.

5. The Faculty Exchange Service promotes the internship of faculty members and students in business schools or organizations throughout the world, and invites leading executives, scholars and students from abroad to become guests of the Faculty.

The Board of Directors of the Centre comprises senior executives of the business community each representing a specific sector of economic life in our region; university administrators; faculty members; and representatives of student organizations.

(2) Bachelor of Computer Science degree.
(3) Minor in Computer Science.
(4) Certificate in Quality Control.

*The B.Eng. degree in Building Engineering may be combined with a Master's degree in the same discipline.

The requirements for the programmes are different, and the appropriate section in the following pages must be consulted for each.

71.1.1 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for admission to the B.Eng. or B.Comp.Sc. programmes are submitted to the Admissions Office at the preferred campus.

General Admission requirements are listed in §13.

In addition, the following specific requirements exist for the various programmes. Applicants should specify their choice of programme on their application.

1) B.Eng. (Building, Civil, Computer, Electrical, Mechanical)
B.Comp.Sc. (General Business Option)*

Completion of the above courses is a necessary condition for regular admission to a B.Eng. programme, the minimum length of which will range from 126.50 to 132.00 credits depending on the programme chosen. Consideration will be given to a reduction in individual programme length in cases where the student has completed one or more of the CEGEP courses listed below. Corresponding Concordia numbers and credit values are also listed. In no case may a programme be reduced below a minimum of 105 credits.

*Students will be required to take COMP C211[3] during their first year, in addition to regular programme requirements, if they have not obtained credit for Data Processing 420-911 (Introduction to Fortran) or its equivalent. COMP C211[3] is available during the summer.

Notes:

1. Applications from graduates of CEGEP technology programmes will also be considered. Programme requirements for successful applicants will be determined on an individual basis.

2. Students admitted to an extended credit programme under the provisions of Sections 13.4.2 or 13.11 must successfully complete the requirements set out below:

B.Eng.: The individual programme requirements as set out elsewhere in Section 71. MATH C202[3], C203[3], C204[3], C205[3]

PHYS C206[3], C207[3], C226[1]

b) General Business option:
15 elective credits chosen from outside the Faculty of Commerce and Administration and the Department of Computer Science.

3. Students in the B.Eng. (Bldg.) programme wishing to enter the combined degree programme (B.Eng. and M.Eng. in Building Engineering) must apply to the Asst. Dean, Academic Programmes during the term in which they will be completing all but one of the required 200 and 300 level courses. A high standing is required for admission to the combined programme.

71.1.2 ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Students should refer to the section presenting the Academic Regulations of the University, §16.

For additional regulations governing the programme in Building Engineering leading to the combined degrees of Bachelor of Engineering (Civil) and Master of Engineering (Building), see Section 71.3 in the 1980/81 calendar.

71.1.3 ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS FOR THE BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING/BACHELOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

Definitions

Programme: The programme consists of

i) All courses and other requirements specified in §71 for the B.Eng./B.Comp.Sc. degrees, and/or
ii) All courses and other requirements specified in §14. for the Pre-Engineering/Computer Science Mature Student programme, or,
iii) Any modifications to i) and ii) as specified by the Faculty on an individual basis.

Academic Year: A period of time which includes a Summer and its subsequent Fall and Winter terms.

Appropriate member of the Dean's office: As appointed by the Dean of Engineering.

Student Adviser: Faculty member responsible for counselling students.

Objectives

The objectives of these regulations are:

First, to ensure that students can, with the assistance or intervention of the Faculty, assess themselves objectively, and plan programmes of study designed to meet their individual needs.

Second, to ensure that the Faculty can certify that all of its graduates are qualified to enter their profession.

Grading System

See §16.3 for the Concordia grading system. Results for courses specified in §71 for the B. Eng/B. Comp. Sc. degrees are to be submitted as letter grades only, (e.g. C−, B+, A).

Regulations

1. Upon completion of the term of study where the student's programme includes a first attempt at not less than four of the courses specified for the B. Eng. or B. Comp. Sc. degrees in section 71 of the undergraduate calendar, full-time students may register for six courses in the following term (See Table 1) provided that they have achieved a grade of C− or better in each of at least two thirds of the courses for which they were registered. Students who do not achieve a grade of C− or better in each of at least two thirds of the courses for which they were registered will have their programme for the next term determined by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office in consultation with their advisor.

2. Students' standings are assessed at the end of each academic year providing they have registered for at least four courses in the programme subsequent to their previous assessment, or in the case of a first assessment, subsequent to their admission to the programme. Standings of students requiring fewer than four courses to complete the B. Eng./B. Comp. Sc. programmes will be determined on the basis of only those courses registered for in that academic year.

The assessment is based on the grades obtained for all courses in the programme for which they have registered, subsequent to their previous assessment, or in the case of a first assessment, subsequent to their admission to the programme. A grade obtained as a result of writing a supplemental examination and/or completing the work for a course graded 'INC' is not included in the assessment.

3. Students' standings are determined according to the following criteria:

Acceptable Standing

'C−' or better in each of at least two-thirds of the courses registered for with no more than one failure if eight or fewer courses have been registered for, or two failures if more than eight courses have been registered for. (See Table 1)

Conditional Standing

'C−' or better in each of at least one-half of the courses registered for, with no more than two failures if eight or fewer courses have been registered for, or three failures if more than eight courses have been registered for. (See Table 2)

Failed Standing

Failure to meet the criteria for acceptable or conditional standings, or conditional standing over two consecutive assessments.

4. Students in acceptable standing may proceed subject to the following conditions: Any failing grade must be cleared by passing the supplemental examination and/or completing the work for the course, or by repeating the failed course, or by replacing the failed course by an alternative approved by the student's Department.

5. Students in conditional standing may proceed for one year of study subject to the following conditions:

a) They must repeat successfully all courses in which failing grades were obtained, or replace them by alternatives approved by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's Department.

b) They must repeat or replace by approved alternatives at least one-half of those courses in which they obtained grades in the 'D' range. The specific courses to be repeated will be determined by the appropriate member of the Dean's Office in consultation with the student's Department.

c) Full-time students may register for a maximum of five courses per term, part-time students for a maximum of two courses per term.

d) They must obtain acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment.

6. Subject to regulation 7 below, failed students may be considered for re-admission upon application to the appropriate member of the Dean's Office. If re-admitted, they will be placed on academic probation to be determined at the time of their re-admission. They must return to acceptable standing at the time of their next assessment.

7. Failed students who were previously classed as failed students must withdraw from the University.

8. Students in a combined degree programme must meet academic regulations published in the Engineering section of the Graduate Calendar.

71.1.4 AVAILABILITY OF PROGRAMMES

There is great flexibility in the method of progressing through a programme of Engineering or Computer Science at Concordia. This is shown in the table below. Students are also free to proceed in either a 6 or 8 term sequence in the Engineering programme. Further information on sequencing may be found in the Programme Guide issued by the Assistant Dean, Academic Programmes.

January Entrants

In addition to admitting students to its programmes for the fall session, the Faculty admits in January, students who have completed their collegial studies. In the case of the B.Eng. programme, students will be admitted at the Sir George Williams Campus only; and if they are full-time students, are expected to undertake full-time studies during the subsequent summer.

Industrial Parallel Studies (IPS)

Attention should be given to a programme unique to Concordia, that of Industrial Parallel Studies. IPS are available at the Sir George Williams Campus. They are offered for students who have successfully completed the First Year of the programme, or its equivalent, and whose employers are prepared to certify that they will be employed for a maximum of 20 hours per week during the Fall/Winter Sessions. The Faculty timetable is arranged to allow students undertaking IPS to attend the University for either five half days or two and one-half days per week.

Priority for IPS is given to students who have completed the First Year of the programme in the Evening. All students undertaking such studies must have been granted permission by the office of the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs, Engineering and Computer Science. The pamphlet Industrial Parallel Studies, giving more detailed information, can be obtained upon request from the Assistant Dean's Office.

* Students may complete the first third of their programme at the Loyola campus. They must transfer to the Sir George Williams campus for the final two thirds.

 Students must transfer to full-time studies after completion of the first third of the programme.

 For all options other than industrial engineering, the first third of the programme may be completed at either campus. The final two thirds are available at the SGW campus only. The final two thirds of the industrial engineering option are available at the Loyola campus only. First year only available in 1981/82.

† First and second years only available in 1981/82

71.2 Bachelor of Engineering

71.2.1 CURRICULUM FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING

The University offers programmes leading to the degree of Bachelor of Engineering in the fields of Building, Civil, Computer, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. Students enrolled in the B.Eng. programme in Building Engineering may, after the completion of all but one of their 200 and 300 level courses, apply to enter a combined degree programme leading to the joint award of a Bachelor's and Master's degree in this field. To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Engineering, students must satisfactorily complete all course requirements for the programme in which they are registered and achieve acceptable standing. Course requirements include the engineering core as defined in Section 71.2.4, programme core and option requirements. These are given in subsequent sections. They comprise a group of required courses with a group of elective courses which allow students to select part of their programme to provide some depth in an area of specialization according to their particular interests, or breadth in the general field of their chosen discipline.

In their final undergraduate year, students with high standing may be granted permission by their department and the Engineering Graduate Studies Committee to register for a limited number of graduate courses offered by the Faculty in lieu of some courses in the undergraduate programme.

Students admitted for January 81 or earlier should consult the programme guide available in the Assistant Dean's Office in order to determine their programme requirements.

Successful completion of a B.Eng. programme requires hard work and considerable dedication on the part of each student. Courses are presented with the expectation of an average of about two hours of 'outside' work for each lecture hour and about one-half hour of 'outside' work for each hour spent in the laboratory for all programmes of study.

71.2.2 ACCREDITATION BY THE CANADIAN COUNCIL OF PROFESSIONAL ENGINEERS

The Accreditation Board of the Canadian Council of Professional Engineers (CCPE) has accredited the Bachelor of Engineering curricula in the Departments of Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering. The Board has recommended to the Constituent Associations of CCPE that graduation from the above curricula be considered as sufficient academic qualification for purposes of registration in all Provinces and Territories in Canada. In accordance with CCPE rules, accreditation will be sought for programmes in building and computer engineering during the year prior to the award of the first degrees in these disciplines.

71.2.3 MEMBERSHIP IN THE ORDER OF ENGINEERS OF QUEBEC

The Order of Engineers of Quebec (OEQ) has fully accredited the Bachelor of Engineering curricula in Civil, Electrical, and Mechanical Engineering, and will admit graduates of these three programmes as members according to the Engineers Act and the OEQ By-Laws and providing applicants can complete the French language requirements.

Accreditation for programmes in Building and Computer Engineering will be sought.

Quebec law now requires that candidates seeking admission to provincially-recognized Quebec professional corporations (such as the Order of Engineers of Quebec) be tested on their ability in the French language.

Information on this testing program of the Office de la langue française may be obtained by writing to: Office de la langue française, 800 Place Victoria, 15^{e} étage, Montréal, Québec, H4Z 1G8, telephone: 873-8361.

71.2.4 ENGINEERING CORE

To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Engineering, students admitted after January 1981 must satisfactorily complete the following courses as well as those specified for their programme as shown in subsequent sections. Students admitted for January 1981 or earlier should consult the Programme Guide available in the Assistant Deans' Office.

6 credits chosen from the 'Social Aspects of Engineering' group. ***

* Offered in both Day and Evening.

 To be submitted at the beginning of the academic year in which the student expects to graduate.

 Students in Building Engineering must successfully complete BLDG C481 as part of the 6 credit requirement. (For all students, 3 of these 6 credits may be replaced by a specified course or courses in French, subject to the approval of the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs. A list of such courses is available from the Assistant Dean's Office.)

71.2.5 GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete their programme in acceptable standing.

71.2.6 SCHEDULING OF COURSES

A programme guide indicating course schedules for both the 6 and 8 term Engineering and Computer Science sequences is available from the Faculty Office on either campus.

CENTRE FOR BUILDING STUDIES

Building Engineering, as a discipline, encompasses the body of knowledge which pertains to all phases in the life-cycle of a constructed facility, namely conception, planning, design, construction, operation and disposal.

Concordia has developed a unique undergraduate programme leading to a B.Eng. in Building Engineering designed to meet the needs of the construction industry for engineers familiar with the overall design of built facilities.

In addition to the basic engineering sciences, the programme emphasizes the fundamentals of building materials, structural analysis and design, building services: acoustical, heating, lighting, air conditioning, economics and project management. The student also has available certain electives which will be of use in the design of various phases of a building.

Students who complete all but one of their 200 and 300 level courses with a sufficiently high standing may apply through the Asst. Dean Academic. Programmes to enter a combined programme leading to the joint award of both a B.Eng. and an M.Eng. degree in Building Engineering. It is expected that those who aspire to leadership roles within the building industry will enter such a combined programme. The combined programme requires a further 12 months of full-time study, after which graduates will not only have obtained further grounding in the basics, but will also have specialized in one of four branches: Building Science, Building Environment, Building Structures, Construction Management. For details of the Graduate Component, refer to the graduate calendar.

71.3.1 COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The programme in building engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Building Engineering Programme Core, and a further 9 elective credits chosen from a specified group of courses. The nominal length of the programme is 130.50 credits. Adjustments may be made on an individual basis as per Section 71.1.1.

Note: No new students have been admitted to the combined degree programme B.Eng (Civil) and M.Eng (Bldg.) after summer 1980. Requirements for students currently in the programme are set out in the 1980-81 calendar with the following modifications: BLDG C475 and CIVI C435 have been replaced by CIVI C372 and C381. Students may also refer to the Faculty programme guide available from the Dean's Office.

Engineering Core (42.75 credits)

See Section 71.2.4. Note that students in the B.Eng. (Bldg.) must replace one of the required Social Aspects courses with BLDG C481.

DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL ENGINEERING

Civil Engineering is primarily concerned with the creation of the complex systems of construction facilities for sound economic growth of the community. In a broad sense, civil engineers learn to control and modify the environment effectively so as to satisfy the needs and desires of society. Their responsibility for design ranges from foundations and superstructures of our common structures such as buildings, bridges, dams, tunnels, wharves, etc., to many unusual structures such as rocket installations, containment vessels for nuclear reactors, supports for radio telescopes, frame works for aircraft. In addition, civil engineers are concerned with the engineering aspects of water resources, rivers, harbours, irrigation and drainage; with the disposal of wastes and the control of the quality of air and water; with highways, railroads, airports and other transportation facilities; with measuring, mapping and interpreting the physical conditions of the surface of the earth; and with planning metropolitan areas and constructing and managing their public facilities.

The programme is designed so that students, after having obtained grounding in the fundamentals of Civil Engineering, may specialize in one of four options.

71.4.1 COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The programme in Civil Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, the Civil Programme Core, and one of the options described below. The nominal length of the programme is 130.00 credits. Adjustments may be made on an individual basis as per Section 71.1.1. Students admitted prior to September 81 should consult the programme guide available from the Assistant Deans' Office to determine their individual course requirements.

DEPARTMENT OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

Electrical Engineering is concerned primarily with energy and information: their conversion, transformation and transmission in the most efficient, convenient and reliable manner. Computer Engineering focuses more directly on the design and use of computer technology for information processing.

Computer and electrical engineers are involved in the processing and transmission of information. The revolution in electronics which began some thirty years ago with the invention of the transistor, and which continues to-day through the advent of the microprocessor, has had a profound impact not only on our capability to communicate with each other or to store masses of easily retrievable information about ourselves, but also on our ability to construct 'intelligent' machines. This production both of new devices, and of sophisticated applications for these devices (for example in bio-medical engineering) continues apace. While contributing to what has been, and will continue to be, a major transformation in the structure of our society, electrical and computer engineers may, in the course of their careers, be engaged in a variety of activities: research, development, design, manufacture, operation, maintenance, control and marketing of devices and systems. In so doing, they will be called upon to assist or direct the efforts of other engineers, individuals or groups of people of widely varying backgrounds and abilities.

Electrical engineers are also involved in the conversion of energy from its original mechanical, thermal, nuclear, wind or solar form to electricity. They have primary responsibility for the design and control of continent spanning power grids which are used to transport this energy from generating stations to the consumer, as well as for designing efficient converters which will transform this energy back into forms which meet the needs of the user for heat, refrigeration, light, electromechanical devices of all types, and for the running of a host of electronic communications and data processing systems.

As such they must receive a professional education of great breadth and depth. Great emphasis is placed at Concordia on giving the student a solid foundation in mathematics, electrical and computer engineering fundamentals and design techniques so that they will be equipped both to contribute and to respond to a rapidly evolving technology. Of equal importance, though much less time is devoted to it in the curriculum, is the fostering of an awareness of the interaction of the profession and the society it serves, and of the ability to communicate effectively both with colleagues and with fellow citizens.

71.5.1 PROGRAMMES OFFERED

The Department in Electrical Engineering offers two distinct programmes, one of which leads to the Bachelor of Engineering in Electrical Engineering, the other to the Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Engineering.

71.5.2 COURSE REQUIREMENTS (B.ENG IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING)

The programme in Electrical Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, §71.2.4, the Electrical Programme Core shown below, and one of four elective options. The nominal length of the programme is 126.50 credits. Adjustments may be made on an individual basis as per Section 71.1.1.

Students admitted prior to September 1981 should consult the Programme Guide available in the Assistant Deans' Office.

DEPARTMENT OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

As in all branches of professional engineering, mechanical engineers are concerned with the creation of devices, systems, structures, and processes for human use. Their task is to apply scientific, mathematical, economic and social knowledge to satisfy specific needs. The services required of mechanical engineers encompass a very wide range of professional activity, such as design, research, development and management carried out in environments of equally diverse nature, such as industry, medicine, private practice, university and government.

Representative fields of endeavour for mechanical engineers include all forms of power generating equipment (steam, internal combustion, nuclear, jet rocket, fuel cells), the design of mechanisms and machines, controls and automation, vibration analysis, environmental control (heating, ventilation and refrigeration), materials handling and precision measurement.

Any of the specific fields may involve the design, construction and control of machines and equipment as well as the research and development of new processes, materials and techniques.

In view of the very wide range of activities in the field, the mechanical engineering curriculum consists of a combination of core courses with a series of technical electives. Strong emphasis is given to building on the principles presented in the basic engineering science and physical systems courses of the General Requirements. Further core courses are taken by all mechanical engineering undergraduates and deal with topics basic to the field, including thermodynamics, fluid mechanics, machine design and metallurgy. Technical electives allow students to obtain some specialization in a particular area of the field, depending on their interests and expected future professional activity. Three options of about 19 credits each are available in thermo fluid and propulsion engineering (Option A), design and production engineering (Option B), and in automation and control systems (Option C). A major option, of about 43 credits, in industrial engineering will be introduced over a two year period (1981-83). This option is designed to give students the background needed to define and solve problems related to the conception or improvement and implementation of integrated industrial systems involving people, materials and money.

71.6.1 COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The programme in Mechanical Engineering consists of the Engineering Core, Section 71.2.4, the Mechanical Programme Core and option requirements as shown below. The nominal length of the programme is 132.00 credits. Adjustments may be made on an individual basis as per Section 71.1.1.

Students admitted prior to September 81 should consult the Programme Guide available in the Assistant Deans' Office.

Engineering Mathematics

EMAT C212
Calculus and Differential Equations
(3 credits)

Vector functions of one variable, with applications. Introduction to ordinary differential equations. Functions of several variables: differentiation and multiple integrals.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorials: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: MATH C204 (CEGEP Math 105) previously or concurrently. MATH C205 (CEGEP Math 203).

EMAT C232
Matrices and Advanced Calculus
(3 credits)

Matrix algebra, characteristic value problems, diagonalization of Hermitian matrices. Cayly-Hamilton theorem and applications, quadratic forms, vector calculus.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorials: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: EMAT C212 previously or concurrently.

EMAT C252
Complex Variables (3 credits)

Algebra of complex numbers in Cartesian and polar forms; functions and inverse functions of complex variables. Derivatives and Cauchy-Riemann, analytic and harmonic functions. Exponential, trigonometric, hyperbolic and logarithmic functions. Complex line integrals, Cauchy-Goursat theorem, Cauchy integral formula. Taylor's and Laurent's series. Residue theorem and applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C212; EMAT C232; previously or concurrently.

EMAT C271
Applied Probability and Statistics
(3 credits)

Elementary probability theory. Binomial, normal and Poisson distribution. Sampling and decision theory. Curve fitting. Correlation theory. Applications to the analysis of experimental results. Factorial plans.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Note: See §200.7

EMAT C311
Transform Calculus and Partial Differential Equations (3 credits)

Elements of complex variables. The Laplace transform: Laplace transforms and their properties, solution of linear differential equations with constant coefficients. Further theorems and their applications. The Fourier transform: orthogonal functions, expansion of a function in orthogonal functions, the Fourier series, the Fourier integral, the Fourier transform, the convolution theorem. Partial differential equations: physical foundations of partial differential equations, introduction to boundary value problems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: EMAT C232.

EMAT C312
Laplace Transforms and Advanced Differential Equations (3 credits)

The Laplace Transform, its inverse and properties. Laplace Transform of periodic functions. Applications to solution of linear differential equations with constant coefficients. Orthogonal functions, Fourier series, Fourier Transform. The convolution theorem. Properties of special functions (e.g. Bessel, Legendre). Partial differential equations and introduction to boundary value problems. The Sturm Liouville problem.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C232 and C252.

EMAT C391
Numerical Methods in Engineering
(3 credits)

Roots of algebraic and transcendental equations; function approximation; numerical differentation; numerical integration; solution of simultaneous algebraic equations; numerical integration of ordinary differential equations.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorials: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211, EMAT C212.

Engineering

ENGR C212
Technical Drawing (2 credits)

Lettering, instruments, drawing practices; orthographic projections; pictorial views: isometric views, perspectives, sectional views, auxiliary views; dimensioning practices; working drawings: standard components, drawings of steel and concrete structures, mechanical and piping drawings, electrical and architectural drawings.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Tutorials: 2 hours per week.

ENGR C213
Descriptive Geometry (2 credits)

Spatial relationships of points, lines, planes, and solids. Application to pictorial representation of three-dimensional objects, intersections of planes and solids, developments, mapping and topographical problems.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C212.

ENGR C214
Engineering Drawing (2 credits)

Detailed study of machine elements and components, their representation in design and working drawings. Industry standards, use of drafting manuals and catalogs in the process of design. Tolerance systems and true positioning. An individual student design/drafting project will be an integral part of this course.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C213.

ENGR C221
Materials Science (3 credits)

Relationships between properties and internal structure; classification of materials; atomic bonding; molecular, crystalline and amorphous structures; crystal imperfections and mechanisms of structural change; microstructures; structures and mechanical properties of polymers. Phase diagrams. Introduction to heat treatment.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: CHEM C205 (CEGEP Chemistry 101).

ENGR C242
Statics (3 credits)

Resultant of force systems; equilibrium of particles and rigid bodies; distributed forces; statically determinate systems; cables and trusses; friction; moments of inertia; virtual work. Introduction to stress, strain and bending moment diagrams.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C212 previously or concurrently; PHYS C204 & C224 (CEGEP Physics 101), MATH C204 (CEGEP MATH 105).

ENGR C243
Dynamics (3 credits)

Kinematics of a particle and rigid body; forces and accelerations; work and energy; impluse and momentum; dynamics of a system of particles and rigid bodies, introduction to vibrations.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C212 and ENGR C242.

ENGR C244
Mechanics of Materials I (3.75 credits)

Stress, strain and elasticity; analysis and design of structural and machine elements subject to axial, torsional and bending loads; shear and bending moment diagrams; deflections; combined stresses; dynamic loading; repeated loads, stress concentration and fatigue.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C242, EMAT C212, EMAT C232 previously or concurrently.

ENGR C245
Applied Mechanics (3 credits)

Resultant of force systems, equilibrium of particles and rigid bodies; centroids and centre of gravity, friction; moments of inertia; kinematics of particles and rigid bodies; force and acceleration; work and energy; impulse and momentum for particles.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: PHYS C204 & C224 (CEGEP Physics 101); EMAT C212 previously or concurrently

ENGR C251
Thermodynamics I (3 credits)

Basic principles of thermodynamics and their application to various systems composed of pure substances and their homogeneous non-reactive mixtures. Simple power production and utilization cycles.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: MATH C203 (CEGEP Math 103).

ENGR C273
Basic Circuit Analysis (3.75 credits)

Current, voltage, power and energy; resistance, inductance and capacitance; sources. Series and parallel circuits. Formulation of equilibrium equations using node-to-datum voltages and using mesh currents. Networks theorems: Superposition, reciprocity, Thevenin, Norton, maximum power transfer. Step response of simple RC, RL and RLC circuits. Sinusoidal steady-state response of RLC circuits, power in a.c. circuits, frequency response, resonance. Coupled coils and transformers.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C212, previously or concurrently; PHYS C205 & C225 (CEGEP Physics 201)

ENGR C274
Physical Systems and Measurements (3.75 credits)

Time differentiation, time integration, and singularity functions. Network representation of mechanical, fluid and thermal systems in terms of lumped elements and through and across variables. Generalization of the methods of the basic electrical circuit analysis to the formulation of equilibrium equations and their solution. Application to problems of modelling and measurements in physical systems. Generalized impedance and system functions. Operational block diagrams and analog computer solutions.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C273.

ENGR C281
Technical Literature (2 credits)

Discussion of the corpus of scientific and technical literature, its forms and impact. Searching the literature. Research and referencing methods. Automated information retrieval sources and methods. Technical and scientific style. Preparation of reports, technical papers, abstracts, memos, letters, manuals, brochures, specifications, theses, etc. Some attention will be given to the special requirements of the Canadian milieu, and to Canadian studies on scientific and technical information.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.

ENGR C341
Mechanics of Materials II (3 credits)

Analysis of statically indeterminate systems; composite beams; introduction to inelastic action; energy methods; theories of failure; shear centre; unsymmetrical bending; bending of curved bars; introduction to linearized mathematical theory of elasticity; introduction to elastic stability.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C232, ENGR C244.

ENGR C361
Fluid Mechanics I (3 credits)

Fluid properties and flow characteristics; fluid statics, basic laws for systems and control volumes, conservation of mass, linear-momentum equation, moment-of-momentum equations, first law of thermodynamics, Bernouli equation, kinematics of flow, dynamics of flow, dimensional analysis and similitude, characteristics of real fluid flow, flow measurement.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C212 and C232; ENGR C251.

ENGR C362
Fluid Mechanics II (3.75 credits)

Incompressible viscous flow, steady closed conduit flow, fluid resistance and boundary layer effects, differential equations for open channel flow, specific energy, gravity waves hydraulic jump. Fluid machinery. Selected experiments in incompressible flow and in open channel flow.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C361

ENGR C372
Fundamentals of Control Systems
(3.75 credits)

General feedback theory; time and frequency domain analysis of feedback control systems; stability criteria; root-locus methods; modelling of d.c. servo; design of simple feedback systems; introduction to state-space methods.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C311 or C312; ENGR C274.

ENGR C402
Engineering Law (1.5 credits)

Different branches of law; engineering registration; negligence; law vs. ethics; contracts; labour organizations and legislation; workmen's compensation act.
Lectures: 1½ hours per week.

ENGR C403
Engineering Economy (1.5 credits)

Organization and financing of business enterprise; functions of management; CPM and PERT; economy studies for decision making, annual cash, present worth, and rate of return methods; multiple alternatives; depreciation; income tax.
Lectures: 1½ hours per week.

ENGR C410
Technical Report (1.5 credits)

All students in the B.Eng. programme must submit a technical report on entering their final year. This report is to be from 2,000 to 5,000 words in length and on a topic closely related to the option being taken. The topic must be approved by each student's department at least 3 months prior to submission and the letter of approval must accompany the report. The report must represent a review of a current engineering problem or current engineering practice. In some cases a student's summer work may provide a suitable basis for a report.

The report must be suitably researched, namely it should be based on a minimum of 10 references. It must be suitably documented (including library call numbers of all references) and illustrated, must be typewritten on one side only of 8½ x 11'' white paper of good quality and must be suitably bound. Students are referred to Form and Style: Theses, Reports, Term Papers, 4th Edition, by Campbell and Ballou, published by Houghton Mifflin.

The original and two photocopies which will be used for marking must be submitted to the office of the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs, by 5:00 p.m. on the third Monday after Fall classes begin. Unless late submission is authorized by the Engineering Undergraduate Studies Committee, any report submitted after this date will receive an F-INC grade, which grade will appear on the student record. Once marked, a second entry of the course code will be made along with the final grade.
Prerequisite: ENGR C281

ENGR C412
Operations Research (3 credits)

An introduction to the application of mathematical models to various industrial problems; queuing theory, game theory, linear programming, inventory theory and Monte Carlo Processes.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent.

ENGR C471
Time Domain Analysis and Design
(4 credits)

State space analysis and design of continuous and discrete systems. Controllability and observability, modal control, pole placement techniques, Luenberger observers, Liapunov stability.
Lectures: 4 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C372.

ENGR C472
System Optimization (3.75 credits)

Linear least squares. Properties of quadratic functions with applications to steepest descent method, Newton's method and Quasi-Newton methods for nonlinear optimization. One dimensional optimization. Introduction to constrained optimization, including the elements of Kuhn-Tucker conditions for optimality. Least p^{th} and mini-max optimization. Application of optimization techniques to engineering problems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: EMAT C391

ENGR C473
Control System Design (3.75 credits)

A course in industrial control design procedures by case study, including practical sensing, control, and actuating elements; optimization of system performance by choice of components and compensation; nonlinearities, introduction to multi-loop systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C372.

ENGR C475
Process Dynamics and Control
(3.75 credits)

Dynamics of mechanical and chemical processes: system capacity; resistance; piping complexes; characteristics and dynamics of control valves; process time constants; proportional, reset and derivative control actions; feedforward and cascade control; direct digital control. Case studies on liquid-level control, temperature and heat exchanger control.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C372.

Social Aspects of Engineering

ENGR C491
Engineers and Society (3 credits)

Sociological analysis of the interaction between the engineering profession and society, the development of the profession, growth of technical societies, trends in engineering and engineering technology eduction, relationship to other professions. Role of engineers in Canadian industry, government and industrial research.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

ENGR C492
Historical Impact of Technology on Society (3 credits)

Social history of technology and of science including ancient and mediaeval periods, industrial revolution and modern times. Engineering and scientific creativity, social and environmental problems created by uncontrolled technology, appropriate technology.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

ENGR C493
Engineering, Resources and Environment
(3 credits)

Sources, consequences and control of air, water, noise, solid and radiation pollution. Management of mineral and energy resources. Conservation of resources through engineering efficiency, recycling and communal practices. Renewable resources. Case studies of engineering projects.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

ENGR C494
Effect of Technology on the Person
(3 credits)

Psychological effects of various technologies. Changes in personal, family and community values arising from various patterns of industrial development. Enhancement of personal development by technology, adaptation of the machine to man; the organization man.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

ENGR C495
Technology Assessment and Control
(3 credits)

The organization of mechanisms and institutions to control and mediate the unwanted and unanticipated side-effects of contemporary technology. Environmental impact assessment, analysis of industrial health and safety, risk analysis. Technological forecasting, future studies, appropriate technology, the conserver society. Relationships of technology assessment to science policy, resource planning and energy strategy.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

ENGR C496
Science Policy and Engineering Innovation (3 credits)

An analysis of the basic concepts in science policy. The allocation of scientific manpower, priorities in research, development and demonstration (R, D and D) in the public and private sector, the process of invention and innovation and their social impact, the various institutions dealing with scientific and technological development. National and regional technological strategies, to technology assessment, resource conservation and energy strategy.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C281; registration in the final 3 terms of the programme.

Building Engineering

BLDG C341
Building Engineering Systems (3 credits)

Introduction to systematic solution of building engineering problems. Techniques treated include linear programming, network analysis, nonlinear programming, geometric programming and an introduction to decision analysis and simulation. Techniques illustrated by application to problems in building science, building environment, building structures and construction management.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211; EMAT C232, previously or concurrently.

BLDG C363
Building Science I (4 credits)

General introduction to the aural and visual environment. Subjective and objective scales of measurement. Laws of psychophysics. Introduction to vibration. The hearing mechanism. Transfer of sound. Passive control of noise in buildings, transmission loss. Absorption and reverberation time. Active control of the aural environment. Visual perception. Photometry, brightness, luminance and illumination. Natural lighting of buildings. Artificial lighting. Colorimetry.

Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C243 Note: Students having credit for BLDG C362 may not take this course for credit.

BLDG C364
Building Science II (4 credits)

General introduction to the thermal environment. Topics include: heat, temperature, thermal storage, conduction: steady state and transient processes. Convection: Natural and forced. Radiation. Combined radiative and convective surface transfer. Psychrometrics. Thermal comfort. Condensation: Surface and interstitial. Wind and snow effects.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C251, ENGR C362 previously or concurrently. Note: Students having credit for BLDG C361 may not take this course for credit.

BLDG C371
Building Service Systems (3 credits)

Principles of design of building service systems, including HVAC systems. Power and water supply systems, and vertical transportation systems. Inter-relationships and economics of various service systems.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C251; BLDG C363

BLDG C401
Building Economics (3 credits)

Development of economic performance measures of interest to developers, owners, contractors and users. Sources of finance and the determinants of the cost of money. Treatment of life cycle costing, economic risk; tax regulation, inflation, forecasting techniques; model building, cost indices, elemental estimating, computerized information systems. Consideration of economic analyses of projects, single buildings and building components.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: BLDG C341

BLDG C459
Computer Aided Building Design
(3 credits)

Identification of objectives, decision variables, processes and information flow in building design. Applications and evaluation of computer systems to components of building design process. Determination of decision variables in problem modeling and sensitivity of results. Current applications in structural analysis and design, space layout, electrical distribution systems, HVAC design, lighting design, estimating, specification editing and scheduling. Evaluation of issues of interdisciplinary information control and interchange.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: BLDG C341, C401 previously or concurrently.

BLDG C461
Building Enclosure Design (3 credits)

Influences on the exterior design of buildings. The interrelationship of visual, technical and contextual needs are examined for larger urban projects. Special emphasis is given to energy conserving designs. Analytical techniques are discussed for preliminary and detail design.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: BLDG C363, C364 and CIVI C321

BLDG C462
Building Materials I (3 credits)

Engineering properties of common building materials: structural, thermal, acoustical and illumination properties of assemblies of materials. Consideration of corrosion, biodegradation, solar radiation, shrinking and cracking. Laboratory sessions to illustrate deterioration, decay and protection of building materials. Synthesis given to design fabrication and installation procedures.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C321

BLDG C465
Fire and Smoke Control in Buildings
(3 credits)

Topics treated include: fire and smoke control; failure mechanisms of building enclosure, illustrated by case studies; performance codes for enclosure systems; enclosure design for extreme operation environments.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: BLDG C363, C364

BLDG C471
Building Energy Systems (3 credits)

Principles of design of interior environmental systems including thermal comfort, thermal load and HVAC systems analysis.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: BLDG C371

BLDG C472
Building Energy Conservation Technologies (3 credits)

Identification of the optimal energy performance achievable with various types of buildings and service systems.

Reduction of infiltration. Control systems and strategies to achieve optimal energy performance. Low energy heat rejection and recuperation systems. Effective utilization of daylight, heat pumps, passive and active solar heaters, heat storage, heat pipes and thermosyphons in new and old buildings.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: BLDG C471 previously or concurrently.

BLDG C473
Control of Noise in Buildings (3 credits)

Noise control criteria and regulations, instrumentation, noise sources, room acoustics, walls, barriers and enclosures, acoustical materials and structures, vibration and noise control systems for buildings.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: BLDG C363; BLDG C371, previously or concurrently.

BLDG C474
Building Illumination (3 credits)

Production, measurement and control of light; design of lighting systems. Design in respect to daylighting. Integration of lighting systems with mechanical systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: BLDG C363

BLDG C476
Heat Transfer in Buildings (3 credits)

Steady state heat conduction, convection and radiative heat exchange in the built environment, and transient heat flow in buildings.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C251, BLDG C363.

BLDG C481
Architectural Appreciation and Design (3 credits)

Historical and modern architectural theories. Meaning, intentions and formal issues in contemporary design. The influence of technology, energy conservation and environmental constraints on built form. Architecture vs. industrial design.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Completion of 20 courses.

BLDG C491
Labour and Industrial Relations in Construction (3 credits)

The study of labour legislation with special emphasis on the construction industry, union organization, the theory and practice of negotiations, mediation, contract administration and arbitration. Review of actual contracts, discussion of future trends.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C491

BLDG C492
Construction Methods (3 credits)

Construction methods, sequences and material handling techniques; impact of safety considerations; work methods studies; equipment policy, selection and replacement analysis.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C491

BLDG C493
Legal Issues in Construction (3 credits)

Legal concepts and processes applicable to the development of constructed facilities and to the operation of the construction firm. Emphasis on Quebec law and institutions.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C491.

Civil Engineering

CIVI C231
Geology (2.75 credits)

Basic principles of physical and structural geology, with emphasis on topics related to Civil Engineering; study of minerals, rocks and soil types, load formation, techniques of air photo interpretations and geological maps.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.

CIVI C271
Surveying (3 credits)

Elementary operations employed in engineering surveying; use, care and adjustment of instruments; linear and angular measurements; traversing; earthwork calculations; theory of errors; horizontal and vertical curves and curve layout; slope stakes and grades, application of surveying methods to city, and topographic surveying and introduction to advanced surveying techniques; use of digital computers in surveying calculations.

Summer school taken before entering second year of study in the B. Eng. programme. Lectures and Field Work: 8 hours per day; 6 days per week for 3 weeks.

CIVI C321
Engineering Materials (3.75 credits)

Microscopic properties of materials; engineering properties of structural metals; behaviour of wood; production and properties of concrete; bituminous materials, ceramics, plastics; introduction to composite materials.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.

CIVI C341
Civil Engineering Systems (3 credits)

Development of concepts and techniques commonly associated with systems engineering which are applicable to the design and operation of systems that concern Civil Engineers. Problem formulation, optimization, linear programming, sequencing, routing and scheduling, mathematical expectation, random models and queues. The techniques developed are used to solve problems in Transportation, Water Resources, Structures and Construction Management.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Registration in second year in Civil Engineering programme; EMAT C271; COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent.

CIVI C353
Structural Design (4 credits)

Behaviour and design of steel members: beams, columns, and beam-columns. Riveted, bolted, and welded connections. Behaviour and design of reinforced concrete members. Design of timber members.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C341 previously or concurrently.

CIVI C354
Structural Analysis (4 credits)

Analysis of statically determinate structures: influence lines, deflections. Analysis of statically indeterminate structures: the method of consistent deformations, the three moment equation, the slope deflection, and the moment distribution methods.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C341 previously or concurrently.

CIVI C372
Transportation Engineering (3 credits)

A survey of all transportation modes and introduction to some recent concepts of transportation system planning. Social and economic importance of transportation; essential elements of a transportation system, characteristics of different transportation modes.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: Registration in second year of the Civil Engineering programme; CIVI C341.

CIVI C381
Water Resources Engineering (3.5 credits)

Open channel hydraulics; critical flow, uniform and non-uniform flows; design of erodible and non-erodible channels; flow profile, classification and computation. Practical problems.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C362, CIVI C231 previously or concurrently; EMAT C271.

CIVI C431
Soil Mechanics (4.5 credits)

Index properties and classification of soils. Weight-volume relationships. Soil structures. Moisture-density relationships. Capillarity. Permeability. Flow nets and seepage. Neutral and effective stresses. Consolidation theory. Shear strength. Stresses in soil due to external loads. Lateral pressures. Soil exploitation. Load tests. Laboratory tests to illustrate lecture topics.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: CIVI C321 and completion of 20 courses.

CIVI C434
Advanced Soil Mechanics (3 credits)

Selected topics in mechanics of soil media including water flow, rheological behaviour and failure theories. Earth pressure theory. Slope stability.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C431.

CIVI C435
Foundation Design (3.75 credits)

Loads, bearing capacity and settlement. Lateral pressures. Foundation drainage and water-proofing. Spread footings. Strip footings. Pile foundations. Caissons. Retaining walls. Sheet piling walls. Braced cofferdams. Cellular cofferdams. Anchors.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: CIVI C354; C431.

CIVI C451
Advanced Structural Analysis (4 credits)

Analysis of frames, arches and cable structures; influence lines for statically indeterminate structures; plastic analysis; computer applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C354.

CIVI C452
Matrix Analysis of Structures (3 credits)

Classical and matrix methods of structural analysis; influence coefficients, transformation matrices. Matrix formulation of the force and of the displacement methods of analysis. Computer applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C311, CIVI C451, previously or concurrently.

CIVI C453
Advanced Reinforced Concrete Design (3.5 credits)

Design of reinforced concrete slabs, frames, prefabricated structures, girders, and shells; prestressed concrete structures.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C353.

CIVI C454
Advanced Steel Structures (3.5 credits)

Contemporary methods for analyzing and designing steel structures. Codes. Comprehensive design problems from the fields of steel buildings, bridges of various types, and cable structures.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C451.

CIVI C455
Introduction to Structural Dynamics (3 credits)

Theory of vibration. Dynamic response of simple structural systems. Effects of blast, wind, traffic and machinery vibrations. Basic concepts in earthquake resistant design. Computer applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: EMAT C391, CIVI C354, ENGR C243.

CIVI C471
Highway Design (4.50 credits)

Design controls and criteria including traffic and highway characteristics and capacity. Location and right-of-way. Earthworks. Geometric design of highways and terminals. Pavement design. Highway design project.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C372.

CIVI C472
Traffic Engineering (3 credits)

The vehicle, driver, and roadway system, traffic surveys, highway capacity and level of service, statistical distributions of traffic stream measurements, queuing processes, network analysis, surveillance and control concepts.
Lectures; 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C341 and C372.

CIVI C473
Urban Planning (3 credits)
(not currently offered)

The general planning process. Basic studies: population, economics and land use. Land use planning. Capital improvement programmes and financing. Plan implementation.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C372.

CIVI C474
Urban Transportation Planning (3 credits)

The systems approach to transportation planning process, supply and demand functions, travel forecasting models, land-use models, urban data collection and analysis, impact on the environment, evaluation of alternative transportation systems, future transportation technology.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: CIVI C341 and C372.

CIVI C481
Water Supply Systems (3.75 credits)

Water use cycle; capacity of water supply systems; sources of raw water; development of surface water and ground water; water quantities and requirements; design of distribution systems; storage; pumping; water quality; introduction to water purification practices.

Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: CIVI C381.

CIVI C482
Urban Sanitation (3.75 credits)

Sources, characteristics and quantities of waste waters; public health considerations; urban hydrology and drainage; design of sewers; introduction to wastewater treatment practices; disposal of wastes, stream pollution and control.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: CIVI C381.

CIVI C483
Hydrology (3.5 credits)

Hydrologic principles, precipitation, data collection and interpretation, floods, ground water hydrology.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C381.

CIVI C484
Hydraulic Engineering (3.5 credits)

Engineering economy and design of water resources systems; reservoir design and operating rules; flood control; navigation; drainage; irrigation; hydroelectric developments. Other selected topics.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C381; CIVI C483 previously or concurrently.

CIVI C485
Hydraulic Structures (3.5 credits)

Hydrological principles, selection and design of dams, spillways, outlet works and other hydraulic structures.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CIVI C483 previously or concurrently.

CIVI C491
Construction Engineering (3 credits)

The nature of construction and the environment in which the industry works; contractor objective; organizational structures for project delivery; rudimentary decision analysis; planning, scheduling and control of men, money, machines, materials and methods to control time cost and content.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Completion of 20 courses in the Civil Engineering programme.

Computer Engineering

COEN C411
Computer Organization & Software (3.75 credits)

Number systems and codes. Logical basis of computer structure; machine organization and functional units; machine programming including subroutines, linkages, macros and assembly systems; compilers and operating systems. Difference between mainframe, mini and microcomputer systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent.

COEN C413
Logic Design I (3.75 credits)

Digital design vs. analog design. Boolean algebra and its applications to electrical switching circuits. Analysis, design and optimization of combinational circuits. Transistor gates and their practical limitations. Modern integrated-circuit logic families such has RTL, DTL, TTL, ECL, MOSL and CMOSL applications of combinational circuits to electronic systems and instrumentation. Flip-flops and their application.
Lectures: 3 hours per week
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C311

COEN C414
Logic Design II (3.75 credits)

Characterization, analysis, design, and optimization of clock-mode, pulse-mode, and level-mode sequential circuits. Hazards. Read-only and random access memories. Design of counters and registers. Introduction to MSI and LSI components. Application of sequential circuits to electronic systems and instrumentation.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: COEN C413

COEN C416
Design of Digital Computers (3 credits)

Computer memories, registers and datapath. Register-transfer-level description of digital systems. Design of control and arithmetic units. Inter-system communication, input/output, design of interfaces. Parallelism in computer systems for increased speed of operation. Special computers such as microprocessors.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COEN C414; COEN C411.

COEN C417
Microprocessor Systems (3.75 credits)

Introduction to microprocessor architecture. Instruction set, addressing mode, and programming techniques. I/O systems, memories and interfacing. Developmental systems. Engineering applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: COEN C411, COEN C414 previously or concurrently.

COEN C474
Digital Computers in Systems (3.75 credits)

Application of digital computers to data acquisition and control systems; coding and data transmission; types of I/O and instrumentation for real-time applications. Design of real-time systems; the role of a real-time executive. Simulation of discrete-time systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: COEN C411 or COMP C322; ENGR C372

Electrical Engineering

ELEC C251
Fundamentals of Electrical Engineering
(3 credits)

Electric charge, Coulomb's Law, electrostatic forces, electric field, Gauss' Law, electric potential, stored energy. Dielectrics, properties of materials in electric fields. Electric current, conduction in a vacuum and in material media, displacement current, magnetic field of a current, force on a current-carrying wire, magnetic induction, electromotive force, energy stored in a magnetic field. Magnetism in material media, magnetic circuits. Time varying fields. Capacitance, resistance, inductance, elements of electric circuits.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C273, EMAT C232 previously or concurrently.

ELEC C311
Electronics I (4.5 credits)

Semiconductor diodes, rectifiers, and wave form-shaping circuits. Zener, varactor and tunnel diodes. Voltage and current amplifiers. Characteristics and operation of field-effect and bipolar transistors. Biasing techniques and thermal runaway. Field-effect and bipolar transistor amplifiers.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C274.

ELEC C312
Electronics II (4.5 credits)

Multistage transistor amplifiers. Small-signal analysis. Differential and power amplifiers. Operational amplifiers and their applications. High-frequency modeling of transistors. Frequency response of amplifiers. Oscillator circuits.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ELEC C311, ELEC C341.

ELEC C316
Fundamentals of Discrete Structures
(2 credits)

Set algebra; mappings and relations. Algebraic structures: semigroups and groups. Elements of the theory of undirected and directed graphs.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent; EMAT C232.

ELEC C318
Industrial Electronics (4.5 credits)

A survey of electronic components and systems used in industry. Analog devices: the transistor, the operational amplifier and their models. Amplifiers. Digital devices: gates, logic devices. Large scale integrated circuits, microcomputers.
Lectures: 3 hours per week
Laboratory: 3 hours per week
Prerequisite: ENGR C274

ELEC C321
Electrical Properties of Materials
(3.75 credits)

Structure of crystals. Electrical, magnetic, dielectric and optical characteristics and their measurements. Energy levels, localized states, and transport properties of solids. Recent device applications of metals, semimetals, semiconductors, semi-insulators and insulators.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C251.

ELEC C331
Electromechanics (4.5 credits)

Three-phase circuits. Power transformers. Energy in singly and doubly excited systems; principles of electromechanical energy conversion. Basic features and models of d.c. machines, 3-phase induction machines, 3-phase synchronous machines.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ELEC C251; ENGR C274 previously or concurrently.

ELEC C333
Electric Machines (3.75 credits)

Air gap field distribution, windings, harmonic content of induced voltages in rotating machines. Magnetic core calculations. Direct current machines, single-phase and three-phase induction motors, three-phase synchronous motors, selsyns, linear motors.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C331.

ELEC C334
Electric Machinery (3.75 credits)

Three-phase circuits. Magnetic fields, circuits and forces; transformers; basic features of rotating machines; models, characteristics and applications of d.c. machines, polyphase synchronous and induction machines.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C274. Note: Students in Electrical Engineering may not take this course for credit.

ELEC C341
Linear Network Analysis (3 credits)

The s-plane and system functions. Network topology and equilibrium equations. One and two port networks. Indefinite admittance matrix and applications. Introduction to transmission lines. Response to singularity functions. Transient response of networks and lines.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C312 previously or concurrently; ENGR C274.

ELEC C351
Electromagnetic Field Theory (3 credits)

The field concept. Maxwell's equations. Boundary conditions. Power and energy. The electrostatic field. Electrostatic potential. The concept of capacitance. Conformal mapping in electrostatics. Polarization. The concept of local field in matter. The magnetostatic field. The Biot-Savart law. The scalar magnetic potential. Plane waves. Total internal reflection. The Brewster angle.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C232 and C252, ELEC C251.

ELEC C401
Electrical Engineering Seminar (1 credit)

Near the end of their programme, students in Electrical Engineering hold meetings with faculty members. These meetings are organized to provide the student with an opportunity to exercise his ability to present and to defend his thoughts on topics of his own choice. Students will be encouraged to devote some of their discussions to such topics as continuing professional education, professional societies, organization of engineering employment, and professional ethics.
Seminars: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Completion of 17 courses.

ELEC C411
Pulse Circuits (4.5 credits)

Large signal analysis of diodes and transistors. Wave-shaping circuits. Function generation. Design of gates and their practical limitations. Negative resistance devices in pulse generation.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: EMAT C312, ELEC C312.

ELEC C415
Electronics III (3.75 credits)

Linear and nonlinear operational amplifier circuits such as stable-gain differential amplifiers, negative-impedance converters, gyrators, logarithmic amplifiers, precision rectifiers, voltage regulators, etc. Analog-to-digital and digital-to-analog converters. Computer-aided analysis of electronic circuits.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C312.

ELEC C421
Semiconductor Physics (3.75 credits)

Electrons in periodic lattices. Intrinsic and extrinsic semiconductors, p-n junctions, diodes and transistors, materials and p-n junction fabrication technology. Measurements of bulk properties.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C321.

ELEC C422
Solid State Device Design (4.5 credits)

Basic device technology; oxidation, photolithography, diffusion, metalization and epitaxy. Ebers-Moll transistor model in design form. Properties of Metal-Insulator-Semiconductor devices. Basic MOSFET theory and technology. Integrated-Circuit component design. Basic theory and technology of Optoelectronic, Surface-Field-Effect, and Bulk-Effect devices.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ELEC C421.

ELEC C431
Electrical Power Systems (3.75 credits)

Inductance, capacitance, resistance of polyphase transmission lines; current and voltage relations of transmission lines; load flow studies; symmetrical and unsymmetrical faults; power system stability.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C331.

ELEC C433
Static Power Converters (3.75 credits)

Circuits and operating principles of phase-controlled converters; external performance characteristics; harmonic content of d.c. output voltage and a.c. input current; dual converters; converters as power amplifiers. Application to variable speed drives; d.c. machine dynamics, feedback control.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: ENGR C372; ELEC C311 and C331.

ELEC C441
Modern Filter Design (3.75 credits)

Image parameters, constant-k and m-derived filters. The approximation problem. Design of Butterworth, Tchebyscheff, and Bessel filters as terminated lossless networks. Design of constant-resistance all-pass networks. Design of active-RC filters using operational amplifiers.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C341.

ELEC C442
Digital Filters (3 credits)

Introduction to recursive and non-recursive digital filters; the z-transform; realization methods; amplitude and phase characteristics and relevant approximations and transformations; comparison of digital with conventional filters; application of digital filters.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ELEC C341.

ELEC C453
Microwaves and Optics I (3.75 credits)

Uniform and nonuniform plane waves, surface waves, surface impedance. Impedance transformation, matching, Smith chart. Waveguide modes, cutoff frequency, dispersion, losses. Dielectric optical waveguides, surface waveguides, microstrip. Principles of light transmission optics. Basic antenna theory, linear dipole, aperture antennas, diffraction, linear arrays.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C312, ELEC C341 and C351.

ELEC C454
Microwaves and Optics II (3.75 credits)

Circuit theory for waveguiding systems, waveguide discontinuities. Binomial and Chebyshev impedance transformer design. Electromagnetic resonators, the Fabry-Perot resonator. Periodic structures, microwave filters. Faraday rotation and ferrite devices. E.M. wave propagation in optically active media, electro-optic devices. Principles of microwave tubes.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ELEC C453.

ELEC C455
Acoustics (3 credits)

Sound generation and propagation in elastic media; conversion between acoustical, electrical, and mechanical energy.

Lumped-parameter approximations, sound in rooms, underwater acoustics, microphones; loudspeakers and audio communications problems; noise and vibration control problems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ELEC C351.

ELEC C461
Communication Circuits and Systems (3.75 credits)

Principles of amplitude, frequency and phase modulation. Modulators, mixers, and demodulators. Representative examples of complete transmission systems. Qualitative treatment of modulation systems in the presence of noise.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C312; ELEC C312.

ELEC C462
Statistical and Digital Communications (3.75 credits)

Transmission and filtering of random signals, analysis of modulation systems, in particular Pulse Code Modulation, Phase Shift Keying, Frequency Shift Keying, etc., and introduction to noise analysis, information theory and coding.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C271; ELEC C461.

ELEC C481
Electrical Engineering Project (4 credits)

The Electrical Engineering project provides an opportunity for each student to carry out a design project associated with one or more of the specialist elective courses, under the supervision of a faculty member. The nature of the project selected should be such as to require independent study of current technical literature. When feasible the designs will be assessed in the laboratory. Each student is to present a complete report at the end of the project.
Equivalent laboratory time: 6 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Registration in final year.

ELEC C482
Topics in Electrical Engineering (3 credits)

This course may be offered in a given year upon the authorization of the Electrical Engineering Department. The course content may vary from offering to offering and will be chosen to complement the elective courses available in a given option or options.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department.

Industrial Engineering

INDU C310
Human Factor Engineering (3 credits)

This course treats the anatomical and physiological factors underlying design of man-machine interfaces; the psychological factors involved in the allocation of function between men and machines in an over-all system, for example, information processing capacity, acquisition and retention of skill, adaptability and the effects of stress.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.

INDU C313
Industrial Economics (3 credits)

Development of economic performance measures. Sources of finance and the cost of money. Consideration of: life cycle costing, economic risk, tax regulations, inflation, short and long term forecasting techniques, model building, cost indices, elemental estimating, computerized information systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ACCO C213.
Note: Students having completed BLDG C401 may not take this course for credit.

INDU C320
Production Engineering I (3 credits)

The systems approach to production; interrelationships among the component blocks of the system, including capacity planning, plant location, layout of physical facilities, maintenance.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.

INDU C321
Production Engineering II (3 credits)

A continuation of Production Engineering I, with emphasis on the design of the control systems for the production facility. Topics include allocation of resources, scheduling work methods and measurement, materials handling, process control and quality control.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: INDU C320.

INDU C323
Industrial Operations Research (3 credits)

An introduction to the application of mathematical models to various industrial problems; queuing theory, game theory linear programming, inventory theory and Monte Carlo processes.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: CEGEP Data Processing 911 or equivalent.

INDU C330
Organizational Management (3 credits)

Organizational structures, their growth and change. Motivation, leadership and group behaviour. Design of alternatives for improving organizational performance and effectiveness.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.

INDU C410
Safety Engineering (3 credits)

The design of plant layout and work stations in order to provide a safe work environment. Safety features for machines. Industrial training methods. Accident prevention programmes. Cost of industrial accidents.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: INDU C310.

INDU C411
Industrial Applications of Computers (3 credits)

Characteristics of computing systems from large scale machines to microcomputers. Applications of large machines including management information systems, inventory and production control. Determination of computing needs vis a vis the size of the machine used. Use of microcomputers as control elements in production systems. Automation. Future trends.

Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C251; ELEC C318.

INDU C420
Mathematics of Optimization (3 credits)

Optimization techniques for industrial engineering. Considered are: advanced topics in linear programming, separable programming, non-linear programming, multiplier theory. Applications to production and inventory scheduling.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisites: INDU C323, INDU C321.

INDU C423
Inventory Control (3 credits)

The basic features of production systems and methods of modelling their operation; materials requirement planning; inventory control; the role of inventories in physical distribution; inventories in manufacturing, aggregate planning and scheduling.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: INDU C323, INDU C321.

INDU C480
Industrial Engineering Project (4 credits)

Students will be assigned, as individuals or as small groups, specific industrial engineering projects. It is expected that these projects will be drawn from local industry and will thus reflect actual problems faced by industry. The project report will be prepared under the supervision of a staff member.
Lectures: 1 hour per week, 1 term.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, 2 terms.
Prerequisites: Completion of 20 courses.
Co-requisites: INDU C481.

INDU C481
Industrial Engineering Seminar (1 credit)

Students are given the opportunity to make oral presentations of the work carried out for their project. These presentations will be video-taped and used as a teaching tool to improve verbal communication abilities.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Co-requisite: INDU C480.

Mechanical Engineering

MECH C311
Mechanical Engineering Laboratory I (3 credits)

Fundamentals of manufacturing processes and their limitations, metrology, machine shop practice, forming, machining and casting processes, welding and joining, plastic production and non-conventional machining techniques. Laboratory includes use of basic machines, preparation of shop drawings with emphasis on production and field trips to local industries.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisite: MECH C312 previously or concurrently.

MECH C312
Mechanical Engineering Design I (3 credits)

Introduction to engineering design procedures through the use of open-ended design projects. Lecture topics will include engineering design process, consideration of alternatives, specifications, pencil thinking, principle of design synthesis, dimensioning for manufacture and interchangeability, quality control, presentation of engineering data and calculations; application of computer graphics in design.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C214; COMP C211 or equivalent.

MECH C321
Strength and Failure in Metals (3 credits)

The service capabilities of alloys and their relationship to microstructure as produced by thermal and mechanical treatments; material codes; material selection for design; strengthening mechanisms, composite materials. Modes of failure of materials; fracture, fatigue, wear, creep, corrosion, radiation damage.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C221.

MECH C341
Kinematics of Mechanisms (2.5 credits)

Geometry of motion and mobility criteria; kinematic analysis and synthesis of linkages; theory of spur gears, helical, worm and bevel gearing; gear trains and differentials; cam kinematics.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Tutorial: 2 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: EMAT C232; ENGR C243.

MECH C342
Dynamics of Machines (2.5 credits)

Kinematic analysis of space mechanisms; static and dynamic analysis of planar mechanisms and gear trains; dynamic analysis of space mechanisms; gyroscopic forces; balancing of rating and reciprocating machinery.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Tutorial: 2 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: MECH C341.

MECH C351
Thermodynamics II (3.75 credits)

Thermodynamic functions and equation, relationships between properties; behaviour of gases and their nonreactive mixtures; combustion. Applications of thermodynamics to power production and utilization systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C251.

MECH C352
Heat Transfer I (3.75 credits)

Steady state and transient heat conduction, numerical methods for two-dimensional steady state heat conduction. Radiation heat exchange between black bodies, between grey bodies and from gases, vapours and flames.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: EMAT C311.

MECH C373
Instrumentation and Measurements
(3.75 credits)

Unified treatment of measurement of physical quantities. Principle, characteristics, design and calibration of components and systems for measuring position, velocity, acceleration, force pressure, flowrate, temperature, proximity detection, etc. Background knowledge of electronics covering signal generation and processing. Concepts of accuracy and repeatability, linearity, response criteria, bandwidth, input and output impedance, matching of measuring systems, drift and bias.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C274.

MECH C411
Mechanical Engineering Laboratory II
(3 credits)

Analytical review of current design practices and specification of standard components encountered in mechanical engineering. Introduction to overall system reliability estimates, interchangeability of mechanical devices and influence of stress-strength in determining the actual configuration of mechanical elements. Standard components covered include: various types of mechanical drives, cams, clutches, couplings, brakes, seals, fasteners, springs and bearings.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: MECH C311.

MECH C421
Deformation and Mechanical Shaping of Metals (3.75 credits)

The mechanisms of deformation and softening and the effects of processing variables on the mechanical properties of metals: cold working, annealing and hot working of metals. The effects of mechanical parameters and materials properties on the processing and on the product. Mechanical forming: shear line theory, extruding, forging, rolling, drawing. Metal cutting: machineability, metrology. Powder technology. Shaping of plastics; extrusion, molding, vacuum, forming, lamination.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C221.

MECH C423
Thermal Treatment and Processing of Metals (4 credits)

Science and technology of thermal treatments for controlling the internal structure and the external shape of metals. Equilibrium phase diagrams. Kinetics of phase transformations, diffusion. Thermomechanical treatments of steel. Precipitation hardening. Solidification. Casting. Welding. Non-destructive testing. Finishing processes.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C221.

MECH C441
Mechanical Engineering Design II
(3 credits)

Concepts in design; failure of mechanical elements under dynamic loading; shafting; bolted and welded joints; anti-friction and journal bearings; design of gears.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: ENGR C244; MECH C312 and C342.

MECH C443
Mechanical Vibrations (3.75 credits)

Transient vibrations under impulsive shock, and arbitrary excitation: normal modes, free and forced vibration. Multi-degree of freedom systems, influence coefficients, orthogonality principle, numerical methods. Continuous systems; longitudinal torsional and flexural free and forced vibrations of prismatic bars. Lagrange's equations. Vibration measurements.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1 hour per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: EMAT C311; ENGR C274; MECH C342.

MECH C445
Machine Design (3.5 credits)

Design of springs; design of gear and hydraulic drives, design for hydrodynamics and hydrostatic lubrication; optimum design of mechanical systems, design strategy, value and merit function, maximizing and minimizing procedures. Laboratory work includes an advanced design project representative of those encountered in industry.
Lectures: 2 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: MECH C441.

MECH C452
Heat Transfer II (3.75 credits)

Review of momentum transfer, free and forced convection heat transfer, dimensional analysis as applied to convection heat transfer configurations, heat exchangers, introduction to mass transfer.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: ENGR C362; MECH C352.

MECH C453
Environmental Control (3 credits)

The effect of air temperature and humidity on physiological comfort, overall heat-transmission coefficients across building sections, heating load calculations, the effect of solar radiation on air-conditioning load, cooling load calculations, heating, air-conditioning and ventilating systems, design of piping and duct arrangement.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: MECH C352.

MECH C455
Introduction to Nuclear Engineering
(3 credits)

Nuclear engineering principles. Nuclear reactions and reactors; control, heat removal and safety. Processing and properties of reactor fuels, moderators and coolants.

Types of power reactors; radiation safety and protection.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: MECH C351 and C352.

MECH C461
Gas Dynamics (3.75 credits)

Review of one-dimensional compressible flow. Normal and oblique shock waves; Prandtl-Meyer flow; combined effects in one-dimensional flow; non-ideal gas effects; multi-dimensional flow; linearized flow; method of characteristics. Selected experiments in supersonic flow, convergent-divergent nozzles, hydraulic analogue and Fanno tube.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: ENGR C362; MECH C351.

MECH C462
Turbomachinery and Propulsion
(3 credits)

Overview of the gas turbine and its applications. Review of Brayton cycle and cycle modifications. Components arrangement, gas turbine cycles for propulsion. The Euler turbine equation, velocity triangles, dimensional analysis of turbomachines. Two dimensional cascades. Centrifugal compressors and radial turbines. Axial flow compressors and turbines. Three-dimensional flow effects and radial equilibrium. Prediction of performance and off-design operation.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: ENGR C362.

MECH C463
Fluid Power Control (3.75 credits)

Introduction to Fluid Power; pneumatic devices; fluidic devices; hydraulic system components; hydraulic and electro-hydraulic systems; dynamic performance of fluid power systems; fluid logic.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisites: ENGR C361 and C372.

MECH C464
Aerodynamics (3 credits)

Theory of potential flow fields. Flows over immersed bodies, superposition of basic flows, method of source panels. Aerodynamic characteristics of isolated airfoils and of cascades of airfoils. The finite wing. Analytical and computational methods of subsonic and transonic flows over air foils. Boundary layer effects and control.
Lecture: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: MECH C461.

MECH C465
Gas Turbine Design (3.75 credits)

Study of practical criteria which influence the design of a gas turbine engine including relevant mechanical and aerodynamic constraints. The aerodynamics of each of the three major components of a modern turbofan engine, namely the compressor, the combustor and the turbine is considered. Air system acoustics, engine aerodynamic matching of components, and modern performance testing methods. A design project is assigned for each of these components.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week, alternate weeks.
Prerequisite: MECH C462.
Co-requisite: MECH C464.

MECH C471
Microprocessors and Applications
(3 credits)

Introduction to the concepts and practices of using microprocessors and micro-computers in such applications as instrumentation, manufacturing, control and automation; architecture and programming techniques; design of interface logic circuits: I/O systems; case studies of engineering applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COEN C411.

MECH C481
Design of Experimental Project (3 credits)

A mechanical engineering design, simulation or experimental project appropriate to the senior level carried out under the supervision of a faculty member. A complete report is required at the end of the project.
Equivalent laboratory time: 6 hours per week.
Prerequisite: Registration in final year.

71.8.1 BACHELOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE PROGRAMME

A new Concordia University Computer Science Department, with a revised set of course offerings, has replaced the old SGW and Loyola Departments of Computer Science. The Commerce component of the former Loyola Computer Science offerings has been transferred to the Faculty of Commerce and Administration. The re-structuring of courses is clearly indicated in the Equivalents Index Section 200.6.

71.8.2 CURRICULUM FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

The University offers a programme leading to the degree of Bachelor of Computer Science with four Options, namely General Science, Digital Systems, General Business and Mathematics. To be recommended for the degree of Bachelor of Computer Science, students must satisfactorily complete an approved programme of at least 90 credits, comprising 42 credits of the core requirements and at least 48 credits as specified for one of the four options.

71.8.3 COMPUTER SCIENCE CORE

24 COMP C221[3], C231[3], C241[3], C251[3], C322[3], C352[3], C443[3], C453[3]
3 COMP C361[3] or EMAT C391[3] or MATH C311[3]
15 From Computer Science courses at or above the 300 level, of which not more than 3 credits may be chosen from COMP C311, C321, C341, C351, and C421.

1. General Science Option

42 Computer Science Core
18 MATH C241[6], C261[6], and C281[6].
3 Elective credits in Computer Science at the 300 level or above.
21 Elective credits* chosen from
a) those offerings of the Faculty of Arts and Science which are creditable as science credits towards a 90 credit B.Sc. programme.
b) those offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration which are creditable towards a 90 credit B.Com. or B.Admin. degree.
c) those offerings of the Faculty of Engineering other than COMP C211.
d) other courses as authorized by the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs, in consultation with the Department.
6 Elective credits.*

* Certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes, or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or Option Cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on choice of electives is found in the Faculty programme guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean's Office

2. Digital Systems Option

42 Computer Science Core
33 EMAT C212[3], C232[3], C252[3], C271[3], C312[3], ENGR C273[3.75], C274[3.75],
ELEC C311[4.50]
COMP C325[3], C426[3]
12 Chosen from ENGR C372[3.75], C471[4]
ELEC C312[4.50], C341[3], C411[4.5], C441[3.75], C442[3], C461[3.75], C462[3.75]
COEN C474[3.75]
COMP C323[3], C342[3], C475[3]
6 Elective credits from any department.*

* Certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or Option Cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on the choice of electives is found in the Faculty programme guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean's Office.

3. General Business Option

42 Computer Science Core
6 Accountancy C213; C218
6 Economics C201; C203
3 Finance C314
3 Management C266
3 Marketing C213
9 Quantitative Methods C243; C244; C313
9 Elective credits from Commerce and Administration **
9 Elective credits from any department*

 Students would normally register for FINA C315, MANA C213 or C340, and MARK C350. Students exempt from MANA C213 would normally substitute MANA C340. Other choices must be approved by the Computer Science department.

* Certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or Option Cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on the choice of electives is found in the Faculty programme guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean's Office.

4. Mathematics Option

42 Computer Science Core
18 Math C241[6], C261[6], C281[6]
3 Elective credits in Computer Science at the 300 level or above
9 credits in mathematics chosen from one of the lists below
6 credits in mathematics, chosen from courses at the 300 level or above
6 elective credits* chosen from
  a) those offerings of the Faculty of Arts and Science which are creditable as science credits towards a 90 credit B.Sc. programme.
  b) those offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration which are creditable towards a 90 credit B.Com. or B.Admin. degree.
  c) those offerings of the Faculty of Engineering other than COMP C211.
  d) other courses as authorized by the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs, in consultation with the Department.
6 elective credits*

* Certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or Option Cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on the choice of electives is found in the Faculty programme guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean's Office.

List 1 Discrete Mathematics: MATH C322, C381, C392, C393, C394, C432, C491, C492.

List 2 Numerical Methods and Operations Research: MATH C312, C331, C381, C431, C432, C434, C435.

List 3 Probability and Statistics: MATH C342, C343, C344[6], C345[6], C351, C353, C451.

71.8.4 HONOURS PROGRAMME

Students should refer to Sections 16.2.4 and 16.2.5 of the calendar for academic regulations for the Honours Programme. In addition the following regulations apply to the B. Comp. Sc. programme.

1. Students who are required to withdraw from the honours programme must enter the General Science Option.
2. Students entering the honours programme from the General Science option of the B. Comp. Sc. must complete a minimum of 30 credits towards the degree after having been accepted as honours students. Other students entering the programme with advanced standing must complete a minimum of 30 credits of the basic honours requirements after having been accepted as honours students.
3. Students in the honours programme are required to confirm their standing with the Computer Science Department by November 15 of each year.

Requirements for Honours

Basic Requirements
Year I

12 Comp C221, C231, C241, C251
18 MATH C241, C261, C281
Year II and III
18 COMP C322, C352, C443, C453, C491
3 chosen from COMP C361, MATH C311
6 MATH C271, C351
3 chosen from COMP C323, C325
3 chosen from COMP C436, C465
3 chosen from COMP C342, C441, C445
3 chosen from COMP C455, C456
3 chosen from COMP C426, C471, C475
6 chosen from MATH C331, C342, C343, C344[6], C345[6], C434.

Courses outside the basic requirements:

6 Elective credits* chosen from
  a) those offerings of the Faculty of Arts and Science which are creditable as science credits towards a 90 credit B.Sc. programme.
  b) those offerings of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration which are creditable towards a 90 credit B.Com. or B.Admin. degree.
  c) those offerings of the Faculty of Engineering other than COMP C211.
  d) other courses as authorized by the Assistant Dean, Undergraduate Student Affairs, in consultation with the Department.
6 elective credits*

* Certain courses are not creditable towards some 90-credit programmes, or cover certain material already found in the Computer Science or Option Cores. As such they are not recognized as electives. A listing of these exclusions and other information on the choice of electives is found in the Faculty programme guide. Exceptions require the approval of the Dean's Office.

71.8.5 MINOR IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

This programme is offered on both campuses.

Minor in Computer Science

12 COMP C211, C221 or C321, C231, C241
12 Computer Science electives.

71.8.6 PROGRAMMES IN DATA PROCESSING

Both major and minor programmes in Data Processing can be found in the Commerce and Administration section of the undergraduate calendar, Section 61.

71.8.7 DISCONTINUED PROGRAMMES

For requirements for the following programmes, see the 1978/79 undergraduate calendar.

Bac. Spec. (Math and Comp. Sc.)
Bac. Spec. (Comp. Sc.)
B.Sc. Major in Computer Science
Minor in Scientific Computing (Loyola Campus)
Minor in Computer Science (SGW Campus)

71.8.8 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Please note that the former offerings of the SGW and the Loyola departments of Computer Science have merged into a single set of offerings of the Concordia Department of Computer Science. For equivalent course numbers please consult section 200.6. Students who have taken a given course under an old number may not repeat it for credit under an equivalent number.

COMP C211
Introduction to Computers and Computing (3 credits)

An introduction to the essential features of computers and computing systems. Problem analysis, algorithms and flowcharts. Detailed specifications of the FORTRAN language. This course will include programming assignments, to be prepared, tested, and documented individually.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.

COMP C217
Computers in Society (3 credits)

An introductory course for Arts students with no previous experience of computers. It covers the history of computers, the component parts of a computer, how human beings and computers pass information to each other, and what computers can (and cannot) be used for in the fields of education, research, business, medicine, art, government and the humanities. The effect of computers on society and the individual. Available as an elective for all students, but may not be taken for additional credit by students who already have credit for COMP C211, QUAN C211 or C217.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.

COMP C221
Introduction to Assembly Language Programming (3 credits)

Computer structure, machine language, instruction execution, addressing techniques and digital representation of data, symbolic coding and assembly systems; macro definition and generation. Programme segmentation and linkage; loading. Systems and utility programmes; programming techniques. Introduction to the facilities provided by operating systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent.

COMP C231
Introduction to Discrete Structures
(3 credits)

Introduction to a high level programming language and fundamental algebraic, logical and combinatoric concepts such as: Set algebra; mappings and relations. Algebraic structures; semi-groups and groups. Elements of the theory of directed and undirected graphs. Boolean algebra and propositional logic. Applications of these structures to various areas of computer science.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent, previously or concurrently.

COMP C241
Computer Languages and Programming
(3 credits)

Precision programming by use of structured programming techniques. Definitions and specifications of syntax and semantics of programming languages. Use of high-level languages with examples chosen from discrete structures.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent; MATH C205 (CEGEP Math 203); COMP C231 or ELEC C316.

COMP C251
Introduction to Business Programming
(3 credits)

Introduction to business data processing. Basic file organization and handling, record layouts, elementary information storage and retrieval. Detailed specifications of the Common Business Oriented Language (COBOL). Structured programming concepts will be emphasized. This course will include programming assignments involving basic business applications, to be prepared, tested and documented individually.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 or QUAN C223 or COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent.

COMP C311
Advanced FORTRAN Programming
(3 credits)

Discussion of concepts in advanced FORTRAN programming, using examples from numerical analysis. Topics to be covered will include: double precision, complex, and Boolean arithmetic, character-string manipulation; object time FORMAT; use of mass storage devices; file handling; use of software packages such as IMSLIB, SSP; introduction to structured programming and structured FORTRAN.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C211.

COMP C321
Assembler Language Programming I
(3 credits)

Review of the basic concept of IBM 360/370 architecture and instruction repertoire. Memory access and storage. Detailed flowcharting of problems. Rules for coding assembler language programmes, including use of base registers, programme linking and sectioning and the use of macro instruction. Documentation, debugging and testing of programmes. Students will write and run several programmes on an IBM 360/75 computer.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C251 or C311.

COMP C322
Computer Organization (3 credits)

Organization, logic design and components of a digital computer. Data representation and transfer. Digital Arithmetic. Digital storage and accessing. The arithmetic logic unit, control section and timing. Input-output devices and channels. System organization.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C221 or C321, C311 or C241, or equivalent.

COMP C325
Fundamentals of Digital Design (4 credits)

Review of binary arithmetic and Boolean algebra as applied to logic design. Combinational logic design techniques, sequential circuit design and analysis. Circuit design using SSI and MSI elements. Introduction to digital systems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 2 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 (CEGEP Data Processing 911) or equivalent, and COMP C231, or permission of the Department.

COMP C341
PL/1 Programming (3 credits)

Study of the basic rules and important features of the PL/1 language. This will be integrated with the solution of a variety of practical computer programming problems, both scientific and commercial.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C241 or C251 or C311.

COMP C342
Programming Languages and Compiler Theory (3 credits)

Review of assembler and macro instructions. Symbol tables and storage allocation. Problem oriented languages. List processing and string manipulation languages. Structure of algorithmic languages. Compiler organization; statement identification and decomposition, syntax analysis, code generation, runtime routines, error diagnostics, code optimization. Compiler writing languages.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C221 and C241.

COMP C351
Advanced Cobol Programming (3 credits)

Review of basic COBOL programming principles and techniques. Interfacing with the operating system; job control language. Advanced topics to be covered include: sorting, table handling, indexing and searching; report writing; direct access file handling and updating; subprograms; declaratives; source libraries; segmentation; design and structured programming will be emphasized. This course will include programming assignments.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C251.

COMP C352
Data Structures (3 credits)

A detailed study of the basic data structures commonly used in data processing; techniques for data manipulation in structures such as stacks, queues, linked lists and trees; the management of memory space and overflow; internal sorting, external sorting and hash table methods. Emphasis will be on the design, implementation and evaluation of the various methods and the best choices of data structures for different applications.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C241 and C251, or permission of the Department.

COMP C361
Elementary Numerical Methods (3 credits)

Introduction to numerical algorithms fundamental to scientific computer applications. Errors; interpolation and curve fitting, solution of polynomials and non-linear equations; numerical integration; Matrix and solution of systems of linear equations; Numerical solution of ordinary differential equations; Linear programming and simplex method. Emphasis on the algorithmic approach; efficiency.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: MATH C204 (CEGEP MATH 105) or equivalent; COMP C311 or C241.

COMP C362
Computer Applications of Statistics
(3 credits)

This course is designed to familiarize the student with the application of computers to statistical problems. Computer terminals and batch processing of Fortran programs are used to develop a working knowledge of standard programs for control charts, analysis of experimental design, sampling plans, forecasting, and statistical analysis common to many other fields. Students are expected to be familiar with elementary statistics and to be able to program in Fortran.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C211 and one statistics course.

COMP C372
Teleprocessing (3 credits)

The study of remote control of computers by human operators or by other computers. The following topics will be covered: the categories of data transmission systems, channel capacities, communication line characteristics, modems, coding systems, transmission modes, transmission errors, various types of dialogue between man and computer, networks, terminals and control units, programmes and software.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: QUAN C233 or COMP C221.

COMP C421
Assembler Language Programming II (3 credits)

Continuation of Computer Science C321. Further exercise in assembler language programming for the IBM 360/370. A study of assember languages for other computers, including UNIVAC 9300 and the DEC PDP-11.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C321 or permission of the Department.

COMP C423
Mini-Computer Systems (4.5 credits)

Note: Students who have credit for COMP C323 may not take this course for credit.

Hardware and software structures relating to mini-computers. Processor architecture, input-output architecture, and operating system components. The laboratory provides hands-on access to mini-computer systems using machine and assembly language programming.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C322, or permission of the Department.

COMP C426
Microprocessor Systems and Applications (4.5 credits)

Microprocessor architectures and assembly languages. Standard LSI system components. Interface design using MSI and LSI. Microcomputer system architecture. Microcomputer peripheral devices and functions. Interface control programming.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C322 and C325, or permission of the Department.

COMP C427
Advanced Topics in Microprocessor Systems (4 credits)

State of the art microcomputer architectures. Bit slice microprocessors, advanced LSI interface and controller circuits, multiprocessor systems.
Lectures: 3 hours/week
Laboratory: 2 hours/week
Prerequisite: COMP C426

COMP C435
Formal Languages and Syntactic Analysis (3 credits)

Definition of formal grammars: arithmetic expressions and precedence grammars; context-free and finite-state grammars. Algorithms for syntactic analysis; recognizers, backtracking and operator precedence techniques. Semantics of grammatical constructs. Simple syntactical compilation. Relationship between formal languages and automata.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C352.

COMP C436
Introduction to the Theory of Automata (3 credits)

Description of finite state automata and machines, state transition diagrams and matrices. Regular expressions, Kleen's theorem, congruence and reduction. Chomsky hierarchy and its relation to machines. Computability, Church's thesis, and Turing machines. Sequential and other types of machines. Relationships to corresponding grammars.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C241.

COMP C441
Advanced Programming Languages (3 credits)

Concepts of, comparison of, and practice in several of the following programming languages: ALGOL, LISP, PL/1, SIMULA67, and SNOBOL.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C352.

COMP C443
Computer Operating Systems (3 credits)

Software organization. Translating, linking, loading and executing. Control programs for batch processing, time-sharing and real-time applications. Accounting. Communication between program units. Multiprogramming and multiprocessing systems. Addressing techniques, paging and memory management. Control of parallel input-output processing, buffers and interrupt facilities. File systems. Protection. Detailed analysis of a small operating system.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C241 and C322.

COMP C445
Heuristic Programming (3 credits)

The definition of heuristic vs. algorithmic methods; rational heuristic approach; nonnumeric symbolic programming; self-organizing systems; heuristic pro-techniques including a list of the uses of list processing languages; survey of examples from representative application areas including artificial intelligence, and other advanced computer application areas.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C352.

COMP C453
File and Data Bases (3 credits)

This course is a continuation of C352 covering file structures and data bases. Random, index sequential, inverted, and multilist file structures; concept of data models, data language, data security and data integrity. The organization, storage, search and retrieval methods of Hierarchical, Network and Relational data models will be discussed.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Tutorial: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C352.

COMP C455
Principles of Data Processing
(3.75 credits)

Study of techniques used in data processing applications. Preparation and handling of data, file organization and design, storage device characteristics, programming techniques, documentation, interpretation and validity of results. Examples of business systems. Introduction to systems analysis. This course will include the analysis, design and implementation of a computer-oriented business system.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisite: COMP C351 or C352

COMP C456
Information Retrieval (3 credits)

The basic problems of information retrieval. Document and library data bases. Question logic and processing considerations. Structure of search programmes for batched questions with sequential and inverted files. Practical considerations in system design. Measures of retrieval effectiveness.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C352 or equivalent.

COMP C465
Analysis of Algorithms (3 credits)

Empirical and theoretical measures of the efficiency of algorithms. A study of good algorithms related to sorting, matrix multiplication, fast Fourier transform, integer and polynomial arithmetic, and graph theory. A survey of hard problem, NP-completeness, and interactable problems.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C352 and C361, or permission of the Department.

COMP C471
Computer Graphics (3.75 credits)

Display memory; generation of points, vectors, etc. Interactive versus passive graphics; CRT devices and plotters, analog storage of images. Digitizing and digital storage. Pattern recognition. Data structures and graphics software. The mathematics of three-dimensional transformations; projections. Applications in computer-aided design and instruction.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Laboratory: 1½ hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C352 and C443.

COMP C475
Discrete System Simulation (3 credits)

Discrete random variables and their distributions. A comparison of simulation techniques: discrete, continuous and hybrid. Queueing models, analysis of data. Model building. Review of simulation languages. Application to business problems and operations research.
Lectures: 3 hours per week.
Prerequisites: COMP C241; MATH C241 or QUAN C244 or EMAT C271.

COMP C490
Computer Science Seminar and Project
(3 credits)

Individual work on a computer science project under the supervision of a faculty member, and a series of seminars dealing with topics of current interest by faculty members, students and industry representatives. At least 60 hours of work must be done on a project approved in advance, including the submission of a technical report. Special arrangements can be made with the Department to accept a project carried out be a student employed in a commerical firm.
Note: Students who have credit for COMP C491 may not take this course for credit.
Note: This course is offered on the Loyola Campus only.

COMP C491
Computer Science Project (6 credits)

The students will work on a major project under the direction of a faculty member, and submit a suitable written report on the work carried out. Students planning to register for this course should consult with the department in the fall term preceding entry into the final term of study.
Prerequisite: Permission of the Department.

71.9 Certificate Programme in Quality Control

The programme leading to the Certificate in Quality Control is offered at the Loyola campus, in the evening only.

71.9.1 ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Applications for admission to the certificate programme in Quality Control are submitted to the Admissions Office at the Loyola Campus.

General Admission requirements are listed in §13.

Special requirements are a Diploma of Collegial Studies, or its equivalent, including the CEGEP courses Math 101, 103, 105 and 203, or their equivalents.

71.9.2 CURRICULUM FOR THE CERTIFICATE IN QUALITY CONTROL

To be recommended for the award of the Certificate in Quality Control, students must satisfactorily complete the programme of 48 credits specified below. Of the total credits required, 36 pertain directly to quality control, while the remainder are from computer science, mathematics and other allied areas. The courses offered in the programme will provide the student with an in-depth understanding and working knowledge of the principles and practices used in the rapidly expanding field of quality control.

The programme is fully endorsed by the Montreal Section of the American Society for Quality Control (ASQC). It has been designed in keeping with the requirements stipulated by the Education Institute of the ASQC headquarters and, as such, does much to prepare candidates for the ASQC Quality Engineer Certificate examinations. It should be noted, however, that the certificate programme does not lead to admission to the Order of Engineers of Quebec, or to the legal use of the title Engineer.

71.9.3 ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Students are subject to the academic regulations of the University.

71.9.4 COURSE REQUIREMENTS

To be recommended for the award of the Certificate, students must satisfactorily complete the following courses:

QUAL C200	Elementary Metrology
QUAL C201	Advanced Metrology
QUAL C202	Statistical Quality Control
QUAL C203	Statistical Sampling
QUAL C204	Basic Concepts of Reliability
QUAL C205	Reliability Engineering
QUAL C206	Quality Management
QUAL C207	Design of Experiments
QUAL C208	Quality Assurance Technology
QUAL C209*	Accounting for Quality Control
QUAL C210	Computer Applications of Statistics
COMP C211	Introduction to Computers and Computing

3 elective credits from Computer Science or Quantitative Methods

* Students admitted before 01 June 1980 may replace this course with QUAN C221.

Course descriptions are given below, except for those with the prefixes QUAN or COMP, which may be found in the Commerce and Administration and Computer Science sections of the calendar.

71.9.5 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Please note that new course numbers have been implemented. For equivalent course numbers under the old system, please consult §200.6.

QUAL C200
Elementary Metrology (3 credits)

An introductory course dealing with general measurement concepts, methods for estimating accuracy, systematic and constant errors.

Included are: mathematical bases of metrology, statistical analysis of measurement, master standards, principles involved in the use of projectors, pneumatic comparators, and direct reading measuring machines. Prerequisite: MATH C204 and C205 (CEGEP MATH 105 and 203).

QUAL C201
Advanced Metrology (3 credits)

This course applies the principles presented in Elementary Metrology, and explores the value of these principles through everyday applications to modern technology.

Special consideration is given to the 'Système Internationale' (Modernized Metric System) and its influence on industry (including the use of conversion tables and formulae).

The course treats non-destructive testing techniques and their applications, including (in some depth) radiographic, ultrasonic and nucleonic gauging and measurement. Prerequisite: QUAL C200 & C202.

QUAL C202
Statistical Quality Control (3 credits)

Techniques for establishing, monitoring and maintaining process control of manufactured products. A workshop course with full student participation in solving a variety of practical statistical quality control problems. Discussed are the concept of variation, frequency distributions, functions of a frequency distribution, the various types of control charts including those for attributes and variables data, analysis of patterns, process capability studies and other related topics.

Prerequisites: MATH C204 and C205 (CEGEP MATH 105 and 203).

QUAL C203
Statistical Sampling (6 credits)

Statistical sampling theory and its application to quality control. Also discussed in lecture workshop/sessions are risks for producer and consumer.

Topics include elements of probability theory; the binomial; Poisson, and hyper-geometric distribution; sampling theory; sampling plans, classification of sampling plans — AQL, AOQL and LTPD, types of sampling plans within each classification, such as single, double, multiple, unit sequential, and continuous plans and their associated operating characteristic curves. MIL-STD-105D and MIL-STD-414 are discussed in detail and the Dodge and Romig tables are highlighted.
Prerequisite: QUAL C202.

QUAL C204
Basic Concepts of Reliability (3 credits)

A mixed format of lectures, workshops, problems and discussions designed to familiarize the student with the basic principles of reliability. Building gradually from historical review, definitions and concepts, the course discusses probability theory, Poisson and exponential distributions, reliability equation, MTBF and failure rate concepts, Weibull analysis, mean and median ranks, confidence statements, life characteristic curves, system reliabilities, standby systems, associated problems and other related topics.
Prerequisite: QUAL C202.

QUAL C205
Advanced Reliability (3 credits)

Statistical methods in life testing. Introduction, reliability concepts and definitions, historical review and development. Life characteristic curve, Poisson and exponential distributions, exponential reliability equation, MTBF and failure rate concepts.

Chi square confidence statements and intervals, Weibull analysis, mean and median ranks, associated problems. Probability theory, system reliabilities, standby systems, and other related topics.
Prerequisite: QUAL C202 and C204.

QUAL C206
Quality Management (3 credits)

Emphasis is on general principles of planning and management rather than quality control methodology. The concept of total quality control, from design, development and manufacture to customer use, is developed.

The economics of quality, the planning and implementation of a quality cost programme, organization for quality, procurement quality control, in-process control, motivation for quality, value engineering, system quality audit, customer feedback and product liability are topics treated in detail.
Prerequisites: MATH C204 and C205 (CEGEP MATH 105 and 203).

QUAL C207
Design of Experiments (6 credits)

An introductory course, providing a more systematic approach to experimentation with emphasis on the use of statistical designs for data interpretation and known confidence in the result and overall costs.

The course covers: tests of hypotheses, F, t, and X^2 tests, analysis of variance, goodness of fit tests, use of probability paper, and control chart analysis of exerimental results. Also included are experimental design methods such as: full and fractional factorial designs, regression analysis, multiple and random balance designs, latin square, cube and nested designs, etc.
Prerequisite: QUAL C202.

QUAL C208
Quality Assurance Technology (6 credits)

The basic principles of quality assurance, and its definition as a planned and systematic pattern of actions necessary to provide adequate confidence that a product or service conforms to established requirements. The development of the individual quality system in a modular format to cover the various phases of the industrial and commercial enterprise. Topics include: development of Quality Organizations, systems engineering, closed loop feedback systems, principle of modular systems, what the customer expects versus what he gets, development of quality product, computer software QA, product safety and reliability, vendor-vendee relations, manufacturing, processing and post production servicing.
Note A: See §200.6. Prerequisite: QUAL C202.

QUAL C209
Product Cost Control (3 credits)

This course introduces the student to product cost control and related areas. Topics include introductions to: accounting, procedures, cash flow, budgeting, capital equipment costing and amortization, product costing, cost of quality control systems ('quality costs').
Lectures: 3 hours per week. Prerequisites: MATH C204 and C205 (CEGEP MATH 105 and 203).

QUAL C210
Computer Application of Statistics
(3 credits)

This course is designed to familiarize the student with the application of computers to statistical problems. Computer terminals and batch processing of Fortran programs are used to develop a working knowledge of standard programs for control charts, analysis of experimental design, sampling plans, forecasting and statistical analysis common to many other fields. Students are expected to be familiar with elementary statistics and to be able to program in Fortran.

81.1 Admission Requirements

General admission requirements are listed in §13. For recommendations for admission to specific programmes in the Faculty of Fine Arts please consult a representative of the Faculty of Fine Arts.

81.1.1 TRANSFER STUDENTS

Students who have completed courses in other colleges or universities and wish to apply for advanced standing, are granted credits on the basis of the programme at Concordia University.

Studio Art students must submit a portfolio and/or slides of their work to the Portfolio Committee of the Division of Visual Arts, for placement recommendation. Any student who does not submit this portfolio is required to complete Art C200 as part of the degree requirements. To request exemption for Art C200, the portfolio should contain examples of drawing, painting, two and three dimensional design, sculpture and related media. For advanced standing in any of the studio areas, students should submit examples of work in the specific area in which the exemption is being sought. This must be done prior to registration.

Music students wishing exemption must arrange to write the Music Theory Placement Test and/or audition with the Division of Performing Arts. This must be done prior to registration.

Students seeking a second degree must complete a minimum of 60 credits at Concordia University (see §16.1.5). Students transferring credits towards a first degree must complete a minimum of 45 credits at Concordia (see §16.1.5). These students must complete all programme and degree requirements, as well as the Faculty of Fine Arts residency requirements (see §81.3.2).

81.1.2 PORTFOLIO COMMITTEE

The foundation course for all studio art programmes in the Division of Visual Arts is Art C200. Students wishing to apply for an exemption from Art C200 on the basis of previous studio art work must submit a portfolio containing examples of their art work, including drawing, painting, two- and three-dimensional design, sculpture and related media.

To request advanced standing in any of the studio areas, students should submit, in addition, examples of art work in the specific area in which the exemption is sought.

Portfolios must be submitted at least one week prior to registration or preregistration, to the Portfolio Committee of the Division of Visual Arts Office for placement recommendation.

81.1.3 MUSIC THEORY PLACEMENT TEST

All students with prior music study, except those who have received written notification of exemption for Music C210, must contact the Division of Performing Arts office in order to arrange for a Theory Placement Test. This must be done at least two weeks prior to registration.

81.1.4 MUSIC AUDITIONS

All students wishing to register for Music ensembles, the orchestra, the choir, etc. must contact the Division of Performing Arts office at least two weeks prior to registration to arrange an audition.

81.2 Extended Credit Programme

Students admitted into the Faculty of Fine Arts under conditions described in Sections 13.2 or 13.3 are required to complete 30 credits in addition to the requirements for the 90-credit degree programme.

General Requirements:
6 credits in English or French
24 elective credits selected in consultation with a Faculty adviser*

Upon completion of the extended part of their programme (30 credits), students apply for their specific area of concentration (specialization, major or double minor).

 Students are advised to select their Fine Arts electives from among the courses listed under Section 14.4.4.*

NOTE: Electives listed under Section 14.4.4 and taken as part of the 30 credit Extended Credit programme, may not be counted towards satisfying the student's ultimate choice of concentration.

81.3 Degree Requirements

Students preparing for the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts will take a minimum of 90 credits. Each credit represents, for the average student, a minimum of 45 hours of work spread across lectures, conferences, laboratories, studio or practice-periods, tests, examinations, and personal work.

81.3.1 BFA DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Graduation with the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts requires:

Successful completion of a Specialization, a Major, or a Double Minor programme in Fine Arts.

Students must successfully complete at least 24 of the 90 credits outside their area of concentration. These 24 credits shall be selected according to the following requirements:

a) 6 credits may be within the Faculty of Fine Arts, but must be outside the area of concentration.*

b) 18 credits shall be outside the Faculty of Fine Arts.

 Students enrolled in the Specialization in Art Education or Graphic Design (72 credits each) are permitted to use one of their required courses in Art History (6 credits) to satisfy this requirement. To fulfill this requirement, students whose programmes already contain a large studio component, such as Art Education, Graphic Design, Printmaking, or Studio Art, may not select credits from Studio Art or Art Education except for Art C220, Art C460, Art C461, or Photography C250.*

 Communication Studies courses do not fulfill the BFA degree requirement, which states that 18 credits shall be outside the Faculty of Fine Arts.*

Concentration Requirement

The Concentration Requirement may be satisfied either by a Specialization, a Major, or a Double Minor (2 x 30 credits) programme. The selection is to be made upon entry, prior to registration.

The requirement of selecting a programme upon entry should not be thought of as being necessarily a final commitment. The Fine Arts programme is designed to be flexible enough to allow for changes, subject to limitations where certain programmes are in great demand.

A "Minor" is made up of an approved sequence of 30 credits. The term "Double Minor" states that the student has followed, within the requirements for the BFA degree, a planned programme of study in two specialized fields, with a lower degree of concentration in either than is afforded by a Major Programme.

81.3.2 RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS

To fulfill the residency requirements for a BFA degree with a Specialization or Major in:

1. Art Education, Graphic Design, Printmaking, or Studio Art: at least 30 credits in Studio Art and 6 credits in Art History must be taken at Concordia.

2. Cinema, Film Production, or Film Studies: at least half of the required credits in Cinema must be taken at Concordia.

3. Drama, Drama in Education, Theatre Performance, or Theatre Scenography: at least 30 credits in Theatre Arts must be taken at Concordia.

4. Music, Music Performance Studies, Music Theory/Composition, Selected Music Studies, or Studio Music: at least 30 credits in Music must be taken at Concordia.

5. Minor programmes: at least 15 credits required in the minor must be taken at Concordia.

Ordinarily, these, combined with the other Degree requirements (see §81.3) imply that the full-time student must enroll for a minimum of two years of study at Concordia University.

Students are also subject to the University residency requirements (see §16.1.5).

81.3.3 COURSE LOAD

The normal course load for students enrolled in the Faculty of Fine Arts is 30 credits per year for all full-time students.

i) Students may not register for more than 18 credits in any studio area in any given academic year.

ii) Students may register for a maximum of one course (6 credits) in which films are produced as a course requirement during any given academic year. See §81.8.3 for list of courses. Also, students are limited, during their degree programme, to 18 credits in Film Production or Film Animation courses in which films are produced as a course requirement. See §81.8.3. With special permission, Cinema majors in Option B, Film Animation are permitted to complete a total of 24 credits in these courses, of which 12 credits may be taken in any one year.

iii) Students may register for only 6 credits in Theatre Production (Theatre Arts Section) in any given academic year.

To carry additional credits, a student must submit a request for permission to do so to the Student Request Committee of the Faculty.

81.3.4 BFA HONOURS PROGRAMME REQUIREMENTS

See Academic Regulations §16.2.4.

Prospective Honours Students must apply for entry to the programme after the completion of 30 credits and prior to the commencing of their last 30 credits of the BFA degree.

Applications are made through the honours adviser upon completion of 30 credits.

81.3.6 DIPLOMA IN ART EDUCATION

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers a one-year post-graduate programme leading to the Diploma in Art Education.

This programme is integrated with the Bachelor of Fine Arts (Specialization in Art Education) to provide a continuous pattern of studies preparing art specialists for teaching in elementary and secondary schools.

In order to qualify for admission, students must have completed the Concordia University Bachelor of Fine Arts (Specialization in Art Education) or the equivalent. Graduates of other institutions will be considered if they have had the equivalent of an undergraduate major in studio work and can present an acceptable portfolio. They will be expected to make up the Education and Art Education courses included in the Bachelor of Fine Arts, Specialization in Art Education.

The Diploma Programme is offered in the Day only. Graduates who have been awarded the Diploma in Art Education meet the requirements for a Specialists Certificate in Art, awarded by the Quebec Board of Education.

A detailed description of the Programme may be found in the Graduate Studies Calendar.

81.3.7 DIPLOMA IN ART THERAPY

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers a one year post-graduate programme leading to the Diploma in Art Therapy.

This programme is designed to offer intermediate training for students intending to become qualified art therapists through further graduate study and to provide basic skills in art therapy for members of the helping professions who wish to develop the use of the visual arts in their work.

Normally the programme takes one year of full-time study; however, classes are arranged, as far as possible, to accommodate part-time students, who are expected to complete a minimum of two courses (12 credits) in their first year. The programme includes a practicum requirement.

Admission to the programme depends upon a suitable background of study in art and psychology. Students must have completed the Bachelor of Fine Arts, Major in Art Education at Concordia University or its equivalent.

A detailed description of the programme may be found in the Graduate Calendar.

81.3.8 PROGRAMME ADVISERS

The Faculty of Fine Arts has a Student Programme Office where students may obtain information on Faculty regulations and assistance in planning their programmes in Fine Arts. The advisers have a complete list of faculty members to whom students are referred for detailed information on classes and programmes.

81.4 Inter-Related Arts

Coordinator
K. AUSTIN

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers a programme in Inter-Related Arts for the students wishing to focus their studies on more than two disciplines. Such students are advised to select courses from the list below in consultation with a faculty adviser.

60 BFA Major in Inter-Related Arts*

0-24 Art History Section: Art History elective credits
0-24 Cinema Section: Cinema elective credits chosen from Film Studies C200[6], C211[6], C212[6], C311[3], C312[3], C313[3], C314[3], C315[3], C318[3], C321[6], C322[6], C323[3], C324[3], C326[3], C327[3], C328[3], C329[3], C411[3], C413[3], C414[3], C415[3], C416[3], C417[3], C418[3], C419[3], C422[3], C423[3], C424[3], C425[3], C427[3], Film Animation C312[6], Film Production C231[6]
0-24 Dance Section: Dance elective credits chosen in consultation with the Dance Co-ordinator
0-24. Music Section: Music elective credits chosen in consultation with a programme adviser, Music
0-24 Studio Art Section: Studio Art elective credits

0-24 Theatre Arts (Drama) Section: Theatre Arts elective credits chosen in consultation with a programme adviser, Theatre Arts

 Credits must be taken in a minimum of 3 fields of concentration with a maximum of 24 credits in any field.*

 Art C460 may be substituted for 6 credits in Studio Art or Art History.*

81.5.1 PROGRAMMES

Students are responsible for fulfilling their particular degree requirements; hence, the following sequence must be read in conjunction with §81.3.

The superscript indicates credit value.

72 BFA Specialization in Graphic Design

30 Drawing C200^6, Design C200^6, Graphic Design C260^6, Photography C200^6, Graphic Design C300^6
6 Art C220^6 or 6 credits in Art History elective
6 Art History C240^6 (or, if exempt, an Art History elective)
12 Graphic Design C310^6, C320^6, C330^6, C340^6
6 Graphic Design C410^6, C420^6, C430^6, C440^6
6 Graphic Design elective
6 Studio Art elective

Normally, students applying for the Specialization are admitted into the Major in Graphic Design. Upon completion of their first year (which is common to both programmes), students may apply for transfer by submitting their portfolios. Acceptance is based on the student's performance in the University, especially in the Studio Art courses.

66 BFA Specialization in Printmaking*

12 Art History electives
12 Drawing C200^6, C300^6
12 Printmaking C310^6, C320^6, C330^6
6 Painting C200^6, Photography C200^6, Sculpture C200^6 or studio elective

Option A (Intensive)
12 Printmaking C210^6, C220^6, C230^6
6 Printmaking C410^6, C420^6, C430^6
6 Printmaking C450^6, Art C440^6

Option B (Extensive)
18 Printmaking C210^6, C220^6, C230^6
6 Printmaking C410^6, C420^6, C430^6, C450^6, Art C440^6

 All students select courses from the core of 42 credits.*

Option A permits specialization in two of the three areas of printmaking (intaglio, lithography, or serigraphy).

Option B requires students to follow courses at the 200 level in all three areas of printmaking.

Normally, students applying for entrance to the Specialization are accepted into the Major in Studio Art. It is recommended that full-time students register for 12 credits in Printmaking in their first 30 credits. Upon completion of these credits, students may apply for transfer by submitting their portfolios. Acceptance into the Specialization is based on the student's academic performance at Concordia and especially on the portfolio.

60 BFA Major in Art History and Studio Art

6 Art History C240^6 or, if exempt, an Art History elective
6 Art C434^6 or Studio Art elective
24* Art History electives
24 Studio Art electives

 Art C460 may be substituted for 6 credits in Art History.*

60 BFA Major in Studio Art

6 Art History elective credits
6 Lecture/seminar elective credits in Art or Art History
48 Visual Arts Studio elective credits (6 credits may be taken in studio courses in Art Education, Cinema, Dance, Music, or Theatre Arts, selected in consultation with an adviser from Cinema, Dance, Music, Theatre Arts, or the Director of the Division of Visual Arts)

54 BFA Major in Graphic Design

24 Drawing C200[6] , Design C200[6], Graphic Design C260[6], C300[6]
6 Art C220[6] or Art History elective
6 Art History C240[6] (or, if exempt, an Art History elective)
6 Graphic Design C310[6], C320[6], C330[6], C340[6]
6 Graphic Design C410[6], C420[6], C430[6], C440[6]
6 Studio Art elective or Film Animation C312[6]

30 Minor in Art History and Studio Art

6 Art History C240[6] (or, if exempt, an Art History elective)
6-12 Art History electives
12-18 Studio Art electives

30 Minor in Photography

24 Photography C200[6], C250[6], C300[6], C400[6]
6 Photography C310[6], or Visual Arts elective

81.5.2 COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Art C200 is a prerequisite for all studio courses and is included in the 90 credits required for the BFA degree. Exemption from Art C200 may be granted to students with an extensive background in Studio Art and to those presenting acceptable portfolios to the Faculty Portfolio Committee at least one week before registration. In such cases, Art C200 will be replaced within the 90 credits by an appropriate elective. A portfolio should contain examples of drawing, painting, two- and three-dimensional design, sculpture and related media.

NOTE: Students are required to bear the cost of materials in Studio Art courses.

Art:

ART C200
Studio Art I
An introduction to studio art including drawing, painting, design, sculpture, and related media. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

ART C220
Theories of Design
An examination of outstanding and significant achievements in the field of design. Special emphasis is placed on the development of design as an independent art form in the Twentieth Century. (6 credits)

ART C420
Special Topics in Studio Art
Prerequisite: 18 credits in studio art and written permission of the Director of Visual Arts. A course, for advanced students which provides an opportunity for the study of more specialized areas in studio art. (6 credits)

ART C434
Materials and Methods of the Artist
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Director of Visual Arts. Through a series of special projects, this course familiarizes the student with some of the various materials, techniques, and other aspects of the artist's craft. Since special emphasis is given to historical techniques, this course is particularly recommended to all students in Art History. Lectures and studio periods. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

ART C436
Studio Workshop: Special Studies
Prerequisite: Third-year standing* and written permission of the Director of Visual Arts. This course provides the opportunity for a limited number of students to pursue advanced studies in the studio area. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

 fewer than 36 credits remaining in degree programme*

ART C440
Papermaking: Process and Assemblage
Prerequisite: 24 credits in studio art. The making and use of paper as related to the Visual Arts. The course examines the physical and structural possibilities of paper, as well as impression, assemblage, and surface use. (6 credits)

ART C460
Analysis of Great Works of Art
A course in art principles. Through the formal analysis of selected masterpieces of painting and sculpture, the student is led to a fuller comprehension of the nature of formal order in the arts. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

ART C461
Aesthetic Inquiry in Visual Arts
A course in the application of aesthetic theories to the objects and events of visual arts. Topics include the artistic process as expression, intuition, and imagination. Further consideration is given to the products of painting, sculpture, and graphics, emphasizing various contemporary critical and theoretical stances. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

ART C480
Special Topics in Studio Art
Prerequisite: Art C420 and written permission of the Studio Art Section. A student repeating Art C420 registers under Art C480 for credit. (6 credits)

ART C485
Special Topics in Studio Art
Prerequisite: 18 credits in Studio Art and written permission of the Director of Visual Arts. A course, for advanced students, which provides an opportunity for the study of more specialized areas in studio art. (3 credits)

ART C486
Special Topics in Studio Art
Prerequisite: Art C485 and written permission of the Section. A student repeating Art C485 registers under Art C486 for credit. (3 credits)

Crafts:

CRAFTS C200
Introduction to Crafts
Prerequisite: Art C200, previously or concurrently, or Art C200 exemption. A studio course introducing ceramics, fibres, and metals as used in contemporary crafts. Students explore the structural, functional, and expressive possibilities of these media. Consideration is given to the history of crafts and the relationship of crafts to other art forms. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3
NOTE: Students who receive credit for this course may not take additional 200-level courses in Crafts for credit.

CRAFTS C230
Ceramics I
Prerequisite: Art C200 previously or concurrently or exemption. An introduction to clay as an art medium employing the various techniques of forming, shaping and decorating for firing and glazing. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

CRAFTS C240
Fibre Structures
Prerequisite: Art C200 previously or concurrently or exemption. The use of various processes of fibre construction as art: loom and non-loom weaving, basketry, spinning, dyeing, and primitive fibre techniques. Consideration will be given to the history of the styles, materials, methods and techniques of textiles. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

CRAFTS C260
Printed and Dyed Textile Design
Prerequisite: Art C200 previously or concurrently or Art C200 exemption. Silk screen printing, block printing, batik and resist dyeing as these apply to design for yardage, compositional hangings and soft sculpture. The emphasis is on drawing, 2-dimensional design and creative exploration in mixed printing and dyeing media. (6 credits)

CRAFTS C270
Small Metals I
Prerequisite: Art C200 previously or concurrently or exemption. An introduction to metal as an art medium for the fabrication of small objects and jewellery emphasizing metalsmithing and elementary casting. (6 credits)

CRAFTS C330
Ceramics II
Prerequisite: Crafts C230. An advanced course in technical and historical research in various ceramic processes with an emphasis on glaze technology and the use of different clay bodies. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

CRAFTS C430
Ceramics III
Prerequisite: Crafts C330. The development of a body of personal work and a refinement of specific problems in clay. (6 credits)

CRAFTS C450
Advanced Workshop in Crafts
Prerequisite: 12 credits in Crafts, written permission of the Crafts Coordinator and less than 33 credits remaining in degree programme. This workshop provides the opportunity for a limited number of students to pursue advanced studies in Crafts. (6 credits)

Design:

DESIGN C200
Fundamentals of Design I
Prerequisite: Art C200 previously or concurrently, or Art C200 exemption. A comprehensive introduction to the practical and theoretical study of two- and three-dimensional design: the elements and principles of visual communication, analysis of structure and form, materials and methods of the designer. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

DESIGN C202
Design in the Arts I
Prerequisite: Written permission of the Director of Visual Arts; Major in Dance or second-year standing in a Faculty of Fine Arts programme outside of Studio Art Section. A foundation course in the elements and principles of design for Fine Arts students, with concentrations outside of Studio Art. The focus is on process rather than product creation in this theoretical and practical preparation for design problems in the student's area of concentration. (3 credits)

DESIGN C203
Design in the Arts II
Prerequisite: Design C202. A continuation of Design C202. (3 credits)

DESIGN C300
Design II
Prerequisite: Design C200. Continuation of Design C200. A practical and theoretical course reflecting the comprehensive nature of design. Emphasis is placed on problem identification and resolution, using the resources and inquiry methods of the designer. (6 credits)

Drawing:

DRAWING C200
Drawing I
Prerequisite: Art C200 or Art C200 exemption. An exploration of drawing as a means of expression. Various media are employed to examine and express form, space, figurative, and other graphic images. Drawing from observation, imagination, and memory is included. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

DRAWING C300
Drawing II
Prerequisite: Drawing C200. A drawing course in which various media and forms of expression are explored at the more advanced level. Lectures and studio periods. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

DRAWING C400
Drawing III
Prerequisite: Drawing C300. Continuation of Drawing C300. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

Graphic Design:

GRAPHIC DESIGN C260
Graphic Design I
Prerequisite: Enrolment in the Graphic Design Major or Specialization. The tools and techniques of graphic communication with special emphasis on typography. A context for these studies is provided by an inquiry into the cultural and communicative roles of the graphic designer. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

GRAPHIC DESIGN C300
Graphic Design II
Prerequisite: Graphic Design C260. A continuation of Graphic Design C260. The graphic combination of text and illustration is emphasized in various formats. Portfolio development is required. (6 credits) NOTE A/See §200.3

GRAPHIC DESIGN C310
Illustration I
Prerequisite: Design C200, Drawing C200 and Graphic Design C260. Exploration of the ideas, techniques, and materials of the illustrator. The course focuses upon both personal development in drawing and technical facility. Students are required to develop their portfolios in illustration. (6 credits)

GRAPHIC DESIGN C320
Display Graphics I
Prerequisite: Design C200, Drawing C200 and Graphic Design C260. The dynamics of spatial organization as applied to graphic communication. 81.11.2 CERTIFICATE IN CREATIVE DRAMA AND THEATRE ARTS

The Performing Arts Division offers a Certificate in Creative Drama and Theatre Arts (with Elementary and Secondary options) for the professional development of teachers. The programmes are designed in accordance with the guidelines of the Quebec Ministry of Education. The courses concern both practice and theory and are conducted as workshops and seminars. By recognizing the general educational utility of creative drama and, where appropriate, its many applications to the study of theatre arts, the overall programme integrates the study of these two fields. Pattern B (Elementary) concentrates more on creative drama than does Pattern A (Secondary) in which the focus is shifted somewhat towards Theatre Arts.

Admission Requirements

Entry into the programme requires the candidate to be legally qualified to teach or be engaged in teaching.

In some cases, where teachers have completed studies similar to those of this programme, the Faculty of Fine Arts may also allow pro tanto credits up to a maximum of 12. These courses must not have been applied to a previous degree or certificate.

200.7 Credit for Courses with Similar Content

The following courses offered by departments in the Faculties of Arts and Science, Engineering and Commerce have elements in common. Students intending to register for courses with statistics contents should carefully consult the regulations given below governing credits for these courses.

1. No more than 3 credits will be awarded for courses listed in Group A Group A

BIOL C222[3], HEAL C211[3],
ECON C221[3], GEOG C362[3],
QUAN C243[3], MATH C207[3],
EMAT C271[3]

Students in B.Eng. programmes or the Digital Systems Option of the B.Comp.Sc. must take EMAT C271[3]

2. No more than 3 credits will be awarded for courses listed in Group B

Group B

BIOL C223[3], HEAL C215[3],
ECON C222[3], GEOG C363[3],
QUAN C244[3]

3. Students who have received credit for MATH C241[6] will not receive credit for courses in Group A or Group B, nor may they concurrently register for courses in either Group A or B and MATH C241[6].

4. A maximum of 6 credits may be obtained from SOCI C210[6], PSYC C317[6] and the courses listed in Groups A and B.

5. Students in the 'regular' 90-credit degree programme will not receive credits for both MATH C207[3] and PSYC C315[3]. Students in extended credit programmes and Mature Entrants may take for credit both MATH C207[3] and PSYC C315[3], provided they take the courses in that order. Students who have received credit for PSYC C315[3] and C316[3] and who intend to register for MATH C241[6] must first consult with the Psychology Department Undergraduate Programme Adviser.

Graduate Programmes: Concordia

The following graduate programmes are offered at Concordia University. Major options within a programme are also listed. In most cases, courses are given in the late afternoon and evening, or in the evening only, making it possible for both full-time and part-time students to attend. Please contact the graduate programme director at the number indicated for further information.
